

MANAGER MORLEY QUILTS BASEBALL

LOS ANGELES MAGNATE, ANGRY AT PRESIDENT BERT'S ACTION IN DILLON MATTER, RESIGNS AS MANAGER—HISTORY OF THE CONTROVERSY IN QUESTION.

When the question of affiliation on the part of the Pacific Coast league with the National association of minor leagues was being agitated, and Messrs. Hart, Hanlon and Johnson appointed as a peace committee to visit the coast and present overtures, Henry Harris and his right hand man President Eugene Bert instructed Manager Ely as well as the manager of the other clubs, to secure their players by the first of February, and that the league would demand all such players who had signed or accepted terms by that time.

Another noticeable part of the transaction is that Ned Hanlon, who represented the minor leagues in the peace conference, is practically the only eastern manager whose players are returned. Dillon to Hanlon's Brooklyn team, and Castro to Hanlon's Baltimore team. It appears as if the whole affair were a put up job on the part of the California magnates to pat Hanlon on the back and at the same time to cripple the Portland and Los Angeles teams, to a certain extent, allowing of the Bay City aggregation and Seattle a better chance for pennant honors.

Manager Ely left last evening and upon his arrival in San Francisco Harris, Bert et al., will receive a few compliments from him which will make their ears tingle. Incidentally Parke Wilson and Seattle will come in for a lecture also, for Seattle should have been the last club to vote against Portland, because this club came to the relief of Seattle last season when that organization was sadly crippled by jumpers, and gave them Carlos Smith and Charley Zinsner.

According to advices Portland retains Ely's back. Manager Morley to emphasize his disgust with the tactics of Harris and Bert, has resigned from active interest in the Los Angeles club.

MADE LONG TRIP TO RIDE IN CHASE

Victor S. Howard, who won the Downing cup in Monday's paper chase, is credited with riding a clever race, Mr. Howard's mount that won the Mrs. Downing Cup.

Howard has been in San Francisco for the past eight months practicing optics, and was anxious to participate in the event making the entire trip for the occasion. At Dunsmuir Mr. Howard was delayed eight hours on account of snow drifts and only reached here this morning before the race. His mount, Jim Budd, had but little exercise, but stood the test very well.

RYAN TROUNCES JACK BEAUCHOLTE

Indianapolis, Feb. 25.—Tommy Ryan won from Jack Beaucholte in the sixth of what was to have been a 10-round go at the Auditorium rink last evening. Beaucholte floored Ryan several times in the first two rounds, but weakened and Ryan had him all but out in the sixth, and the referee stopped the match.

HOW ABOUT LADIES' DAY?

To the Sporting Editor of The Journal—Dear Sir: Some one suggests having "ladies' day" every day, while others suggest charging 25 cents to grounds and free to grand stand. I suggest having "ladies' day" on Sundays, as ladies who can attend the games during the week can well afford to pay, while those who go to the Sunday games are usually girls who work all week and Sunday is their only chance to see a game. We think this a fair proposition, as they have had "ladies' day" during the week for three years, so the change may do the "Browns" good for the better the day, the better the deed." Submit this to the baseball magnates. A FAN.

INDOOR BASEBALL TONIGHT

The Honeyman indoor baseball team will play the Multnomah club team this evening in the latter's gymnasium. Considerable interest has been aroused over the contest and it is likely that a large crowd will witness the game. The Honeyman team will be made up from the following players: Martin, D. Honeyman, McEliffon, Parrott, Gammie, Schraep, Day, Hays and Vaccerson.

NORMALITES TO PLAY ALL-STARS

Tomorrow night the team from the Oregon state Normal school will play the Y. M. C. A. "All Stars" in the latter's gym. The boys from Monmouth are an undefeated bunch and there is no doubt but that the game will be a good one.

Owing to some criticism on the score of preliminary games on previous nights, there will be no preliminary to the big game. Basketball fans, in order to see this game will have to be on hand at 8 o'clock.

By their practice game with the local professionals this week the All Stars demonstrated that they are in A 1 condition. The score was 41-9 in favor of the All Stars. In this game, Mackie came out of it, for the first time this season, and threw baskets at will.

