LEWIS AND CLARKS DEFEAT PORTLANDS

WINNING TEAM CAPTURE THREE STRAIGHT GAMES, TAKING THE SERIES - FEW HIGH SCORES WHEN MADE - DIFFICULT TO LOCATE THE HEAD PIN.

The Lewis and Clark bowling team took revenge on the Portland last night, beating them three straight games, winning the series by 215 pins.

Neither team did much the first game, as they all seemed unable to locate the head pin, but the Lewis and Clark had the better of it, winning by 98 pins.

In the second game both teams braced up a little but did not appear to be in their usual form. However, the Lewis and Clark added 48 more pins to their lead.

In the third game the Portland made a strong effort to pull up but at no time were they within gunshot of winning the game.

High scores were so few that in the last game the proprietor of the alleys offered a dollar for every 200 score that was made but no one was able to win it. Hammel and McMenomy made a brave attempt, each having more than 100 pins in the first half of the game, but could not make good in the last half.

Joe Gaillard did the nicest work of the evening, bowling his usual steady game and winning the box of cigars given for the highest score, with 510 pins. Keating was a close second, with 505 pins.

McMenomy, for the Portland, and Capen, for the Lewis and Clark, did excellent work.

The scores were:

STAR ENTRIES FOR THE FAIR HANDICAP

(Journal Special Service.) St. Louis, Feb. 19.—A compilation of the entries to the fair grounds stakes for the coming year shows that every prominent owner in the west will race here during the season.

In the World's Fair handicap, which has closed with 51 entries, the most of the prominent eastern stables were represented. The closing of the entries shows that there are 1,149 nominations to the fair grounds fixed events, as against 845 nominations the previous year. The total amount of the added money events is $103,000, a record for St. Louis tracks.

The World's Fair handicap, valued at $50,000, will be run on June 25, and will be the richest race of the year. The weights will be set on March 15. Following is a complete list of the nominations:

TIGERS VANQUISH RINGLER'S TEAM

The Tigers are victorious again. Ringler's boys were not in it last night in the game between the two teams, played on the association floor. The Tigers played all around their opponents and seemed to handle the ball just about as they pleased, scoring better than their opponents. In fact they are so skillful in passing the ball and tossing baskets, and are so lively on their feet that the "R's" are not in their class at all. At the end of the first half the score stood 14 to 2 in favor of the tigers, and the final score was 22 to 8 in their favor. After the game was over Ringler remarked that the Tigers were certainly winners.

CARTER-GARDNER CONTEST TONIGHT

(Journal Special Service.) Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 19.—Those two bitter rivals of the roped arena, "Kid" Carter and George Gardner, the ex-light heavyweight champion, are to clash again in the squared circle here tonight and the result of the bout is awaited with keen interest in sporting circles. The bout will be pulled off before the Milwaukee boxing club and will be a six-round affair.

Gardner and Carter have met four times and the first named has been the victor on each occasion. Carter is in splendid shape for the present contest, however, and expresses confidence in his ability to win over the less well known, particularly in a short fight.

IT ONLY SLUMBERS.

The Baker City Democrat wants to know if the city it represents has lost all of its old-time baseball enthusiasm. "All around us," says that paper, "in every town of importance east and west of us, baseball interest is on the revive and the popular game promises to have an inning in 1904 that will create greater enthusiasm than ever.

William H. Catlin, the horseman, has just sold to Reginald Vanderbilt his high-stepper, Herald. The price paid was $5,000. Herald is 15½ hands high. Vanderbilt intends to secure a string of high-steppers.

GRIFFITH DISLIKES PITCHING MACHINES

"I see that some of the colleges are going to use pitching machines for the spring practice this season," said Clark Griffith the other day. "I am tempted to grin, for the very mention of a pitching machine makes me think of the story Ted Sullivan tells of the one, tried out at Yale. This machine, after sending in about one ball—it was loaded with 144 regulation spheres—skewed around on its pedestal and began sending its freight straight at the professor who had invented it, and who was standing near first base. The professor flew for the fence, but ran in a straight line and was hit 145 times before he got to safety.

