SOCIETY BEGINNING TO THINK OF ITS SUMMER OUTINGS &

the desire to be out with nature and already many are making plans for visits to the mountains and the seashore. A number have left Portland during the were decorated with dogwood and Ore- 12 and a dainty menu was served. Be-Wagner music festivals in Germany have attracted many to Munich and Riereuth. Several others are preparing to leave soon, some for Europe, others for the eastern states.

With this general "closing up" atmosphere comes the tendency to round up club affairs. Several dancing clubs and card clubs have given their last entertainment of the season and others have Their invitations out.

The April weddings have massed up at the end of the month and some prom-The Burpee-Failing and Lathrop-Harris weddings are of particular interest this Church affairs seem to have suffered no decadance. Unusual social activity has marked religious circles this week. the same time it could not be otherwise. The amateur production of "The Ameer" by the Multnomah club has occasioned much enjoyment and amusement.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The pretty home of Mrs. A. J. Giesy at 746 Irving street, presented a gay picture of life and color, Wednesday afternoon, April 27, when Mrs. Glesy re-ceived 350 of her calling list during the urs from 3 to 6 o'clock.

The color scheme of green and white was preserved throughout the rooms. were distributed about the hall, boughs of Oregon grape and boquets of white lilacs graced the reception-room and dining-room, and the whole effect was enhanced by the soft light of greenshaded lamps. The porch, closed in with canvas, was transformed into a ferns, hanging baskets of vining plants, and swaying bird cages with singing canaries. Rugs and pillows gave a cosy effect. From one end came sweet strains of music from Webber's orchestra; at the other end Mrs. Thomas in Masonic hall, on Alder street. Lewis Tarpley and Mrs. W. W. Cotton.

ception-room. Mrs. S. R. Johnston, Mrs. piece and a handsome cut-glass vase filled with lilies of the valley. Asparagus evening was concluded to the tables. The fern and white violets were on the by the buffet. Mrs. H. C. Allen, Mrs. C. J. Reed, solo, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal and Mrs. C. F. Adams presided in the dining-room and carried out the color scheme with their dainty white frocks.

Mrs. Clarke were white crepe with lace Ross island and had a light luncheon met Wednesday, April 27, at the residence of Mrs. T. T. Davis, on Thurman street, Willamette Heights.

in Oregon City, Friday evening, April efficiency as head floor manager. Everge, the event being a leap year dance est's orchestra furnished the music. An important social event took place hall was effectively decorated with Oregon grape and apple blossoms, the corners being draped to form grottoes. The leap year customs were strictly obin attendance, many visitors from Portland being present. The patrons of the occasion were Mr. Clyde G. Huntley, Mr. scene in the delft pattern, included several distinctly German numbers. The sang." The club members are the Misses Lewthwaite and Marjorle Caufield.

* * Mrs. Ma
Stainer sacred cantata, "The Daugh-'ter of Jairus' was given under the di-rection of J. Adrian Epping, by the vocal department of the Western Academy of Music, Saturday evening, April 30. nough, instructor of music at the Oregon Agricultural college, Corvallis were the patronesses. opus 72, which was very well received Father Dominic of Mount Angel, a prominent figure in Oregon musical spheres, was accompanist for the evening. The street, Tuesday evening, April 26, program was excellent and was appreciated by the large number present.

Scott academy gave an informal dance tion prize, a small box of candy, was Saturday evening, which was well attended. Parsons' orchestra furnished carried off the alarm clock, his conso-

An enjoyable entertainment was given in Woodmen's hall, Friday evening, April ings of the rooms. The hostess was gram was given. Cards and dancing sister, Mrs. Thill. were enjoyed after the program. Re-freshments were served by the Women Woodcraft. The general committee was C. A. Elliott, A. L. Barbur and W.

