GREATEST THROAT and LUNG REMEDY

SALEM

NOTICE,—Salem subscribers will please take otice that The Journal agency has been trans-erred to E. E. Davis, 180 State street, who will receive subscriptions, complaints, par-

(Journal Special Service.)

goodly attendance of the Republicans of the Capital City being present, and there was much enthusiasm and many expressions laudatory of the president and his policy, domestic and foreign.

The constitution of the State Roosevelt league was adopted as a whole, and it was at once signed by every man present, after which officers were elected.

Speeches were made by a number of

The officers elected were: Dr. J. N. Smith, president; T. B. Kay, L. D. Henry, Gatch, T. T. Geer, J. G. Graham, C. P. Bishop and F. W. Waters, vice-presidents; J. M. Kyle, secretary; J. N. Brown, treasurer. The president was asked to name five members for the ex-

Graham was adopted by unanimous vote for membership for the club.

ected for this duty:

of the fire.

aggregating $57,300.

daughter's home.

Jury List for April.

circuit court, the following being se

N. P. Rasmussen, R. W. Carey, T. J.

Cronise, M. Van Fleet, H. I. Brown, G. W. Johnson, James F. Goode, of Salem;

M. Kappinger, Gervals; Joseph J. Ryan, W. E. Iler, H. L. Bents, Butteville; John

Carter, Aumsville; S. T. Hobart, L. B. Geer, Silverton; F. X. Molsan, William Strode, Brooks; John Butsch, Thomas

Howe, J. W. Ebner, Mount Angel; Harvey Hinkle, Hubbard; A. A. Johnson, L.

T. Reynolds, Chemawa; Charles McCor

Salem News Notes.

part of the new portion of the city, was destroyed by fire yesterday, the furni-ture and household effects alone being terday. The amount paid was $10,000.

yesterday as the result of blood-poison

JAPANESE WILL BUY

HORSES IN OREGON

(Journal Special Service.)

· Pendleton, Or., March 18.—The Japanese government will buy at least 10.-

000 cavalry horses in eastern Oregon and Washington and British Columbia

While the agents of the Japanese are this spring, if so many can be found, working secretly, it has been authoritatively learned that the purchase of this consignment of horses will be made early this spring, and already inquiries have been secretly sent out as to the possibility of securing any part of this Schilling's Best baking powder, flavoring extracts, and spices, are best without qualification. Coffee and tea good

Your grocer's; moneyback.

enough.

saved. A defective flue was the cause

County Clerk Roland and Sheriff Col-

"Whereas, The organization represent-

Waldo, Claud

Baker, William

charges against Mr. Smith, and a large ecutive committee, to be submitted to number of them left the school, until the club at the next meeting. The fold natures of so therefore be it

SALEM ROOSEVELT

(Journal Special Service.)

Oregon City, March 18.—The Democrats here feel quite encouraged over their prospects in the coming election to be taken and complaints and subscriptions received and remedied. and are confident of landing a number of their candidates this year. There has been little or no talk of probable candidates and who will run for the positions is not known. But one thing is quite evident, and that is the interest in the party and its acknowledged (W. A. Coon, Oswego; W. B. Roung, Coon, Coon, Oswego; W. B. Roung, Coon, Coon, Oswego; W. B. Roung, Coon, C in the party and its acknowledged strength. The gathering on Wednesday night is an example that the party is uniting in sentiment and there is a total absence of any personal strife among the rank and file of the Democ-

"You take, for instance," he said, "the as many out as I expected, and they were of our officers at the next election, and and this seems to indicate that the it would not surprise me if we made a thief is in Portland. clean sweep of the ticket. Our men will be good, square fellows, and we will get a number of the Republican votes, too." a petition from Eagle creek that con-tains 70 names, and also one from Garfield that has 10 names. These are the first two petitions for membership to be received in answer to the circulars and will swell the list of members to about 300. Mr. Eby thinks the total membership of the club will be over 500 when reports come in from the other pre-

