I have believed, and still believe that the rigid enforcement of the law by local authorities will speedily put an end to acts of vandalism and lawlessness. This opinion is confirmed by the fact that no official appeal has been made to me for executive interference. I am just in receipt, however, of a com plaint from reputable citizens near the place where acts of lawlessness have been indulged in, who believe that greater efforts bught to be made for the apprehension of those who have been guilty of the destruction of property and other acts of violence. From this source I learn that dead lines have been established by the lawless element of the community, and the owners of sheep are warned by them that if they cross the same they must incur the penalty of death, as well as the loss of property. The threats are made that persons who undertake to discover the identity of those who have engaged in the destrucounty will be assassinated.

"Under these circumstances I have icemed it my duty to appeal to you, and through you, to the law officers of your county to use your utmost efforts to rigidly enforce the law, in order that those who have been engaged in the ruthless destruction of property may be identified, apprehended and brought to justice.

Prescher in Trouble,

Elder T. O. Brown, a resident of North Salem, was also brought before Recorder Judah yesterday and pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct, for which he was fined $20 which he paid and was released. Brown had some trouble with a neighbor, Mrs. Perry Mauzey and during the row called her many vile names, Mr. Mauzey, the woman's husband swore out the war-rant, and the offender was arrested by Chief Gibson yesterday morning.

A Small Blaze,

A fire alarm was sounded shortly be fore 9 o'clock last night, from the residence of Cal Patton, 97 Chemeketa street, and the department quickly responded. It proved to be only a small fire, and was quickly subdued by the use of Babcock extinguishers. The blaze was caused by a defective flue burning out, and the fire caught in the Oregon building at the exposition. Get casing of the flue. There had been no tickets at the O. ARE BANQUETED

COUNTY ENTERTAINED BY THE WOMAN'S LEWIS AND CLARK CLUB AT OREGON CITY-DEATH OF JAMES THORN AT SON'S HOME.

(Special Dispatch to The Jour.al.) Oregon City, Or., May 21.-Grizzled and gray the pioneers of Clackamas county assembled in Willamette hall vesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock to atrend a reception and banquet arranged for them by the Woman's Lewis and Clark club. A happier lot of aged men and women never assembled in this city before and it was evidently a pleasure to them to see old faces and recount old experiences. As this is the first time that the early settlers of the county have been entertained, there was interest and the hall was filled to the doors. It is very probable that this will resolve itself into an annual celebration and the pioneers of the county will gather together every year the same as they do in the state organization.

Mrs. George A. Harding as president of the club, called the company to order and announced that Col. R. A. Miller would be master of ceremonies. Colonel Miller made the address of welcome and introduced the speakers. One point of interest that was developed in the talk of the pioneers was when William H. Vaughn of Mollala, said that the great immigration of 1843 was not due to the work of Dr. Marcus Whitman but to the act of congress that Senator Lynn of Missouri was instrumental in passing that gave the settlers of this country. the right to take up donation claims.

C. B. Moores made a very strong speech and urged that the Lewis and Clark club purchase ground in Oregon City and then ask the legislature to appropriate money for the building of a monument to Dr. John McLoughlin. Other speakers were: H. E. Cross, Mrs. M. M. Charman, Mrs. C. H. Dye, Capt. J. H. McMillan of Portland, H. L. Kelly and Capt. J. T. Apperson. After the speech making Miss Imogene Harding sang "Annie Laurie" and "Comin' Thro' the Rye," in a way that brought tears to the eyes of the pioneers who had not heard the old songs for a long time.

By this time the tables for the banquet were ready and the pioneers seated themselves to a supply of good things and the ladies of the Lewis and Clark club waited on them. The tables were decorated with flowers as was also the hall.

The following pioneers were present A. Luelling. Mary M. Howell, 1847; Mrs. Mary Harding, 1852; Mrs. Harry Harding, 1852; David Eby, 1852; C. B. Bunnell, 1853; H. E. Hayes, 1851; H. Moser, 1845; G. Mrs. David Caufield, 1856; N. N. Robbins, 1852. Democrats at Milwaukie.

Democrats met at Milwaukie last night and held a rally that was well attended and listened to throughout the evening. Colonel Veatch, candidate for congress, J. E. Hedges, running for joint representative for Multnomah and Clackamas counties and C. W. Evans, candidate for the legislature, were the speakers of the evening.

Precinct Committeeman George Hive-