A large number of friends were present at the meeting of the O. A. C. club, Friday evening, April 29, in the Manley block, corper of Williams avenue and Knott street. As musical program was given and several old graduates made

A party from Prof. Ringler's school see the Neill-Morosco company in "The Sword of the King." The party was given by Mr. Ringler to the winning played a guitar and mandelin duet, and side in a membership contest. There were ten young ladies present, daintily gowned in evening dress. The party neisted of the Misses L. Williams, Ruth Ballin, E. E. Ganzemiller, Zola Forrester, Edith Nordstrom, Alice Newell, Ella Streimer, M. B. Postum. Jessie and Lulu Thompson and Mr. Ringler. Miss Streimer was captain of the winning side. A similar party was national colors were used throughout the children's afternoon class the hall as decorations. Innumerable given the children's afternoon class a week earlier.

The Wisteria club met in their hall, Twelfth and East Pine streets, Thursday evening, April 28. There were 15 of whist. Miss Cassidy and Mr. W. Heltkemper won the first prizes, and Miss Kate Simmett and Dr. Hayes, consolation prizes. Refreshments were served and dancing concluded the even-The club will meet again Thursday, May 12.

comes a national cessation state 10 o'clock, Monday, was one of the three months and the corps members of indoor social activities, social features of the week. Mr. Ladd, were invited to meet her at Mrs. Law-Sunshine and warmth create president of the association, received his guests at the head of the stairs and white carnations and ferns. White primtertaining them. The reception-rooms in all the rooms. Covers were laid for served here by the ladles' auxiliary, and the Y, W. C. A. mandolin club dispensed sweet music throughout the evening. Three other rooms offered attractions in the way of athletic sports in the symnasium, the swimming pool and the handball court. Over a thousand guests attended, including many of the leading society people of the city. They expressed much surprise and pleasure at the work done by the Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. A. F. Biles entertained about 50 of her friends at a pleasant evening inent society people are among the list, of cinch, Wednesday, April 27, at her home, 161 North Twenty-fourth street. Huge bunches of dogwood were charmingly disposed about the mantleplece. the hall corner and stair landing, and red carnations brightened the effect occasionally. The first prizes were se-Much interest has been centered in cured by Mrs. A. L. McCully and Mr. the theatrical sphere. With Mrs. Fiske J. D. Sutherland; the second, by Mrs. cured by Mrs. A. L. McCully and Mr. and Miss Mannering in leading roles at W. C. Knighton and Mr. F. S. Doern-The hostess was assisted in becher. serving by Mrs. Kribs and Mrs. Ran-

Mrs. Henry W. Coe was hostess for a leasant evening of cards in Parsons' nall. Wednesday, April 27. The guests vere all members of the Cinch club, and this was the last meeting of the The rooms had a pleasant, nome-like atmosphere, with palms, rugs and couches. Cinch was played, and Mrs. Charles W. Sherman received the prize, an after-dinner coffee cup. The men's prizes were secured by Mr. W. C. Witzell, a coffee cup, and Mr. J. J. Read, an ash tray. Refreshments were served, Mrs. O. H. Bernard, Mrs. F. N. Gilbert, and Mrs. Hubert G. Colton ash canvas, was transformed into a sisting the hostess. After the supper use garden with palms and potted a short time was passed in dancing. The Corinthian chapter of the Eastern Star celebrated the official visit of Grand matron Mrs. Claude Gatch of Salem, Wednesday evening, April 27, O'Day served punch from a daintily eral of the grand officers of the state ecorated table and was assisted by Mrs. were present as guests. Aside from bert. the regular official work there was a Giesy and her sister, Mrs. Lewis presentation by the chapter of a silver G. Clarke, received the guests in the re- dish to Mrs. Gatch. Mrs. A. A. Stiles made the presentation speech. George W. Bates and Mrs. S W Church the program the company was served in the drawing-room assisted in intro- with refreshments in the dining room. ducing the guests and ushering them to The table decorations were white lilacs, by the grand officers, and a pleasing solo, "I Shall See His Face," by Miss Edna Protzman.

Miss Vesta Condon was hostess for ainty white frocks.

