THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 17, 1904.

MITCHELL IS VICTOR

(Continued from Page One.)

The victory of the Mitchell faction was so overwhelming as to demonstrate conclusively that the great majority of the Republican voters are in sympathy with that wing of the party. Many colonized voters were herded to the polls by emissaries of the Portland club and their votes were cast for the regular ticket, and in some of the north end precincts the buying of votes was carried on shamelessly, but even if none of these frauds had been practiced the re-sult would not have been materially different. It is doubtful whether these methods added more than two or three to the precincts carried by the Mitchell faction

The illegal voting was most flagrant in the 4th and 9th precincts. In the former, Nate Solomon, of the Portland club, was conspicuously active all the morning, bringing in squaas of colonized voters. Among them were many tinhorn gamblers and hangers-on of the Portland club. It was plainly apparent that the majority of them had no right to vote in the precinct and many of them were unable to tell where they lived, until prompted by the judges or clerks. Over 49 men voted from 811/2 North Third street, a lodging house in which not over six voters have been living for the past six weeks. Frequent protests were made by the Simon workers, but without avail.

"What can we do?" said one of them. "The judges let in anyone who is going to vote the Mitchell ticket."

In the 9th precinct votes were bought for the Mitchell ticket all day long. Jack Grant carried the sack, and the price varied from 50 cents to $2. Dur-ing the morning the purchased voters usually came into the polling place by twos and threes, and as soon as their votes had been cast they stepped out on to the sidewalk, where Grant paid them off. But as the afternoon wore on, Grant began to do business on a constantly increasing scale, and men were voted in bunches of 15 and 20. As soon as one gang had been voted if "would adjourn to Spranger's saloon, at Sixth and Couch streets, Grant leading the Taking the men into one of the back rooms Grant would pay them their money, and then return to the polling place for a fresh batch. This was repeated over and over. At least 150 purchased votes were cast in . this precinct during the last two hours of the afternoon.

"How much is Grant paying?" one seedy-looking rounder was asked, as he emerged from the booth where he had been exercising his rights as an American citizen.

"One dollar," was the prompt reply. "Have you got your money yet?" "No, I ain't got nothing but a promise yet; but I guess it's good." A moment later Grant appeared and the promise was fulfilled.

Gangs of repeaters were in evidence at this and other north end precincts. Frequently they were at a loss to remember the alias under which they were to vote, but a helpful suggestion was never wanting and their votes went in. The judges and clerks made scarcely a pretense of enforcing the provisions of the election laws, but allowed anyone to vote who was vouched for by the Mitchell workers.

There were many complaints from the river precincts that colonized voters were being run in by the Mitchell workers. In the 32d precinct nine men were brought to the polls late in the after-noon by Nate Solomon and voted in spite af the challenges of Simon adherents. These men were registered about two weeks ago from the Idaho house, but have not lived there at any time.

In the 16th and 21st precincts there were similar occurrences and employes of the Portland club were actively engaged in bringing in voters from the Eighth Ward.

Precinct 42-Caspar M. Kelgore, J. E.

ayo. Precinct 43-W. L. Bolse, Dan J. Kellaher, J. G. Clarke. Precinct 44-J. A. Pettit, James H. Yates. Precinct 45-M. A. Filan, James E. Currier. Precince 46-Elwood Wiles, Fred L. Gif-erc. W. M. Gregory.

ter. Winth Ward.

Precinct 45-Charles H. Carter, J. P. Shar-Precinct 49-George H. Lamberson, W. W.

Precinct 50-Robert Warwick. Precinct 51-J. P. Dow. Precinct 52-J. C. Jameson, W. C. Bolton. Precinct 53-F. S. Doernbecher, A.

Tenth Ward. Precinct 54-W. H. Moore, L. Saldren, Precinct 55-F. E. King, M. R. Finch, Precinct 56-D. D. Rodinson, Precinct 57-D. V. Hart, Precinct 58-C. W. Oliver.

Country Precincts.

Precinct 60—Columbia, William Fisher. Precinct 61—Mount Tabor, L. S. Norman-din, George Bamford, Coleman. Precinct 62—South Mount Tabor, A. A. Ballóy, E. G. Steel. Precinct 63—Woodstock, F. M. Tibbetts, C.

