PORTLAND DEFEATS LEWIS AND CLARKS

BEST SCORE OF THE SEASON MADE LAST EVENING ON THE LOCAL ALLEY—CAPTAIN McMEMORY ISSUES CHALLENGE TO ANY COAST TEAM.

The Portland bowling team won from the Lewis and Clarks last night on the Portland alleys making a score of 2,555, which is the best game that has been played here this season.

The question of forming a bowling association here and having a team to represent the city at the next national tournament is being discussed, and as this team will be composed of bowlers having the highest averages for the season the rivalry among the bowlers for high averages is very keen.

The Lewis and Clarks had a good team, but they were in poor form last night and while they have lost this series of games another is being arranged for. They are practicing daily and will go into the next game with a much stronger team.

Siebel played the best single games last night, making 215 pins. McMemory made the highest total having 564 pins. Galliard was second with 529.

Table with 4 columns: Name, (1), (2), (3), Total. Lists scores for Capen, Galliard, Hammel, Watkins, McManamy, Portlands, Hysmith, Kelly, Siebel, Keating, McMemory.

The regular monthly tournament will be played the afternoons and evenings of March 1 and 2. Only those are eligible who have made a score of 200 or over during February.

SOLDIERS FIELD DAY PROVES BIG SUCCESS

(Journal Special Service.) Vancouver Barracks, Wash., Feb. 26.—Yesterday's field exercises were among the most successful and enjoyable ever held at this post, and Colonel Huston may well feel proud of the day's sports.

The afternoon results of the field trials and athletic sports were as follows: The litter-bearers' race, distance 100 yards, was done by the Twenty-sixth battery team, which organization also captured second place. Company B took third.

The boxing contest, in which there were eight competitors, was won by Privates Sletta of the Eighth battery, and Jeffries of the Twenty-sixth battery. Yesterday morning's results were published in The Journal of yesterday.

JAPANESE WRESTLER TO MEET RUSSIAN

There is not only war in the Orient in which the principal figures are the Russians and the Japanese, but the enmity of the nations may be transferred to the wrestling mat in New York, where two champions of the wrestling game are soon to meet.

COOLEY AND CANTILLON.

Empire "Joe" Cantillon and "Dick" Cooley of the Boston Nationals are great friends, but never lose an opportunity to have fun with each other.

As Cooley started around the circuit Cantillon was right at his heels. "Touch every base!" yelled "Joe."

"You bet I will," replied Cooley, as the mad chase went on.

"Touch third now," shouted "Joe," as the trip was three-fourths done.

Cooley fairly jumped on the bag and then let out for the plate. Glancing back, Cantillon saw that "Davy" Jones, who was playing center for Chicago, had made a great running catch of the ball, asking it over his shoulder way back by the fence.

"Nothing but Jones caught the ball," Cooley however, and 20 feet from the plate yelled: "Wide!"

"Now," said Cantillon, rushing up and louching him. "Tag. You're out!"

"Nothing but Jones caught the ball," Cooley spoke to Cantillon again.

MINISTERS FIGHTING AMONG THEMSELVES

(Journal Special Service.) Spokane, Wash., Feb. 25.—The ministerial crusade committee of this city has got so fighting among themselves and it now looks as if the city officials were going to escape getting thrust into jail, as the ministers have been threatening for several weeks past.

"We are tired of playing politician," said Rev. A. R. Lambert. "What we propose to do is to retain a lawyer, pay him an ample fee and supply him with funds to secure evidence. We can get all the money we need."

It further appears to be practically certain that the ministers will give up the attempt to prosecute Mayor Boyd and the other officials for what they consider neglect of duty.

WILL INVESTIGATE THE WAUD ESTATE

Because he became satisfied that affairs in the Waud estate had not been conducted rightly, L. R. Webster, county judge, made an order yesterday setting aside his own order.

John Waud died some time ago and left a small estate, of which Mrs. May Campion was appointed administratrix. A few days ago Judge Webster signed an order permitting final settlement and discharge of the administratrix.

TELEGRAM FROM MR. STRAIN

Union Depot, St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 26, 1904. THE JOURNAL, Portland Or.: Tell the people that every garment in both my stores must be disposed of without a day's delay. I board the train this morning for home. In Chicago I purchased a tremendous stock of goods, in addition to what my resident buyer had bought at a bankrupt sale that took place just before my arrival.

MR. STRAIN WILL ARRIVE IN PORTLAND ON MONDAY, AND THEN THE FUR WILL FLY. IN FACT IT WILL FLY TOMORROW. HIS FOREMEN SAY THAT THEY WILL SHOW THE PEOPLE WHAT LOW PRICES MEAN AT TOMORROW'S

SATURDAY BARGAIN SALES

And that Mr. Strain will find they can cut the life out of prices just as sharply as he can cut them. Therefore the gentlemen repeat the words of the proprietor to the effect that TOMORROW WILL BE MURDER DAY AT THE HUB, so far as prices are concerned, and that men who have a few dollars to spare will do well to take a day off tomorrow and buy a supply of clothing sufficient to last them for a year to come.

MR. STRAIN IS THE DOCTOR, AND HIS WORD GOES. And everything else shall go. Nothing shall be withheld. Men of Portland, come here tomorrow and see for yourselves that we mean business.