Mrs. Glesy was handsomely gowned in launch party on the river Friday eyenlack silk embroidery net over white. ing. April 29. The company landed on

The Newport club gave an enjoyable The New England Conservatory club dance in Woodmen's hall, Alder and East Sixth streets, Monday evening. April 25. The decorations were all in green Shaded lights in various colors were employed during the moonlight waltzes. Mr. Joseph Murphy demonstrated his ing party in Larowe hall. Thursday evening, April 28. About 50 couples were present, and Everest's orchestra fur served throughout. Dancing continued nished the music. The leading number till a late hour. About 100 couples were of the evening was a German figure called eccentric column. The next dance

The Progressive club met Monday Joseph E. Hedges, Dr. Leonard L. Pick-ens, Mr. Franklin T. Griffith, Dr. Ernst afternoon, April 25, with Miss C. A A. Sommer and Mr. Charles E. Latour-ette. Music was furnished by Everest's orchestra of Portland and the program, club, was present after an absence of which presented a charming little Dutch several weeks. The work of the after noon centered about a paper on "Philanthropists of America, most popular were: "It Was the Dutch," Jamieson. The program for the coming "Ha-Le-Ha-Le," and "Wein, Weib und Ge-year was arranged and plans made for the annual banquet, May 23. The meet-Martha Francis Draper, Cis Barclay ing next Monday with Mrs. James M. Pratt, Ethel Caufield, Laura Pope, Alice Moore, 620 East Morrison street, will be devoted to the study of Hawthorne. Mrs. Mabel Hansen will conduct the

The Misses Buckenmeyer and Jeffery gave the first of their series of shirtwaist parties Monday night, April 25, The piano and elecution departments in Parsons' hall. The hall was made sisted. Mr. Rasmus and Miss Minnie attractive with decorations of cedar and Bode gave readings. Mordaunt A. Good- palms, brightened by red lights. Mesdames J. T. Whalley and J. R. Bean

The Fortnight Cinch club was pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Butterfield, at 815 Kearney the first prizes, dainty souvenir spoons, being awarded to Mrs. W. A. Hathaway The faculty and cadets of Bishop and Mr. William Harder. The consola lation prize. The rooms were prettily decorated with dogwood blossoms, contrasting prettily with the dark finish-The club will meet spend their honeymoon. with Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Doernbecher Tuesday, May 10.

Mrs. John Williamson of McMinnville was at home to her friends Tuesday Burpee were married in Trinity chapel, afternoon, April 26, at the residence of Wednesday evening, at half after eiget die and carried white carnations. Sup-George T. Murton, 165 North Thirteenth street

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Griffith entertained the Aqua Pura Wisteria club at their residence, 737 East Taylor street. aylor street, church organist played the Lohengrin Whist was bridal music. Miss Henrietta Failing speeches. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the club.

* * Saturday evening, April 23. Whist was the game of the evening, Mrs. Griffith and Mr. Hepburn winning the first prizes, and Mrs. Dalgiel and Mr. Brooks for physical training attended Baker's the consolation prizes. Refreshments theatre Tuesday evening, April 26, to were served after cards and the reand Mr. Dalziel gave recitations. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Camp will entertain the club Saturday evening, June 4.

Edward Failing's home at $83 West Park street, only the family being pres-A pretty military ball was given in the Vancouver armory, Tuesday even-ing, April 26, by Company G, of the ent. Mr. and Mrs. Burpee left Thursday morning on their way to their future National Guard of Washington. The flags and vast draperies of bunting pre-Cornish Hertsche were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and served the military tone. The programs bore an appropriate patriotic design. Mrs. Watson T. Bodley, 188 North Six-Everest's orchestra from Portland furnished the music. Refreshments were teenth street, Wednesday, April 27. served in the club rooms throughout the Mr. Frank Borden and Miss Ruth Hall, both of Detroit, Mich., were mar-

Mrs. Julia A. Lawton gave a farewell ried at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, luncheon to Mrs. Freda Loescher April 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. noon train for a trip around the sound. Tuesday afternoon, April 25. Mrs. Loes-O. P. Graham, at 435 East Pine street. They will be at home in East Portland cher, who is president of Lincoln Gar. The house was profusely decorated with after June 1.

