FIERCE BATTLE WITH HUGE BEAR

A LINCOLN COUNTY FARMER KILLS A FINE COW AND GOES IN SEARCH AFTERWARDS A BEAR IN ACT OF DEVOURING HER—TWO CUBS FOUND IN MOTHER'S CAVES.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Albany, Ore., April 5.—Fred Dawson and Edwin Stone were at Newport over Sunday, returning home last night. They bring the report of an encounter with a bear recently had by a farmer who had been hunting in Lincoln county. Thomas Blower, the farmer in question a few days ago bought a fine cow and turned her out on his place. As the cow failed to come up when expected, Mr. Blower started out to find her, taking with him an ax. He found the animal after a short search. She was dead, and a big bear was feasting on old bossy's carcass. Blower attacked the bear and the brute fled, taking refuge in her cave. Blower came forth again, evidently believing the farmer had abandoned his project to kill. But Mr. Blower was on the ground and charging instantly he inflicted a deep wound in the animal's shoulder with his ax. At the same time his dog closed in on the bear, and the man soon found a chance to again strike. He did this, splitting the brute's head open, and ending the fight. Blower then entered the cave, the rancher found a couple of half grown cubs and these he secured as trophies of his conflict with the bear. Mr. Dawson is now negotiating for the two cubs and the skin of the animal. They will be brought to Albany, and placed in a bear pit for the amusement and entertainment of Mr. Dawson and his friends.

Shops Come to Albany.
While at Yaquina Manager Stone announced that the railroad shops at that place would be moved to Albany, owing to the fact the buildings occupied there are fast falling down, while in this city the company owns good buildings that at a little expense can be put in shape for the shops. This move will be made in the near future, and will benefit Albany for it will bring quite a few families here. The removal will be made this spring and work on the buildings here will begin at once to get them ready.

Will Play Baseball.
The baseball team recently organized in this city met last night and adopted the name "The Young Albany." The team has accepted the challenge of a pick-up team here for a game at Rambler park for next Saturday afternoon and that game will be followed by others. Tomorrow afternoon the Wiedemann theatrical company will play a pick-up team at Rambler park for amusement, and if the weather is good a big crowd will be out to see the sport—the first game of the season.

To Try Murder Case.
J. R. Wyatt left this morning for Burns, Harney county, where he will join his partner, J. K. Weatherford, to defend George S. Miller, the Harney county cattleman, for murder. Miller having recently been granted a new trial, Miller and a man named Caldwell were convicted of the murder of A. Warren Curtis, a Harney county rancher. On appeal, Miller secured a reversal of the conviction, and a new trial was granted. Miller and Caldwell are expected to return from Burns for trial two weeks to prepare the case for trial.

Two Receptions.
At the Methodist parsonage tomorrow evening, a reception will be tendered to Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Littler, who were married in Eugene, Ore., and are expected to return from their bride-tour to the sound tomorrow. Invitations have been extended to the members of the congregation and the friends of the young couple to attend. Invitations are also being sent to the home of D. P. Mason, for next Friday evening, to be tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Mason and Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Littler.

Is Pleased Guilty.
Samuel L. Lyons, indicted at the former term of the court for selling liquor without a license, appeared before Judge Boise in circuit court yesterday, pleaded guilty and was fined $200 and costs. An amusing incident occurred in this connection before court convened that caused a good deal of merriment around the court house. Mr. Lyons, who is an old man, met Judge Boise in the corridor. The two shook hands, whereupon the judge commented on the fact that Lyons had pleaded guilty. "I hope you will be good to me," said the aged jurist, thinking the man was a party to a civil case, said: "I will be as good to you as to the other man," and the judge remembered the incident and when the case was disposed of, told the story to some of the members of the bar.

Pioneer Woman Dead.
Mrs. Cynthia Triles, aged 67 years, a pioneer of 1852, died in this city at midnight Sunday night, and was buried in the Butte cemetery near this city this afternoon. She was a native of Indiana, and came with her parents to Oregon in 1852. Here she married and became the mother of eight children, three of whom survive. Her husband died 35 years ago, and she lived since that time with one of her sons. She was an earnest Christian woman, dearly beloved by a large circle of warm and devoted friends, and her death is deeply mourned.

Strike at Astoria Is Well Conducted.
(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Astoria, Ore., April 5.—Carpenters and longshoremen who are out on strike, the former for an eight-hour day and the latter for more pay, are attending strictly to their own business and enjoying the support of the great majority of the people here. Two building contractors today state that they have with two men who will be able to add more non-union men to their force of mechanics. The union carpenters are taking contracts and are working a number of men on small jobs about the city. Until a meeting of the Central Labor union it is not expected that the longshoremen will take final steps in their contention.

