JEFFRIES MATCHED TO FIGHT MUNROE

TAKE ON THE BUTTE MINER ON ACCOUNT OF HIS GOOD SHOWING AGAINST SAILOR TOM SHAR-

(Journal Special Service.) New York, March 1.—Jim Kennedy, the fistic promoter of the Yosemite Athletic club of San Francisco, succeeded in matching James J. Jeffries and Jack Munroe for a 20-round bout, to take place before the Yosemite club in San Francisco about the 30th of May. The purse of $25,000 offered by Kennedy proved inducement enough to se-cure the signatures of both contestants. The purse will be divided 65 per cent to winner and 35 to the loser.

Both the principals posted a $5,000 forfeit with Harry Corbett of San Francisco to bind the match. Several names were submitted as referee, among which were Ed Smith, Jack Welch, Phil Waud, and Eddie Graney. The latter proved agreeable to both parties and was se-lected to officiate as referee of the coming contest.

The exact date of the contest will be announced shortly. It will be conducted under straight Marquis of Queensbury rules, five-ounce gloves to be used. Both man have agreed not to fight between now and the date of the contest, Jef-fries will start for California during the present week, and start training immediately upon his arrival, for he is considerably overweight at present, and will need a long season of hard training to reduce himself to fighting weight. Munroe will journey to California by easy stages, probably arriving there about the first of April.

The fight followers all over the country are universally pleased over the match, and although most of them anticipate an easy victory for Jeffries, they are nevertheless satisfied that a match between the boilermaker and the miner

YOST'S SCHEME TO

Yost's method of getting crack athletes from California for Michigan has been disclosed by the Rose case, says an exchange. Yost tells the athlete desired that he will be "well cared for if he chooses Michigan for his alma mater" and offers him a "lucrative position on the library staff." The Californian "accepts terms," as they say in the real professional field, and asks for transportation to Ann Arbor. On his arrival he learns, according to Michigan dispatches, that Yost "has no authority to make such offers," that the "lucrative position" specified pays the munificent sum of "96 cents a week," and that the fraternity to which he was "pledged" before arrival does not exist. By this time the athlete is over 2,000 miles from home. Yost won't give him transportation to return, of course, and, rather than walk, he remains until he can earn enough 96 cents to pay his car fare to California. That requires several years, and, naturally, the athlete, being sportsman, is willing to compete on Michigan's varsity teams in the interim. It is a great scheme and is wholly within the letter of the college conference rules, but any other scheme would smell no worse than does the Rose case.

YOUNG CORBETT DEFEATS SULLIVAN

PEATHERWEIGHT DEMONSTRATES HIS FISTIC SUPERIORITY OVER GAME FIGHTER FROM NEW YORK -PIGHT ENDS IN 11TH ROUND-SULLIVAN BADLY BEATEN.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, March 1 .- Young Cor ett once more demonstrated his ability and right to be featherweight champion by defeating Dave Sullivan of New York Oity in decisive fashion in the 11th round of a scheduled 20-round contest last night before the Yosemite club of this city. The fight was stopped by Referee Graney, who clearly saw that Sullivan was whipped. The punish-ment administered to the New Yorker was severe, and had a telling effect. At no time was the champion in danger and, after giving Sullivan the worst beating of his entire career, left the ring without bearing a scratch, save the customary pbrasions caused by clinching and mixing up.

the fourth round Sullivan nearly saw his finish. After being knocked down twice for the count of nine, the game fellow got up and clinched in time to avert a knockout. The sound of the bell was welcome to him. In the fifth SECURE ATHLETES floor twice for periods of seven stomach punches. From that time on Sullivan had to clinch repeatedly to save himself, and in the last part of the battle, was wabbling around the ring, bleeding profusely. In the 11th round Sullivan was almost unconscious from the punishment he received, but gamely stood his ground, until Referee Graney came to his rescue, after the crowd had beseeched him to call it off. Graney then gave Corbett the decision, although Sullivan was not knocked out.

The first and last rounds will give an dea of what progress the battle made:

First Bound.

After sparring for a few seconds, Sulivan led twice with left and fell short. Corbett then swung lightly with right for the jaw and tried a left cross, which failed to connect. Corbett missed a left and right swing for the face, and Sulli van neatly blocked a similar attempt Sullivan landed lightly with left on the ear, and they closed in. Both men displayed cleverness, and Sullivan again blocked left and right swings for the head. Finally Corbett got his right to the body lightly and a left jab to the face. Sullivan tried a left swing, missed and tripped to the floor. Upon rising Corbett chopped a right to the face, and as the bell sounded sent in a straight left to the face.

