tracting considerable attention. Dr. McClave spent a busy day yesterday, and at 10 o'clock this morning resumed his difficult work. The awards will not be known for some time yet, as it requires considerable time to figure up all the requisite points. The premium special cups will be awarded Saturday.

The show will be open every evening until 10 o'clock at First and Main streets, and also on Sunday.

Fanny, a prize Partridge Cocker, owned by C. D. Minton, a four-time winner at previous years for the particular prize, will probably carry away honors at this exhibition. Fanny has never been beaten at a show. Another interesting feature are the mammoth bronze turkeys belonging to Mrs. C. D. Nairn of Ballston, Or. Their average weight is 25 pounds, and they are handsome-looking birds. One of the specimens was brought to Oregon from Munich, Ind.

The exhibition is being well patronized, being one of the best ever held in this state.

TWO SUGGESTIONS.

To the Editor of The Journal—I suggest for the name of the Portland base-ball "Centennials." "Nineteen-Fives" or the "Centennials." Any of these names would be suitable and help to advertise the fair. A. FISHER.

Bowling Notes.

The George Lawrence company is to present its bowling team with hand some jerseys, with the firm's name in letters on the breast. The jerseys are to be worn in the match game with the Schillers next week.

The Blake-McFall team is now anxious for a try with the Schillers and it is possible that a game will be arranged.

The Schillers are practicing hard for the coming contest with the Lawrence team, and a practice game will be played Friday evening with the "Night Owls."

Andy Anderson secured the highest score yesterday on the Portland alleys. It is reported that Meier & Frank will have a team in the field shortly.

SPOKANE TRACK MEN TO ENTER MEET

(Journal Special Service.)
Spokane, Wash., Feb. 11.—The Spokane high school track management has decided to enter in the interscholastic track meet, to be held this coming spring in Walla Walla, and Lewis Fasset has now about completed all negotiations for taking the team on the trip.

While the conclusion was reached Monday, the news was not given out until later, and the chances for such a meet, it is asserted, have aroused more genuine enthusiasm among the athletes at the high school than has ever before existed in that institution.

The meet at Walla Walla will be in the big and conclusive struggle among the school athletes, and the winners of the events will be the champions of the inland Empire. There will be at least five schools entered in the meet including the Whitman academy, the Walla Walla high school, the Pendleton high school, the Watsburg academy and the Spokane high school.

Spokane will send 18 men on the trip. The team is expected to enter eight men in the meet, but the local team will take along the coach and manager. Who will represent the high school in the meet is not known, but there will be a hard season's training which will determine the fact.

In a short time the athletes will meet and elect a captain for the team. In connection with the manager and coach the new captain will work securing training quarters and as soon as the weather permits active training will commence.

At the same time the interscholastic meet is being held the various schools represented will enter into a declamatory contest and Spokane will also send down an orator to try and bring back the medal. In preparation for the latter event the two upper classes are organizing a debating society and will take up the work at once.

MAJOR MOORE MAY BE CLUB PRESIDENT

In all probability the directors of the Multnomah club will elect Major Daniel J. Moore president of the club to succeed R. F. Pral. The present treasurer, Arthur O. Jones, will succeed himself. While nothing definite is known, the sentiment all seems to favor Mr. Moore.

Major Moore is one of the best known and most active members of the club and his counsel has been sought many times regarding important affairs of that nature. A prize Partridge Cocker, identified with the National Guard of Oregon since 1888. On July 4 of that year he was made regimental signal sergeant of the First regiment, O. N. G.

On Jan. 21, 1893, he was made first lieutenant signal officer. On May 10, 1893, he was appointed first lieutenant commissary of subsistence and April 10, 1895, he became major and brigade commissary, which commission he held until January 31, 1898, when he retired from the service. In the regiment he was one of its hardest workers and most popular officers. As head of the Multnomah club he will give it the best services of many years of business experience in a wide and varied field of activity.

DECIDE TO SELL PORTLAND TEAM

LARGE MAJORITY IN FAVOR OF SELLING FOR $12,000—OLD STOCKHOLDERS WILL HAVE PREFERENCE IN BUYING NEW STOCK—COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Portland baseball club last evening, it was decided to sell the stock of the association, for $12,000, half of which has already been disposed of to Ely Brothers.

In fact Ely Brothers virtually control the majority of stock. A committee consisting of J. C. Ainsworth, Cecil Bauer, R. S. Farrell, I. N. Fieschner and F. J. Richards was appointed to sell the club. The whole affair was carried out without a hitch, although several of the minority stockholders thought that the capitol stock of the club should be raised to $25,000.

The stipulation was made that all the old stockholders wishing to purchase new stock would be given the preference.

The whole scheme was approved by a large vote, and the meeting was in the sense of a ratification of the plans suggested and framed by the directors some time ago and which were published at that time. The reorganization will take place as soon as the committee can hold a meeting and fix up the sale proposition. It is not known who the new officers of the club will be, if there should be any changes.

