Levy & Spiegl—Everything moving off nicely; new supply of California vegetables will arrive in time for opening of the market on Monday; fine shipment of fancy hot house mushrooms from California came in late yesterday afternoon.

G. S. Smith company—Potatoes and apples are in good demand. A. Malarkey & Co.—Salmon of all kinds very scarce; no changes in market prices.

W. S. Swank—There are now about 10,000 sacks of potatoes awaiting shipment on the next California steamer; not being any myself just as we are I am overstocked; plenty coming, however.

L. Jagger—Potato and onion markets still steady.

Everding & Farrell—Eggs are now going to Seattle and market here is steady; no change in butter situation; poultry in light receipt with fair demand; more dresser turkeys in market; demand not so lively.

Smith Bros.—Prices for hogs and veal have held for the top all week; poultry cleaned up at good figures; beef and mutton market simply demoralized on account of large receipts; big drop in all livestock and the small demand for dressed meats is having a bad effect on business.