Mr. Eby has just completed a list of vice-presidents that are to be appointed him to act in that capacity for the club in their precincts. Some of the vice-presidents have not been appointed but they soon will be. The names and precincts of the men follow: John Kent, Abernathy; W. W. Jessie, Barlow; Percy Williams, Beaver Creek; H. W. Long, Boring; Ira Dodge, Cascades; C. N. Walte, Canby; John Gaffney, Clackamas; C. W. Ganong, Canada, Ca D. Burnett, Eagle Creek; J. P. Irvine, Garfield; N. Rath, George; L. H. Kirchen, Harding; Stephen Hutchingson, Highland; J. K. Gribble, Macksburg; Dell Mollala; F. J. Reddings, Marquam; T. R. A. Sellwood, Milwaukie; John Gafney Jr., Maple Lane; T. J. Rigglow, Marchan, Mar

V. A. Coon, Oswego; W. F. Young, City, and G. W. Owings, Killen.

Two Boys Free of Guilt. The case of the two boys, Fred Shack and Charles Jones of Fulton, who were arrested the other day on suspicion of being implicated in the looting of the Oswego postoffice, was heard this morn-O. D. Eby, the president of the Thomas ing before Judge Stipp. After some Jefferson club, said yesterday that the questioning by Deputy District Attorney

Democrats have every reason for en- J. U. Campbell it was clearly seen that couragement. case, and they were dismissed. They meeting of last night. There were twice checks bearing the stamp of G. W. Prosser, and it was this fact that led all enthusiastic over the prospects of to their arrest. They said that they the party. We will certainly elect some found the checks on the railroad track,

Strikers Mean Business.

The strike that started some weeks Mr. Eby is beginning to hear from ago in the Courier office is now taking the petitions that were circulated not a definite form and the trades unions long ago throughout the county for of the city are lending aid to the strik-membership to the Thomas Jefferson Democratic club. He is in receipt of A committee of the carpenters and A committee of the carpenters and painters' union met night before last and decided to help the typographical union by withdrawing their patronage from the paper and from the merchants who advertise with the Courier unless the advertisements are taken out, J. H. Westover, of the Courier, is inclined to think that the action is a bluff on the part of the union people, but the unions of the city say they mean business. It is reported that all the merchants have signified their intention of taking out their advertisements. It is definitely understood the Huntley brothers and Frank Bush will, as they said as much yesterday morning when asked. There is little excitement over the situation, which may yet be settled to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

> was a fancy dress affair, and the costumes of the dancers were very pretty and in some cases very comical. The ball room was very tastefully decorated

Hew Bural Delivery. E. C. Clement, the inspector for rural delivery, has examined the proposed third route and reported favorably. The peti-tion which has been sent to the postal authorities was largely signed and the delivery will soon be established. The new route will do away with postoffices at Beaver Creek, Scheubel, Carus and Needy.

Debate at Harmony. Next Monday evening there will be a debate in the Harmony schoolhouse for the benefit of their literary society. The mestion to be debated will be "Resolved. That Japan Is Justified in Her War With Russia." The question will be de-bated by a team from this city and a team from the Harmony school. The team from Oregon city is composed of L. C. Elliot, Ernest Smith and Edward Willey.

County Judge T. F. Ryan returned the other day from an inspection of the slide on the Deep-creek road. He says that the work of repairing is going on as fast as the conditions will allow, and that the road can be traveled by next Tuesday. He reports the road from Deep-creek bridge to Clackamas to be very much cut up by the woodhaulers, and that the total expense in repairing the road will be about $2,000. Today the judge is inspecting the roads in the district comprising Molalla, Soda Springs and Needy precincts.

Oregon City Notes David Eby, father of O. D. Eby, has left for Eugene, where he will visit rela-The Sunday Journal will be on sale at the candy-store of Mrs. Miller, near the Postal office. J. G. Blake, district superintendent of the Postal Telegraph, and Jack Annand, manager of the Postal office in Portland, were Oregon City visitors yester-

Meyers of Maple Lane arrived in town yesterday to attend the ball in the arm-C. W. Kelly has an attack of la grippe that has kept him at home for a few days. He is reported to be im-proving and will be around in a few Miss Gertrude Moores, a student at the Oregon Agricultural college, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moores, this city. Prof. A. T. Winches of Canby re-Prof. A. T. Winches of Canby re-turned to Canby to begin a new term of school, after a short wacation. A. W. Cheney, who has been ill with poison oak, is reported to be improving.

