

The Lenten season is fast approaching and as it comes the galety increases Affairs are so crowded together that the debutante scarcely knows which way to turn. There are dancing parties, din-ners, card parties and luncheons of every description.

The bridge whist craze has reached here, and as the season advances, the popularity of this game increases. Many of the hostesses have given charming parties of this nature. Preparations are already beginning for the spring weddings. Many popular and charming brides will be led to the altar during this season. There will several weddings of importance during the next few weeks. These brides elect are the guests of honor at all sorts of entertainments and are the busiest people imaginable.

season many debutantes have made their appearance and all have carried the affairs given in their to brilliant conclusions.

All of the events of the past week have been highly successful. Dancing parties seem to have predominated. The New Century club entertained Wednesday evening. Mrs. Larowe and the Algonquins Thursday evening and last evening was the brilliant officers' hop and senior "prom." at the Hill Military academy.

VENTS OF THE WEEK

gave a musicale at their home in Van-occasion, Mrs. Wren, Mrs. Goe and Mrs. Cullem are exquisite performers on march. the plane. Major Goe and Mrs. Funston handle the violin bow with wonderful meszo-soprano voice.

The program follows: Davis; plano solo, Mrs. Wren; violin solo, Mrs. Funston; vocal solo, Mrs. Davis; piano solo, Mrs. Cullem.

After the program supper was served. thies, ... The table was beautifully decorated with rikson. Oregon grape. The guests were: Major and Mrs. Goe, Major and Mrs. G. B. Davis, Captain and Mrs. Wren. Major and Dr. Brune Ffoulkes.

The Centennial Girls entertained Tuesday evening at Parsons' hall. The half was prettily decorated with Oregon grape, Japanese and Russian cedar and pussy willows. The stage was banded with palms, behind which Parsons' orand Marguerite Stochr.

A meeting of the Round Dozen Whist club was held Monday evening, Febru-ary I, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Dooley, 715 Hoyt street. The prizes refreshments were served. The club will meet again February 15 with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Duniway, 470 Hall

Mrs. Funston gave a ping-pong party Saturday evening, January 30 at home in Vancouver barracks. After the game a duck supper was served. Mrs. Cullem of San Francisco, Mrs. Funaton's sister, was the guest of

Mrs. Davis of Vancouver barracks entertained Saturday, January 30, in honor of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Ayers of this city. The guests played golf and bridge whist in the afternoon. In the evening an informal dinner was

A charming tea was given on board ie British ship Red Rock, Tuesday afternoon, February 2, by the chaplain were arranged under the canvas. Tem-porary deal tables and settees were also constructed. Here the ladies dispensed tea and cake at the rate of 10 cents each. There was also an admission fee of 10 cents. About 100 ladies called, and the sum of about $40 was realized, which goes to the institute. combined crews gave a drill during which the topsall was bent, and after-

Captain Pritchard of the Glenesslin. Mrs. W. T. Muir. Miss Mary Muir, Mrs. E. T. Simpson, Mrs. K. K. Baxter, Mrs. Charles Blakeley, Miss Nellie Blakeley, Mrs. F. C. Crook, Mrs. W. G. Wil-liams, Mrs. A. C. Davis, Miss Florence Davis, Mrs. M. Mitchell, Mrs. F. D. Swinton, Walter F. White, Mrs. Henry Heggle, Miss Harriet Hassler, Miss Maud Heggle, Miss Eva Brooke, Mrs. Alexander Birrell, Mrs. H. K. McArthur. Mrs. A. K. Payne, Mrs. Ernest Bross, Bross, Miss Inez Barrett, Mrs. S. B. Linthicum, Miss Eva Brooke, Miss Harwas, Mrs. R. Leavy, Mrs. W. T. Ely, Mrs. B. C. Ely, Mrs. W. E. Bliss, Miss Alice Jones, Miss Beatrice A. Miss Alice Jones, Miss Beatrice A. Kirkpatrick, Miss Patience McMahon, Miss Molly McMahon, Mrs. A. J. Paul, Mrs. A. S. Foster, Mrs. George W. Weld-ler, Mrs. S. E. Kratz, Miss C. S. Sherlock, Miss May Kretman, Mrs. T. Kretman, Miss Kathleen Boyd, Mrs. M. A. Thomas, Miss Dorothy Bliss, Mrs. Wallis Nash, Miss Dorothy Nash, Mrs. H. E. Brooke, Mrs. R. P. Earhart, Mrs. John Gill, Mrs. Otto Dekum, Mrs. W. A. Holt, Mrs. George H. Hill, Miss Mary K. J.am-berson, Miss Newman, Mrs. W. T. Ster-ling, Mrs. A. Hoben, Miss Josie Hoben, St. Martin, Miss Blanche St. Mar tin, Mrs. J. H. Munk, Mrs. C. L. Wilson, Rev. H. D. Chambers, Frederick H. Hopkins, Mrs. Inglefield, Miss May Ingle field, Mrs. Kate E. Supple, Miss May Gevurtz, Mrs. F. H. Andrews, Mrs. E. Statler, Mrs. E. J. Tarbox, Miss Elsie Leaman, Miss Winifred McElroy, Miss Anna Willing, Mrs. C. D. Williams.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Soami Ram society was held Wednesday evening, February 3, at the residence of Judge and Mrs. Seneca Smith 434 Hall street. Mr. Galvani gave a very able address on the "Caste Sys-tem of the Hindoo." Mrs. R. P. Bushnow favored the company with a well executed instrumental solo. Mrs. Goddard gave a pleasing recitation, and Mr. Godfrey sang, accompanied by Miss Lewton. The next meeting of the so-ciety will be held Wednesday evening, February 17, at the home of Judge Smith.

