OLD FIRE HORSES GET GOOD HOMES

MAYOR WILLIAMS FAVORS SUGGESTION OF HUMANITY SOCIETY OFFICERS THAT STRAYS DOING LONG PUBLIC SERVICE SHOULD NOT BE SOLD TO HORSE MASTERS

Eleven aged horses, which have served Portland in the fire department between 15 and 20 years, will not be sold at public auction and turned out into the world to whomsoever may purchase them and be subjected to hard work the remainder of their lives. At a meeting of the executive board, to be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon, W. T. Shanahan, secretary of the Oregon Humanity society, will offer to place the old horses in homes where they will be given care and comfort, and Mayor Williams, H. W. Goddard and H. C. Wortman, the latter two constituting the purchasing committee of the executive board, will recommend that the offer be accepted.

THE BALTIMORE SHOE & CLOTHING COMPANY

Is Intended to Overshadow the Boldest Attempt at Bargain Exhibitions ever known in Portland—$100,000 STOCK of the BALTIMORE SHOE & CLOTHING CO.

Which we bought at 25 cents on the $1.00, is being sacrificed every day, and tomorrow, Saturday, in order to give the delegates to the several political conventions—those of them yet remaining in the city—an opportunity to fit themselves out with high class clothing before returning to their homes and daily avocations, we will crack the prices on everything down to figures that will not be believable unless they be seen.

FOR EXAMPLE

We have at The Hub 300 Men's Wool and Worsted Suits, as good as when they left the tailors, sold by the Baltimore Shoe & Clothing Co. at $12.50. Our price . . . . . $10.00

450 Men's All-Wool Suits, handsome and trim as they can be, sold by the Baltimore Shoe & Clothing Co. at $12.50. The Hub bought them at 25 cents on the dollar, and the reader may have them at each . . . . . $3.75

500 Men's Superbly Swell Spring Suits, sold in Baltimore at $15. The Hub sells them at, per suit . . . . . $5.00

1,000 of the most Elegantly Swell Spring Suits ever looked upon by the eyes of Portland men, in chevots, tweeds and worsteds, fine French, English and German importations, in black, blue and fancy colors; a swell line of blue serges in single and double breasted; also Vicunas, Tibets, unfinished worsteds, the pride of the Baltimore Shoe & Clothing Co., and sought after there at $20, $25 and $30, and by us retailed at the appealingly low price of the suit . . . . . $10.00

The foregoing are but samples of our Clothing Bargains.

We Have $40 Suits we sell at $15.00

And other Clothing Astonishments that we have not room to mention in the limited space of this advertisement.

$15.00 Top Coats $6.50

There are 300 of them that are gems of the tailor's art—that shine in the firmament of delightful dressers—and although they were sold in Baltimore at $12.50, $15, and $17.50, The Hub sells them away out here in Oregon at each . . . . . $6.50

200 Top and Overcoats, in tans, overplaid and coverts, the black silk-lined Tibets, Vicunas and unfinished worsteds, the medium-weight grays and dark mixtures; Baltimore Shoe & Clothing company's price was $20, $25, $30 and $40; Hub's Fire Sale price is . . . . . $10.00

Our Fire Sale Trousers

1,400 pairs of Men's Worsted Pants, in new spring patterns, sizes to fit the smallest or largest man, Baltimore prices $2; The Hub's price . . . . . 75¢

1,200 pairs Men's Wool Worsted Pants, finely made and finished, cheap in Baltimore at $3 and $4. The Hub sells 'em at . . . . . $1.50

1,000 pairs Men's Pants in all-wool half-line stripes and pretty new check effects, the B. S. & C. Co.'s price $4, $5, $6 and $7; our price . . . . . $2.50

And these are merely indications of our Pants Bargains. We have scores of others "on the hook."

Hats AT FIRE SALE PRICES

The Baltimore Shoe & Clothing company were the largest hatmakers in that city. Its stock included the famous Stetson. Its stock we bought at 25 cents on the $1, comprising the newest spring styles. We have thousands of these hats at:

Fine Show Hats, worth $1.00, for. . . . . 25¢

750 Hats in soft and stiff shapes, in black, brown and tan; Baltimore Shoe & Clothing Co.'s price $1.50. The Hub's Fire Sale price is . . . . . 50¢

400 dozen Spring Hats that came from the factory the day before the great Baltimore fire; not hurt a bit; the Baltimore Shoe & Clothing people made a lender of this hat at $2.50. The Hub's Fire Sale price . . . . . $1.00

250 cases of the Famous Longley Hats, sold everywhere at $3 to $4. The Hub will give you choice of this splendid assortment at . . . . . $1.50