"I never saw anything quite as fierce as that, but I did have one experience with a pitching gun, and I don't care for any more. A fellow who had invented one brought it around to show me, and set it up in a vacant lot. I put on my glove and essayed to catch a few, just to see how the thing worked. The first ball came four times faster than Rustie ever threw one. Nobody could have stopped the leather, let alone catch it. Right through my hands it went and sing against my chest. I dropped, the breath whacked right out of me, and as I was getting up, whoosh comes another just grazing my hair. I lay down and rolled out of range. Never again for me—not in a hundred years!"

"HONEST" JOHN PAYS PORTLAND A VISIT

John F. McCloskey, sometimes referred to as "Honest" John, spent several hours yesterday in Portland. McCloskey came down from Boise City on his way to Seattle, and during his short sojourn in this city entertained friends with stories of the excellence of his new town for a baseball standpoint.

"Honest" John also paid his compliments to Dugdale, whom he blames for the disruption of the Lucas bubble last year, and says that the Pacific Nationals would have been running yet if the Seattle "cheer" had posted his $1,000 forfeit money, as was done by the other clubs. Mac says that he likes Portland better than any other town (Boise excepted), and paid Fred Ely a high compliment on his baseball ability. He expressed a wish that Ely would have every success here and hoped that Portland would have a prosperous season.

FITZSIMMONS WANTS ONE CHANCE AT JIM

Bob Fitzsimmons is surely after the cash these days, and he wants to get it quick. A few days ago he was asked by "What is your business here?" "To get the coin," he replied. "Then you may start a saloon, Bob."

"I'll start anything that's profitable," said the business-like man of the ring. Then Bob drifted into the stagnant seas of has-beens and said that if he could only get another fight with Corbett he would be happy as a clam at low tide.

"If I can get that fight with him, then I will quit the ring for good. I don't like the prize ring and if I can get a good business that will turn me over a few dollars I will go into it. Only dogs should fight, not men," added Bob, "but then we all have to have a living."

The hardware employees will give a reception this evening at the Young Men's Christian Association. At 8 o'clock music and games in the parlors will be the opening program and at 9 o'clock baseball in the gymnasium. The event of the evening will be the game between the teams representing the Honeyman Hardware company and the Marshall-Wellis company. Both teams are confident of victory and an exciting contest may be looked for. The rivalry is keen, yet friendly, and whichever team wins will have earned the victory.

ROSEBURG GIRLS DEFEAT LEBANON

Roseburg, Or., Feb. 19.—In a warmly contested game at the armory of troop A, the Roseburg high school girls defeated Lebanon in a game of basketball last evening by a score of 7 to 4. It was a fast and well played game from beginning to end, and the Lebanon girls displayed their superior team work by keeping the ball in their territory more than two thirds of the time, but owing to Roseburg's excellent guarding were unable to score. The lineup was as follows: Lebanon. Benedict.....Forward..... Reed Black.....Forward..... Mayer Carter.....Center.....Booth (Capt.) Carter.....Guard..... Booth Jewett (Capt.).....G.F. Referee—John Townsend of Roseburg. Umpire—E. Barnes of Albany. Baskets from fouls—Roseburg three, all by Black; Lebanon two, both by Reed.

After the game the girls of the Lebanon basketball team tendered the Roseburg visitors a reception at the I. O. O. F. hall. A number of guests were invited and the guests were entertained in a unique manner.

OPENING DAY OF SPORTSMEN'S SHOW

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Feb. 19.—Judging from indications at today's opening the tenth annual sportsmen's show will be the most successful of any yet held. Stepping inside Madison Square Garden the visitor finds himself in a realistic reproduction of a wild, mountain country, with sparkling streams gushing out of the hillsides and tumbling down the rocks into the spacious lake which covers a large area of the big amphitheatre. To the allied exhibits, both the Canadian guides, both of Quebec and Ontario, and to the Hudson Bay company more than 100 running feet of floor space have been given, and the result is a magnificent display of Canada's resources for the tourist, the hunter, and the fisherman. Montana, Colorado, Idaho, Wyoming and the Rockies in the west have sent typical exhibits, and one of the interesting competitive features of the show will be contests between the guides of these sections in saddling, off-saddling and packing horses. The exhibit of trophies of big game hunting and fishing trips is an interesting one and includes those of some of the most prominent sportsmen in the country. Facing the elevated promenade in the exhibit section, along both sides of the garden, every conceivable article of camp equipment and sportsmen's supply is shown.