Will Marshall of Highland and Ton

F. C. Baker, a prominent farmer of Beaver Creek, was an Oregon City vis-between Professor Smith and his pupils. The pupils have made many grave

Under a Load of Hay.

narrowly escaped a serious accident by being thrown from a load of hay. Smith place at Brush Prairie. Night overtook him before getting home, and in traveling along the almost impassible roads

the wagon-tipped over, throwing the entire load of hay on him. With the assistance of a friend he managed to get

Two Ladies Surprised.

Miss Matson, the primary teacher at Brush Prairie, is a guest of Miss Beth Stenger this week. Last night an impromptu surprise social was given the two young ladies, by several of their acquaintances. Music, recitations and games was the program of the evening, after which light refreshments were

Mrs. Morgan Seriously Ill.

Mrs. Evin Morgan of Brush Prairie, this county, who has been quite ill for several weeks, has become much worse and yesterday was under the constant

Frank Smith of Battle Ground, Wash.

large a number of pupils.

free without much injury.

served.

In and About Vancouver

servation of St. Patrick's day in Vancouver yesterday and last night could not have been more complete had the town been located in the heart of Ireland. Each fraternal and social organ- last night, the soldiers were also having nies that he is at fault, and the pupils of the club:

given in Vancouver, and consisted of the most fashionable ball and banquet. Vancouver, and consisted of The popularity of the Elks' entertainments made it necessary for the order to limit the number of invitations. Even then there were 250 couples present, including a number of representative Elks from Portland, The Dailes, Seattle and Spokane, as well as all the other adjoining towns where the order has an organization.

The ball commenced at 9 o'clock promptly with a grand march to the to Vancouver, Wash., in 1901. tune of "The Elks' March," by Parsons' He left a widow and four orchestra of Portland. The hall was nicely decorated in lodge colors with ribbons and electric lights.

Elagles Smoke.

The celebration by the Eagles was of an entirely different nature, but none the less enthusiastic and gay. It was the regular meeting night for Columbia Aerie, and the hall was thrown open to all Eagles in a grand smoker. There was a large number of representatives from Portland, who chartered cars for the express purpose. The attendance numbered about 300. The ceremonies opened with a short address from the Worthy President Hopkins, followed by appropriate remarks by Senator Rands. The evening was then spent in impromptu musical and literary selections board of directors, Walter Smith and the after several hours of careful attention rendered by members of the order, as pupils of the Brush Prairie school at the that hopes were entertained for her rewell as several athletic exhibitions and feasting.

One of the most exciting and pleasing incidents was a four-round boxing con-test for a decision between two Eaglets, Clifford Weaver, impersonating Spider Kelly of Portland, and Harry Mazoretzsky as Immy Britt of Frisco, The Eaglets weighed in at 45 pounds each, ages 7 to 9 years respectively. The decision went to the Mazoretzsky child.
This exhibition was then followed by another four-round glove contest between Eddle Mazoretzky as Billy Riley. of Seattle and Arwell Weaver as the "Terrible Swede" from Albina. The children weighed in at 52 pounds, and the fight was one of the most evenly and cleverly fought that has been wit-

Mother and Baby.

60th helped by the use of

SCOTT'S EMULSION

It will enrich the mother's milk and make the baby thrive. If it is a bottle baby, put a part of a teaspoonful in the bottle when it is fed. For poorly nourished. babies and children we believe it has no equal in the world,

(Journal Special Service.)

WOTICE.—The Vancouver agency of The Oregen Daily Journal is located at 603 Main street.

John P. Lundberg, agent.

The pupils have made many grave

Soldiers Were Not Idle.

While the various organizations were Mr. Smith had only a few scholars in making merry in the town of Vancouver the lower grades. Smith strenuosly deization here had some appropriate form of a celebration in remembrance of the coccasion. Two of the foremost of these given by the local lodge B. P. C. Infantry band. The hall was unusually the local lodge B. P. C. Infantry band. The hall was unusually couver high school, and stood high in this class and studies. This is his first The festivities given by the Elks all present. It is estimated there were climaxed any of the same nature ever 59 couples or more in attendance.

Death of David Whisler.