The Y. M. C. A. open evening from field corps, is going to Germany for ton's home. The table decorations were was assisted by the 21 directors in en- roses and white illacs were in profusion there were present Mrs. McDewitt, Mrs. Beidin, Mrs. Welch, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Shane, Mrs. Robbins, Mrs. Barth, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Willlams.

A delightful at home was given by Mrs. S. Livesley at her home on Sixth street on Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. Birdsall of Chicago. The rooms were artistically decorated with a profusion of spring flowers in harmony with the general tone of the interior. A unique and varied entertainment was provided by the hostess, concluding with a musical conundrum in which all took part, the music for which was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Jordan Purvine. Dainty prizes in handmade work were awarded to those ladies holding the highest scores. An afternoon tea was served in English style.

The Tuesday Afternoon club met at the home of Mrs. James Muckle, 62 Ella street, this week, the program being in charge of Mrs. J. D. Yeung. The study of Grecian art was continued from the last meeting. Mrs. W. B. Hall, prest-dent of the club, read a paper on "Praxitiles and His Work." Mrs. Robert Smith followed with a paper on "The Influence of Alexander on Grecian Art." Byron's "Maid of Athens" was sung by Mrs. O. P. M. Jameson, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Day of St. Helen's hall. Mrs. George Dunham gave a brief sketch of Greek history from the time lady's first prise, a china cake plate, and sketch of Greek history from the time Mrs. Herbert, Houghton, lady's second of Pericles to the invasion of the Romans, and Mrs. J. D. Hayes dis-cussed the decadence of the Grecian empire. A solo by Mrs. James Muckle "Just a'Wearyin' for You" (Carrie Jacobsbond), completed the program. The guests of the club were Mrs. Saxon, president of the Woman's club of Baker lity; Mrs. Drake, a club woman from an Francisco; Mrs. Benson from New Tork City, Mrs. J. A. Leas, Mrs. Ruth Tabler and Mrs. J. W. Day of Portland. Next week the club will meet in the art rooms of the Portland Library association to hear a lecture on Grecian sculpture and painting by Mrs. J. Allen Gil-

WEDDINGS.

Orra Du Bruille and Roy M. Doble were married Wednesday evening at the them being over 80. home of the bride's parents, 355 West served in the dining-room, which was coming to Oregon in 1875, where they Delos Robertson, Detrich Steiwer.

MR. JOHN E. LATHROP.

dogwood, ferns and apple blossoms.

Miss Lucy Failing and Mr. C. M.

and Miss Ernestine Falling attended the bride, and Mr. Stevens the groom. Mr. Henry Connor, Mr. Fred Strong, Mr.

Scott Brooke and Mr. Drake O'Reilly

The altar was simply decorated with lilacs. The bride was gowned in white and carried white forgetmenots and lillies of the valley. The bridesmaids, both in simple white frocks, carried home in Manchester, England.

A wedding supper was served at Mrs.

Miss May Belle Bodley and Mr. Joel

Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison per tooned garlands of green.

ers and ferns.

Tenth street.

were ushers.

white carnations.

April 27, uniting Miss Dorothy Mae Warren's class played during the even-

The hall and reception rooms were elab the ceremony. Miss Emma B. Stuart in orately decorated with Oregon grape, ecru voile, Miss Elizabeth Victor in gray party entered and took its place in the wore a tulle vell and carried bride's bay window. Here a wedding bell of roses. Mrs. Bates were white crepe and apple blossoms was hung among fes carried white carnations. The brides-girl with a huge bunch of white lilacs. Mr. and Mrs. Lathrop left Thursday

Mrs. Philip Bates, as matron of honor, for a trip to Seaside. They will be at and the Misses Jessie Ruth George and home after June 1 at 620 Park street.

decorated with Oregon grape, cut flow- white lilacs and Oregon grape. The Little Alice Leiter in dainty white crepe carried graceful bunches of Preceding the ceremony at 7 o'clock, etamine assisted in serving.

organdie preceded the party as flower maiden-hair fern.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN CANNON.

and Catherine Cannon last Monday celebrated their diamond wedding.

