

CHIEF SUSPENDS OFFICER ROWLEY

PATROLMAN E. M. ROWLEY BELIEVED FROM DUTY UNTIL THE CHARGES AGAINST HIM ARE INVESTIGATED—A RECENT ADDITION TO THE FORCE.

Charges of drunkenness have been preferred against Patrolman E. M. Rowley, and Chief of Police Hunt stated this morning that the preliminary hearing will be held tomorrow forenoon. The officer's star was taken from him, and he was suspended pending the investigation.

Patrolman Rowley was found at Fifteenth and Washington streets at an early hour this morning by Patrolman Taylor, who had been detailed to bring him to the station. A telephone message to headquarters carried the information that the officer was intoxicated. He was brought in and placed in the assembly room. Later he went to his home which is on East Morrison street, between Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth streets.

"I was not intoxicated," said Patrolman Rowley. "I had been walking around a great deal, and my feet were very sore, so that I could hardly stand. Some one saw me and reported to headquarters that I was drunk. That's all there is to the matter. I had not been drinking, and there is not truth in the statement that I was drunk."

Patrolman Rowley is one of the six men who were appointed two weeks ago, to fill vacancies and to bring the force up to the full quota. He had been detailed on the first and second night reliefs, being placed on various city beats, as is the usual case with all new men. Prior to his appointment to the police force Rowley worked for the Southern Pacific Railway company as a longshoreman, and at other jobs in the city. He was married two weeks ago.

CLIMB FENCES TO REACH THEIR HOME

On the ground that their property will practically be surrounded by a Chinese wall unless the courts grant relief, W. H. Whalen and Jennie M. Whalen, his wife, have asked for an injunction preventing George Lingren from building a fence across what is termed by the applicants a public highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Whalen live on the Queen Ann tract, at Normandale. Their property is reached by a wagon road, which is said to have been used continuously as a public highway for 24 years. Lingren is alleged to be building a fence, which will prevent a team reaching or leaving the Whalen property and will force them to climb a fence in order to reach the East Ankeny car line.

LIMITS THE LEWIS AND CLARK MEASURE

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)
Washington, Feb. 19.—Chairman Tawney of the house expatriation committee, has completed his report on the Lewis and Clark bill, which will be in the nature of a substitute for the senate measure. Mr. Tawney declined to give information concerning the details of his report prior to presenting it, but it is understood it limits the appropriation to $450,000.

fact that until after the death of Mrs. Mildred Albard no report was made. Four cases are now found at the Jarratt home.

Dr. Evans found that the disease had its inception at Laurelwood in the case of a 17-year-old boy belonging to the Jarratt family. He came from The Dalles a month ago and shortly afterward broke out with smallpox. Ignorant of the nature of the disease, the Jarratts did not call a doctor for some time. The father, mother and two other sons later contracted the malady.

Previous to the physician diagnosing the cases as smallpox and before a report was made at the county health office, Mrs. Jarratt, who believes in faith healing, called in Mrs. Albard to pray for her. Two weeks ago Mrs. Albard took ill while at church and died a few days ago. Both the Jarratt and Albard homes are quarantined. John Albard refuses to be vaccinated, saying if it is the Lord's will he is willing to contract the disease. A little girl at his house has been vaccinated.

In its efforts to stamp out the epidemic of smallpox at Laurelwood the City & Suburban Railway company is giving the county health office valuable aid. The Mt. Scott cars, which were used by persons having the disease, are being fumigated twice daily. Every person in the district exposed to the contagion either has been vaccinated or is now under quarantine.

OLD BANK NOTES ARE EDWARDS' BANE

Harry Edwards, who was arrested Wednesday afternoon by Patrolman Roberts for having queer looking bills in his possession, was sentenced this morning to 60 days in the city jail. He was sentenced on the charge of vagrancy.

Yesterday Edwards would not tell the court where he had received the old-time Bank of Tennessee bills. Howard Gallagher, the 17-year-old boy who came to Portland with Edwards from Vancouver, B. C. stated that the bills had been sent from the Omaha Stamp & Coin company. Gallagher said that Edwards had also told him that he had more paper money of the Tennessee mintage sent to him at Kelso, Wash., and that as soon as they had passed off the supply received in Portland that they would move on to Kelso.

Edwards refused to state who had sent him the money. John White, who was arrested for having an 1855 Bank of Tennessee bill in his possession, was sentenced to 30 days for "vagrating." Young Gallagher said that he would return to his British Columbia home.

SAYS COLLINS IS TOO ACQUISITIVE

Accused of tapping the till of the Oxford saloon, 306 Russell street, last evening, John Collins, a decorator, was tried before Municipal Judge Hogue this morning. Collins was found guilty. Judge Hogue will sentence Collins tomorrow morning. George Miller, proprietor of the saloon, stated that he had employed Collins to do some decorating. He said that about 8:30 last night he went out into a back room of the saloon, leaving Collins in the main part of the establishment. The proprietor told the court that he had counted the money in the till before going into the room and found five silver dollars there and six one-half dollars. When he returned Collins was still in the room, but that two silver dollars and one half-dollar were missing. Patrolman Bullus was called in by Miller, and Collins was placed under arrest. Miller also stated that Collins had offered to give him $2.50 after the arrest had been made. Collins, when placed on the witness stand, said that he did not take any money from the till. He said that Miller had had him arrested because the saloonman did not want to pay him $2.50 for doing the work.

NO MAN OR WOMAN CAN HAVE DYSPEPSIA

And Still Be Agreeable, Attractive and Popular — A Certain Cure In Reach of All.

There is nothing that will put you to the front so rapidly in the business or social world as a cheerful disposition and a pleasant appearance. Other things being equal, people will go out of their way to give the fellow a lift who always wears a cheerful countenance. The man or woman with a cranky disposition and a sour face will have to keep with an indifferent if not a chilly reception. The commercial traveler, who is the recognized business barometer, appreciates better than any one the value of this rule and governs his actions accordingly.

Dyspepsia destroys all the agreeable qualities that enter into a man or woman's make-up. It is almost a human impossibility for any one with a severe case of dyspepsia to look pleasant. The continuous, miserable, cast-down feeling is bound to make itself shown in the appearance and conversation. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the sufferer's certain cure. They are recognized all over the world as the best they have brought about and the happiness they have caused and the suffering they have relieved has made their name a household word in all the English-speaking world.
