TODAY'S FORECAST.

Weather conditions and general forecast for Oregon. Washington and Idaho:
Yesterday was a stormy day in the North Pacific states. Rain fell generally in all sections. At Portland a thunderstorm occurred, accompanied by heavy hail and a wind rush, which demolished several buildings in the suburbs of the city. The following maximum wind velocities have been reported: North Head, 60 miles, south; Sastie, 30 miles, south; Tacoma, 30 miles, southwest, and Tatooah island, 44 miles, southwest.

The barometer is now rising rapidly in this district, and the conditions are becoming more settled. Clearing and cooler weather is indicated east of the Cascade Mountains, but showers will continue to the westward of this range for 24 hours longer.

The river this morning at Portland reached a stage of 11.3 feet, which is a rise of 0.2 of a foot since last night. The stage last night at Eugene was 31.0 feet. It will continue to rise slowly at Portland for a day or two, but the rise will not be sufficient to cause serious inconvenience.

TRANSACTIONS IN THE FINANCIAL WORLD

POTATOES FILL THE STOREROOMS

INABILITY OF STRAMSKIP AND BAIL LINES TO TAKE STOCKS OFFERED CAUSES AN ACCUMULA-TION-SMELT IS LOWER SAL-MON BELLIES UP.

Frant Street, Feb. 27.—The principal items t interest in the Portland wholesale markets of Interest in the Portland whooday are:

Warehouses full of potatoes.
Salmon beilles are higher.
Another decline in eggs.
Poultry going higher.
Butter grows weaker.
Mears continue in firm call.
Smelt is lower.
Halbud is higher.
Salmon scarcity continues.
Good lapples are scarce.
Canned goods are firm.
Wheat is selling again.
Hops are very dull.

Lots of Petatoes.

Just now the dealers are not making any effort to buy more stocks of potatoes, as most of them are already filled to everflowing. All the warehouses along the Corumbia and Will-amette rivers are filled with potatoes and the stocks cannot be moved on account of the inability of the steamer and railroads to handle them. The steamer for San Francisco which departed last night took out only about 3,000 sacks, while the dock has already about 18,000 sacks awaiting shipment. Some of these potatoes have been on the docks for six weeks awaiting the time when the steamers will have enough room to spare to move them. The dealers are becoming disgusted at what they consider the discrimination of the steam-ship company against their stocks and in favor of those of larger corporations. Most of the dealers have in the past few-days hauled away a large part of their stocks from the wharf of those of larger corporations. Most of the dealers have in the past few days hauled away a large part of their stocks from the wharf is order to ship them to the bay city by rail. This has caused an extra sepense for handling and also an extra bill for freight. Some of the dealers have become so desperate to get their stocks into the San Francisco market before a slump occurs that they are taking large chances of them freezing by putting them is ordinary boxcars instead of refrigerators, which they are usually handled in. The railroad company has also adopted a new method in giving ears to the potato men. Formerly when a dealer made a request for a car his order was placed down on the books, but now each order must have the day on which it was received and also the very minute of the order. This, the railroad officials say, will stop the dealers from claiming that they have been discriminated against in favor of some of the large shippers. About a dozen ordinary cars of potatoes were shipped to San Francisco overland yesterday evening.

Samon Bellies Are Righer.

The large shortage in the catch of Colombia river salmon during the past season has caused an advance of $6 a barrel in the quotations on salmon hellies in this market. The change took effect today. The entire caused salmon market is very firm. There is some talk of large tups of salmon by the Japanese and Russian governments for the use of their troops in the field.

Some Wheat Is Salling.

Some Wheat Is Selling. Quite a large buy of eastern Oregon wheat was made resterday by the Northwestern Warehouse company of this city at a price that will be a little better than the one quoted in this city. Generally the farmers continue to hold, but the tope of the market is not quite so firm as it was. The miliers are etill anxious, however, to purchase stocks at prices printed.

