SALONS OF DRESS—SECOND FLOOR

Thank you for the busiest week we've ever known in June in the selling of women's outer apparel. We believe it's been the biggest June week any Portland store ever knew. Be that as it may, we've planned for an ending that shall even surpass the earlier days of the week. One of our plans is this: We've grouped several hundred new suits—late arrivals from several makers of high-class suits who overestimated their output and underestimated the tenacity of a cold, early summer in the east. They were willing to let go at about half what other stores have paid them earlier, in order to clear the decks for fall business. A dollar did duty for two. And now the suits are here—marked as we bought 'em for quick selling on Friday. We can fill the wants of 300 suit buyers. The styles embrace dress and walking styles, all the season's very latest conceptions, every suit absolutely new—Blouse, blouse and jacket effects. Materials of Etamine, Cheviot, Venetians, Broadcloths and Fancy English and Scotch Heather Mixtures in mannish materials affected by men's tailors—very popular among smart eastern weavers. The color line embraces black, browns, tans, navy, gray, black and white and tan mixtures and imported novelty mixed goods. The suits are unmatchable at the regular prices of $18.50 for the cheapest in the big lot, along through lines that are remarkable values at $20, $22.50 and $25.00. Mostly of the better and best class. For Friday only we shall fill the racks and you may pick and choose till you're pleased—at one price on all and that is.....$9.98

$4.85 For Women's $10 WALKING SKIRTS

Surpassing Offer of Portland's Largest and Leading Apparel Shop

Tomorrow, Friday, for the patrons of the 59th Grand Economy Sale, we again demonstrate our masterful superiority and leadership over imitative competition by placing on sale 600 new, jaunty and chic tramping—walking—or pedestrian SKIRTS. The product of sharp buying by our peerless organization at the New York headquarters of this house, 438 Broadway. We never merely equal competitors' abortive attempts at bargain giving, but always surpass them. The only question is how MUCH cheaper the prices and how MUCH better the goods sold here than elsewhere. The example of the Skirt Sale here tomorrow illustrates our mastery of the situation. The skirts are in the latest style effects, embracing the plaited, 7 to 12-gored effects, the new circular tuck, etc. Strap and button trimmed. Materials include Etamines, Alpaca, Canvas Cloth, London Twines and Fancy English and Scotch Heather Mixtures. The colors allow of generous choosing, embracing blacks, navys, castors, grays, browns, tans and roughish mixtures of gray, tan, blue and green. Every skirt is new—the very latest of the reigning season's make and every one a real $10 value. This store never misquotes or prints an inflated value. Misrepresentation is tabooed here. A typical suit store rush will be here tomorrow for these skirts—better be early.

98c For Ladies' Charming Conceptions in New Tailored and Ready-to-Wear $4.00 Hats

SECOND FLOOR, MILLINERY SALONS.

The unprecedented success of the sale of a similar line of hats last week has inspired us to prepare an even greater feast of rare values in fascinatingly pretty headwear for tomorrow's selling. We have been fortunate in securing another large lot from an eastern manufacturing milliner, of these hats. The styles are even handsomer than those in last week's great sale. The very latest ideas of leading eastern milliners—a vast choosing—all bought at a ridiculously low price, as the maker's season was over. The values run up from $2.50 to $4.00. They speak for themselves and no matter how many of the "cheap stores" attempt to sidetrack this sale by their offers of trash at a few cents less, the people will be sure to flock here tomorrow, remembering that this is the store that never disappoints. We promise the biggest values in millinery you ever saw offered in Portland. Here tomorrow at.....98c
