TODAY'S SPORTING GOSSIF

BROWNS TO PLAY CHICAGO TODAY

MANAGER ELY'S MEN PEEL CONFI--LOCAL PANS EXCITED.

Interest in the election, the recent merger decision and the war in the far east, is not half so acute as the excitement which pervades the local fans regarding the outcome of today's ball game at Bakersfield, Cal., between the Portland Browns and the famous Chicago Nationals. One would naturally think that the close of the baseball season in the fall would end the baseball talk until the following season, but such is not the case in this city. Portland fans are unlike any other fans; they want baseball every day of the year and the fraction thereof. Since the close of the 1903 season until the present time it is safe to say that there has not been a day during which baseball has not been discussed. The assumption is that people would tire of the gossip, but such is not the case.

The last game was hardly finished in 1903 before the fans began to lay plans for this year's team. Fred Ely was importuned to secure nine stars, and the clever manager responded by garnering together a band of players that will be credit to the profession, and that will faithfully represent this city in the race for pennant honors. Today's game promises to be a firstclass exhibition. Chicago is playing in fine form and only yesterday defeated the strong Los Angeles team in an exciting 14-inning contest. For Portland it is Manager Ely's intention to use Butler, Shields and Thielman. Iberg may be sent in against the Windy City boys, and still if "Old Reliable Ike" gets off all right, he may finish the game. At any rate, Manager Ely will take no chances the pitching department, but will use the man who can pull the game out.

It may be predicting a whole lot, but the signs today are favorable to Port-land's success. The lineup will be the same as published in yesterday's Jour-

All the handicap candidates are expected to be on the ground by the end of next week, and interest in the event will quicken when a more definite line on the probable starters is obtainable. The field is sure to be a large one, perhaps the largest that ever started in the event.

Two Starters at Bennings.

The provision of the Jockey club, that wrestlers in the Inland Empire, has two starters must be in attendance, will be put into effect at Bennings for the starter, while Mr. Fitzgerald will be readiness to officiate if necessary. Mr. Fitzgerald will in all probability be substituted during the last few days of the meeting, in order to allow Cassidy to get ready for Aqueduct. No official schedule has been prepared for the starters, and both will have to be in attendance every day, until some further arrangement is made.

At the coming meeting at Bennings steeplechasing will be made more of a feature than formerly. There will be races of this kind on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, which will provide for 10 events. Steeplechasing is immensely popular in Maryland and Virginia and in cities near Washington, so that this branch of the sport will be of particular interest to the smart set.