The annual election of the Officers club of Vancouver barracks was held Saturday evening. The following officers were chosen: President, Major Evans; vice-president, Captain Wren; secretary and treasurer, Captain Burkhart. After the business meeting a social time was enjoyed and supper was

Mrs. G. Grant's dancing class entertained a number of guests Tuesday evening in the Academy of Music hall. Many fancy dances were enjoyed. A bowl of lemonade added to the enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Keaton gave an informal party at their new house at Midway, Thursday evening, February 3. A very pleasant social evening was The guests were: The Misses Oka Price, Blanche Robeson, Emma Hubbard, Mamie Henton, Charlotte Fouks, Lottle Leach, Emma Horn, E. Dewey, Agnes Denneen, Mattie Windeler, Alice Pfaff, Minnie Harvey, Grace Roff, and Lulu Pearl; and Messrs. Charles Atwood, A. B. Starbuck, William Den-boer, Edward Huffard, Max Balley, W. G. Hufford, Dr. A. F. Poley, E. Mac-Neal, Conrad Wintersteine, F. Foulkes, Fred Parsons, H. A. Georgens and Harry

A pleasant birthday party was given Thursday evening in honor of Mr. M. couver barracks Saturday evening, Jan- Hendrikson at his home on East Couch usry 30. Mrs. Cullem from San Fran-cisco, Mrs. Funston's sister, was the guest of honor. There is a great amount of talent music. The graphophone music was also among the officers and ladies of the post and it was admirably displayed on this played for the march to supper. The ladies chose their partners for this march. An elaborate dinner was served. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Ludwig, Mr. and Mrs. Schmurr, skill, and Mrs. G. B. Davis has a rare Mr. and Mrs. Lundgreen, Mr. and Mrs. meszo-soprano voice. Wirenius; the Misses Elia Jones, L. Brooks, I. Schmurr, Meimi, S. Niska, Sophia Snomela, A. Morrison, Emma Violin duo, Mrs. Funston and Major Sophia Snomela, A. Morrison, Emma Goe; piano solo, Mrs. Cullem; vocal solo, Anderson and Mrs. J. O. Berg; and Messrs. William Schmurr, Elmod E. Walburg, G. A. Wicklander, C. Matheis, John Aren, Emil Hedman, F. M. Matthies, J. O. Harrison and Eno Hen-

Thursday evening a very pleasant survis, Captain and Mrs. Wren, Major prise party was tendered John Douglas E. Evans, Miss Bunell, Mrs. Cullem at his home, 28 North Twentieth street. During the evening delightful music was rendered by a popular string quartet, and dancing and games were enjoyed. At a late hour dainty re-freshments were served, and the merry throng dispersed amid the strains of "Home Sweet Home." Those present were: Misses Limerick, Sawyer, Mathchestra played for the dancing. There were 19 dances. Punch was served in the antereom. There were about 120 Reynolds, Morgan, Rice and Warde, and couples present. The next party will Messrs. Dresser, Ross, Holden, Reid, take place March 1. The members of Taylor, Hewitt, Houston, J. H. Johnthe club are: Hattle Grussi, Myrtle ston, Ray Johnston, Arthur Struble Long, Grace Baldwin, Gertrude Weltzer Sylvester Douglas Frank Fox, Miller and Warde.