Quilt Pro Quo.
From Judge.
"Another fifty-dollar hat this spring?" asks the frate husband. "Why, you got one last year, didn't you?"
"What if I did?" asks the argumentative wife. "You only spent the $50 once last spring, didn't you?"
A Bed Awakening.
From Judge.
De Style—He said his wife's Easter bonnet was a dream.
Gumbusta—He did?
De Style—Yes, but when he got the bill it opened his eyes.

NOTICE—The agency and correspondence work of the Journal is now being done by R. W. Kelly, who has his headquarters in the Telegram building, where news items will be taken and subscriptions, payments and complaints received.

In advance are Steve Green and H. B. Nichols. The Crown Boy mine is incorporated with a capitalization stock of $50,000. Local business men hold the stock and intend to develop the mine and if it prove worth while a stamp mill will be installed this summer.

Don't Want Killen.
Arthur Hall, of Damascus precinct, was in Oregon City yesterday, and reports that the Democrats in that section of the county are well organized. He says that the Republicans in his part of the county want Killen as commissioner at this election. T. B. Killen, of Killen precinct, who retires at the next election, is said to want a reelection to the position of commissioner. This election would not be satisfactory to the northern part of the county, and it is reported from there that if Killen receives the nomination the Republicans in that part of the county will support a Democrat. Hall reports that the part of the county from which he comes will be well represented at the Democratic convention, which meets on Saturday.

Apportionment to School Fund.
The county school superintendent has just received the apportionment that the county allows for the school fund. The total fund amounts to $27,141.28. This allows $5 per capita and gives each district $5, which completes the $50 that is allowed the districts by a recent school law.

Republicans Gathering.
The Republicans are gathering their hosts together in Clackamas county and will tomorrow hold their county convention in this city. The convention will be well attended, as the wet weather will prevent the farmers from working their fields and they might as well be in convention as lying around the farm. There is little excitement among the Republicans, as it is understood that the present officers will be re-nominated, as instances as in the first term with most of them. The only contest that is anticipated is over the position of school superintendent and commissioner. It will take the convention to decide who will fill these offices. In the matter of state representatives there is some doubt who will be selected. Hiram Webster of Clackamas will not be renominated, as he has another position with the state fish commission. C. G. Huntley will no doubt be renominated to represent this county in the state legislature and Frank Jaeger of Beaver Creek may be chosen for the convention to fill Webster's shoes.

Elect Vestrymen.
The vestrymen of St. Paul's Episcopal church met in the church last night in annual meeting and elected vestrymen to serve during the following year. All the old members were re-elected. They are: H. L. Kelly, J. R. Humphry, G. A. Harding, H. M. Templeton, William Wright, E. A. Chapman and W. B. Stratford. A meeting will be called shortly for the election of officers.

These Will Wed.
Yesterday was a big day in the clerk's office for marriage licenses, there being three granted those who would wed. The persons who were granted licenses are: Lena Scoggin and Julius Spagia, Gertha Rich and E. Shaw, and Pearl Looney and G. P. Looney.

Married Life Not Satisfactory.
Another divorce case has been commenced and is yet to be tried. In this instance Matilda Hopps wishes to be entirely freed from her husband Charles J. According to the complaint the parties were married in May, 1900, and her husband deserted her in November of the same year, showing that he either did not like married life or was not disposed to care for his wife. As the result of the marriage one child was born on April 3, 1901, and mother now not only seeks to be freed from the neglectful father, but wishes the custody of the minor child as well as the right to assume her former name of Matilda Smithson.

Witness to Wed.
The auditor of Clackamas county during the last two days has issued marriage permits to the following persons: John Bagley to Katherine Beatrice Meehan, William Penman to Mary Prettymann, A. W. Mellon to Jessie B. Ellis, Joseph Ware to Mildred Shaw, and Pietro Bassati to Guiseppeina Verdaglio.

Company Has Been Incorporated at Ilwaco, Wash., for the Improvement of the Obasot Marsh—1,800 Acres Comprised Tract—Big Things Expected.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Ilwaco, Wash., April 5.—Articles for the incorporation of the Pacific Cranberry company, which recently purchased the old Obasot cranberry marsh, on Shoemaker island, have been filed in the office of the county clerk. The capital stock is $50,000, and the incorporators are Dorsey B. Smith, superintendent of the I. R. & N. company, J. M. McArthur, a realtor at Fortland, and proprietor of the Breakers hotel at North Beach, and A. A. Arthur, his wife.