David Whisler died at his residence on Eighteenth and C streets here, March 16, of heart disease. He was born November 11, 1836, at Germantown, Ind., and came, with his parents, to Centerville, Iowa, in 1851, was married to Eliza Miller March 3, 1859. He crossed the plains to Pike's Peak in 1864, returned to Iowa and later located at Tecumseh Johnson county, Neb., and finally came

He left a widow and four children, Mrs. Hester Wellman of Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. Alice Stephen, Henry Whisler and Joe Whisler, all of Te-cumseh, Neb., and Elmer Whisler of Danberry, Neb.

Funeral services were held today at the residence, at 1 o'clock p. m., Elder A. D. Scaggs officiating. Burial took place in the city cemetery.

Army Officers Will Dance.

The officers' hop will be given tonight at the Portland. A large number of persons have been invited and are expected to be present.

Trouble to Be Settled. County School Superintendent Milton

schoolhouse tomorrow at 2 o'clock p. m. | covery.

ALBANY

NOTICE.—The Albany agency of The Oregon Dully Journal is at the drug store of Fred Dawson, No. 238 West First street, where sub-scriptions will be received.

Albany, March 18.-Judges Boise and Burnett held joint session of department

one and two of the circuit court yesterday and heard resolutions of the Linn County Bar association in memory of Judge Lawrence Flinn, who died last

Friday. Hon. J. K. Weatherford, Judge

H. H. Hewitt and Hon. J. J. Whitney delivered eloquent tributes to the life and character of the deceased. The committee that prepared the resolution consisted of Supreme Judge Wolverton, Governor Chamberlain and Hon, J. K.

Laura Middlestadt, a six-year-old child, was burned to death yesterday in the embers of a brush pile that her father had burned, about eight miles east of Lebanon. The child was stirring the embers when a gust of wind fanned them to a flame, which enveloped her, burning her so badly she died in a very habit of frequenting the saloons here that the law regulating that offense will Woodmen Celebrate.

The uniform rank of camp 103, Woodmen of the World of this city gave a St. Patrick's ball last night at their hall and it was said to be the best dance of the season in Albany. The team which consists of William Hand, captain; G.

M. Knox. first lieutenant, I. Moon, E. V. Ebert, F. W. Ross, H. F. Wilkins, John Millard, C.-J. Harris, George Wood, be rigidly enforced hereafter.

Weatherford.
Child Burned to Death.

short time.

LAWRENCE FLINN

TO THE MEMORY OF

Sanders, is one of the best drilled teams on the coast, all of the members taking great interest in the work, thus making everyhting harmonious.

Vidito brothers, who have the con-tract of running the Albany-Corvallis stage, made their first trip this morn-ing, leaving Albany at 6:30 and return-ing at 9:30, taking three hours for the trip. Hon. Lawrence T. Harris of Eugene was renewing acquaintance with his many friends and supporters in Albany

EUGENE

NOTICE.—The Eugene agency of The Ore-gon Daily Journal is at the bookstore of Alien H. Estou, where subscriptions to go by mail or carrier will be received.

QUICKSILVER MINE WILL BE OPERATED

Eugene, Or., March 18.—The Black Butte quicksilver mines, south of Eugene, will, it is announced, soon resume operations on a large scale. soon as W. B. Dennis, the owner of the mines, returns from California some changes will be made in the big smelter and it will be in operation again. The company now has 10 or 12 men at work developing and blocking out ore, Boys in Saloons.

The police of this city are serving no-ice on all minors who have been in the and there is enough of the ore in sight for a long continuous run. The ledge is 60 feet wide and is showing high-grade values. A feeling of prosperity pre-vails at the camp.

Death of Mrs. Mickerson. Mrs. Carrie Nickerson, wife of W. S. Nickerson, died at her home at Spring-field, Wednesday, March 16, from consumption She leaves, besides her hus-band, her father and mother, a brother

M. Knox, first lieutenant. I. Moon, E. V. Ebert, F. W. Rogs, H. F. Wilkins, John Miliard, C.-J. Harris, George Wood, C. B. Hayens, Ed Sullivan and Fred sprains. Monarch over pain.

Jap will be acceptable, according to the inquiries made in this city. As the country has been scoured over thoroughly by the United States government within the past year, horsemen doubt very much that any large pro-portion of this consignment of cavalry CLUB VERY ACTIVE horses will be found in either eastern Oregon or Washington. The prices of horses are higher this Salem, Or., March 18.—The Salem Roosevelt club was organized last night, year by 10 per cent than last year, and number from the ranges of this state.