Major and Mrs. Dayls gave an elaborate dinner Wednesday evening at their home in Vancouver barracks, in honor of Mrs. Cullom of San Francisco, were awarded to Dr. Fenton and Mrs. who is Mrs. Funston's guest. Smilax Gilbert. After the prizes were given and carnations formed pleasing decorations. After dinner the hours were delightfully spent listening to music furnished by the ladies. The guests were: General and Mrs. Funston, Mrs. Cullom, Maj. R. K. Evans and Dr. Bruce

Miss Etta Stuart gave luncheon Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Blanche Robinson, one of the brides of the month. The decorations were very elaborate. In the center of the table very was a huge basket of red carnations. Streamers of satin ribbons were fastened to the basket and extended to the place of the guest of honor. The guests were: Mrs. Walter B. Honeyman, Mrs. E. DeWitt Connell, Mrs. Belle Dalton, Miss Hahn, Miss Reed, Miss Shea, Miss Dunne and Miss McCollom.

The Hlawatha Whist Club was delightfully entertained on Thursday, February 4, by Mrs. Mathlott at her home. and ladies of the Seamen's institute. 407 East Ninth street. The prizes at The deck of the ship was covered by an awning and wind screens of canvas and Mrs. Zeller. A dainty lunch was

The crew of the Red nock and the day afternoon in the Selling-Hirsch Cannon. apprentices of the Glenesslin assisted building. After the discussion about the ladies in every way possible. The the new home the reports of the various committees were read and accepted.
All showed the work of the society to light of the guests. Everything passed off pleasantly, and all went away feeling that they had spent their time and their about her travels. In conclusion she about her travels. In conclusion she said: "I desire to say that after viscous of the large cities of Euiting most of the large cities of Euner of living, etc., taking into consideration everything that tends to material and spiritual advancement, every Jewish mother in this land can clasp her new-born son to her breast and offer up thanks to God that he is born in free America, the greatest country sun ever shone on, where under the tection of our glorious stars and stripes we may worship God as our conscience dictates, without molestation. We ma pursue our vocations undisturbed with the assurance that whatever measure of success our honest endeavors bring to us we can enjoy them to the full. Freedom in the most liberal form is ours. Every avenue in art, music, literature, science and in commercial pursuits is open to us. Once more I say, thank God, we live in America. 'the land of the free and the home of the brave."

The following was the program rendered at the Seamen's Institute Wednesday evening. Every performer was obliged to respond to an encore, and the

Piano duet .....Miss Stillwell and Miss Ingletteld Where the Silv'ry Colorado Wends Its

Way." ...... S. B. Morfee Vocal solo ... Dance-"Sailor's Hornpipe" Master King Vocal solo-"Sailing" .. Angus Paterson Encore-"Loch Lomond". Reading-(a) "Why I Left My Last

Place"; (b) "The Rejected Young Man" ...... Miss L. Hageman Vocal solo—"Dear Heart, I Love Thee"; "Anchored".... Miss Harwass Violin solo-Selected ... Mrs. L. S. Dane Vocal solo-(a) "The Mighty Deep"; (b) "True Till Death" . . Captain Porter Reading-(a) "Ireland, the Top of the Morning to Thee"; (b) "Baby Show Dance—"Highland Fling"

Vocal solo-"The Gee-Gee Horse" solo—(a) "When the Swallows Homeward Fly"; (b) "Austrian Hymn".....Otto Parkovay Song—"God Save the King" and "America" .....Audience

Miss Marie Smith entertained informally Wednesday evening, February 3, at her home, 507 Starr street. guests were: Misses Sophia and Nettie Jenson, Genevieve Barnes, Mabel and Ethel Eliot, Mary Wiseman and Laura Mrs. J. McCraken, Frank Relly, Beasley, Jones, Messrs. George Hill, George and John Stearns, Claude Pinkston and Fred Mrs. Fletcher, Dr. Panton and wife, Mr Steiner.

The New Century club gave another of its pleasant parties Wednesday even-ing, February 3, at Parsons' hall. Parsons' orchestra played for the dancing, which was enjoyed by a large number of the club members and their friends.