The cere- present at the wedding 60 years ago.

MRS. DOROTHY MAE HARRIS LA

organdle, and Miss Elsie Rueter in tan per was served after the ceremony at a

★ ★
The marriage of Miss Hattle Codding-ton and Mr. Richard P. Gerdes took place in Mizpah Presbyterian church, Wednesday, April 27, at high noon. The pretty. The church was decorated with dogwood and lilacs, the bridal party standing before a bank of green. Miss

Carrie Johnson sang "O, Promise Me," and Miss Lou Seete of Denver, Colo., played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was brought in by her father, Mr. H. Coddington, and was attended by her sister, Miss Stella. - Mr. Ray

The bride wore her traveling gown of A wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony to the relatives and a few mmediate friends at the home of Mr.

table was decorated with red carnations

Mr. and Mrs. Gerdes left on the after-Coddington, 584 Powell street.

home in Aberdeen, Wash.

Spalding was best man.

white carnations.

and ferns.

Salem, Or., April 29.—At their old have since resided. They have three home in Turner, where they have resided sons and an adopted daughter still livfor the last 25 years, surrounded by over ing, all of whom were present Monday 50 immediate friends and relatives, John with the exception of John T. Cannon, who is in Texas. The following were present: Mr. and

Mrs. John Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles The rooms were decorated with calla Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robertson, files and roses sent from California by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer King, Mr. and Mrs. a sister of the bride. At a table seated Jesse Steiwer, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pettywith the bride and groom were 12 others john, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humphreys, whose average age is 65 years, four of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Thomas, Mr. and them being over 80. Mrs. O. H. Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. A. Among the guests were Mrs. Mary W. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. M. Woods, Mr. Park street. Only relatives and immediate friends were present. The cere-present at the wedding 60 years ago. John Barnett, Mesdames Ida Lyens, M. mony took place in a bower of greens Among the gifts was a handsome Mor- E. Barr, Mary Pearce, Elizabeth Baker and was performed by Rev. Samuel E. ris chair given by their Turner friends. and H. Howe, Misses Edna and Alda Meminger, pastor of the Mount Tabor This youthful groom was born in Cannon, Alice Smith, Zelma and Elsie Methodist church. The bride and groom Queenstown, Isle of Man, 86 years ago. King, Etta Edith, Anna and Myrtle Robunattended. . The bride was He emigrated to Ohio when but 16 years ertson, Marian Steiwer, Baby King, gowned in cream-colored silk crepe, or old, later moving to lows, where he met Messrs. Augustus, Chester and Storrie namented with real lace. She carried a his future wife, Catherine Metteer, then Cannon, Archie and Johnnie Humphreys, shower bouquet of white carnations. a school girl of 19. For 31 years they Claude Lyons, Jasper King, Stockwell After the ceremony a supper was lived on a farm in Jasper county, Iowa, Cornelius, Enid, Harold, Frankie and

> The marriage of Mr. James T. Murphy emnized at St. Patrick's church at high soon Wednesday, April 27. The church prettily decorated with dogwood and Oregon grape and the altar was candles. Father Thompson performed the ceremony. Miss M. R. Brooks Veicken was bridesmaid and Mr. Gill groomsman.