Precinct 63-Woodstock, F. M. Investor F. Spaulding. Precinct 64-Lents, J. J. Johnson, Henry

Precinct 64-Lents, J. J. Johnson, Henry Chapman. Precinct 65-Kilgover, P. Buckley. Precinct 66-Montavilla, George R. Funk, Oscar M. Crouch. Precinct 67-Russellville, George H. Lewis, B. E. Longenecker. Precinct 68-Rockwood, James Shering-hausen.

Precinct 69-Fairview, D. S. Dunbar, D. O. Precinct 71-Gresham, George W. Kenney, Precinct 72-Powell Valley, H. B. Chrismmett Kelly. Precinct 74—Bridal Veil, B. F. Preston, M. 7. Dixon. Precinct 75—Beeders, J. F. Reeders. Precinct 76—Willamette Slough, Dixle lemens. Precinct 77—Holbrook, W. J. Miller. Precinct 75—Linaton, Jefferson Brooks. Precinct 79—Sylvan, O. F. Cook. Precinct 80—Mount Zion, Thomas Streiff. Precinct 81—Mertha, John Hoffman. Precinct 82—Riverdale, C. H. Carey. Precinct 83—West Fortland, regular elected.

Precinct 73-Hurlburt, R. P. Rasmussen,

SIMON REPUBLICANS.

Precinct 7-Henry W. Fries, J. G. Mack. Precinct 12-John Driscoll. Precinct 15-Willis S. Duniway, George McMillan. Precinct 17-Dr. E. D. Johnson, E. W. Cor-

Precinct 19-H. H. Northup. Precinct 26-G. C. Moser, H. Claussenius,

Precinct 44-8. C. Pler. Country Precincts. Precinct 59-St. Johns, T. J. Monahan, C.

Precinct 70-Troutdale, C. W. Corder, L. Hamphire.

THE BESULTS.

Vote by Precincts, the Delegates and Their Amliations.

53

108

92

115

104

114

142

100

84

79

138

68 67

93 71

114

69 107

61 82

105

40 52

80 34

57

35

71 88 39

102

138 45

116

136

76 80

61

63 83

33

49

106

72 52

12

47

9 48

18

15

80

50

14

15

23

15

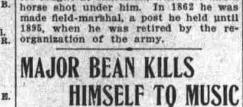

641

105

DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE POOR CALLED BY DEATH

London, March 17 .- The Duke of Cam bridge died at 10:30 this morning. The duke was 86 years old. Prince George William Frederick Charles, as he was called when christened, was the son of Adolphus Frederick, the first Duke of Cambridge, and a grandson of George III. He became a colonel in the army in 1837, and in 1854 had been advanced to the rank of major-general. He led the expedition sent to help Turkey against Russia. After serving with the artillery and the engineers, he was raised to the rank of general in 1862. He fought at Inkerman, where he had a

(Journal Special Service.)

(Journal Special Service.) Omaha, March 17 .- Asking his wife to play the piano for him, and while she obeyed, Maj. W. H. Bean, chief of the commissary of the department of Misouri, sent a bullet through his brain this morning at their hotel, dying instantly. Bad health is assigned as the cause. Major Bean had recently been ordered to the Philippines and was to have sailed for there June 1.

HENRY T. THURBER DIES IN DETROIT

(Journal Special Service.) Detroit, March 17.-Henry T, Thur-ber, who was President Cleveland's private secretary during the latter's second term, died this morning of appendicitis. Thurber made himself famous during his term of office for his unfailing po-liteness and constant idolatry of his superior. He withstood a storm of abuse from many Washington correspondents who ridiculed his unceasing championship of Grover Cleveland.

PREDICTS MINERS VOTED "NO STRIKE"

(Journal Special Service.) Indianapolis, March 17 .- The counting of the votes cast by the soft coal miners to decide whether or not they shall poned indefinitely. strike began at 10 o'clock this morning. The work, although rapidly carried on, will require at least three days.