E. A. Keithley of San Francisco celebrated the anniversary of his birthday Wednesday by giving a dinner at the Commercial club. The guests were: M. L. Cline, W. M. Capus and L. B.

The Fortnight club was entertained by Miss Ida Irvine February 2, at her home, 694 Front street. The following program was enjoyed: A review of the "Call of the Wild," Miss Alice Collier; "The Czar and His Family," Miss Vesta Broughten; "The Civil Government of Russia," Raymond Steel; "Class Dis-tinction and Social Life in Russia," Miss Gertrude Hutchinson. Miss Marie La Barre's reading from James Whitcomb Riley was so highly appreciated that she finally responded to an encore. The discussion of Russia will be continued at the next meeting, which will be held at the home of the Misses Broughten, 451 Tenth street, February 16.

Willamette council 1938, Royal Arcanum, gave a stag party Thursday evening. February 4, at Auditorium hall. The invitations were notably unique affairs and much credit belongs to those who designed them. A splendid vaude-

Warner Publishing company, The ger- ing. man was danced and was enjoyed by everyone taking part. There were about 70 couples present. Light refreshments Schacht, Harry Mix. Stuart Harder, home in North Albina Sunday evening. Drake, Hard Bates, Lewis Dart, Stocton January 31. During the evening games Mulford, Henry Feldman, William Saunof all kinds were played, dancing and ders, Asher Houston, Poorman, Elmer singing were indulged in. the music being furnished by Miss Katherine Chambers, Miss May McCarthy on the J. Durham. Paul J. Vial, R. E. Mason, Chambers, Miss May McCarthy on the piano, and Mr. Peter Moore on the violin. The dining room was very prettily decorated for the occasion, where dainty refreshments were served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Deery, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McMahon, Mrs. William Chambers, Mrs. McMahon, Mrs. William Chambers, Mrs. Mrs. Clyde Aitchinson, W. C. Keim, McMahon, Mrs. Mamie Chambers, Mrs. Raiph Hahn, Leo Hahn, Seth Catlin, O'Farrell, Mrs. Mamie Chambers, Mrs. Mrs. McMarthy, Misses E. Wiser, B. Joce, K. Farrell, M. Chambers, E. Casey, A. Holland, K. Chambers, May McCarthy, Jesse Martin, E. Jenkins, James White which hung huge skins with Indian heads painted on them. Tiny flags of different colors, each bearing one of the letters of the word "Algonquin" hung on the wall. The steps in front of the stage were covered with Indian blankets. The stage was banked with palms. The programs were well designed: On the front an Indian flower was painted and on the back was the picture of an Indian chief. The program consisted of the waltzes and two-steps. Some especial services and two-steps. 16 waltzes and two-steps. Some especially pleasing numbers were: "Ramona," "Adlyn," "Uncle Sammy," "The Gondo-liers" and "Prince of Pilsen." Much of the success of the party was due to the Leiter, George Brigham, Edward King, hard work of the committee, which was Rich Jones, Harvey B. Densmore, George made up of the following: Harry Lan-Brown, Dr. R. N. Coffman, Everett Starr, made up of the following: Harry Lan-caster, Walter Gadsby, Edward De Keater, Byron Holt, Roy Kennedy and Will Davis. The date of the next party is as yet undecided.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Davis, llying near Mt. Tabor, celebrated their twentyfifth anniversary Saturday, January 30. The rooms were prettily decorated with Oregon grape. There was a large num-ber of guests, including 10 children of Mr. and Mrs. Davis. Two are dead. Refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed.

The officers' hop and senior promenade given last night at the Hill Military academy was one of the most brilliant social functions that has ever been held at that popular institution. The large armory was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and over 600 guests were present. The decorations consisted of a splendid outlay of United States flags entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed, and imperial and royal emblems of every nation, and most republics. The effect was striking and few prettier sights orchestra furnished the music and every selection was preluded with a suitable bugie call by the bugiers of the academy Supper was served in the main dining room. The chandeliers were decorated with Ivy and the red shades cast a pleasing glow over the scene. The grand march started at 8:45, after which the guests danced until past the midnight hour. The following guests

