

PORTLAND, OREGON, SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 28, 1904.

WILLIE'S "DOUBLE DUTCH" MACHINE WAS A LITTLE TOO SWIFT

Dear Tommy—There's a nice little girl visiting us—

And I built a skipping-rope machine like this for her.

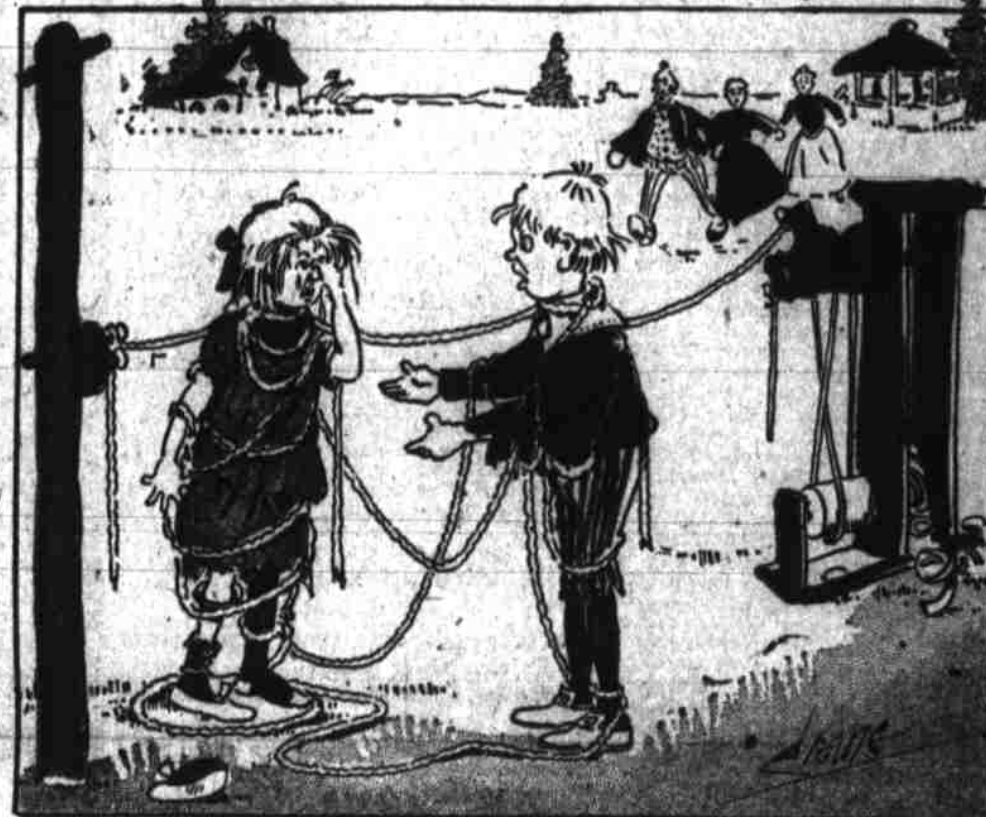

It worked like a charm, and she was happy—

Until it speeded faster than she could jump.

I tried to help her, but we both got caught.

Of course, we were not hurt, but it was embarrassing. Yours, Willie.

HOW PRETENDING PERCY GOT INTO DOUBLE TROUBLE OVER SUNDAY FISHING

