

CALIFORNIA AND LEWIS AND CLARK

ANOTHER CHAPTER ON TURNING DOWN OF 1913 FAIR—TALES OF THE PATRIOTISM OF LOCAL JAPANESE—NEWSPAPER MAN BECOMES PLAYWRIGHT.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
San Francisco, Feb. 13.—The action of the state board of trade in refusing to endorse the San Francisco world's fair project for 1913 seems to have met with the approval of most people here. Arthur Briggs of the board has announced that California should not place any obstacles in the way of Oregon making a complete success of the Lewis and Clark exposition and in this he is supported by nearly all of the business men of the state. Since the decision of the committee of the board that California must help make the Lewis and Clark fair a big coast event, many letters of approval have been received from merchants all over the state, who seem to realize that a concentrated effort on behalf of Portland's big undertaking will certainly result to the advantage of all Pacific coast states.

Whether the Merchants' association of San Francisco will accept the decision of the state board of trade is not definitely known, but it is safe to predict that they will. Mr. Dohmann, ruling spirit in the association, is one who is willing to have the city as well as the state stand shoulder to shoulder with our northern neighbor and when the association meets, it will probably follow in the footsteps of the state body and the chamber of commerce and offer to lend Oregon and Portland all the assistance in the power of the largest mercantile organization in San Francisco.

Japanese Rejoice.
A deal has been said about the departure of Japanese from San Francisco to join the army of the Emperor of Japan in the present struggle with Russia. The truth in the matter is that the Japanese of the local colony have not shown any disposition to return home, although some of them would were they able to do so. The Japanese have been in demand as laborers in California and have been getting good wages. Especially in the raisin belt have they been steadily and remuneratively employed and they are loth to leave a good thing for an uncertain place in the home army. However, the little brown men have shown a loyal spirit and have watched with intense interest the bulletin boards of the newspapers for tidings from their victorious fleets. One of the ludicrous situations has been that of the Japanese celebrating in typical American style the victory at Port Arthur. There has been a goodly amount of real red liquor imbibed and the sight of a band of Japanese walking along a public street, arm in arm, shouting the glories of the Japanese nation has not been infrequent.

Jim Crawford Makes a Hit.
A local newspaper man has made a hit with a clever burlesque called "The Beauty Shop" that has had a six weeks' run at Fisher's theatre. The writer is James Crawford of the Call, formerly chief copy-reader of the Examiner. Mr. Crawford some weeks ago was approached by the Fisher management with the proposition to write them something that could be used as a specialty to follow "I. O. U." that was drawing to a close after a successful run. "All right," said Crawford, "I will try my luck."

Big houses and enthusiastic audiences resulted and now Mr. Crawford is negotiating with Weber and Field that they may take the play east when that aggregation of clever stagers leave here a week from Monday next. The "Beauty Shop" introduces a number of spirited songs and some very attractive stage effects. The parts set aside for the well-known comedians, Kolb and Dill are full of genuine humor and with a Weberfeldian setting, will undoubtedly make a big hit in New York.

Wards Got Angry.
Considerable surprise, by the way, has been occasioned in theatrical circles by the appearance of the Weberfeldians here. That so expensive and exclusive a company should travel across the continent to San Francisco for a two weeks' engagement is something that local managers could not understand. But the sequel to the puzzle is that the Weber and Field theatre in New York was placed temporarily under the ban of the fire commission and during the time required for repairs, the management determined to fetch the stars of the first theatrical magnitude to the Bay City as an experiment. No one can tell, of course, just how much the venture netted the reckless managers, but there must be a good balance to their credit, judging from the large audiences that have gathered at the Grand opera house. The immense structure has been filled every night to the uppermost row of the gallery, while at the Columbia Ward and James in one of the most striking tragedies extant, "Alexander the Great," ran over cold boards before a scattering though appreciative audience.

Wards lost his temper a bit and said some real mean things about the producers at the Mission street playhouse. He addressed his little gathering in thundering tones and told them of the lack of patronage on account of the tendency of the world to look upon the light side of nature. His remarks were well received, but the newspaper critics seem to say with Ella Wheeler Wilcox, "Laugh and the world laughs with you; weep and you weep alone."

Mackays Leaving Trisco.
Apropos of the Mackay estates, the report that the Mackays have about made up their minds to spend most of their time between Europe and New York appears to be confirmed by the selling out of most of the Mackay interests in this city. A few weeks ago the estate disposed of a fine piece of property at the corner of Fourth and Market, which it must be said has never been improved by them to any great extent, to a syndicate of buyers. The lot has a large frontage on Market street and will be cleared of the old buildings as soon as the leases expire. This will not be for a year. The present intention of the syndicate is to erect a fine 15-story building on the property and it is said in some quarters that there is an understanding with the Mackays that part of the premises shall be leased to the Commercial Cable company and the Postal Telegraph company for headquarters.

The troops at the Presidio have been drilling in all the maneuvers of the school of the regiment, the battalion and the brigade of late at a most astonishing rate.

SENIORS STAGE AN ENTERTAINING PLAY

The June '04 class of the High school staged an entertaining farce, "A Perplexing Situation," in Arion hall last night as a farewell to the February graduating class. It was cleverly executed and reflected much credit upon the students who participated. "A Perplexing Situation" is a series of funny incidents following the acceptance of a bet by several young folks who agree not to speak for an entire day. They finally win the money, but during the meantime all sorts of comical incidents occur. After the production of the play those present cleared the hall for a dance. Those who appeared in the play are: Chester Van Houten, Mary Agnes Rice, Samuel S. Rosenthal, Cara Norton Mastick, Hilda Juliet Johnson, Nina Hazel Guthrie, Maude Cleveland, Mabel Francis Lewis, Warren Smith, Dorothy Grace Reeves, Leo K. Lohner, Claude C. McCulloch, Samuel Rouse.

PRETTY SAFE RULE TO GO BY.
When there is a feeling that the heart or lungs, blood or liver, brain or nerves are diseased, at once commence to doctor the stomach. That is the foundation of the trouble in 99 cases out of every 100. Commence to regulate the digestive organs, get them in healthy working condition, and the other troubles will leave of themselves. Diseases which have their beginning in the stomach must be cured through the stomach. The medicine for stomach disorders and half the ill of life, is Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. These pills put all the digestive organs in good condition so that disease has no basis to work upon. They are sold by all druggists for 25c per box. One pill is a dose. We will send a box postpaid on receipt of 25c, or to anybody who wants to try them we will send 2 pills free. Send name and address to Dr. Bosanko Co., Philada., Pa.