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robbins, H. E. Noble, Fred Raymond, Edward I Thompson, Charles R. Templeton, Sr William H. Boot, Dan J. Moore, Henry C Barr, L. S. Doble, James Gleason, Mrs. M. M. Bunnel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woolsey, Earl McFarland, Rev. A. Alex. Mor rison and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hodson, R. L. Durham, Milton W. Smith, Herbert E. Judge, Louis Gerlinger, Jr., Von Ethinger, Maj. F. S. Baker and wife. Capt. Lawrence C. Knapp and wife, Col. C. U. Gantenbein and wife, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Stevens, Alan Ells worth, R. M. Hall, Mrs. V. Bolton, Mr and Mrs. S. R. Johnson, Charles Dierke Herbert Hoyt, Fletcher Linn, Lydell Baker, C. J. Owen of the Telegram. and Mrs. John F. Barrett, Walter Holt, Hamilton E. Brooke, Mark W. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Honeyman, Col. John McCraken and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Watson, H. C. Wortman, Blair T. Scott, Dr. J. Allan Gilbert and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Reams, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Mays and Mrs. George H. Hill, Benjamin hen, Edward Falling, Brigham, Sam Louders, Miss Von Bolton, Miss Nichol-son, Mr. and Mrs. Newton W. Rountree, Mrs. Mitchell, Dr. Otto S. Binswanger and wife.

The Misses Edna Cannon, Laurs Dunne, Eva Hopkins, Julia Dennis, Up ton, Nina Guthrie, Maye Scott, Ruby Scott, Cora Sloat, Maleta Ward, Edna May, Helen Bell, T. Swann, Kata Jenning, Louise Vaughn, May Nichols, Pan nie Potter, Myrtle Hunt, Hazel June Sterling Dillinger, Oliver, Bessie Carpenter, Lucy Nicolai, Mohler, Bess Proebstei, Mable Nissier, Wiletta Leezer, Josephine Smith, Lila Johnston, Genevieve Mays, Louise Cary, Edna Massick, Georgie Fitch, Rena Kuhn, Sarah Winans, Elsie Garrett, Stella May Brown, Madge Robinson, Harder Lila Barnes, Gladys Barnes, Elsie Maish, Agnes Hill, Battison, Hurlburt, Houston, Inex Evans, Ella McCoy, Mamie Steph-ens, Glen Barton, Mable Gray, Louise Hagner, Thes Stackpole, Lillian Wight-mann, Blanche Delury, Hazel Tischner, Mildred Meyers, Ruth Woolsey, Helen Leighter, De Etta Brodle, Marion Brodle, Edna Binswanger, Helen Woolsey, Louise Woolsey, Mina Guthrie, Irene Flynn, Elsie Bartholomew, Cluff, Lewis, nifred Lewis, Marge Morris, Lucile, Palmer, Bessie De Bevoise, Adwa Da Bevoise, Martha De Bevoise, Kate Wolsey, Isabel Wymann, Mabel Devers, Ethelweyn Harris, Lillian Loller, May who designed them. A splendid vaude-Batchelor, Margaret O'Conner, Unna ville program was furnished during the Week, Alberta Campbell, Maude Hahn, ville program was furnished during the entire evening under the direction of Professor Newman of Newman's Theatrical Agency. Little Bonita delighted the guests with her excellent dancing and singing. A native Filipino sang and danced. "Banjo Bill" was in his best humor and gave selection after selection of coon songs and other popular testing. The selection of coon songs and other popular testing and the popula his best humor and gave selection after selection of coon songs and other popular music. Many of the guests played cards, 40 tables being provided for the purpose. Light refreshments were served. Willamette council is planning to give a number of other social evenings in the way of dances, stag parties McIntosh, Leonide Fleury, Marge Boot, and articles and articles and articles and articles. and entertainments this season. A so-cial and entertainment will be given in the near future by the talent of the Helen Lytle, Marie Smith, Pansy Swetthe near future by the talent of the lodge.

**

Mrs. Nina Larowe gave a pretty informal dancing party at Larowe hall, Twenty-third and Kearney streets, Thursday evening. An excellent program of dance music was furnished by Everest's orchestra. Some of the catchiest pieces wore: "Under the Rose," "Sugar Plums," "The Storks," "Laughing Water." "Under Southern Skies," "Prince of Pilsen," "Frincess Pocahontas" and "The Gondollers," The latter is a very new and especially catching two-step from the Whitney-Warner Publishing company. The gar-

The Messrs, Fink, Russell Smith, were served.