Price for Catching Columbia Salmon.
The Chabot marsh is the largest on the Pacific coast, comprising more than 1,800 acres, over half of which is covered with lakes and sloughs, which afford ample irrigation facilities. The purchase price was in the neighborhood of $30 per acre and the tract is now 100 Acres Under Cultivation. Less than 100 acres of the tract is under cultivation at the present time, but the new proprietors will gradually clear up the remainder of the available acreage. An extensive irrigating plant will be installed. Past attempts have demonstrated that cranberries can be successfully cultivated on the lower coast. Under ordinarily favorable circumstances as high as 50 barrels per acre can be grown, and with the total available acreage of the Chabot tract under cultivation the output would be enormous. The first attempt at cranberry raising on the peninsula was made in the early 80's by a Frenchman named Chabot, whose name the ranch bears. From the start the venture was a paying one, and berries of the very best grade were gathered in abundance. Later Chabot died, and his wife soon left the ranch. It was later leased to a Chinaman, who allowed it to go to ruin.

Decided by Josiah.
From the Chicago Record-Herald.
"Well, of course," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "the subject of the picture may not be exactly what we should have chosen if we could have advised the artist, but we don't soil our mal y sense, you know."
"Oh," replied her hostess, "is that what it is?" Josiah claimed that he brought it home that it was a Roman girl who had just been in bathing."

Fabulously Wealthy.
From the Chicago Record-Herald.
"Are they very rich?"
"Oh, my, yes." Why, they have real eyes colored for their children on Easter."

Preparing for the State Encampment.
(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Salem, Ore., April 5.—The first week in August will probably be the time set for the encampment of the Oregon National guard. In view of the coming outing, many are enlisting and the number of soldiers now a little above 1,300. General Funston will fix the time after consulting with the state authorities. If a department encampment of regulars is held the place will be American Lake at Tacoma, and as it has been arranged for state troops to encamp with the regular soldiers, the Oregon militiamen will prepare to go out of the state.

DEMOCRATS LINE UP IN CLACKAMAS

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Oregon City, April 5.—Two hundred and sixteen delegates were selected at the Democratic primaries here in Clackamas county yesterday. These will attend the county convention to be held in this city Saturday, April 9.

The delegates elected from the three Oregon City precincts are the following: No. 1—C. W. Evans, J. J. Cole, J. E. Westover, E. D. Kelly, Tom Fairclough, Mort Latourette, O. D. Eby, H. E. Straight, J. W. Cole, J. E. Jack, M. E. Bolack, No. 2—J. E. Lovett, J. E. Hedges, C. W. Kelly, W. E. Parli, Harry E. Draper, M. Chapman, E. G. Caulfield, G. A. Harding, George Purseful, A. L. Beattie, M. C. Strickland, No. 2—E. H. Corning, J. J. Fred, J. Myers, John Westman, Charles Ely, W. B. Stafford, Henry Cooke.

The following persons will probably come before the convention for the offices which respectively precede their names: Sheriff—Frank J. Hiding, Marquam; Del Trullinger, Union Miller; R. B. Beattie, Beaver Creek; A. D. Burnett, Eagle Creek; Clerk—M. N. Crisell, Union; Treasurer—N. F. Nelson, Harding; Recorder—No candidates; Assessor—Jacob Reik, of near Aurora; School Superintendent—H. L. McCann, Parkplace; H. G. Starkweather, Millwaukie; Commissioner—John Hatten, Union.

Two Ways.
Have you noticed a difficulty in breathing—short, quick breath—when you are walking going up stairs, singing, or are angry and excited? You may not think what this means, but doctors will tell you it means weak heart action.

Take Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure at once. It contains no opiates, and builds up the weakened nerves and muscles of the heart, and make it strong and healthy. This is one way—the right way. Neglect it a little while, and you will then notice fluttering, palpitation, dizziness, fainting spells, pain in region of heart, side and shoulders, stomach and kidney troubles. This is serious. It is the other way—the wrong way.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is a safe, sure remedy, and is curing heart disease right along, as thousands will testify. "I had enlargement of the heart. The doctors said I could live but a short time. I took Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which restored me to perfect health."—A. M. BARNETT, Wellington, Ohio. Money back if first bottle fails to benefit.

ST. RAYNER BECOMES MEMBER OF THE BAR
(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Salem, Ore., April 5.—Henry St. Rayner of Portland was admitted to the bar yesterday by action of the supreme court. The order of the court was made on the petition of Governor Chamberlain, Mayor George H. Williams of Portland and many business men and attorneys of that city.

GREAT INDUSTRY IN CRANBERRIES
COMPANY HAS BEEN INCORPORATED AT ILWACO, WASH., FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE OBASOT MARSH—1,800 ACRES COMPRISED TRACT—BIG THINGS EXPECTED.

