Madame Aza Holmes-Ribbecke has now on hand a full supply of Dr. Nelden's renowned anti-wrinkie cream, a face preparation that has a reputation as broad as civilisation itself. Dr. Nelden says of this cream that it is a "sure prevention for wrinkles (more wrinkles are produced by facial expressions at night than in the day). This celebrated cream keeps the skin smooth during sleep—something never accomplished before, and being transparent, can be used in the day as well as at night. If you once try it, you will never be without it." The madame is going to give the ladies of Portland a chance to prove his encomiuma correct. Samples will be given away all next week, just to show Portland men and women that the preparation is all that is claimed for it. She will also this week give demonstrations and advice on how to care for the face, free of charge. on how to care for the face, free of Dermatology attains its highest perfection in the person capable of removing the blemishes of the human face—those marks of disease or care that takes from many sunny lives the charm that so beautifully belongs to them. This ability is splendidly portrayed in the accomplished Madame Vaughn, 301-302 McKay building. The madame and her cultured assistant, Miss Ethel Flick, have brought the sunlight of joy to many individuals upon whom the hand of affliction had fallen or misfortune had overtaken. Madame Vaughn has earned a proud reputation for herself in Fortland, and her clientele is self in Fortland, and her clientele is constantly on the increase. She de-

Mrs. L. H. Her terms are so reasonable that a big class ought to be assured with but little effort. The identical teaching will be employed here that is employed in the original school

Little hopes are entertained for the recovery of James Goodwin, the comedian, who fell from a stool Thursday while eating lunch, and fractured his skull. Goodwin had been employed at Fritz' theatre during the past few weeks, and is said to have recently been drinking heavily. He was at first brought to the police station, but as soon as it was known that the fall had fractured his skull he was removed to St. Vincent's hospital. The patient had not recovered consciousness up until noon today, and grave fears are enter-tained for his recovery,
