WILLIE'S MECHANICAL VALENTINE LANDS PAPA IN A CELL

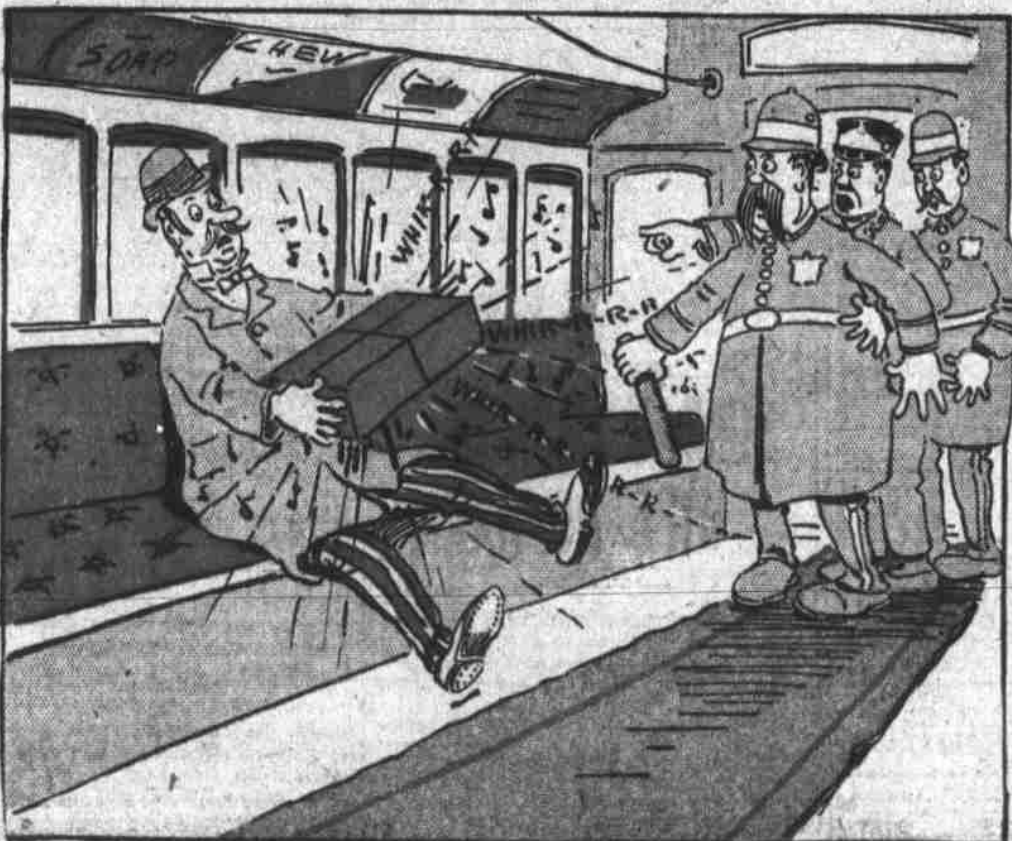

Dear Tommy—I made a beautiful dancing Cupid valentine for Maudie.

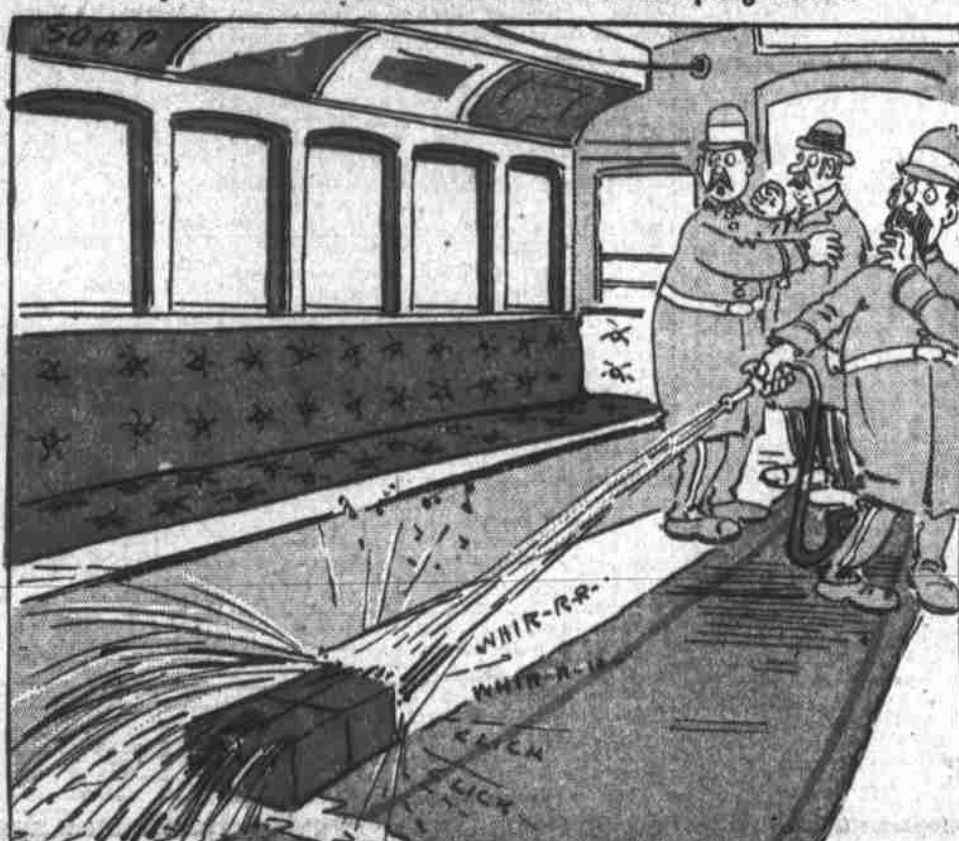

Papa was to mail it, but in the street car the spring went off—

And everybody thought Papa was carrying an infernal machine.

All the passengers got out, and the conductor called the police.

They turned the hose on the valentine, and took it with Papa to the station house.

And I had to go there and explain it to the Captain. Yours, Willie.
