Shea Was Off Color and Allows Two Runs—Castro and Spencer Play Brilliant Ball—Racing Results at the Different Tracks—Other Sporting

SHEA'S POOR WORK PROVES COSTLY

FAILURE TO HOLD IBERG'S THROW RESULTS IN OAKLAND SCORING TWICE—SPENCER AND CASTRO PLAY BRILLIANT BALL—FREE-MAN BREAKS HIS ANKLE.

Oakland 4, Portland 3. Moskiman and Lohman; Iberg and Shea. Shea's failure to hold Iberg's throw, to force Strahl at the plate, and which also lost him the opportunity to double Schmidt at first on the play, was the real cause of Portland's downfall in yesterday's game. Although Iberg was touched up for four hits in the sixth inning, Shea could have shut off further scoring had he kept his head at that critical time. But as he didn't do the trick, two more runs crossed the pan, and it was all off with the Browns.

The best that Portland could do with Moskiman was three runs. McCreeley's hit, Moskiman's ball throw and Freeman's safe one scored the right fielder in the first inning. In the fourth, Freeman's hit, Castro's sacrifice and Nadeau's safe swing scored another. A base on ball to Drennan in the eighth, McCreeley's hit and Murphy's force of McCreeley at second tallied Drennan. Thus ended Portland's hopes.

The game was full of features. Spencer and Castro were the dollar marks for the locals. They were the goods, 99 and 100-100 pure. Spencer was just the finest seen on second in many moons. Besides covering more ground in a minute than Beck could hope to traverse in a century, this sprightly youngster smashed the ball properly and stole two bases in dazzling order. His performance was just what was needed in order to shake up several of the "old ones" whose work is as stupid as it is costly.

Castro, too, was there every minute. He played shortstop, third base and an acre in left field. On former occasions second base was included in his repertoire, but yesterday Spencer hopped in that territory, so Castro was relieved of some of his burdens.

Oakland played in her usual good luck. Ganley backed up against the fence and picked one of Castro's drives in fine shape. Freeman, while sliding to second base in the second inning snapped two bones in his ankle. He was carried to the club house and after being examined by Dr. Zan was taken to his home. The game:

STORY IS FALSE SAYS THIELMAN

To the Sporting Editor of The Journal—Dear Sir: I wish to emphatically deny the statement attributed to me in yesterday's Telegram, that I was not satisfied with my position on the Portland Baseball club. The whole story is a fabrication and shows that the author was away off his base when he wrote it. The fact that I am here in Portland is proof that I like the city, and having been fairly treated by Ely brothers I have been doing my utmost to win games. The story did me an injustice and I wish to set the matter right before the public. JOHN THIELMAN.

DIAMOND GLISTENINGS

Moskiman made a two-bagger yesterday, and not a triple, as was recorded by "Specs." Steelman was not in yesterday's game, although the official score has him playing alongside of Danny Shea. If he was in the game, by the eternals, he was out of sight. He didn't catch a ball, swing a bat or even make his appearance on the field, yet the "doper" gave him credit for doings. Credit should be given where it is due. Spencer and Castro were the stars yesterday and Shea and Iberg contributed to the defeat, yet it was not mentioned in the "only."

PACIFIC TRACK MEN MEET AT COLUMBIA SHEEPSHEAD JUNE ENTRIES ARE CLOSED

FOREST GROVE ATHLETES CONTINUED OFFERING OFF HONORS AT DUAL MEETING TODAY—FIRST TIME THAT COMPETING COLLEGE EVER MET.

(Journal Special Service.)
Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., May 7.—The Pacific university track team traveled to Portland, where they will meet the track team of Columbia university this afternoon in a dual meet. This is the first meet between these schools, and both are anxious for victory. The boys from Columbia have the advantage of having had their large gymnasium to practice in, but notwithstanding the fact that they have been in the field longer than Pacific's team, the boys from Forest Grove hope to carry off a victory. The continued cold weather of the past week has made consistent training rather difficult, but on the whole the team is in fairly good condition and will undoubtedly give a good account of themselves this afternoon. Owing to the strict regulations regarding the standard of duty of the students, one or two of the boys were unable to take part in the meet today.

Trainer McCoughren has given out the list of entries as follows: 60-yard dash, Peterson, Barnet, Guynn, Gilbert and Brown; 100-yard dash, Peterson, Barnet, Gilbert and Rafferty; 220-yard dash, Peterson, J. W. Philbrook and Guynn; 440-yard dash, Peterson, Guynn and C. K. Fletcher; 120-yard hurdles, F. M. Fletcher, Gilbert and Rafferty; 220-yard hurdles, F. M. The Olympic games at St. Louis exposition promises to be the most interesting athletic event ever held in the United States. A unique feature of July 4 is the national schools boys' athletic tournament for which Congressman William Randolph Hearst of New York has donated several thousands of dollars worth of trophies including a magnificent national inter-city trophy. This trophy is to be competed for annually by the school boys of America and promises to make more interest among the school boys than has the Lipton cup. This cut shows the largest athletic grounds in the country which have been laid out at the exposition.