DRIVING CLUB MEN OF ALBANY MEET

(Journal Special Service.) Albany, Or., Feb. 19.—The Albany Driving club met at the office of Sheriff Huston last evening to hear the report of the soliciting committee. Although only one day had been spent among the business men the sum of $349.50 was subscribed, which will probably be doubled. After considerable discussion the matter of arranging for surveying and grading the track and building stalls was left to a committee consisting of Worth Huston, Frank Skipton and Dr. B. D. Wells, who will confer with M. K. Thompson, the manager of the new track. The horsemen are very enthusiastic and the location of the course near the city limits will make it popular with the drivers. W. H. Hogan is president and Dr. A. J. Hodges is secretary and treasurer of the new club.

OGDEN AND HELENA MAY BE TAKEN IN

(Journal Special Service.) Spokane, Feb. 19.—There is now a proposition on foot to complete the organization of the baseball association at Ogden, Utah, reorganize the old Helena company and put both towns in the Pacific National league, now that it has been strengthened by Boise, Idaho. The scheme is McCloskey's and has been submitted to President Lucas for approval. The president has as yet given no attention to the proposition, as he has plenty of time in which to consider it. McCloskey is strongly in favor of taking the two towns in, basing his plans upon the strength which he confidently expects Boise will develop financially and in a baseball way, and which will give the league four sure towns.

President W. H. Lucas of the Pacific National Baseball league has left for Tacoma, in response to a telegram saying that his 14-year-old daughter Roxie was worse from her attack of blood-poisoning.

President Clyde H. Williams of the Spokane team said today that there is nothing to the talk of getting Helena and Ogden into the P. N. L. and making a six-club league. Williams is opposed to the move, both for financial reasons and for the good of the game. He believes the present circuit is better, and that the teams will draw larger crowds as they are now scheduled.

Mr. Williams believes that Helena and Ogden would detract from the strength of the league, instead of adding to it. As it is now, the league is a compact one and the towns are without exception good ball towns. There will be no help needed for any of them and the best season in the Northwest is promised for this year.

Manager Reilly says that even last year when the Los Angeles team was in Helena that town was unable to get out a crowd sufficiently large to pay expenses, and that there is little chance to better conditions.

BOISE ASSOCIATION HAS BEEN FORMED

(Journal Special Service.) Spokane, Feb. 19.—Boise has fully organized a baseball association, and at a meeting of the stockholders held there the following were elected directors: John McMillan, Walter R. Sebree, John M. Haines, J. E. Clinton and W. R. Kivett.

The association is incorporated with a capital stock of $25,000. The original amount of $10,000 was oversubscribed, and for this reason the capitalization was increased.

An assessment of 5 per cent was made on the stockholders to cover expenses and the $1,000 guarantee, as well as provide advance money and uniforms for the players. The stockholders have also arranged to give a ball February 26, the proceeds of which will go to the expense fund.

TO REPORT FIRST OF APRIL.

(Journal Special Service.) Spokane, Feb. 19.—The players on the Spokane baseball club have been ordered to report here for duty April 1, and they will then go to their training place, presumably Walla Walla. All details have not yet been made for the stay of the team at Walla Walla, but arrangements will probably be completed within a few days.

DIAMOND GLISTENINGS

Ell Ely. Jay Andrews left yesterday. Going to paint the fence Brown. And the grass grows long around third. Castro is his name, not Castoria. "With Beck" on second, everything rolling that way will be cheese for him. The whole Portland team has taken the pledge this season.

Mr. Ely's brother Ben decided yesterday that too many ladies' days would interfere with home duties, and for this reason is in favor of a tariff for women only.

Jack Hickey has accepted terms with Cleveland and will leave Seattle in a few weeks for San Antonio, Tex., where Armour's team is to practice.

Jesse Stovall is still holding out for more money from Cleveland, and states positively that he will play in Everett rather than go to Cleveland for what they want to give him. Stovall thinks that his record of five wins and one defeat while with that club last season entitles him to more money.

Harry Lumley may yet play with Parko Wilson during the coming season, as a hitch has arisen in the deal whereby he was to go to Brooklyn. According to program, Lewis Castro is to leave Baltimore today for the Browns' training quarters at Bakersfield.

