

HALF CENTURY OF CHURCH PROGRESS

EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY OF INSTITUTION BY LAYING CORNERSTONE OF TRINITY CHURCH AND HOLDING A WEEK OF MEMORIAL SERVICES.

The present week marks the semi-centennial anniversary of the first Episcopal diocese convention ever held in Oregon, the laying of the cornerstones of Trinity, one of the most beautiful churches in the state, will take place, and the annual convention of the diocese.

The history of the Episcopal church in Oregon dates back before the arrival of Bishop Thomas Fielding Scott, who came to this diocese from the diocese of Georgia in April, 1854. In 1847, a pioneer worker, Rev. St. Michael Facker, came to Oregon for the benefit of his health and worked in the field. His health prevented his organizing a church, so that it was not until the coming of Rev. William Richmond that Trinity church was organized. This was in 1851, so Trinity church is the oldest in the state. In 1887 the congregation bought half a block at the corner of Sixth and Oak streets and in 1872 the cornerstone was laid. The old church was destroyed by fire some years ago.

The cornerstone of the new Trinity church, which will stand at the corner of Nineteenth and Everett streets, was to have been laid April 22, the anniversary of the arrival of Bishop Scott in Oregon, but this was impossible. The date for the diocesan convention was set for next week, Sunday, June 17 of this week was found to be the anniversary of the day on which Bishop Scott held the first convention in this state, it was decided to lay the cornerstone of Trinity church on that day.

An Impressive Ceremony.
The ceremony attending the laying of the cornerstone on Friday will be impressive. The service will be read by Bishop B. Wister Morris. The ceremony begins with the procession of the bishop with the clergy, the wardens and vestrymen of the parish and others to the place where the cornerstone is to be laid. They will repeat the one hundred and twenty-second Psalm and this will be followed by an address and prayers by the bishop. The inscription on the stone will then be read and the names of the articles deposited within. This will be followed by hymns, prayers and addresses. The addresses are to be delivered by Bishop Keator, whose jurisdiction extends over the diocese of Olympia, Bishop Wells of Spokane and Bishop Funsten of Boise City diocese. These bishops worked together with Bishop Scott in the early days.

The convention, which is to be in session at that time, will adjourn to participate in the exercises. The services will be held on Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Rev. A. A. Morrison is the present rector of the parish. The program began Sunday evening with the baccalaureate sermon, delivered by Rev. J. H. Simpson to the students of Bishop Scott academy and St. Helen's hall. Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the commencement exercises of the graduating class of nurses of Good Samaritan hospital was held. Yesterday the commencement at St. Helian was observed. The program for the rest of the week is:

Thursday, June 16—Morning: Woman's auxiliary at All Saints' Mission chapel; 8 o'clock, p. m., convention and opening service and bishop's address at Trinity chapel.
Friday, June 17—Morning: Convention continued; 4:30 p. m., laying of cornerstone new Trinity church; 8 p. m., missionary service, Trinity chapel.
Saturday, June 18—Morning: Convention continued; 8 p. m., celebration of semi-centennial and reception at Bishop Scott academy.

GRADUATION OF TRAINED NURSES

A class of 14 was graduated last evening from the Nurses' Training school of the Good Samaritan hospital. All of the graduates wore the aptly regulated garb of the trained nurse, and each one was laden with masses of fragrant blossoms. The hall in which the exercises were held was crowded with friends and relatives of the graduates. The exercises were brief but impressive. The address was delivered by Bishop Keator of Olympia. After the exercises an informal program of dance music was rendered by Everett's orchestra.

The members of the graduating class were: Misses Mabel Eason, Georgia Marrs, Alice Laura Roberts, Josephine A. Brune, B. McDevitt, Ellen Dmeyer, Ethel Shane, E. Helen Baber, Helen M. Quiner, Cora J. Litchfield, Stella Anderson, D. Louise Huffer, Ada M. Hart and Birdie B. Gallentine.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter and purify the blood which is constantly passing through them.

When the kidneys are out of order the other organs are affected immediately and you may have symptoms of heart trouble, stomach and liver trouble, and other ailments, which are all owing to the kidneys being weak and out of order.

