JUST ARRIVED

Speaking of the Weather---Everybody

The little groundhog seems to have really underestimated it. Persistent old Winter hangs on to his straw like a drowning man and splashes the chill water, which must soon engulf him, over us Oregon folk in the shape of tornadoes, hailstones and big rain-drops.

SPRING SALE OF JEWELRY FIRST FLOOR.

Styles a la militaire. A lot of newness here in the store's jewelry casket, pretty and inexpensive. Shirt-waist jewelry and other, all radically underpriced for our Annual Spring Sale.

AN EXCEPTIONAL Cook Stove Offer

In order to thoroughly introduce our best American-made Ranges and Cook Stoves into Portland homes and the favor of Portland house-wives and cooks we make this grand offer for this week only.

1904 Wash Materials

This will be an eventful week among the lighter fabrics in the Wash Goods section. Like first flowers of Spring, the airy weaves, the dainty tints and bright hues awaken thoughts of green trees and singing birds—bring delight to the heart, glad to see the shackles of winter breaking.

Superb New Spring Silks

How paint the lily? Or add another hue to the rainbow? Prosaic printer's ink can do but scant justice in picturing the beauties of the new Silks from foreign and domestic looms—and closer and closer domestic silks are pushing the foreign for leadership.

Special Sale of New Arrivals—Jardinieres

A magnificent line just arrived, sent on by our buyer just in the East. All in very newest, latest designs and beautiful color blends.

Women's New Suits

Garments that will appeal to women who appreciate the refinements of tailor art. Suits that bear closest inspection of careful eyes as to cut and workmanship.

THE LID IS OFF—A Peep Into the Box That Holds New Spring Millinery

This week the new Millinery Chief arrives home from our New York City workrooms and his two months' hobnobbing with the leading millinery designers of the Old and New Worlds.