Mike Fisher is now trying to land young Emerson, the crack "Frisco" amateur, for his Tacoma pitching staff.

CHALLENGE ANY TEAM.

The following self-explanatory notice was posted on the bulletin board at the Multnomah club yesterday: "We, the undersigned, considering ourselves the four best bowlers in this institution, feel that we should teach the poorer bowlers some of the fine points of the game, and to that end, we hereby challenge any old or young aggregation to bowl a series of four games for the 'Hoysters,' etc. Ball's turn is not expected. Respectfully and daringly,

"N. M. DUNNE, Capt., "N. C. ZAN, "A. T. BALDWIN, "F. C. FORD."

DISASTROUS SNOW SLIDES REPORTED

(Journal Special Service.) Baker City, Feb. 19.—There have been a number of snow slides in the mountains contiguous to Baker City this winter, but perhaps the most disastrous were the two slides which occurred last Monday in the United Elkhorn district, about 16 miles from Baker City to the Northwest. These two slides occurred between 9 and 10 o'clock on Monday. The news was brought to Baker City today by Foreman H. M. McGregor of the Chloride mine, who reported the facts to Superintendent Armstrong.

The first slide started high up on the mountain and came down directly on the Chloride mine, carrying everything before it, including the motor and power houses, compressors and blacksmith shop. All the other buildings at the mine were swept away by the heavy avalanches which piled up mountains high. Fortunately, the boardinghouse is situated some little distance away from the mine and it escaped destruction; otherwise there would have been heavy loss of life. The snow carried down with it huge trees, broken limbs, stones, rocks and boulders and buried everything in its path 30 feet deep. It is supposed that the Maxwell mine, a neighboring property, is also badly damaged, but the extent of the injuries to that property could not be learned. The Geiser-Hendry property was also buried under 30 feet of snow, but it is not known how badly it is damaged.

The second snow slide occurred in the gulch below the Chloride. The slide was 2,500 feet in width and covered all the ground from Anderson's cabin to the corner of Ellertson's farm. Snow was piled high everywhere and considerable damage was done to different ranches and buildings. All the telephone lines in that entire section were broken down. It is estimated that the damage done to the Chloride property alone is $5,000, and it will be months before operations in those properties can be resumed.

New Company Formed.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday in County Clerk's office incorporating the Oregon Sand Lime Brick company. The incorporators are: M. F. Bennett, E. E. Angell, Louis Sommer and William Bennett. The capital stock is $100,000, and the principal place of business is named as Baker City. The aims and objects of this company were fully explained in the columns of The Journal a few days ago upon the return of Mr. Angell from the east. Mr. Angell has discovered and perfected a process for manufacturing out of peculiar material found in abundance in Baker county a special brick for ornamental purposes and heavy foundations, which has the appearance of granite and which have peculiar value to architects and builders. These brick weigh 5 1/2 pounds each and will fill a long felt want in future building operations in this community. Mr. Angell is now in Portland figuring with contractors there and he intimated some time ago that he might erect a plant in the city. Inducements having been offered him to that end.

COLLIDED WITH BRIDGE.

While attempting to pass through the draw of the Morrison street bridge yesterday afternoon the steam schooner G. C. Lindauer bumped into the pier. Aside from a board or two being torn from the bridge there was no damage done. The schooner made three attempts before she was successful in getting through, the third time backing down. Traffic on the bridge was delayed about three quarters of an hour.

AWAITING LOW WATER STEAMERS ARE TIED UP

Owing to the high water river steamers are unable to pass through the locks at Oregon City, and as a consequence several boats have gone out of commission temporarily. The Pomona is tied up at Canemah waiting for the river to fall and the Altona is lying at Portland. The Leona is the only steamer of the Oregon City Transportation company's fleet that is being operated. She is running from points on the upper Willamette carrying wheat to the Corvallis mills.

The Elmore and Modoc, owned by the O. R. N. Co., are also compelled to lie idle for a few days. It is believed that the steamers will be able to resume their runs in a day or two. If the river falls to a sufficient extent to permit the locks to be operated the several boats will probably leave up stream on schedule time tomorrow.

In the meantime the towns and settlements along the Willamette are obliged to get along the best they can without steamboat service.