A very pleasant farewell party was tendered Miss Nellie Muldoon at her ton, Harlow More, Harry Barr, Edward Drake, Hard Bates, Lewis Dart, Stocton M. Gadsby, David Honeyman, Harry S. McCracken, Leighton N. Wisdom, W. The Algonquin club gave a dancing M. Frazer, Robert Ramsdell, Stuart party Thursday evening at Parsons' Demming. Oliver Jeffery, Edward hall. The hall was elaborately decorwards set, then clewed up, furied, upbent and set down. While the drill was being given a number of chants peculiar to seamen were sung, to the decore was "Embers." Miss Bertha Maywere twined with evergreens, from Gooddeli, Alfred Kenny, Milton Frohman, Logan Tucker, Earl Dedrick, Frank Ben Gadeby, Stanley Kirkland, Alfred Kinney, C. A. Bell, Dave Jordan, Jul Koshland, Max Levison, William Wil-son, Lester Eaton, E. A. Leiter, O. C. William Holbrook, George Eastman, Joseph McQueen, Lieut. T. M. Graham, Lieut. H. A. Hegeman, Lieut. T. S. Secil, Lieut. C. U. Leonori, Lieut. L. J. Mygatt, Lieut. R. C. Taylor, Lieut. C. W. Tillotson, Lieut. Richard Wetherill, Lieut. C. N. Allen, Lieut. W. K. Wilson, Lieut. R. H. Fenner, Maj. R. G. Ebert, Colonel Tucker, U. S. A.

HURCH ENTERTAINMENTS

The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian church held its first meeting for the year 1904. Wednesday afternoon in the chapel of the church. The topic for afternoon was "James Martineau." great English and religious philosopher, Mrs. H. H. Smith gave the story of his life and Dr. George Croswell Cressey spoke of his thought and philosophy.

The Senior Christian Endeavor society of the Grand Avenue United Presbyterian church held its monthly business meeting and social Monday evening. The two rooms in the tower of the church par-being furnished for use as church par-being furnished for use as church par-lors. After the busines meeting the McKinnon of Astoria were united in McKinnon of Astoria were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. reshments were then served by the social committee and a social time was

The Ladies' Aid society of the Grand Avenue Presbyterian church held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the church parlors.

Mrs. J. R. McGlade was the guest of honor at a farewell reception given last Tuesday evening by the members of Mizpah church in the church parlors. Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. J. M. C. Miller, Miss Ivy Scott, Mrs. Webb and Mr. Williams. Miss Maldon Kelley gave several readings. Mrs. Penumbra Kelley in a few well-chosen words preas an expression of good will and appreciation of the people of the church. The presentation was followed by refreshments and a social time. Mrs. Mc-Glade will leave in a few days for Los Angeles, in the hope that a cf climate may restore her health.

INGAGEMENTS

Miss Ethel May Ellot and Carl Burton Webb of Goldendale, Wash., will be married Wednesday, February 17, at the Central Methodist church in this city.

* * Miss Blanche Robinson and Lewis Gerlinger, Jr., will be married Wednesday February 17, at the St. Mark's Episcopal church in this city.

The wedding of Miss Evelyn Steele and Harry Mason Walthew will take place the ceremony there was a reception to February 17. Miss Alice Andrews will be relatives and immediate friends. Mr. maid of honor and Mr. Rothwell will be best man.

Miss Lila Sutherland and Paul Bad- and Miss Isabelle Brown were married dollet will be married Wednesday, Feb- Thursday evening at Woodlawn. The Frohman, Gladys Ross, Eva Jenkins, ruary 17, at the home of the bride's bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. "Eliland" -Song Cycle, first part ... parents in this city. Miss Sutherland Brown, residents at Peninsula. and is formerly resided in Astoria, where she is well known in social circles. The newly Myra Pounstone, May Koshland, Ruth well known in society. Mr. Baddollett married coup Smith, Paton, Etta Stuart, Beatrice Hill, is a member of one of the ploneer familison street. lies of Astoria, and is well known there.

The engagement is announced of Lieut, Gilbert Alien of Vancouver barracks and Miss Kent of San Francisco. The wedding will take place in April. The engagement of Miss Marian Cohen, daughter of Mrs. R. N. Cohen, to Samuel a few Marguiles is announced.