Next week the All Stars take a trip through the state, playing each team in the following order: Dallas, Monmouth, Corvallis (O. A. C.), Willamette and Salem Y. M. C. A. As usual at this time of the year these college teams are busily engaged in claiming the championship. The local team does not want to butt in on this very important question, but it wishes to remark that it will be there at the finish. The line up tomorrow night will be as follows:

All Stars. Center..... Freeman Murphy.....Forward..... Thornton Stein.....Forward.....Mackie (C) Butler.....Guard.....Lowengardt Coffee.....Guard.....Connell Smith.....Guard.....Connaway

GOOD BOWLING AT PORTLAND ALLEYS

BLAKE-McFALL TEAM VANQUISHES THE IRVINGTONS IN A CLOSELY PLAYED CONTEST—TONIGHT THE LEWIS AND CLARK PLAY PORTLANDS.

The hardest fought game of the season was played on the Portland alleys last night between the Blake-McFall team and the Irvingtons, the former team winning the game by only 23 pins. The first game was won by the Blake-McFalls by 67 pins and the second by 24, giving them a lead at the end of the second game of 101 pins, but the Irvingtons went after the third game hard and won by 72 pins, leaving them only 29 behind in the total.

Case did the best work of the evening, making a score of 214 in the first game and 201 in the second. He fell down some in the third, but finished with the total of 538, which was the highest score made during the evening.

W. M. Cook did the best work for the Irvingtons, playing his usual steady game, making a total of 501 pins. The scores were: Blake-McFalls—Siebels.....175 163 142 470 Burnett.....113 165 142 420 Case.....214 201 125 538 Rutherford.....133 120 136 389 Capen.....119 132 178 424 774 771 716 2,241 Irvingtons—McManamy.....173 157 162 492 Ed Morse.....125 141 168 434 Fox.....103 126 121 350 W. W. Morse.....126 126 183 435 Cook.....150 187 154 501 587 737 788 2,212

The game tonight between the Portland and the Lewis and Clark promises to be more than usually interesting, as each team has two games to their credit and will play hard for the third.

DIAMOND GLISTENINGS. Gone. To sunny climes. We will have Castro anyway. President Bert's trick was not so clever. Ned Hanlon made Harris and Bert look like little boys. The Browns will have a winning team no matter what the California magnates may do to prevent it. They are not tired of love stories. The news of the doings of the Browns, whether at home or abroad, will continue to be published every day in The Journal.

A large crowd of friends accompanied Fred Ely and his brother Ben to the station last evening to see them off for California. Those who "bamboozled" the club last year, by purchasing one share of stock and securing a season pass to the grounds, will part with many shekels and tears this season. The only reassuring feature of the throw down handed, Portland is that there is a chance for the acquisition of Castro by purchase, which will probably be the outcome of the present dispute, for the player in question is now on his way to Bakersfield.

Ervell Beck, the hard-hitting second baseman, will positively belong to Portland, and will play under Fred Ely during the coming season or not at all. The peace agreement helps a little. Andy Anderson joined Henry Harris' team yesterday and there remains but one more of Harris' men to report and his club will adjourn to the training quarters. Ham Iberg arrived in Bakersfield this morning and joined the rest of the Portland team at that place. Shields, Shea, Druhot and Drennan arrived there last night.

Hanlon did not have any claim on Walter McCredle, for when the "Judge" was transferred to Baltimore from Brooklyn, it was stipulated that he should be free at the close of the season.

PRESIDENT BERT'S ACTION CRITICISED

The action of President Bert of the Coast league in waiving all claims to Castro, Dillon and Damman in order to stand well with the eastern magnates, is the first touch of high life that the Portland, Tacoma and Los Angeles teams have received by casting their fortunes with the National Association of Minor Leagues. This is only the beginning of what will ultimately result in trouble. The scheme from start to finish was a money making proposition and Hanlon was at the bottom of it. Little does the Brooklyn manager care for Castro, that word, the Coast league gain? What concessions did the national association make? Instead of doing a kindness to the Coast league they arranged matters so that they could secure anything from the coast that looked good. In other words, the Coast league is the farm that will be a ripe harvest at all times for the grabbing hands of Hanlon and his partners. President Bert and Henry Harris did a clever trick, so far as San Francisco and her ally, the Oakland organization, are concerned, but their pleasure will be short lived. The other clubs will not stand for such work.

ARE LOVE STORIES LOSING CHARM?

In the literary periodicals the opinion is being expressed that the love story is losing its popularity; that "the old, old story" has been worn to death, and will soon be quietly buried to make room for news forms of fiction. It would, indeed, be difficult to name any popular novelist who has established a reputation without the aid of "the little blind god."