Good Apples Are Scarce. Good apples are very scarce, but the market is fairly well supplied with the medium grades. The movement in oranges shows a vast im-Lemons are finding a larger sale with prices

Canned Goods Are Firm. Canned Goods Are Firm.

The entire canned goods market is firm. This is especially true in corn, and many advance orders are being received at the opening figures. It is rather early to predict just what the crop will be during the coming asson, but dealers say that it will take a record-breaking production to cause prices to stand where they are until the end of the season. Some tomatoes are also selling at the opening figures.

Hops Are Very Dull.

Nothing but duliness prevails in the hop market. The dealers are not wanting to buy while a majority of the former firm holders are anxious to sell. Dealers in this city say they have no orders from the outside at any perice.

BROKERS' OPINIONS ON NEW YORK STOCKS

Logan & Bryan, New York—The stock market is practically unchanged. It is extremely dull, with less selling pressure from abroad. The whole market is listless and quiet. The rate war in the east is also a depressing factor. We see very little in the situation and are inclined to think stocks may be sold on the rallies. Walker Bros., New York—The market was featureless today and entirely in the bands of traders, who bought early in anticipation of a favorable bank statement and after this appeared they sold, not willing to go over Sunday long on stocks. There is talk of Northern Securities decision on Monday, but it is merely talk. The market closed featureless without much change for the day.

FOURTH TO ONE AND FOURTH DOWN

(Furnished by Overbeck, Stary & Cooke Co.) Chicago, Feb. 27.—Logan & Bryan advise:
The wheat market is \(\) to 1\(\) cents lower. Frincipally the decline was in the May. There was considerable scattered liquidation early on the weak cables from which the market declined. There was again a break before the close, which the pit thinks was engineered by Armour pounding the May, as there was free buying of the July by brokers. It is an extremely nervous market with a large scattered long interest still. Broomhall notes a slackaning in the demand for cargoes. Primary receipts are in excess of last year and sre, we thing, increasing. The export demand is very small. There is a broad and active interest in the market. The nervous feeling and wide and rapid fluctuations are still likely.

Corn Is Unchanged.

Corn prices are auchanged.

Corn prices are auchanged.

Corn prices are auchanged. After a weak opening it advanced quite sharply on what seemed to be good buying by the pit and which was attributed to Armour. He seems to be scalping by buying on the breaks and selling on the railies. There is no improvement in the cash situation. The distant futures seem to be working up a little to the May price. Estimated for Monday, Ellin cars.

The oats market is 14 cent lower. It was very dull and considering the activity in the other grains, was very steady. There is a good broad trade throughout by commission houses, but no notable appearance of concentrated buying. The cash markets are very quiet. Estimated for Monday, 240 cars.

Provisions Are Lower.

Pork is about 25 cents lower and ribs 2½ to 5 cents lower than yesterday. The scattered commission house trade is still the feature. There is no large change in the conditions of supply and demand. Receipts of hogs are large and stocks must be accumulating guite rapidly. The general outside buying seems to be accumulating seems.

New York, Feb. 27.—The market has passed through a revolution in values during the week, inviting a decline and advance of 100 points, and trading at this time would indicate that stability had been established at about level under conditions which would seem to indicate strength and an only remote possibility of a decline. Broadly speaking, it is impossible that high prices should prevail without a certain ceutainent in consumption. This is made necessary by the existence of a famine, in the stable and the approach

NOT A GOOD ONE

This language, which Sophie Opsal lectures was used foward her by her husband and was accompanied by threatening motions, along with allegations of habitual intemperance, truelty and fall-ure to provide, forms the ground for a divorce suit filed against Andrew Opsal in the state circuit court this morning. The two were married on August 8, 1991, in this county. Mrs. Opsal says the cruel treatment has extended over a period of six years. She asks for the custody of their two boys, an attorney's fee and $25 a month alimony.

This morning John B. Cleland, the presiding judge, sliuwed Lizzie E. Skibbe an attorney's fee of $50, half that amount for preparing her case and $25 a month pending the disposition of her suit for divorce from Paul E. Skibbe.
