SOUTHERN OREGON WANTS A LEAGUE

(Journal Special Service.) Medford, Jacksonville, Grants Pass and Ashland Baseball Sports Want to Form a Four-Club Association—Medford Making Arrangements.

(Journal Special Service.) Ashland, March 29.—The question of joining with Medford, Jacksonville and Grants Pass in the organization of a four-club league is exciting considerable talk among our local ball enthusiasts. This movement is worthy of support, not only from those who love the sport, but from our business men. Medford has subscribed $1,000 for the building of an athletic sport park, and will have a ball club this summer that will give a good account of itself against all comers. Jacksonville is in line, and signifies its intention of putting first-class teams in the field. As yet Grants Pass has not taken any definite action, but will undoubtedly do so at an early date. We trust that Ashland will not be found too indifferent to the game and to the advertising that would follow the organization and support of a No. 1 ball club, and withhold its support from the movement.

Billy Hulen as Coach. We have the talent, and in Billy Hulen, we have a coach and advisor whose interest may be depended upon to carry our end of the league to a triumphant ending. Talk it up, men, for you'll be sorry to read of the good-natured rivalry in sports between our neighboring towns this summer, and have to sit by and take no part in the enjoyment. The Medford organization, which will be incorporated, will commence work on their grounds the ensuing week, as his batting and base running has materially assisted in winning the two games thus far credited to Seattle.

Pete Lohman's bunch winds up the first week of the season in the position that they occupied at the close of last year's race, but it is safe to say that the Oaklanders will not always occupy that place.

MULTNOMAH CLUB EXPRESSES THANKS

The following letter of thanks from the directors of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club has been forwarded to J. Wesley Ladd, as an acknowledgment of the club's appreciation of the donations he tendered the football players of last season. Mr. Ladd's gifts were solid gold miniature footballs and they are prettily decorated and highly prized by the players who received them. The letter follows: "J. Wesley Ladd, Esq., City.—Dear Sir: The board of directors at their regular meeting March 17, passed a resolution of thanks for your generous donation to the football players, in appreciation of their splendid work during the past season. The directors are extremely grateful for your kindly interest and thoughtfulness in making it evident to the football players that their hard work is appreciated by individual members. Yours very truly, "W. A. ROBB, Secretary Multnomah A. A. Club."

SPORTING NOTES. Walter Jennings, the well known horseman, is credited with winning $29,000 with his entries this season in California. M. J. Daley is second, his horses having earned $13,250, and D. E. Fountain comes third with a purse of $10,600. Floyd McFarlane, the San Jose cyclist, who has been doing good work in Australia, has been suspended for 30 days for "interfering" in a race with Major Taylor, the colored American cyclist, at Melbourne.

DIAMOND GLISTENINGS

Alas, Poor Charles. Got his bumps. His curves were scattered. Fat from the neiglers' hands they flew. His feelings were hurt; his pride was humbled. Perchance, if Charles had his old sweater, that he so theatrically wrapped about his head last year, he wouldn't have lost the game. It's simply tiresome to hear different fans talk about poor Ike Butler. Several fair fans don't applaud "Old Reliable," that's the reason.

Dollars to guppies that Portland will take the series from Los Angeles this week. The Browns are a wee bit slow in getting off properly, but when they do start the pace will be mighty fast. McCredie is getting his batting eye. "The Judge" got two bingos of Thomas yesterday and scored Portland's only run. Erve Beck seems to be the Browns' pinch hitter. He has hit in most of the runs scored by Portland so far. Shields was wild and also proved easy for Mike's "Tads." "Dock Levy" will make them go some though when he gets started.

Ike Butler and Warren Hill will be the opposing slab artists in today's contest in Loo Lovell's. When the Browns get their batting eyes something will happen to the Los Angeles pitchers. Seattle goes up against the Tigers this afternoon and Fisher's men intend to show them a few things about the differences that exist in teams representing Seattle and "the only northwest burg that has a mountain of its own."

Among the old "stand-bys" of the team may be mentioned Perkins, Penland, Merchant, Veatch, Lewis and McKinney. All of these men are well-known in athletic circles of the state, and under Hayward's careful coaching ought to better their previous records. Trainer Hayward will reach Eugene on April 15, but in the meantime the training will be carried on under the direction of Captain Perkins. Training tables have been started and the candidates are rounding into form.

