ON THE WATERPRONT.

Indications point strongly to the fact that the differences of opinion which have existed for the past three weeks between the marine engineers and the Steam Schooners' association at Sar Francisco have been about satisfactorily adjusted. In fact it is believed by those who are in a position to know that it has been practically settled.

The steamer Dalles City has been taken off the ways, and after being painted will be ready to go out on her regular run between Portland and The Dalles.

"BESURBECTION."

Realism boiled to the bone: concenrated to 100 per cent pure and dosed out in allopathic quantities—this is Toistoi's "Resurrection," played by Blanche
Walsh and her company at the Marquam
Grand theatre last night.

"Resurrection" is designed apparently to teach a great moral lesson. Dominating everything save the horrible realism of Masiova's degradation, is the theme of the play—the pursuit of the ideal, the eternal strife between right doing and wrong doing, exemplified in the character of Dimitri. A prince of the realm sows wild oats. He forgets all about the crop, but one day wakes up to the har-vest. Casting aside his betrothed, a pure and innocent maid of the upper class, noon, it cleared up and was right for Dimitri lives only to make atonement the national game.