The bride wore champagne colored crepe de chine trimmed with heavy lace nd carried a boquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, attired in cream etamine with lace applique, carried pink carna-

A wedding breakfast was served to the relatives only at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Neicken, 271 North Eighteenth street. Palms and blossoms graced the dining room and on the table was an elaborate centerpiece of pink and white carnations, white narcissus and fern.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy received their friends in the evening. Piano music by Miss Monks and Miss Brooks added to the entertainment. Miss Agnes Mc-Donald, Miss Agnes Dimmeen, Miss Flo Boilam and Mrs. J. W. Sweeney served refreshments. The wedding cake was cut and Miss Margaret Monks secured the dime, Mr. Henry Neicken the ring A very pretty wedding ceremony took Ella Williams as bridesmaids attended and Mr. James Murphy the thimble. place at the First Presbyterian manse, the bride. Mr. J. Lincoln Hart was best 454 Alder street, Wednesday evening, man. The violin club of Mrs. R. K. Miss Margaret McKinnon caught the oride's boquet. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will be at home Harris and Mr. John E. Lathrop. Rev. ing.

Edgar P. Hill performed the ceremony. Light refreshments were served after ifter May 10, at 629 Thurman street.

Miss Marie Rosetta Sutcliffe and Mr. Lorenzo Joseph Dame were married in Advent Christian church, on Third and Mr. Thomas Dodson sang "O Promise The bride was very charming, becom-Me." Miss Z. Hopkins played the ingly attired in white crepe de chine Lohengrin wedding march as the bridal ornamented with point applique. She Harrison streets, Monday April 25, at half after 8 o'clock. Rev. Charles Haffenden officiated.

The church was decorated with Ore gon grape, dogwood and apple blossoms the altar being massed with calls lilies maids, both in simple frocks of white and greens. A wedding bell of apple blossoms was hung in a bower where the ceremony was performed. Miss Crady and Mr. Lawrence attended the bridal couple. The bride wore white crepe dechine and carried

Mr. and Mrs. Dame will be at home at 314 Thurman street after May 15. The centerpiece was of ceremony was performed in the recep- Shortly after that they will leave for ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Dobie left on the evening train for Salem, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at Lohengrin bridal music. Miss Florence The marriage of The marriage of Miss Austine Garhome to their friends after May 4 at 401 Graham and Mr. Lester Graham at- land and Mr. Claude H. Goodhue was tended the bride and groom. The bride solemnized Wednesday evening, the 27th, was married in her traveling frock of at the family residence, 714 Everett light gray and carried white roses. The street, Only relatives and immediate bridesmald was gowned in white organ-die and carried white carnations. Sup-Mr. and Mrs. Goodhue left Wednesday evening for a brief visit in Britformed the ceremony, assisted by Right table simply but prettily decorated with ish Columbia. They will reside in was very quiet and simple, only a few intimate friends being present. The church organist played the The left Wednesday night for the left with the carnations. There were about 20 Seattle. A pretty wedding was celebrated in the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, at Albina, Tuesday morning, when Miss May Miller and Mr. William Albers were united in marriage at 8:30 o'clock. Miss May Diesslin sang "Oh, Promise Me." As the last notes died ceremony was performed by Rev. J. away, Miss Kearndy at the organ played R. McGlade and was very simple but the "Lohengrin" wedding march and the bridal party entered, ushered in by Messrs, Adrian Ward, George and Frank Miller. The bride entered on the arm of her father, Mr. Peter Miller, and was attended by Miss Margaret Rice as maid of honor. Mr. Frank Albers, the groom's brother, was best man. The church was beautifully decorated with dogwood and Oregon grape. Music continued softly throughout the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in white eta-mine over white taffeta elaborately navy blue and carried bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore blue silk and carried brint medallions of lace. She carried point medallions of lace. She carried creps de chine trimmed with all-over lace, and carried a shower bouquet of blue forget-me-nots.

An elaborate wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, 496 Albina ave-nue. Only the family and the bridal party were seated at the table. dining-room was decorated with wood and Oregon grape. A huge quet of white carnations and asparagus cantata and Mr. Pease's sole, and A. fern was the centerpiece for the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Albers will be at home after May 15 at 298 Hancock street. The groom is connected with the Albers held in the parish house.

Bros. Milling company of this city.

CHURCH EVENTS.