The horses are to be of the same gen eral requirements as those selected for cavalry service by the United States government, except as to color, and no line will be drawn on color. Anything that has four sound legs, a strong back and nerve enough to carry a 120-pound while it would be possible to secure a horses, without any restriction on color, ful face clouded dully. the regulation cavalry horse, as pur-chased by the United States government, is scarce.

COLDS THAT HANG ON

So frequently settle on the lungs and result in Pneumonia or Consumption. Do not take chances on a cold wearing away or take something that only half cures it, leaving the seeds of serious throat and lung trouble.

EN EYS HONEY AND

CONSUMPTION THREATENED

C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: 'I was troubled with a macking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and I was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since."

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY

For Sale by WOODARD, CLARKE @ CO. and LAUE-DAVIS DRUG CO.

The prices of such horses as the Jangovernment desires would range from $40 to $70 per head in eastern Ore-

the members, among them being Claud the members, among them being Claud Gatch, T. T. Geer, T. H. Kay and others.

(Journal Special Service.) Haines, Or., March 18 .- The continuaion of the celebration of the farmers' institute is in progress today. Yesterday's attendance was augmented by allowing resolution introduced by J. G. most double the number who desired to partake of the entertainment on the closing day.

following excellent program was carried out to the complete satisfaction

Music ..... Orchestra 'Variation in Milk and Cream Tests' his class and studies. This is his first ideals of citizenship and the high states-school, and it is believed by many that he has not yet become well enough ac-tion's affairs—a man whom flattery can-Discussion. F. L. Kent quainted with the best methods for con- not cajole and cunning cannot defeat; Music ......Orchestra l'exture of the Soil". Prof. A. L. Knisely "Resolved, That this club pledge him Discussion. its heartlest support and will do its ut-most to assist in securing his renomi-ngtion and triumphant election to the presidency of this great nation of ours.

Discussion. The secretary was instructed to for-ward a copy of the resolution to the Music ......Orchestra
"Up-to-Date Dairying" .......Dr. James Withycombe
Discussion. president, and he was also instructed to apply to the State Roosevelt league

Solo ...... Miss May Fisher "The Hand Separator". Prof. F. L. Kent Discussion.

Discussion.

A Pair of 'Em. From the Chicago Journal.

Mr. Solomonson, the New York veg-etarian who bathes in nature, has influenced Miss Vesta La Viesta to follow in his bare footsteps. And according to accounts, Solomon in all his glory was not disarrayed like Vesta.

Matural Result.

mick, D. Hovenden, Woodburn; J. F. Steiwer, Jefferson; James T. Smith, It might have been foreseen that as Scott's Mills; J. T. King, Macleay; S. S. Brownell, J. J. Hunt, Liberty. would begin to exhibit that bloodthirsty desire to get into a war with some one. The house of T. J. Arthur, a black-smith residing in the extreme northern

TOOK A STRAW VOTE.

Interesting Experiment in a Bestaurant.

An advertising agent, representing a prominent New York magazine, while The state land board yesterday after noon approved 41 applications for loans, on a recent western trip, was dining Washington county paid a part of its one evening in a Pittsburg restaurant. While waiting for his order he glanced While waiting for his order he glanced over his newspaper and noticed the advertisement of a well-known dyspepsia preparation, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tab-George Stutesman, a cigar-dealer, died iets; as he himself was a regular user ing following an affliction of the ear. He was 55 years old. He leaves two of the tablets, he began speculating as sons and one daughter, the latter Mrs. to how many of the other traveling men Frank K. Lovell of this city. The re- in the dining-room were also friends of were buried today from his the popular remedy for indigestion.

He says: I counted twenty-three men at the tables and in the hotel office I took the trouble to interview them and was surprised to learn that nine of the twenty-three made a practice of taking one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tab-one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal.

One of them told me he had suffered so much from stomach trouble that at one time he had been obliged to quit the road, but since using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets had been entirely free from indigestion, but he continued their use, especially while traveling on account of irregularity in meals and because, like all traveling men, he was often obliged to eat what he could get and not always what he wanted.