Schedule for Coming Season. Manager Tomlinson is now arranging his schedule, which includes dual meets with Willamette, Pacific, Corvallis and Washington. Oregon will not send a team to the N. W. L. A. A. meet at Walla Walla, as that's a financial risk would be heavy, and there is no guarantee of expenses attached to the meet. Local athletic enthusiasts are rather pessimistic concerning the Walla Walla meet, as it is quite evident that the affair will not prove a financial success. Their opinion is shared by the athletes of the University of Washington, Manager Sigrist having notified Manager Tomlinson that Washington will not enter a team in the N. W. L. A. A. meet for the same reason the "varsity" will discontinue her track and field meets with the Multnomah club. Oregon met and defeated Multnomah in 1901, 1902 and 1903, but lost money on all the meets, the gate receipts in each instance being insufficient to defray the transportation expenses. The local athletes always enjoyed these meets with the Portland clubmen, as the contests were productive of good sport and good feeling.

OREGON AGRICULTURE TO SEND TRACK TEAM

(Journal Special Service.) Corvallis, March 29.—It has been decided to enter a field and track team in the indoor meet which takes place in the gymnasium of Columbia University at Portland, April 16. The meet is given by Columbia University, and medals aggregating about $200 in value are offered as prizes. The schedule includes nearly all the events incident to an outdoor meet, save the long hurdles, the hammer throw and the 100-yard dash, the track being too short for the latter contests. The O. A. C. team will be selected early in April, and will comprise about 10 men.

THE VOICE OF CONQUEST. (By Herbert Bashford.) I hew my pathway with the sword. I slay peace and say I throttled crime! Ring round with fame the savage horde! Weave crimson in the robe of time! With saber stroke and thrust of lance I shake the region with the sword. And teach the hosts of ignorance. The sweetness of enlightenment! I search for gold and gleaming gem, I seize fairest islands of the sea. Find noble folk and fling to them From cannon mouth—humanity! I seek the realm where dulleards dwell. I make each brutish weakling feel. The good there is in shriek of shell. The blessings wrought by fire and steel. What matter if Death's pride be war. Or weakness be the slave of might; Is progress not a conqueror, And power another name for right? What matter if I crush the free. Or if ten million men be slain? Am I not lord of destiny. The Anglo-Saxon god of gain?

ATHLETIC OUTLOOK AT STATE VARSITY

TRACK TEAM HAS LOST SEVERAL GOOD MEN AND PROSPECTS ARE NOT BRIGHT—SEASON'S SCHEDULE—AMONG THE FOOTBALL CANDIDATES.

(Journal Special Service.) University of Oregon, Eugene, March 29.—Although the wet weather has prevented outdoor exercise, candidates for the varsity track team are working faithfully. Every afternoon, from 4 until 6 o'clock, Capt. C. N. Perkins and his fellow athletes may be seen in the gymnasium, where preliminary work is being done. The prospects for a winning team are not so good as they might be, for Sargeant Payne, Foley and Henderson, four of the best men on last year's team, are not in college, and their places will be hard to fill. Foley holds the northwest intercollegiate record for the mile run, while Payne holds similar records for the 440 and 330 yard runs. Henderson and Sargeant were not record-holders, but they were sure point-winners last season, and the "varsity" will miss them this year. The absence of these four men leaves a big gap in the ranks of the team, but Manager Tomlinson and Captain Perkins are by no means discouraged. There are more candidates for the team this season than there were a year ago, and Trainer Hayward will have the finest bunch of material that ever represented Oregon on the track. The freshman class contains a bunch of fast men and unless the signs fall Hayward, who, by the way, is one of the cleverest trainers in the business, will develop a number of surprises. Long, formerly of McMinnville college, is regarded as a "comer" in the sprints, as is Gordon Moores of Oregon City, who is a brother of Merrill Moores, a crack athlete of the O. A. C. Cronin of Pendleton has good records in the weights and jumps, and there are any number of freshman candidates for the distance runs.

WARREN DROPS INTO RHYME. From the New York World. When Eugene Ware was offered his political place as commissioner of pensions by the president he said: "I don't want it, Mr. President. I don't like the place." "Oh, that's all right," the president replied reassuringly, "and the longer you have the place the less you will like it."