The Portiand Men's Methodist Social union gave a very successful reception from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The Portiand Men's Methodist Social union gave a very successful reception from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The occasion was a farewell reception tendered by the Ladies' Aid society of the delegates passing through the city on their way to the general conference in Los Angeles. From 6 to 7 o'clock an informal reception was held in the auditorium and the guests were welcomed and introduced as they arrived by the committee, J. E. Hazeltine, samuel Connell, J. D. Lee and W. R. Insley. Dr. Osmon Royal, president of the union, led the procession to the banthe union, led the procession to the ban-quet room. The tables were tastefully decorated with dogwood and apple blossoms, and the young women of the Ladies Aid society served. Numerous speeches by prominent Methodists, music by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hamilton and the presentation of a beautiful silver loving cup to Mr. and Mrs. Hol-lingshead by the Portland Methodists filled the remaining time. The guests, including the wives of the members,

The Rex Christus society of the Mis-pah Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Edwin Kester, at Twentyseventh and East Powell streets. Tues-day afternoon, April 26. An interesting program on the religion of China was given, after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Ladies' Ald society of Mispah Presbyterian church met in the church sariors Wednesday afternoon, April 27. Plans were made for the summer work They will conduct a social in the near future at the residence of Mrs. Max Shillock, 724 Ellsworth street. Ar-rangements are being made for a rumnage sale early in the fall.

funday school teachers throughout the ity, with Mrs. R. R. Steele as president, Miss Brown demonstrated the lesson for Sunday, and Mr. Steele gave a normal talk on it. Mrs E. R. Silver-thorn sang a solo, and Mrs. C. M. Kiggins gave a reading. Refreshments were served, Miss Mildred Whittlesy Refreshments assisting the hostess. The occasion was farewell to Mrs. Kiggins, a prominent worker in the union, who leave for Idaho next week.

The Thursday prayer meeting at Taylor Street Methodist church this week was turned into a social meeting. Vases and jars of flowers made the auditorlum cheerful, where some 300 guests gathered. Judge Caples presided over the meeting, and interesting spe were made by prominent church mem-Miss Greer and Mr. Gill contributed musical selections. Refreshments were served in the dining room.

The Men's league of the First Conregational church gave a social in the church parlors Monday evening, April Judge George gave an interesting and Oregon grape and the altar was massed with green, lighted with white the Russian point of view. Miss Bessie candles. Father Thompson performed the ceremony. Miss M. R. Brooks played the wedding march. Miss Annie played the wedding march. Miss Annie Song" (Howard Bennett). Miss Mar. Will Song" (Howard Bennett). Miss Mar. garet Shelley gave a humorous reading in darkey dialect, which was very well received. Oregon grape, cut flowers and boughs of apple blossoms were em-ployed in decoration. Refreshments were served, some of the ladies of the church assisting. Mr. H. S. Lewis was chairman of the social committee in

> The league plans to make the next monthly meeting one of special interest. A banquet is planned at which the church choir will be the guests of invited.

St. Mark's Episcopal church was crowded with parishioners and friends of the parish at the evensong services on Monday evening last in honor of St. Mark's day. Special services were held mark of the most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are in the most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are marked to the most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are marked to the most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are marked to the most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory. The patronesses are most successful affairs ever given in the Armory and the patron in the morning, conducted by the rector, Rev. John E. H. Simpson. Rt. Rev. F. W. Keator, bishop of Olympia, was the preacher at the evening service, taking Oberender, as his theme the gospel according to St. Floor C Mark. The music, directed by the choirmaster, Clyde B. Aitchison, included Sir John Goss' "Cantate Domino in F." and the offertory, "King Ever Glorious," from Stainer's Crucifizion, was sung by Lauren S. Pease with much breadth and dignity. Thomas G. Shepard's cantata, "The Sermon on the Mount," was successfully given its first performance in Portland. It is well catery exercises of the new tabernacle worthy of mention as a pleasing and of Central Christian church on East very melodious setting and rendition of Twentieth and Salmon streets, Sunday the familiar words of the sermon. The solos were sung by Mrs. John F. Logan, contralto; Thomas Dobson, soprano; Lauren S. Pease, tenor, and Clyde B. Aitchison, bass. The opening chorus, the Beatitudes, and the closing chorus, both in unison, were especially effective Ralph W. Hoyt, organist, played for the decorated, the same color scheme pre-valling here as in the pariors, while rich purple velvet pansles were scattered here and there over the snowy damask table-cloth. Mrs. Wilder looked after the comfort of her guests and she was ably assisted in the dining-room by Mrs. W. H. Siegner and Mrs. W. J. Guy, who presided at the refreshment table where delicious brick ice-cream and cake was served.

