Edited by J. A. HORAN

PORTLAND LOSES BY CLOSE SCORE

BROWNS OUTRAT OAKLAND, BUT ARE UNABLE TO GET THEM NEAR AROUND BASE—PORTLAND HAS THREE HITTERS IN YESTERDAY'S GAME.

(Journal Special Service.)
San Francisco, June 1.—Oakland won the first game of the present series yesterday by the score of 5 to 4, through Portland's inability to get men around base. While Buchanan struck out 12 men, the Browns managed to connect with a dozen safe hits, but to Brown's credit on the circuit. Druhot pitched part of the game and was replaced by Connors, the "Kid" going to center field. Nadeau was called to short to take Francis place, who was out of the game with a sprained ankle, and Butler played left field. Portland had many chances to get men across the plate, but always fell short. Steelman Beck and Murphy were the slugging artists for the victors. The score follows:

ALBANY DISMISSES MANAGER PREBLE

(Journal Special Service.)
Albany, Or., June 1.—The Albany baseball team has been reorganized, and rather played under new management, and will hereafter be managed by a corporation consisting of a number of Albany people. It is reported that E. P. Preble, former manager of the team, left the team, having failed to pay the salaries of the players, and it is also stated that he did not pay all the bills contracted by him for the team. It is also charged that he owed several of the Albany people for board and other items of expense, and in order to not hurt the reputation of the city the team was yesterday afternoon brought here from Salem. Last night a number of the business men, met with the players at the Alco club, where the matter was discussed and plans were formulated to continue the team and have it remain in the league.

It was decided to organize the Albany baseball association as a corporation, with a capital stock of $2,500. The purpose is to sell the stock to all who wish to subscribe, 50 per cent to be paid up at once, and the rest to be paid if needed for the use of the association. A board of directors was elected, consisting of G. M. Turner, A. L. Simpson, T. C. Bloomer, E. D. Cusick, G. L. Thompson, G. A. Sanders, W. W. Rowell, A. Stensberg, J. S. Van Winkle, R. C. SIX PORTLAND MEN ON HOSPITAL LIST
It is a matter of keen regret to the backers and friends of the Portland ball team that the nine is so badly crippled at this time. Yesterday three of Portland's pitchers were used in the game with Oakland, and this weakness was marked in the result of the contest. At present, Freeman, Spencer, Castro, Drennan, Thielman and Fyock are out of the game. Freeman, who broke his ankle several weeks ago, received notice yesterday that he may have his release as soon as his affairs with the club are settled. It might not be a bad scheme if the management would see that Freeman's salary is paid until the team returns home, or at least until he is able to get out and hustle for himself. Freeman was six injured while acting under orders trying to steal second base, and it seems no more than fair that the honest young fellow should receive that which all club players pay a player injured in the game. While he was in condition everybody talked about Freeman and his earnest effort to play winning ball, but as soon as he broke his ankle and was compelled to retire, his name and his work were soon forgotten. The baseball world has a very brief memory. So far the management has treated the men in the kindest manner, and everybody hopes to see the Freeman matter amicably adjusted.

Francis has a sore ankle and couldn't play yesterday. Drennan is laid up with a bad fever and is in no condition to play. Castro is still at home, and will not be able to get into the game for at least two weeks. Thielman's finger is healing nicely and he may get in this week. Spencer is still at the Good Samaritan hospital, but will be discharged in a few days.

With the team so badly crippled the outlook is not encouraging, but it is gratifying to state that Manager Dugdale and his men feel that they will pull out a fair share of the games before returning home.

PEACE FOR THE WORLD THEIR AIM

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION MEETS AT LAKE MONROE, NEW YORK—JUDGE GRAY THE PRESIDING OFFICER.

(Journal Special Service.)
Lake Mohonk, N. Y., June 1.—Drawn together by their common desire to see arbitration succeed war as a means of settling disputes between nations, some 200 men and women—educators, jurists, diplomats, statesmen and business men—have gathered here for the tenth annual conference on international arbitration. The visitors are the guests of Albert K. Smiley, a wealthy Quaker who inaugurated the series of conferences 10 years ago and who has devoted a great part of his life and fortune to the promotion of peace.

The conference which began today is unusually well attended and promises to attract more attention than any previous session. It is fortunate in having as its presiding officer Judge George Gray of Delaware, who is one of the four United States representatives on the bench of The Hague tribunal, and whose experience as a member of the Paris peace commission of 1898, the anti-trust strike commission of 1902 and other important arbitral bodies, has given him a wide and varied knowledge of arbitral procedure.

Other notable men who will be heard during the three days' session are Judge William L. Fenfield of the state department at Washington, who will speak on the Vesuvius case; at The Hague court; Commissioner McFarland of the District of Columbia, who is down for an address on the significance of the present agitation in favor of an arbitration treaty with Great Britain, and Charles E. Pepper, special commissioner appointed by the government to Pan-American railway project, who will speak on the relations of that enterprise to the promotion of peace and good will among the nations of the western hemisphere.

These three are among those who have prepared set addresses, but there are many other men of note who are expected to take part in the conference discussions. Among the number are Don M. Dickinson of Michigan, Professor John Bassett Moore and James Brown Scott of Columbia university, Assistant Secretary of State Francis B. Loomis, Justice David J. Brewer of the United States supreme court, Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, President Ward Field of Lafayette college, Gen. O. O. Howard, Edward Everett Hale, Judge Charles E. Elliott of Minneapolis, Congressman George W. Smith of Illinois, Congressman C. E. Littlefield of Maine, Congressman Robert F. Broussard of Louisiana and Congressman T. E. Burton of Ohio.

A session of the conference will be given up to a discussion of the proposed Anglo-American arbitration and another to the consideration of arbitration from a business point of view.

LABOR SITUATION IN THE KLONDIKE

WOMEN LEADERS START ON FIRST TRIP OF SEASON TO NORTH—MINE OWNERS FEAR LABOR SHORTAGE—THE RAVAGES OF TYPHOID IN WASHINGTON.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, June 1.—Today several Nome liners start on their first northward trip of the season, and until the day of their departure owners have been skirmishing around for stevedores passengers. First-class accommodations are pretty well taken, but on the half-dozen big vessels to leave port in the next week or 10 days there are scarcely more than 200 reservations by workmen going north to work in the mines or at general labor. This is a situation that was not thought possible a few weeks ago. All the big operators are worried over the prospect that they will not have enough men in the vicinity of Nome to carry on the work they have planned, so few are sailing. Last year was not a good one for the workmen and they are going to other parts of Alaska instead of to the Behring sea coast. The Tanana, the Alsek diggings, Whitehorse, and the Klondike camps are getting most of those who will seek labor. The boats to southeastern Alaska are filled to the limit every trip, and are forced to turn away passengers.

Many operators are preparing to go north in the next few days. The
