FRESH MEATS ARE HIGHER PRICED

PORE, BEEF AND MUTTON ARE ADVANCED ON ACCOUNT SMALLER RECEIPTS AND LARGER DEMAND

Front Street, Feb. 20.—The principal events in the Portland wholesale markets today were: Hogs are higher. Veal not so firm. Eggs are tumbling. Beef is advanced. Mutton is higher. Speculators buy potatoes.

Hogs are higher. The smallness of receipts of block hogs has caused an advance of about eight cents in quotations. There is about enough of the heavier grades coming to supply the demand, and prices in that line are not showing any changes.

Veal Not so Firm. The heavier receipts of veal during the past few days has had a bad effect on the market, and although there were no changes in prices today the market is weaker and a downward tendency.

Mutton is Higher. There is an excellent demand now ruling for mutton, and prices today show an advance of about 1/2-cent a pound. For some time there was no demand for mutton at all, and the arrivals could barely be sold at any figure.

Beef is Also Up. Along with the other grades of fresh meats the prices on beef are showing a slight advance on account of the larger demand and the smaller receipts. The price of beef has been so low that stockmen did not make their usual shipments into this market.

Onions are Higher. The onion market is full of excitement and rumors of very high prices are frequently heard along Front street. As high as $2.50 and $2.25 have been paid out in the country, and it now looks as if the prices will not stop their upward movement until they reach the 3-cent mark. Talk of the high prices on wheat in Chicago, says an onion man, "I would rather have 10,000 sacks of onions on speculation at this time than that many bushels of wheat."

Speculating in Potatoes. Fancy prices are being paid for potatoes by some of the local speculators, but as far as the market is concerned it is no higher. The quotations in San Francisco will probably be a little better than they have on account of the failure of the usual steamer to leave here during the past week.

Poultry Strong at Top. The quotations on poultry are strong at the top, and even better than those are obtained for some goods. The arrivals of dressed poultry late yesterday afternoon and this morning were quite good, but a very strong demand cleared them up as soon as they reached the street. Prices are ranging higher.

Very few sales of eggs were made from Front street today, the extra heavy receipts causing the retailers to withhold their offers in the expectation of lower figures. Some sales were made, however, as low as 25 cents early in the day, and later on most of the transactions were at that figure.

No Movement in Wheat. There is absolutely nothing doing in the Portland wheat market—the millers being anxious to buy at present prices, but farmers are now determined to get the benefit of some of the advances in the eastern markets and are holding until something is done in this market. Portland wheat quotations have shown no change since the recent upward movement in the east, but a change is expected Monday. The flour market reflects the strong tone of the wheat market and, like that commodity, shows no change in quotations.

Opinions on Today's Market. W. B. Glafke & Co.—The butter market is unchanged. Smith Bros.—The large shipments and the good quality of hogs, veal and chickens that arrived this week show that the Willamette valley shippers are wide-awake to the fact that it pays to have their stocks well finished before sending them in.

Bell & Co.—Today is steamer day. W. H. Dryer—Both potatoes and onions are in fine condition—the latter market being very firm; prices are looking up.

Mark Levy & Co.—Steamer came in today, but stuff was rather late in coming on the street. Chatterton & Co.—Markets are in about the same shape as yesterday.

Levy & Spiegel—Waiting for steamer stocks this morning; car of celery came in today. Malarky & Co.—A few still smelt came in today; same old quantity of short supplies in all kinds of fish.

W. S. Swank—Potato market about the same; higher prices being offered for onions. E. Jagger—Onion market in better shape and higher.

Davenport-Thompson company—The steamer brought in fair supply of California cabbage, cauliflower and artichokes; cauliflower is higher.

Everding & Farrell—Market short on poultry; veal weaker, but no changes in quotations; hogs are scarcer, with prices looking better; eggs and butter are in very large receipts.

Page & Son—Eggs are going to slump; lots of stocks in, but no one seems to want to buy; chicken market good and higher; butter not moving at all; pork has advanced about 1/4 to 1/2-cent; veal about the same; steamer stuff came in today.

McKinley Mitchell—Same old story in the potato and onion markets; both of these are as high in Portland as they are in the San Francisco market.

Hine & Co.—Receipts continue to be liberal in our lines, and nothing is being cleaned up at top prices, with the exception of eggs, which are weaker. Today's quotations, as revised, are as follows:
