

WHAT SPORTS ARE TALKING ABOUT

Edited by
J. A. HOKANJEFFRIES' REQUEST AS SPORTS SEE IT

SOME THINK THE STORY WAS STARTED TO HELP THE ODDS ALONG, WHILE OTHERS SAY THAT MOTIVE WAS TO OBTAIN IN-TEREST.

(Journal Special Service.)
San Francisco, June 7.—Jeffries' request for a two weeks' postponement of the fight is variously viewed in local sporting circles. Some fight followers say that they believe the move is to secure better odds, while those who've seen the champion training declare that it is impossible for him to be fit by the 17th. Jeffries is having difficulty getting his wind into shape, despite the growing accounts of the press agents regarding his general condition. Another theory is that the whole affair was framed up to arouse more interest in the contest. The fact remains, however, that Jeffries has been doing too much playing, but good judges say that it is not necessary for him to be in better condition than he is now to defeat the miner.

UPPER ALBINA TEAM
ROUNDING TO FORM

The Upper Albina baseball team crossed bats in a ten-inning game with the West Portland team Sunday in an interesting game. The Upper Albina team, under the management of Thomas Jackson, had considerable bad luck at the first of the season. Catcher Francis Gilroy got his arm broken and last Sunday one of the pitchers got his wrist so badly strained that he will be out of the game for a couple of weeks. They are the youngest team in the league, but their playing is improving every game. They have ten games ahead of them, in which to come to the top, and that is what they are trying to do. They will have a new player from Roseburg for next Sunday to cover third. The new second baseman helps the team considerably. The West Portland team is an all-around good team.

On Sunday also the Lower Albina team forfeited to North Portland, 9 to 0.
The score of the Upper Albina-West Portland game, by innings, follows:

WHERE THE TEAMS
PLAY THIS WEEK

Yesterday was moving day in the coast league, and the Portland Browns wended their way southward to the land of sunshine, orange trees and fabled beauty, for a week's series with Morley's Angels. The Oakland crew returned from Los Angeles to San Francisco, where six games will be played with the slippery Senas. Mike Fisher's Toads hopped from Tacoma to Seattle to try conclusions in the "Inflated City" with Wilson's nine.

With any kind of luck this week, considering the splendid manner in which the Browns are batting, Portland should at least break even with Los Angeles.
Roach, Iberg, Thielman, Butler and Druhot are in good shape now, and should do something for their country.

ELECTED TO TEACH
CORVALLIS YOUTH

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTS MISS FRANK-LIS BROWN AND MISS FLORENCE MAXFIELD TO TEACH VACAN-CANCES—MUSICAL DEPT. A SUCCESS—ARTISAN ELECTION.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Corvallis, Or., June 7.—At a meeting of the school board the following teachers were elected to positions in the Corvallis public schools: Miss Francis Belknap and Miss Florence Maxfield. They are to take the place of Miss Campbell and Miss Evans, the former of whom leaves shortly for Montana and the latter for California.

It was a success.
The musical recital given by the piano and violin departments of G. A. C. at the college chapel Saturday evening was one of the most pleasant as well as the most successful affairs of the present season. The chapel was filled long before the opening number of the program was given by the college orchestra.

A fitting testimonial.
Sunday afternoon, at Crystal Lake cemetery, the handsome monument erected at the grave of the late Mrs.
William Buchanan was unveiled by the ladies of the Woodman Circle lodge.
A large crowd gathered to witness the ceremony, which was carried out in a beautiful and impressive manner. The male quartet sang several selections, and the whole affair was a fitting testimonial of the high esteem in which the deceased woman was held by all who knew her.

Elected Officers.
At the last meeting the United Artisans elected the following officers to serve the coming year: Master, Miss Ethel Kyrie; superintendent, Mr. Jacob; inspector, Mrs. Tillie Reed; secretary, Miss Eva Starr; treasurer, H. H. Cronquist; senior conductor, Mrs. Peterson; junior conductor, Mrs. T. Brine; master of ceremonies, Clum Reed.

