FAMILY LINES WILL LIKELY BE AIRED

A SENSATION EXPECTED IN VANCOUVER WHICH MAY INVOLVE SEVERAL WELL KNOWN PERSONS IN UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCES—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST.

(Journal Special Service.)
Vancouver, Wash., Jan. 29.—A sensational case may develop within a few days when the names of the parties will then be given, especially if the facts that are now causing certain family disagreements come to the courts, as it seems likely to do.

In case it is divorce proceedings, the custody of the children will be the great subject of contention, and there is no doubt but that much family linen will be aired. Should this be so, the issues will not rest only with the parties of one household, but there is a lively chance of implicating some of the best known families of Vancouver in a light that is not altogether agreeable.

At the present time the parties most intimately concerned are endeavoring to patch up matters in such shape that good feeling will in the future exist. But the whole matter depends on the little word "if," and that "if" seems to be growing to larger proportions.

Drydock Employees Laid Off.
The remaining working crews on the drydock have been laid off Monday afternoon of next week. It is said that the remaining pontoons of the dock will be launched in the near future. When this is done things will be exceedingly quiet in Vancouver, as the Columbia river company's plant is at a standstill and work on the drydock will cease as far as this town is concerned.

WILL IMPROVE HILLSBORO.
(Journal Special Service.)
Hillsboro, Or., Jan. 29.—Messrs. A. S. Sholes and C. S. Russell, late of Michigan, have become interested in Hillsboro business life and will use their wealth for personal gain and public benefits. Yesterday they closed negotiations for the purchase of a bank front on Main street and will at once prepare to build a brick structure to be occupied as a bank of deposit and discount by themselves. The whole 50 feet may be built over and probably will.

THEY ACTUALLY DO THE WORK
Food Eaten is Worthless Unless Digested—Some Stomachs Must Have Help.

Food taken into the stomach which, from the nature of the food or the condition of the stomach, is not digested, is worse than no food at all. This is a true statement as far as it goes and a great many dyspeptics go only this far with their reasoning. They argue with themselves that because their stomachs do not do the work given them, they must give it less work; in other words, they must be starved. It would be just as sensible for a business man who is unable to do all his own work to cut down his business to his own capacity as it is for a man to starve himself to relieve his stomach. The sensible business man employs help and goes forward with his business. Likewise the sensible dyspeptic will employ help for his stomach and give his body proper nourishment.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets actually do the work assigned to them. They relieve weak and overburdened stomachs of a great portion of digestive action. Their component parts are identical with those of the digestive system in what is eaten and carry out Nature's plans for the sustenance and maintenance of the body.

How much more sensible is this method than that employed by many sufferers from weak stomachs. By this means the body and brain get the good, nutritious food they need and the man is properly nourished and equipped to carry on his work and perform his duties. He could not possibly be in proper working condition by starving himself or eating some new fangled, insufficient food that does not contain enough nutriment for a year old baby. A strong man doing strong work must be properly fed and this applies to the brain as well as the body.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, by relieving the stomach of its work, enable it to recuperate and regain its normal health and strength. Nature repairs the worn and wasted tissues just as she heals and knits the bone of a broken limb, which is of course not used during the process of repair.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box and they are the one article that the druggist does not try to sell something in place of that. "Just as good." Their unequalled merit and success and the universal demand for them, has placed them within the reach of every one.
