SMALL COLUMBIA RIVER SALMON SUPPLY

SUPPLY OF SALMON SHORT OF DEMAND

RECEIPTS ARE NOW INADEQUATE TO MORN THAN PILL ONE-POURTE OF THE ORDERS-SHORTAGE IN STRAWBERRIES. BLACKBURRIES IN-EGGS FIRM.

Front Street, June 8.—The principal features of the Portland wholesale markets today are:
Eggs strengthen with small receipts.
Larger demand for spring chickens,
Eastern starch is higher,
Evaporated peaches out of sight,
Creamery butter firm at price,
Blackberries begin to arrive.
Birawberries begin to arrive.
Birawberries were scarce today,
Large receipts in fresh ment.
Balmon hardly coming at all.
Columbia shad are more plentiful.
Oregon cabbage and canlifower in.
Car hamanas comes in bad shape.
Wheat and four remain dull.

Salmon Gots Scarcer Each Day.

The supply of salmon new arriving from the Columbia river is growing scarce until today there were hardly any receipts at all. Wholesale fish men say that the forepart of the season could not have been more disappointing than it was—the receipts since the opening being at least three-quarters under the demand. It is true that there is some salmon in the market today, but the supply is very limited and dealers were compelled to get their orders in several days in advance to be able to buy any stocks at all. What few salmon are now coming in are from the coast streams of southern Oregon and Puget sound—a majority of them being from the latter water. Up to the sound the indications now point to a large ran of fish and the camers are getting ready for an early opening. This same condition prevailed on the Columbia and Willamette rivers until the high water came and then all at once the receipts dropped off until they became nominal.

Plenty of Time for Canning.

Plenty of Time for Canning.

There is still plenty of time for the Columbiariver canners to put up a large pack. During the early part of last season the catch, although not so small as this season, was very much under the usual run, but just 15 days before the time for the beason's close the run became so large that the canneries and cold storage institutions were unable to accept the fish offered.

Do the Fish Spawn Later! After figuring up the past few seasons as a unit the salmon men are rapidly coming to the conclusion that the salmon are changing their hebits to some extent and do not come into the river to spawn until later in the season.

Orders Are Very Heavy. Practically every salmon-packer on the Columbia river has sold every can of salmon that he expects to secure during the present season, so fast have the orders for Columbia river fish arrived. The markets of the world have never been in a better condition for a good trade than they are this year, and despite the fact that prices this season opened higher than a year ago every canner says he is turning orders away.

Large Run of Columbia Shad. Large Run of Columbia Shad.

The run of shad in the Columbia river shown a material increase for today and the receipts are again becoming large. There were no changes in the quotations today. One of the queerest things noticeable in the flash market is that the quotations on oysters show no signs of a reduction, as is usual for the summer moths. Dealers say that they are paying just as high prices as during the middle of winter—a condition never known to exist before. Flash men say that if the present quotations continue all summer they hardly know what to expect during the coming winter when the demand is greater.

Evaporated Peaches Out of Sight.

Evaporated Peaches Out of Sight. Evaporated peaches are again showing an advance, but as stocks age few the market remains very firm. The best brands of eastern corn and gloss starch show an advance of 15c

VERAT PIT IN CRICAGO WAS DULL HARLY BUT DATER BECAME AC-TIVE-BLEEDING MANSAS AGAIN TO THE PROST-JULY MEARLY TWO CHRYS HIGHER.

(Furnished by Overbeck, Starr & Cooke Co.)
Chicago, June 3.—Logan & Bryan say: Wheat was dull during the early part of the session but broadened into an active market before the close. The weather and the crop news were the controlling factors. The Snow report came early and was beerish. Following it came the Modern Miller, which was mildly bullish, and this was followed by Jones' report, which is decidedly bullish. Poor, bleeding Kansas is again in the center of the stage. A few weeks ago we were all buying wheat on the long dry spell in that section and now the buying is on excessive rains in the same locality. This feature dominates the market and of course all other considerations for the time being. The cables so far are dull and the cash situation is slow. Small stocks of wheat make a market that is easily advanced on any considerable volume of trade. The principal strength here is in the July, which is easily congested by reason of the small stocks of contract and the premium for cash. July wheat on a strong market is rather hard to buy.

Rains in Corn Belt.

Rains in Corn Belt.