Robert Louis Stevenson set the fashion of the action novel, and for a time had many imitators, but this particular school of fiction is not now in vogue. Grant Richards, interviewed by a London Express representative, said that he would gladly welcome a new school of fiction which could really hold the public by novels dealing with other passions and other business than love.

"But I doubt very much," he said, "whether it is possible to treat of any other phase of life which so interests the ordinary reading public. They are not tired of love stories. They are only tired of the old-fashioned treatment of the subject. Success depends entirely upon freshness of style."

BROWN'S LINE UP FOR SUNDAY GAME

Manager Ely will line his men up as follows in Sunday's game against Jack Huston's team: Drennan, center field; Freeman, second base; Nadeau, left field; Castro (if he arrives in time), shortstop; Steelman, first base; Theilmann, right field; Francis, third base; Shea, catcher, and Butler, Shields, Iberg and Druhot pitchers. In case Castro does not arrive in time, Nadeau will play at short, unless McCredle should arrive, when Steelman would be placed at short field and the judge cover first. Among the players Huston has secured for his team are Eddie Householder, Vic Drinkwater, Fred Raymer, Ed Steele, young Westlake and O'Hare of the Bakersfield team.

SLEUTH BRADY IS KEPT FROM HARM

Thinking that he had just been appointed a member of the Portland detective corps, Thomas Brady wandered over to the east side and began to seek for bold, bad men. About 7:30 o'clock this morning he telephoned the police station and asked that a wagon be sent to hunt him up as he "had three wicked gazaboos, treed." A few minutes later Patrolman S. S. Young arrested Brady soon after the self-appointed detective had been thrown head first out of a saloon near the corner of Sacramento street and Union avenue. Brady was arrested on the charge of being drunk, but he said that he was only out having a good time and had drunk nothing stronger than gin. While on his way to the station, he threw away two pounds of raw beefsteak that he had purchased for his breakfast.

What About Your Spring Clothing?

Have you given the matter a thought? You know very well that in a short time the outer man (or woman) will have to undergo a change. Are you prepared for it? We want you to come to our store and see the styles for the coming year in ladies' suits, skirts, wraps or men's suits, hats or shoes. A good showing is made in these departments, and the prices are sufficiently reasonable as to make everybody able to buy new clothes the coming season. Our celebrated credit system is a wonderful help to all buyers. It enables you to dress well and never feel the cost, because it only requires small to make weekly or monthly to be paid until your bill is settled. Buying your goods in this way doesn't cost any more than if you paid all cash, and it is much more convenient.

PACIFIC VARSITY CHOOSE LEADERS

BASEBALL SQUAD AT FOREST GROVE MEET AND SELECT JAMES WARD TO CAPTAIN THE NINE FOR THIS SEASON—WATSON IS ELECTED MANAGER.

(Journal Special Service.) Pacific University, Or., Feb. 25.—The baseball squad held a meeting yesterday afternoon and elected a captain and manager. Captain Sparks of last year's team presided, and a great deal of enthusiasm was manifested. The boys unanimously elected James Ward, class of '08, to captain them the coming season. Mr. H. E. Wilson, '08, was elected manager. There is every reason to believe that Pacific can put out a strong baseball team this season. Most of last year's players are back and several new men are reporting for practice. Games will probably be arranged with the different schools of the state. Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock the track men met and discussed the prospects for the coming season. Captain Gilbert gave the boys a talk, asking them to begin practicing for the spring work. He showed the boys a letter from Track Trainer McCaughern of Stanford, who will be with us this year, in which he gave the boys some preliminary instructions about the work. All the men are highly enthused with the prospects of a successful season, and are ready and willing to get out in earnest as soon as the weather will permit. There is considerable enthusiasm manifested in regard to the contemplated indoor track meet at Columbia university, which will be held in the near future. Pacific will undoubtedly send a strong contingent to Portland and has high hopes of winning first place. But this will be no easy matter and the boys here realize that Columbia university has some very strong men who will make a lively bid for championship honors. Under the direction of Instructor Nelson, the basketball team is daily getting more proficient and although it is not likely that any intercollegiate will be played this year, yet Pacific will be in the field next year with a strong team. The annual inter-society debate between the Alpha Zeta and Gamma Sigma literary societies has been again postponed, owing to sickness of two of the speakers. The debate will be pulled off without fail next Tuesday evening.
