Bulletin

Circumstances entirely beyond our control compel us to make the greatest sacrifices of our entire mercantile career. We bought generously for this season with the expectation of a larger-expanded store, the builders delayed, and the annex that was to have been ready in March is just now being completed. Right in the midst of a busy season—the busiest in all our history of nearly three decades—the orders come to start to tear out and dismantle old departments for enlargement and expansion and make ready for new. Merchandise is piled mountain high—all new, stylish, dependable goods, the sort for which this store is noted. The walls between the buildings must come down. Dust and mortar will fly. The buzz of saws and ring of hammers will soon greet the ear. We've neither time nor inclination to move the stocks—except to you. This we've resolved to do by making the MOST TREMENDOUS SACRIFICES EVER OFFERED BY ANY STORE ON THE PACIFIC SLOPE! What person can afford to buy one dollar's worth outside this store during this sale? The values of the Annual January Sales even pale to insignificance in comparison with the surpassing bargains, and remember not to confound this wholesale slaughter of RELIABLE merchandise with the ordinary "White Sales" about town. FOR THIS SALE NOT ONLY INCLUDES WHITE GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, SORT AND KIND AT PRICES CUT DEEPER THAN EVER KNOWN OR HEARD OF BEFORE, BUT IT ALSO INCLUDES EVERY PIECE OF MERCHANDISE IN THE HOUSE, in every department, on every floor, no matter what color or class, with the lone exception of a few contract goods on which prices are controlled by makers.

EVERY ARTICLE STANDS REDUCED DURING THE SALE