Another, who looked the picture of health, said he never ate a meal without taking a Stuart Tablet afterward, because he could eat what he pleased and when he pleased without fear of a sleepless night or any other trouble.

when he pleased without fear of a sleepless night or any other trouble.

Still another used them because he was subject to gas on the stomach, causing pressure on heart and lungs, shortness of breath and distress in chest, which he no longer experiencedsince using the tablets regularly.

Another claimed that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was the only safe remedy he had ever found for sour stomach and acidity. He had formerly used common soda to relieve the trouble, but the tablets were much better and safer to use.

AGNES GROZIER HERBERTSAN COPYRIGHT, 1904 GREAT BRITAIN RIGHTS RESERVED The harpist turned the handle of the Her promenade lasted for half an

HAD BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY YEARS

AND THOUGHT HE WAS INCURABLE

Henry Livingstone, Babylon, N. Y., writes: "I had been a sufferer with Bronchitis for twenty years and tried a great many with poor results until I used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR which cured me of my Bronchitis which I supposed was incurable."

door, pushed it open and thrust aside hour; then by the door she hesitated, the heavy curtains that covered it. For she opened it, hesitated, came again a moment she stood in the doorway. Into the room. She wall, regarding then she let the round arm fall that her own proud image, but lost in large number of 1,000 to 1,100 pound held back the hangings, and the beauti- thought.

Cures Coughs and Colds quickly, and prevents

Pneumonia and Consumption

THREE SIZES, 25c, 50c and $1.00- Refuse Substitutes that was a trick of yours. What do you and into them horror leaped. want now?" She crossed the room and threw herself into a chair.

She was dressed in some red flowing garment that gave a brilliancy to her is I," he said quietly. "I thought you dark beauty. The group on the couch made a strik-

JOINT CELEBRATION ing contrast to her beauty and spiender. It consisted of an elderly woman, a ing contrast to her beauty and splendor. young girl of 18, and a child of nine or 10. All three were shabby, and appeared pinched for lack of food. "Erds, how can you?" the young girl cried. "Why should we employ a trick if we wished to see you? Mother may see her daughter, I suppose, when she will!" The speaker paused, a quick suspicion flashed across her face, anger into her clear eyes. "Unless you have been instructing your servant to deny you to us," she added indignantly: "and her message that you were not at home, the last three times we called, has been

"Indeed I was out; I am almost always out, what with engagements and touting for engagements, and rehearanything would make me take such a she added with hardness, "it would be scenes such as these Mother. I am expecting a visitor very shortly, if you can come another time".

"I can come any time you wigh, dear," said the mother saily. "I am only anxious to know how things are going with you. If you are beginning to do as the papers say-anl can return a little of"- have a mother for one's creditor! When will you pay back the money—when will you pay back the money? It is the question which is always being dinned into my ears!" Two bitter tears crept into the elder woman's eyes. "Dear, I did not know that I had asked you so often," she said gently. "The time seems so much longer to us than it does to you. But it seemed as if things were at last going well with you. We see your name in so many places—and you know we agreed to spend all that we had on your talent, soon as the imperial court of Peking and you were to see what you could do was equipped with automobiles China in six months. That was nearly a year ago.

"I did not know what I was doing when I agreed to that," said the girl "Now, when at last I am making headway, you would hamper and Janet's lips were white with anger as she put a comforting arm round her mother. Then, for the first time, the child spoke. "Mother cries so because she doesn't Tears crept into her own blue eyes Erda turned roughly away. "Mother," she said, "in three months I shall be able to repay you, perhaps, who knows, sooner than that. I wish I could ask you to stay now, but, as I said, I am expecting a visitor—a gentleman who has a great regard for me. In spits of all my faults he is only waiting his oppor-tunity to ask me to be his wife." She made an ironical bow to her sister. "Mother, he is a rich man; I shall be able to do more than pay back this money when I am his wife."

She rested one arm upon the mantelpiece and waited. Every line of the graceful attitude said "Go," but the mother, trembling, essayed one last word. "Erda, not for our sakes, nor for any one's, must you marry a man whom you do not love." Erda did not reply.

"Do not be afraid, mother," said Janet, quietly, "neither for our sakes, nor for any one else's, but for her own, will she do this or any other deed."

