SKILLFUL FOILSMEN

(Journal Special Service.) New York, April 1.-In the gym nasium of the New York Athletic club this evening the most skillful foilsmen of the country meet in a con-test for championship honors. The occasion is the championship tournament of the Intercollegiate Fencing as-sociation. The tournament this year is of unusual interest on account of the number of institutions of the highest athletic standing brought together. Teams are present from Harvard, Yale, University of Pennsylvania, West Point, Annapolis, Columbia and Cornell. The chances of victory seem to favor either West Point or Annapolis, with Columbia

FOOTBALL PRACTICE BEGINS AT HARVARD

(Journal Special Service. Cambridge, Mass., April 1.—Pursuant to the call of Captain Hurley of the Harvard 'Varsity football team, the candidates for this year's eleven turned out for the spring practice work today. The training will continue two weeks and will be watched with interest, as there are a number of promising new men in the aggregation. As in former years the practice is to be elementary, consisting of signals, kicking, catching, tackling and other rudiments. It is possible that there will be some line-ups the last of next week.

KELLY TO COACH MOUNT ANGEL

(Journal Special Service.) Mount Angel College, Or., April 1. The services of "Father Tom" Kelly, who has renounced the diamond, having turned down offers from McCloskey and the Minneapolis club to play this season, and who is now on a short vacation from the Seattle postoffice, has been secured to coach the college nine. Under his capable coaching and with the promising material now here prospects for a good team are bright. Practice games are to be arranged with the teams of the Oregon State league.

NOT ON GOOD PRIDAY.

(Journal Special Service) Kansas City, Mo., April 1 .- The 20round bout between Hugo Kelly and "Twin" Sullivan, which was scheduled to take place before the Missouri Athetic club tonight, will take place tomorrow night instead. The reason for the change of date was because today is Good Friday, and Sullivan refused to do