Eleventh Round. In a mixup Corbett sent two rights to the kidneys. He swung three hard lefts to Sullivan's face, and forced she latter to a clinch. Corbett jarred Sullivan with an avalanche of rights and lefts to the jaw, and Sullivan spit blood ill over the ring. He saved himsel only by holding on. Corbett sent Sullivan to the floor with a fearful right and left swing, and as Sullivan came to his feet Corbett continued the punishment, Sullivan clung to the champion, Corbett beat his opponent about his face and jaw, nearly sending him through the The crowd yelled to stop the ropes.

ontest. Graney finally stopped the fight, The contest did not draw the house that the management expected, on acount of the feeling that Corbett would easily defeat Sullivan. Sullivan's seconds were Spider Kelly, Frank McDonald and Jimmy Barry. Corbett had Tim Mo-Grath, George Weedon, Billy Otts and Billy Roche.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS BIDS PAIR TO BE BUT SLIGHTLY HEAVIER THAN LAST YEAR AND POLITICAL MANAGERS THINK NEW ARRIVALS ARE WAITING.

There has been quite a marked falling off in registration of voters within the iast week or 10 days, and the total number enrolled is now but little in excess of the number at the corresponding time two years ago. When the county clerk's office closed last night, the registrations numbered 11,226, while on the same day of 1902 the record was 10,988. The recent average of registrations has been only about 200 per day, so that unless a marked improvement is shown, the total will soon fall below that of 1902.

The continuous rainy weather may account in some part for the small number of voters registering, but this alone does not seem a sufficient explanation. Two weeks ago the registrations were about 2,500 in excess of the total at the corresponding date in 1902, but this gain has now been almost entirely wiped out. The question arises whether the Republican leaders, who have been figuring upon a large access of new voters in the primaries, will not find that this ex-pectation is mistaken. Mitchell men have argued that Republicans who have come to the city since the last campaign would naturally ally themselves with the "regular" Republicans, rather gets better and he wholly re-from the injury received last have counted upon considerable accessions from this source. But the registration figures suggest that the new-comers may prefer to hold aloof from the factional fight at the primaries, and may not register until it is over, taking TO NEW YORK NINE may not register until it is over, taking part only in the election. Among the permeters, registration has been slow. Democrats, registration has been slow, and with no prospect of any contest in their own party at the primaries, larger proportion of them will probably wait until the primaries are over before enrolling their names at the county clerk's office.

The registration lists have been carefully checked up by both Mitchell and Simon workers, with results which each faction asserts are eminently satisfactory. "Fully 80 per cent of the voters registered from my ward will be with us," said one ardent Mitchell Republicana who lives in the Third ward. "That's all bosh," commented an active worker of the rival faction. "We carried all but one precinct in that ward in the last campaign and we will carry them all this time."

Simon Republicans are claiming that they will carry practically all of the 36 city precincts west of the river, and a large number of precincts on the east side. They are making a quiet but apparently none the less vigorous campaign, and like their opponents they are conducting a house to house canvass al over the city. They admit that their hardest battle ground will be the east side, but even there they feel confident of capturing enough precincts to give them, with their delegates from the west side and from the country, the control of the convention.

Mitchell Republicans on the othe hand ridicule the claims of their opponents, and Judge Carey characterizes them as "more bombast." "The assertion that they will carry everything west of the river is absurd," he said "There are a number of precincts on that side which they cannot carry. As for the east side there are one or two cincis which may afford them fight ing ground, but we shall carry practically all of the east side, as well as the country. We carried the east side and the country two years ago, and I see player, has been signed by Hank Harris no reason why we should not do so again.

In the primaries two years ago, the Mitchell forces carried 14 of the east side precincts and seven went for Simon.

Simon Republicans insist that they will have the support of a considerable number of Democratic voters. While it is true that some Democrats have expressed an intention of voting at the Republican primaries, such action has been strongly condemned by the leaders of the party, who have earnestly advo cated the policy of avoiding any interference in the factional fights of the Republicans.

The date of the primaries is still uncertain. County Clerk Fields, whose duty it is to fix the date, will be governed by the recommendation of the Re publican county central committee, which means the managing committee of the Mitchell faction. That body has not yet considered the question. Judge Carey says he is unable to say whether big pennant chase commences. His style the committee will accept the recommendation of the state central committee and fix the date as April 2, or whether an earlier date will be considered advisable.