The cosy home of Mrs. W. M. Wilder,

In the music-room a delightful program was rendered, Mrs. J. Whitcomb Brougher favoring the guests with a beautiful vocal solo in which her rich soprano voice was displayed to the best advantage. Following this, Mrs. W. S. McGuire, on behalf of the ladies of the society, presented Mrs. Johnston with a handsome gold thimble, accompanying which Mrs. Johnston responded with a brief word of thanks.

Among those present were the following ladies of the church and society: Mesdames Wise, Young, Phegley, Berger, Feary, Moore, Bushpell, Gates, Keeler, Wemple, Litchfield, Beckwith, Mohler, Heintz, Foulkes, Clinton, Stiles, Jamison, Russ, Brougher Guy, Jamison, Stegner, Dolph, McGuire. Rev. and Mrs. J. Bowersox were pleas-

The Primary Sunday School union met Thursday evening. April 28. After with Mrs. C. A. Morden, 783 Northrup prayer meeting the parishioners entire afternoon, April 29, at tered the house and stormed the surantly surprised at the parsonage of the Second United Evangelical church of useful gifts. Refreshments were served by the invading guests.

The Ladies' Aid society of Central Christian church gave a dime social at Sunnyside, Friday evening, April 29. The house was decorated with green boughs and cut flowers. Refreshments were served in the dining room.

An enjoyable evening was passed at the home of Rev. E. S. Muckley, 346 Mill street, Wednesday, April 27. The rooms were crowded with the members and friends of the First Christian church. During the evening, an agree-able surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Muckley, in the presentation of a beautiful bronze clock. Rev. Mr. Swaim made the address and presented the gift in behalf of the official board of the church. The ladies of the church served refresh-ments, and at a late hour the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Muckley cess in their new field of work in

COMING EVENTS.

The First Regiment Band, Woodmen of the World, under the auspices of the given at the Armory on Friday evening, May 6, Although more than 3,000 invitations have been issued, the guests will represent a very select set, and a staff of guards will see that no one enters without a card of General Funston and his staff will grace the occasion with their presence, and the officers of the national guard and also of the Uniform Rank, W. O. W., will be present.

The committees which have been ap-Other notable musicians will be pointed to look after the arrangements are working hard to make this one of the most successful affairs ever given The committees are as follows:

General Committee-Col. J. C. Jones, David Dahm, Captain H. A. Stiles, J. W. Floor Committee-Joe Murphy, 1st

chief; Charles Crabill, 2d chief; William Griffith, E. Minar, C. O. Samain, D. E. rwin, E. Cook, George Milne, Robert Milne, Ben Dunne, William Bradley, J Leman, E. B. Crofoot, G. Root, G. M. Parsons, J. S. Hayes, T. C. Drews, A. S. Cooper, H. Wegner, H. W. Kassebaum.

Plans are in progress for the dedimorning, May 7.

The choir of Central Christian church will give a concert Tuesday, May 19, in their new tabernacle on East Twentieth and Salmon streets.

(Continued on Page Sixteen.)

OUR NEW LIGHT MAKES PHOTOGRAPHING

EASY ON DARK DAYS

A. B. McALPIN

Photographer

129 Seventh St. bet. Washington and Alder

THE NEW BUILDING WAS PLANNED FOR OUR USE