You can easily determine if your kidneys are out of order by setting aside for 24 hours a bottle of the urine passed upon arising. Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Frey, of Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well."

BUSINESS PARALYZED

All Classes of Merchants Staring Ruin in the Face

Paul Strain's Buyer Takes Advantage of the Calamity!

Every newspaper reader is well informed on the dreadful situation of affairs in Colorado. All of Teller county has been under military rule for the past 10 days. It has been in a state of anarchy for three months. Its business has been paralyzed for more than six months. Its merchants are heart-broken. Ruin has been staring them in the face, and in an endeavor to save a remnant of their property buyers are picking up their stocks at from 10 to 20 cents on the $1.00, according to the straitened circumstances of the dealer. Murder has been rampant, 16 men having been blown to atoms in an instant while standing on a railroad platform the other day. All through the hills—everywhere—life has been so insecure that men have been afraid to venture out from their homes after the setting of the sun, and everything in an industrial line has been practically closed down. Union miners have been deported by the hundreds, mines have suspended operations and poverty stalks abroad in all its hideousness.

This is the condition my buyer found things in when he arrived at Victor and Cripple Creek three weeks ago. Within less than two days he had secured the entire stocks of two of the live clothing merchants in that county, amounting originally to $80,000. He bought the pile for $11,000. It was a spot cash transaction, and at its conclusion the sellers said: "You might have had these goods for $5,000. We shall return to the east. We have been in the midst of this warfare until we are sick at heart, and would not remain here another year under any consideration. There could be no inducements offered that would tempt us to remain, and while you have secured our merchandise at a fraction of its actual wholesale cost, yet we feel that we are now immigrating from — to a tranquil region where we can rest our souls—where we can lie down in peace—where there can be a calm in our existence—and for all the riches of Teller county we would not remain in Victor another twelvemonth."

This is but a sample of the expressions heard on every hand. It has been such a land of disquietude that mercantile establishments have become so discouraged that many have determined to leave the state at whatever sacrifice.

OUR EASTERN BUYER

Arriving at Cripple Creek found things in a really worse condition than he had anticipated. There was gloom in every face and sorrow appeared to mantle every cheek. But man's extremity was his opportunity, and he proceeded to deal with the clothing merchants on this basis. The $80,000 purchase was his first transaction. This was at Cripple Creek. Going over to Victor he found conditions in an even more deplorable state. There he picked up $80,000 worth of clothing at the previously unheard-of reduction of more than 75 per cent. In fact he closed this deal at $17,000. Therefore

For $28,000 We Have on Hand and in Transit $147,000 Worth of Goods!

We thought we had made good purchases before, but this was one that crowns them all. IT CAPS THE CLIMAX. IT HAS NO PARALLEL IN AMERICAN HISTORY. Thoroughly discouraged, thoroughly disheartened, broken down in spirit and in purse, trade scattered to the winds, no prospects before them, these Colorado merchants are pictures of despair, and

THE EVER ACTIVE HUB

Presents their sorrows to its friends in the shape of the most astounding clothing bargains ever offered in any of the Pacific states.

ALL THESE GOODS ARE NEW

Or so nearly new that it cannot be discovered that they ever were upon the shelves before they came to us. Thousands of dollars' worth of these garments were never removed from the boxes, but came to us in the original packages, in which they were shipped from New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago. THEY ARE UP-TO-DATE IN EVERY PARTICULAR. It is well known that these miners were paid, when working, from $3 to $5 and $6 per day, and wore the very best of clothes. NOTHING WAS TOO GOOD FOR THEM, and clothing merchants of Teller county made their purchases accordingly.

THESE GOODS ARE ARRIVING NOW

We have not previously said anything about them, lest we MIGHT wake up some of the sleepy fellows. BUT NOW WE HAVE PICKED THE FRUIT, and men of Oregon shall have the benefit of our buyer's enterprise and snap. It shall be the same in this case as when we made other favorable buys. We shall save for ourselves but a reasonable profit, our economy in buying going to our friends.

PERSONS WHO READ THE HUB AD, TOMORROW WILL BE TOLD OF SOMETHING NEW THAT IS TO HAPPEN AT OUR HOUSE. IT WILL PAY TO LOOK FOR IT IN THE JOURNAL.