A/EDDINGS

King were married at noon Sunday, Jan-uary 31, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. King in Ashland, Rev. G. W. More performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and immediate friends. After the cere-mony a wadding dinner was served. The young couple left Monday for their future home in Tillam

John Fred Rhodes and Addie Christianson, both of Liberal, Or., were quietly married Sunday, January 31, at 3 p. m., at the manse of the Caivary President Christian Ch byterian church. Rev. William S. Gil-bert officiated. After spending several days in and about Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes returned to Liberal, Or.

W. F. Graves and Miss Marguerite Evans were quietly married last week in Washington. Mr. Graves is the well Washington. known music dealer. The couple are living at the Hobart-Curtis in this city.

Gen. William E. Lee and Miss Cather ine McGlone were married Monday February 1, at the Church of Our Lady of Good Help in Seattle. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The bride was exquisitely gowned in white and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Mr. Lee is well known in this city as a junior partner in the firm of Lee & Manning. Mr. and Mrs. Lee are at home at 213 Grand avenue North, this city.

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Arthur L. Crockett of this city and Maud Rev. William S. Gilbert, pastor of Cal-vary Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony. The groom was attended by Joseph Girard and the bride by Miss Beatrice McKinnon. The bride wore. becoming traveling suit of gray. A luncheon was served after the service, to which about 15 guests were invited. The house was beautifully decorated with smilax, Oregon grape, ferns and white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Crockett are living at 224% Grant street.

William F. Hersinger and Bessie D. Castro were quietly married Sunday, January 31, at 2 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, 28 Grand avenue. Rev. William & Gilbert officiated. Only a few intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Herzinger will live at 328 Main street.

H. E. McGee and Miss Florence Cham preux were quietly married at 10:30 Monday at St. Mary's cathedral. Father Kennedy read the service. Mr. and Mrs. McGee will reside in this city, where the groom is employed by R. G. Dun. A. D. LeRoy and Miss Ona Markley both of Cottage Grove, Or., were quietly married Saturday evening, January 30, in the parlors of the Imperial hotel. ceremony took place in the dining room. Mr. LeRoy is interested in the LeRoy mine and other holdings in the Bohemia district. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy will live in Cottage Grove after April 1 Miss Anna Francois and J. J. Winter were married in Seattle Tuesday, January 12. Miss Celinda F. Francois was bridesmaid and Alfred J. Francois was groomsman. The bride was gowned in blue silk and carried bride's roses. After and Mrs. Winter are living in Portland.

Deputy City Auditor Siegel Groutze married couple are at home at 557 Mad-

A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday evening. February 3, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Lavenson, 488 Salmon street, when Miss Ruby Goldman became the bride of Dr. Marcus Fried. Dr. Levipe tied the nup-tial knot in the presence of relatives and "Caprice Espagnole"......Maszkowsky few immediate friends.

The bride was beautifully gowned in Additional Society Notes on Page 18

white net over white silk. She wose well with a handsome spray of orange blossoms. He will was held in place by a diamond how-knot, the gift of the groom. After the services an informal second, and the services are information. reception was held. The house was dec-prated with Oregon grape, ferns, smilax and pink carnations. In the dining room the decorations were carnations, smilax he decorations were and pink tulle. Pink carnations and pink tulle. Pink carnations assistant formed the centerpiece on the taskille. Candelabra gave forth a pretty glow and knotted pink tulle was used with good effect. Dr. and Mrs. Fried with good effect. Dr. and Mrs. Fried have gone for a trip to the sound. They will be at home at the Guilliaums, after February.

VENTS OF THE FUTURE

Unique invitations are out announcing he first annual ball of the Hawthorne Dancing club, to be given Saturday even-ing, February 13, at the Academy of Mu-sic in the Mulkey building. The patronesses for the occasion are: Mrs. Owen Summers, Mrs. W. O. Manion, Mrs. Ad-rian Oakes and Mrs. L. M. Hubert.

The Assembly club will give a ball Tuesday evening, February 16, at the Portland hotel.

The Violet club will give a leap year dancing party at Parsons' hall, Tuesday evening, February 16. The members of the club are: Alice MacInnis, Florence Terry, Delia Krantz, M. A. Morgan, Yetta Pallay and Lucille Johnson. The patronesses will be Mrs. Silver, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Tobin and Mrs. Pitkin.

Juanita Circle, No. 275 will give a leap year dancing party in the Abington building, Saturday evening, February 13.

The Portasia club will give a valentine party Wednesday evening, February 10, at Parsons' hall.