Personals.
Mrs. Blackburn of Albany was the guest first of this week of Corvallis friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gillespie of Iowa are guests of their son, N. Gillespie, in this city. They arrived from Los Angeles Tuesday enroute to their home from attendance at the Methodist conference just held in Los Angeles.
Mrs. Anna Samuels of Portland is the guest of friends.

Mrs. L. L. Porter of Oregon City is to arrive Friday for a visit at the home of her parents.

Mrs. Erma Jones of Oregon City will be the guest this week of Corvallis friends. She will remain until after commencement.

Charles McKnight of Coos bay is to arrive the last of this week to attend college commencement.

Dr. and Mrs. James Harper leave Friday for a 10 days' visit in Portland.

Mrs. G. R. Farra entertained a number of friends Thursday evening at whist.

Mrs. William Currin of McMinnville is the guest of relatives in this city.
George C. C. of Salem was a Corvallis visitor Monday.

Mrs. J. Masu transacted business in Portland Monday.

A. T. Gragett and wife have arrived from Jefferson to take up their residence in Corvallis. Mr. Gragett has accepted a position in the merchandise store of S. L. Kline.

The Blue Mountain SanatoriumFOR THE TREATMENT AND CURE OF

Consumption

Sanatorium treatment is the ideal and only successful treatment for tuberculosis. It consists principally of life in the open air, rest, forced feeding, hy-drotherapy and massage. The baths at this institution are supplied from natural hot mineral springs, the waters of which exert a marked curative influence.
Patients from the west side of the mountains are especially benefited by the change of climate. The dry air of eastern Oregon, and 2,600 feet of altitude stimulate the appetite and improve nutrition.

OREGON INDUSTRIAL AND BEAUTIFUL

One of the handsomest booklets ever issued illustrating in text and photograph the immense resources of Oregon, Washington and Idaho has just been published in an edition of 50,000 copies by general passenger agent Craig of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company.
The descriptive matter was written, the tables compiled, the photographs collected and the whole work supervised by advertising agent Rinaldo M. Hall.
Nothing more complete, or more attractive has ever been gotten out to catch the eye of the home seeker and investor.

The booklet is the newest development of a series which the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company and the Southern Pacific Railroad company have been publishing for some years, but is by far the largest and most complete issued. In addition articles on the climate, on dairy farming, fishing, the fishing industry, hop raising, lumbering, mining, stock raising and farming of every sort, the book contains several departments never introduced before.

One of these covers diversified farming, giving an idea of what can be done with comparatively small acreage. An article on irrigation tells how communities have sprung up almost overnight, where the desert has been made to bloom by artificial means.

Aside from the features of interest to specialists in various lines of industry there is much that attracts the ordinary reader, and as a pleasant and instructive hour's reading the book is recommended. Only Nebraska and Iowa have a smaller percentage of illiteracy than Oregon, which stands third of all the states of the union with an average of 98.59 per cent of educated persons.
If there is any town in Oregon in which tables are interested you will find something about it under the head of "Condensed Information."

Mississippi, Georgia, New York, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania all have better title to the name "the webfoot state" than Oregon, for a little table on rainfall shows that the chief city in every one of these states has more rain annually than Portland.

One chapter is devoted to the Lewis and Clark fair, and another to Portland, the Rose City of the Pacific northwest.
Throughout the book is handsomely illustrated with photographs taken especially for the work and typographically and artistically is perfect.

Imperial Limited Service.
With the inauguration of the "Imperial Limited" fast train service, June 18, the Canadian Pacific will have double daily train service.

This up-to-date train service not only insures a cutting down of time, but the use of modern equipment, of which the standard sleepers and tourist cars are second to none operated in this country.

TUSCAN
Mineral Springs

OPEN EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR

To Whom It May Concern—

I came to the above springs on April 6 to take treatment for my eyes. I had a very severe attack of catarrh of the eyes, was almost blind after treating with the best specialists that could be found, and suffering for nine years. I have at last found a cure here at the FAMOUS TUSCAN SPRINGS. I cannot praise them too highly. I hope that others that are afflicted will give them a trial. Respectfully,

W. L. PALMER.