PRICE FOR CATCHING COLUMBIA SALMON
(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Astoria, Ore., April 5.—Fishermen's prices for catching salmon will be the same this year as last. At a meeting of the Columbia River Fishermen's Protective union last night the price for fish weighing under 25 pounds was fixed at 5 cents, and for fish over 25 pounds at 7 cents.

Consumption Cured
Foley & Co., Chicago. Dana, Ind., Sept. 28, 1902.
Gentlemen:—FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR cured me of consumption after I had suffered two years and was almost desperate. Three physicians failed to give me any relief and the last one said he could do me no good. I tried almost every medicine I heard tell of without benefit until FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR was recommended to me. Its effect right from the start was magical. I improved steadily from the first dose and am now sound and well, and think FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is a God-send to people with Throat and Lung Trouble.
Yours very truly, Mrs. Mary Ambrose.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR contains no opiates and does not constipate like ordinary cough medicines.

ANTI SALOONISTS LOSE AT EUGENE

ONE OF THE HOTTEST POLITICAL FIGHTS THAT HAS EVER HAPPENED IN LAKE COUNTY WAS WITNESSED YESTERDAY—PREACHER SLAPPED IN FACE.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Eugene, Ore., April 5.—The city election yesterday was a hotly contested one, the principal issue being the saloon question, although the questions of the Carnegie library and municipal ownership of light and water plants cut quite a figure.

The advocates of saloon license elected three of the four councilmen, W. W. Calkins, anti-saloon nominee, winning over Alton Hampton in the first ward by a good majority. The library and light and water plants carried by large majorities.

The following were the successful candidates: Recorder, R. F. Dorris, no opposition; treasurer, Frank Reesever, no opposition; councilman from first ward, W. W. Calkins, anti-saloon, over Alton Hampton; councilman from second ward, R. B. Henderson, license, over E. McMurphy; councilman from third ward, George B. Dorris, license, over William W. Davis; councilman from fourth ward, J. D. Matlock, license, over Charles L. Scott.

There was considerable excitement over the election. During the campaign there has existed a bitter feeling between the anti-saloon forces and their opponents. At the polls in the fourth ward about noon Rev. F. B. Rowland, pastor of the M. E. church, who has taken an active part in the campaign, and Councilman J. D. Matlock, who was a candidate for re-election, became engaged in a heated discussion, resulting in the councilman slapping the minister in the face. Bratarders interfered and further trouble was averted.

UNDER ARREST FOR STRIKING PRIVATE

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Eugene, Ore., April 5.—As a result of the trouble which occurred in the Army of the other night between Captain Williams of company C and several of the members of company A, in which Captain Williams struck Private Ora Wilson with his stick, the captain and Lieut. Ray Babb of company A, have been placed under arrest by Major G. O. York, commanding the first separate battalion. Charges have been filed against both officers and the papers sent to Governor Chamberlain for his approval. The governor will call a court-martial in the near future to try Williams and Babb.

CHINAMEN FEED THEIR DEAD ONES

LIVE CELESTIALS GATHER AROUND THE GRAVES OF THE DEPARTED BROTHERS, AND WITH ROAST PIG, CHICKEN AND FRUIT, INVITE THE "HAW SHENS" BACK TO HARTZ.

(Journal Special Service.)
Corvallis, April 5.—At Crystal Lake cemetery Sunday local Chinamen held high carnival over the graves of four of their departed fellow countrymen. The Celestials went from town to the silent city in carriages and a crowd of whites followed to see what was going on. Roast chicken and pork, and other food was placed beside the graves on a mat, and a jug of imported wine was opened and the liquor poured on the mounds. Apples and oranges, cut into small bits, were also scattered on the graves.

Funks and candles were burned while the heathen ceremony progressed, and bits of burning paper were thrown here and there. When the rites were concluded the food was gathered up and brought back to town by the Chinamen. The latter fact showing that the Celestials are progressive in learning American tricks, since on past occasions, hereabouts, the roast pig and chickens were left at the graves, only to be devoured by a crowd of white youths, after the departure of the Chinamen who placed them there.

It Happens Friday Evening.
Friday evening next, at the Philomath college, occurs the state contest of the Exhibition league. Efforts are on foot for a special train, to run to Philomath and return on that occasion, and it is probable that such a train will be sent through from Albany. Miss Alva Wicklund will represent the Oregon Agricultural college in the contest.

An Absurd Proposal.
From Judge.
Clarence Willyboy—I have come to consult you in regard to breaking my uncle's will.
Bill Conkey (lawyer)—How much did he leave?
Clarence Willyboy—Five thousand dollars.
Bill Conkey—Break a five-thousand-dollar will? Why, my young fellow, five thousand dollars is worth a lot more than you think it is.