LAWRENCE TEAM CARRIES OFF HONORS

The George Lawrence bowling team came out victorious in their contest with the aggregation representing the Blake-McFall company last evening on the Portland alleys. Both teams have strong individual bowlers, whose work last evening was consistent in every particular.

Lee Van Horn of the George Lawrence team, carried off the highest average per game, gaining a total of 515 pins in the three games, and in the first two contests, but had hard luck in the third, when he missed several strikes by making splits—that is, having one or two pins remain standing on each side of the alley which almost precludes the possibility of making a spare.

The Blake-McFalls seemed to suffer from stage fright in the first game, and their opponents secured a lead of 109 pins. In the second contest they took a brace, and won by 17 pins.

The third game started off with a rush and strikes and spares were the order of each frame. Had the work been kept up by the bowlers a splendid score would have been the result, but Rutherford, McGuire and Case for the Blake-McFalls and Holloway and Siebals for the Lawrence team took slumps which decidedly damaged their averages.

Capek kept his spurs in the second game and came out with the highest single score of the evening—204.

Tom McGuire seemed troubled with lack of control, and had difficulty in locating all the pins at once, much to his chagrin. Tom used to have a splendid eye when he wore the spangles on the ball field, and could crack the sphere as far and as often as any of the other bowlers. But when he was "darn site" different, as Tom says, and the big balls, and the holes, for they cause a beginner considerable trouble.

Burnett and Rutherford started off poorly, but got their swing toward the latter part of the series and did some splendid work.

Jack Hysmith bowled his usual consistent game and earned a creditable average.

George Holloway seemed to suffer from indisposition, for he is capable of a much better average.

The scores:
Blake-McFall—

Case	142	159	148	449
McGuire	116	113	110	339
Burnett	120	122	123	365
Holloway	120	125	128	373
Capek	125	159	204	488
Totals	645	696	724	2063

HOOSIER BOXER TO FIGHT AGAIN

KID MCCOY TRAINING FOR HIS RE-ENTRY INTO THE RING—WILL MEET MUNROE AND IS ANXIOUS FOR CONTESTS WITH THE BIG FELLOWS.

After a long retirement Kid McCoy is anxious to get back into the game, and it is likely that the clever Hoosier boxer will be seen in action with some good men before very long.

McCoy began yesterday negotiating with some of the best men in his class. The men he wants to fight, he announced yesterday, are Tommy Ryan, Jack O'Brien, Bob Fitzsimmons and Jack Munroe. McCoy believes he can defeat either one or all of these boxers, and the plans he has laid out for the future are interesting and unique.

He will only agree to meet Ryan and O'Brien in six-round bouts, will tackle Jack Munroe for 15 rounds at Fort Erie on St. Patrick's day if the minor agrees, and will leave Fitzsimmons to until September, when he believes that he will be in form that will enable him to conquer the Cornishman.

To Tackle O'Brien First.
McCoy's first match will be in all probability with Jack O'Brien, the clever Philadelphia, who gave Tommy Ryan such a hard fight the other night at the Quaker City. McCoy has accepted an offer from one of the Boston clubs to fight O'Brien six rounds. It is expected that O'Brien will accept, as he informed the Boston people to accept any opponent to meet him.

Notwithstanding the fact that boxing has been stopped in Boston pending the action of the authorities, word has reached this city that the game will resume in a week or two, and it will be started by six-round fights instead of the usual 15-round bouts. This will be carried out for the time being, when the regular bouts will be carried on.

TERRY TELLS HOW TO WHIP CORBETT

(Journal Special Service.)
New York, Feb. 11.—The coming battle of Young Corbett in San Francisco, says Terry McGovern, seems to attract considerable interest because many persons, and particularly those in California, believe there is a good chance of Corbett's being defeated. The opinion is well founded, for whenever you have two boxers pretty evenly matched each has a good chance of winning.

While Jimmy Britt has called off his mat in the fight with Corbett, he is certainly right. Dave Sullivan February 25, there is little doubt that the battle between the Pacific-coast wonder and the champion will take place.

Of course Corbett will go down to defeat some day, but it will have to be a good man to do him. I do not mean to say that Britt is not a good man. On the contrary, he is a clever boxer and more dangerous for Corbett than Hanlon was. He may be the man that will do the trick, and if he succeeds in defeating Corbett I would not be very much surprised.

How to Beat Corbett.
The way you can beat Corbett is to give him a couple of wallops on the jaw with sufficient force to jar him and then finish

WASHINGTON TEAM DEFEATS DALLAS

(Journal Special Service.)
Dallas, Or., Feb. 11.—The Washington team from the state of Washington, defeated the Dallas college team, champion of Oregon, in the local gymnasium Tuesday night, by a score of 22 to 15.

The game was the best one ever played in Dallas, and was witnessed by fully 600 people. Big Tom McDonald of Seattle, played center for the Washington boys, and was easily half that team in the fight to get me back in form and get my hand in swing. In March I will be ready to tackle Munroe at Fort Erie. A boxer must be real good to meet Fitzsimmons, but next fall I will be there with the goods. I will do plenty of outdoor work during the summer with an occasional fight as a diversion.
