7. CHARLEY: "Now, Lulu, don't be angry. It was an accident. Leander was so awfully anxious to pay the bill."
LULU: "Well, he ought to be more careful."
LEANDER: "Great Scott! I haven't got a cent in my pocket, I must have left all my money in my other clothes."

8. CHARLEY: "That is all right, old man. I am only too glad to have the pleasure of treating Lulu and you."
LEANDER TO LULU: "My dear, if you will only listen to me."
LULU: "Listen nothing. I never want to hear another word from you. You are too stupid to live. Go and wash your face."

9. LULU: "I never was so mortified in all my life. I'll never speak to him again."
CHARLEY: "Tut, tut, Lulu. Yes you will. It was only a comedy of errors with Leander slaving the head, that is all."