There were further rains throughout the corn belt and these were particularly heavy in the southwest. Here rains are predicted for tomorrow. This was the controlling induence of the market. There is quite a liberal short interest in corn all the time and the buying is at times better than the selling. The cash situation, while it is fair, is not much of a factor. Crop prospects are the things considered, in the July there was rampant covering. Excessive rains were the feature. There is a fairly good cash demand and Patten is supposed to be long.

A Strong Oat Market.

Oats are the same as corn. While the market

Oats are the same as corn. While the mark a less active than wheat and corn it is he whole a strong one.

Hegs Are Higher.

Receipts of hogs in the west are less than last year and prices at the yards are 5c higher. While it was not an active market, offerings were small and there was a good demand from shorts and in sympathy with the strength in grain the tone was strong. Shipments of products aggregate the same as last year.

WHERE THEY WILL BE DIS-TRIBUTED-SHEEP STATES RE-PORT LAMB CROP AN AVERAGE.

(By George B. Longan.) Kansas City, June 3.—A syndicate of Mormons has been formed to introduce the Percheron horse into Utah and the northwest. This week two carloads of valuable Percherons were shipped by express to Ogden, Utah, by the Mc-Laughlin Bros. here. There were 15 of the blooded stallions in each car and each one was worth from $1,000 to Just why the horses were sent by ex-press has been almost impossible to learn. The McLaughlin Bros. here say they were sent on telegraphic order. A shipment of horses by express is mighty good express business. The owner must take the chances of losses or the express company would charge a rate that would stagger even the Mor-mon syndicate. All horses look alike to the express company and they guar-antee to pay only $50 in case of loss. The express charges on each car were $850. The stallions are to be sold in the north west. McLaughlin Bros. have orders for seven more cars, which will be sent to points in the northwest.

Lamb Crop Up to Average. Returns received from various correpondents in Colorado show that the amb crop of that big sheep state will be up to the average this year. The sheep owners generally say that lambing has been very successful this spring. Reports of a similar nature come from New Mexico and Texas. The northwest is in almost as good a condition.

By far the most satisfactory trade in beef cattle of the year has prevailed the last 10 days. Prices closed last week at the highest level in months. vances for three days ranged from 15 to 30 cents and in the last 10 days the market jumped 60 cents on medium grades and 40 cents on the tops. Last cipal markets of the central west aggregated about 120,000, against 119,000 the week before and 144,350 in the week receipts of cattle at the five prinsame week last year. The conclusion reached by many is that the dressed beef men fear a shortage in fed cattle before good grass cattle come, as grass in some sections and short on year ago. Receipts at all Markets. In six days of last week local receipts amounted to over 25,000, against 24,000 the week before and 27,674 a year ago Chicago received last week over 58,000 against 56,300 the week before and 55, account of dry weather in other parts of the range country. Besides it is generally believed that there are not nearly so many cattle on feed at this time as there was at the same time a 400 a year ago.

The bulk of the arrivals here ran to fat grades. Choice to prime native heifers and yearling steers advanced 30 to 50 cents and are higher than at any previous time this year, Medium to common grades are higher also. Veal calves advanced about 25 cents during the week. Not many are coming and few are wanted at the present prices.

The stocker and feeder trade de veloped a stronger tone with the adfeeders and lightweight stockers sold at $4.50 to $4.60 during the week. Only This Week Last Week Last Year the best grades are in demand, however, there being little call for the common to medium kinds and ne improvement in prices. Stock cows, heifers and calves sold to better advantage and in extreme cases 10 to 20 cents higher.

Sheep Prices Hold Up. The sheep market has been holding up almost as well as the cattle market. Prices of sheep have advanced 15 to 20 cents. The quality has been good and the receipts fairly light. Wooled lambs are selling for $6 to $7, against $5.85 to $6.75 a week ago. Choice ewes sell up to $5.25 and mixed yearlings and wethers up to $5.75. The bulk of offerings were clipped Texas sheep that brought $4.60 to $4.80 with the plain grades at $4.25 to $4.50. Texans average about 15 cents higher. Feeding grades are in good demand with the supply limited. One load of Texas lambs gated 18,750, against 18,500 the week pefore and 31,450 in the same week last year. Chicago received 55,000, against 55,000 the week before and 51,000 a year ago. Receipts at the five markets for the week aggregated 115,456, against 126,950 for the week before and 128,234 the same week a year ago.
