On Monday afternoon Mrs. J. F. Batchelder gave a most unique and interesting afternoon to the women of Trinity guild and congregation. Mrs. A. G. Barker assisted Mrs. Batchelder in receiving the guests. To Mrs. Batchelder is due the credit of devising so novel a method of entertainment, which was a miniature auction of unclaimed mail, both letters and packages, such as had been left at the dead letter office in Washington.

In each piece of mail matter was either a cleverly written letter which called forth much amusement in the group where it was opened and read, or some article of use to the recipient. The auction was held in honor of Mrs. Punton's sister, Mrs. Cullen, of San Francisco. The Violet club gave a very successful party Tuesday evening in Parsons' hall, 129 Cleveland street. The ball was comfortably, and dancing was enjoyed to a great extent. The patronesses were: Mrs. Silver, Mrs. Terry and Mrs. Kerbitz. The members of the club are: Mrs. L. Palfay, Miss Florence Terry, Mrs. C. Krantz, Mrs. M. Morgan, Mrs. A. McInnis, Mrs. Lucie Johnson. The club's next party will take place March 15.

PERSONALS Mr. and Mrs. James Lester Gault left this evening for their new home in Montana. Mrs. Gault will be missed in Portland musically as well as socially. She has sung in the First Congregational church in this city for some time, also at Temple Beth Israel, where she substituted for her teacher, Rose Bloch Bauer. In Grants Pass, which is Mrs. Gault's old home, she recently gave a very successful song recital. She will be missed by many friends in Portland. Mrs. J. P. O'Brien and daughter, Miss Lillian, were passengers on last evening's Southern Pacific train for San Francisco, Los Angeles and other points in California, where they will spend some time. R. Smith, the well known lumberman, left on Friday evening's Southern Pacific train for Los Angeles and will probably visit old Mexico before he returns. He will be absent about 60 days. Mrs. Isadore E. Isaacs, wife of Bolice Drive Isaacs, is seriously ill at her home at 29 North Park street. Mrs. Irving H. Pratt of Seattle, a former Portland girl, is visiting friends in this city.

EVENTS OF THE FUTURE The Cecilia society, under the leadership of Ellen Kinsman Mann, will give their second concert in the near future. This organization of women's voices did some excellent work at their initial concert at her home, 823 Hawthorne avenue, which was anticipated with great interest by musical people. Mrs. Walter Burrell will entertain the Daughters of the American Revolution next Monday afternoon, February 22, at her home, 823 Hawthorne avenue. A musical program of special interest has been arranged, and Mr. C. E. S. Wood will give a talk on "Washington as An Example." Sir Arthur Sullivan's dramatic cantata, "The Golden Legend," will be given on Tuesday evening, March 15, at the First Congregational church, under the leadership of W. H. Boyer. The leading parts will be taken by Mrs. May Dearborne-Schwab, soprano; Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, alto; Mrs. J. W. Belcher, tenor, and Mr. W. A. Montgomery, basso. A chorus of 70 voices will support this quartet, and there will be an orchestra of 25 pieces. The cantata is one of great beauty, and was produced in Portland, where it was given last year. It is repeated this year by general request. George Wright Relief Corps will hold the second of their series of whist socials at its headquarters in Eagles' hall, Second and Yamhill streets, next Saturday evening, February 27. These socials are proving very successful, and the one held on Monday, February 22, was the most successful yet. Refreshments, music is provided and the younger element round out the evening by dancing. Members of the other posts and corps and all friends of the veterans are invited.

FACTS IN RETIRE. Freaks of Verse Making that Aid the Memory. From the Pittsburg Dispatch. Not all is poetry that rhymes and measures; nor is poetry all sentiment, since it often contains facts and valuable information. Following is a specimen of this sort; and as you will see, it costs the writer no little trouble to collect the material. The poem is evidently of British origin: Potatoes came from far Virginia; Parsley was sent us from Sardinia; French beans, long growing on the earth, To distant India trace their birth; But scarlet runners, gay and tall, That climb upon your garden wall— In South Africa were found. The onion traveled here from Spain; The leek from Switzerland we gain, Garlic from Sicily obtain, Spinach in far Syria grows; Two hundred years ago or more Brass' artichokes' roots o'er. And Southern Europe's seacoast shore Beet root on us bestows. When "Lizabeth was reigning here, Peas came from Holland, and were dear. The south of Europe lays its claim To beans; but some from Egypt came. The radishes, both thin and stout, Native of China are, no doubt; But turnips, carrots and sea kale, With celery so crisp and pale, Are products of our own fair land, And cabbage, a goodly tribe. While other plants, in detail describe, Are also ours, I understand.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL. Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty. Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but