The members of company B, Third infantry, O. N. G. will give their next dancing party Friday evening, Feb-

The Fidelity club will give its next party Thursday evening, February 11, at Woodmen hall.

The Alumni association of the Portland

High school has issued invitations for a reception to be given in honor of the February class, Thursday evening, February 11, at Parsons' hall. Mrs. T. L. Eliot will address the Women's club at Troutdale February 9.

She will be the guest of honor at luncheon while there, Eureka councill No. 204, Knights and Ladies of Security, will give a dancing party February 16. The Z. B. R. S. club will give the next of their series of dancing parties Monday evening, February 15, at ball.

The Scottish Rite Masons have postponed the date for their next entertainment from February 22 to April 1. Multnomah chapter. Daughters of the American Revolution, will give a special program Washington's birthday at the home of Mrs. Walter Burrell. The Young Women's Christian association is planning to give an entertainment on Washington's birthday. Following is the interesting program which has been prepared by Miss Beatrice Barlow Dierke for her recital to be given Tuesday evening, February 9, at Les Preludes-"Symphonic Poem Charles and Beatrice Disrke.

Paul Wessinger, Von Fieltt

"Valse in C Sharp Minor." ...... Chopin "Valse in E Minor." "Scherzo in B Flat Minor."
"Elliand," second part.

A SMALLPOX PATIENT, BEFORE AND AFTER.

WRINKLES ON THE FACE PERFECTLY TREATED.

The Celebrated Facial Massage Cream Free All Next Week. No Money Taken for These Samples.

Dr. Nelden's Antiseptic Olive Oil Soap for the Face, 25c per cake, Next Week Only, Free Instruction Given In Facial Massage and Care of the Face and Scalp.

Dr. A. L. Nelden's Methods Employed and His Facial Preparations Sold. Only Perfected Method in the World for Bemoving Wrinkles and Scare. This is Absolutely True and Others Enow it.

THE ART OF BEING BEAUTIFUL PERFECTLY ILLUSTRATED TO EITHER MEN OR WOMEN

MADAME AZA HOLMES-RIBBECKE,

Graduate Dermatologist and Scientific Pentural Correctionist. Beautifier and Restorer of Youthful Comeliness

Only Western woman ever admitted as a student by the world-renowned Dr. A. L. Nelden, expert Dermatologist and Plastic Surgeon, at his celebrated Sanitarium, 13 East Twenty-ninth street. New York City.

Without a peer in her treatment of the human face, removing its deformities and obliterating all traces of decay or decline of beauty by reason of age, sickness or other causes.

Madame Holmes, ever interested in any and everything new in the forward progress of scientific dermatology, recently spent considerable time in the great Nelden Sanitarium. New York, returning therefrom with her previous rips experience greatly burnished, and now offers her services to this community at her cosy parlors, 364 Morrison street near West Park. There she is perfectly equipped with every appliance to PERFECTLY treat all cases of smallpox pittings, wrinkles, freekles, sinking in of the muscles so that the skin becomes flabby, or any other decay of youthful beauty. Sae also has in stock and sells at New York prices DR. NELDEN'S BEAUTY PREPARATIONS.

As Nelden's French Transparent Anti-Wrinkle Cream, Dr. Nelden's French Cintmept, endersed by royalty, Dr. Nelden's French Antiseptic Face Powder, Dr. Nelden's French Lotion for whitening and softening the skin, Dr. Nelden's French Astringent Nos. 1 and 2, a preventive of wrinkles, Dr. Nelden's French coloring preparations are the skin, Dr. Nelden's French Hair Solvent and the various preparations of this wonderful facilal physician. ful facial physician. DR. MELDEN'S PRENCH ANTISEPTIC OLIVE OIL SOAP

For constant home use, an absolutely pure and non-irritating preservative soap for the skin, made with pure French clive oil and prepared from a PRIVATE FORMULA. An exquisite addition to the toilet. Can be used daily by the most delicate skin. It removes irritation at once, cleanses and nourishes the skin and makes it soft and velvety. It keeps the scalp clean and free from dandruff. It obviates the tendency to eruptions on the face and gives life and brilliancy to the hair. Made under Dr. Nelden's direct supervision at his laboratory, 13 East Twenty-ninth street, New York City. For one week only, 25c per cake; regular price 25c,

MADAME AZA HOLMES-RIBBECKE, 364 MORRISON STREET,