They moved to the door, upon Erda's still that smile which meant her coldest and most unforgiving mood, as those who knew her well knew.

At the door the child turned. "Mother meant to tell you our new address, Erda," she said; "but perhaps she didn't like to-it isn't at all a nice street. It is Irwell street-just by the You can reach it in the train if ever you want to come, but it is rather a long way, a twopenny ride."
"A twopenny ride!" The phrase rang sordid and ugly, and the harpist's grace-

After smoking. Grinking or other excesses which weaken the digestive organs, nothing restores the stomach to a healthy, wholesome condition so effectually as Stuart's Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the natural digestives, pepsin, diastase, which every weak stomach lacks, as well as nux, hydrastin and yellow parilla, and can be safely relied on as radical cure for every form of poor digestion. Sold by druggists everywhere, into the room. She stood motionless by ful face clouded dully.

"Oh, it is you!" she said coldly. "Marie told me a gentleman, but I suppose selves more intently upon the mirror, "You!" she cried involuntarily. She stood as if turned to stone.

The man who was emerging from the inner room halted for a second. "Yes, it They stood facing each other in allence Then slowly the girl spoke. "You have been waiting," she said haltingly, 'how long?" "I have been there-I suppose that is what you are concerned about-a'l the

"You heard?" she murmured. raised searching eyes. They fell speedily, for one glance was sufficient to tell her that he knew all.

"You will despise me now," she said bitterly, "because I am poor." He, in his turn, looked round the room. "No," he said meaningly," not because you are poor. I wish you were. For another reason I—I despise you."

She turned a furious glance upon him, but he went on quietly. That quiet

"Let me explain my presence," he said, "and try to understand, if you will. I em not habitually, an eavesdropper. called on you this morning-you stated correctly to your mother the reason why. I was ushered into this room of yours, and after a few moments' waiting I grew impatient. I thought I should like to look at your instrument—the instrument, I thought, was the vehicle carrying tender thoughts from a tenderer heart. The fancy seemed to "A little of the money you have expended upon me!" Erds finished the sentence with an angry drawl. It is the old story. What a thing it is to have a mother for one's creditor! When knowledge, this room. My attention was arrested at length by words which made it impossible for me to show myself. When your mother was gone I waited. My hope was that you, too, would leave the room that I might feave this house without your knowledge that I had entered it today, that I might never meet you sgain. I would have spared you this explanation, brief as it

> He moved toward the door, Something akin to tears sprang into her eyes. She raised the heavily fringed lids with an appealing glance; her lips trembled. "You are going to leave me?" she asked. She leaned against the mirror, which reflected her brilliant loveliness in a dazzling flash.

left the room."

When I came out, I thought you had

But he gave it no glance of his.
"Are you not too proud to ask that?" he asked, with his first touch of scorn. "Perhaps it will surprise you." he said quietly, "to know that I am going to Irwell road. I must see to that other girl's pride—the pride of honorable poverty—that it shall bring to her no hurt. I may be of service to the mother whom you are too proud to own. Perhaps, who knows, in some way I may be able to pay your debt for you; but you are even more heartless than I think you if you allow remembrances of that debt to be wiped out." He passed through the door and was

The curtains swung heavily into place, and she heard, as one in a dream, his receding steps upon the stairs.

Snide Lights on History. From the Chicago Journal.

Job was waiting patiently for the dooor. At last he came. "Doc," said Job, "can you tell me the difference between me and David! "I'm up against it," said the doctor. "Well," said Job, "David is a manly boy and I am a boily man.

This was only another of Job's hu-"Why," said Samuel Johnson, one evening to David Garrick, "Is a misogynist like an epithalamium?" "Mistah Johnsing," said Garrick, who was a wonderful impersonator, "dat am a ve'y difficult question. misogynist like a epifalmium?"

"A misogynist is like an epithalamium," responded the great lexicographer, 'because each is a verse to mar-

Garrick was simply convulsed.

From the Chicago News.

"What are you going to do with all that patent medicine?" asked a man of a neighbor who was carrying haif a desen bottles.

"Wire's going to take it." he replied.

"Why," said the other in surprise. "I didn't know she was ill."

"Oh, she isn't," answered the party of the second part, "but she waits to get her picture in the papers."