One of the most conservative of the miners' officials, after watching the vote for a time today, and checking up statements received from different dis-tricts, predicted that the vote would prove to be about three-fifths against a (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) San Francisco, March 17 .- Another big storm is sweeping along the coast. Traffic is badly delayed to the north and east of here by heavy washouts. It rained The vote by precincts, according to steadily all last night doing much dam-unofficial returns, follows: age. The overflowed sewers flooded Mrs. McGlade, pre

JUDGE FRAZER HOLDS TEAT WHEN CENTRAL IS TOO BUSY OR AFFLICTED WITH DEFECTIVE MEARING AN ATTORNEY'S INTEN-TION MUST BE CONSIDERED.

TELEPHONE

Poor telephone service is responsible or a ruling in the state circuit court which will prove of interest to every attorney practicing at the Multnomah bar. Judge Frazer by his decounty cision at the conclusion of an argument recently held virtually that verbal agreements made between attorneys in civil actions as to times of hearing cases, postponements and continuances must be honored. A hearing of the suit instituted by Lena Kroll as guardian ad litem of William Tinker to recover damages in the amount of $15,000 from Inman, Poulsen & Co. for injuries isustained while the boy was working in the company's mill, on August 15, 1903, was to be heard today. It was agreed between At-torney Thomas O'Day, senior counsel for Tinker, and one of the lawyers representing the company that the case should be continued, as O'Day had to be absent on the time set, a case at Spokane engaging his attention. Attorney Wilbur, of the firm of Hogue & Wilbur, also defending the company, was not aware of this, and when the case was called today before Judge Frazer urged an "immediate hearing. Attorney Charles J. Schnabel informed the court of the agreement for a con-tinuance made with Attorney O'Day. Attorney Wilbur demanded to know why it was he had not been informed of the agreement for a continuance.

"The company has to take a number of men from the mill as witnesses, and every time this matter is delayed it means that the mill has to shut down for nothing," he asserted.

"Tell you-tell you?" sputtered Attor-ney Schnabel. "Didn't I try to tell you? I stood at the telephone for 30 minutes trying to get your office. Green-Green-Green-what is that number, anyway? tried to get your office for fully 30 mi utes, and all the satisfaction I could get was 'line is busy,' no answer,' and everything but what I wanted. And there were several intervals when I couldn't even get an answer from 'central' for four to five minutes. Then I had no more time but had to hurry to court." Judge Frazer declared that as Attorney O'Day had left the city in the belief that a continuance would be granted by common consent and it would not be fair to proceed with the hearing during his absence. Accordingly the hearing was post

MIZPAH CHURCH HAS PROSPEROUS YEAR

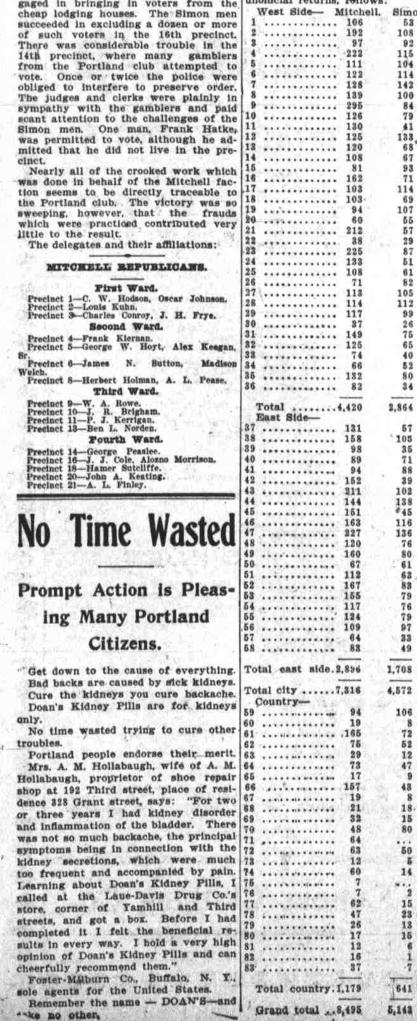

The annual meeting of the congregation of Mizpah Presbyterian church was held last evening. Reports for the last year were heard from the heads of various departments. Penumbra Kelly, superintendent of the Sunday school, eported that there had been a marked increase in attendance during the past year. The school now has about 150 in regular attendance.

The Christian Endeavor society now has a membership of 50. About 15 new members have been received during the past year. The Kenilworth branch has been sustained throughout the year with age. The overflowed sewers flooded cellars and stores on the south side of the city. The 15

