SOCIETY FAST HURRYING AWAY TO MOUNTAINS OR SEA

went to Eugene to attend the University 50 guests were present. Oregon commencement exercises. me were present at the Albany college exercises and the Pacific university exerses at Forest Grove. At home the ex-Scott academy and St. Helen's hall have events in fashionable society. St. Lawrence parochial school and St. Pat-rick's school are among the smaller schools that closed with public exercises last week. The high school coment is dated for this week. The June weddings are not lessening

n number or in interest. The Livesley-Webb wedding was of paramount in-terest last week. The Hirsch-Seller wedding, in Boise, Idaho, was interesting to many Pertland people and a large num-

A public event of more than usual importance was the Scottish Rite ball, given at their cathedral, Tuesday eveneral luncheons and outing parties are being planned for this week in honor from San Francisco and New

Events of the Week

o'clock. There were about 500 guests in attendance, and dancing was the order of the evening. The study hall was dec-orated in the colors of the school—red restoons of S. H. H. pennants alternating the two colors were hung from corner of the room. In the adjoining recitation-rooms the Latin mottoes of the school were worked out in evergreens. A four-piece orchestra furnished music for the evening. Refreshments were served in the dining-room at small tables. Bouquets of red roses were on all the tables. There were representative guests from Hill Military academy, Bishop Scott academy, Port-land academy and Portland High school

Mn and Mrs. F. M. Graham celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary at their 1921 East Burnside street, Tuesday, June 9, in a most enjoyable manner. The orations were lavish in the colors, white, red and green. Bride roses and fern were in abundance all about the a. In the dining-room red pre-d. From the chandelier, in red. oned red ribbon streamers, terlacing in a network and secured by bows at the corners of the table. Music, ing and games filled in the hours santly till 10 o'clock, when a dainty cheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. am received a number of beautiful gifts. Those present were: Capt. and Mrs. John Boon, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Duke, Mr. and Mrs. George Ensminger. Col. and Mrs. J. C. Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. F. Drake. Mr. and Mrs. H. Westamier, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hawes, Mr. and Mrs. C. Jacobon, Mrs. M. Boberts, Mrs. B. Clark, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. O. Erdman, Miss Anna Monk, Miss T. Cunningham, Miss Hasel Monk, Miss T. Cunningham, Miss Hazel Westamier, Miss Ethel Hoberts, Miss Walling, Miss Gertrude Smith, Miss Amy Keen, Mr. A. McDonald, Mr. Ernest Hay-worth, Mr. William Pope, Mr. Frank Clark, Mr. A. Clark, Mr. C. Koler, Mr. F. Wortheimer and Mr. T. Bement of Oak-land, Cal.

Etta, Maud and Cecelia Duke, Miss Gretchen Backus and the Misses May and Annie Bartman. There was a large bonfire around which the 15 couples gathered, and while they poked and stirred the potatoes in the ashes an amusing program was given. The hit of the evening was "The Spud Song," composed and sung by the Duke giris in composed and sung by the Duke gives honor of the occasion. When the "spuds" were ready for eating the luncheon was augmented by a few delicacies furnished. The affair was proaugmented by a few delicacies furnished by the hostesses. The affair was pro-nounced by those present to be one of the novel successes of the season.

Mrs. Isam White was hostess yesterday for a merry tally-ho party to the Riverside White House. Mrs. Emmanuel Heller and Miss Heller of New York were the guests of honor. The day was passed pleasantly with cards and social chat. A delicious luncheon was served at the house. Those present, besides were: Mrs. Engelbardt and Miss R. Engeihardt of New York, Mrs. S. Lipman Mrs. S. Rosenfeld, Mrs. Leon Hirsch. Mrs. W. D. Deaver entertained the Til-licum club last Monday evening at her home on Tabor heights. Mr. R. R. Steele gave a review of "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," and Mr. Giltner read a paper on "Main-Traveled Roads." A so-cial hour followed, during which the hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Miss Newsome and Miss Leoti Deaver. The club will meet next week with Mrs. Roscoe R. Giltner, 227 Chap-

A large number of people from Port-land went up to Eugene to attend comment at the University of Oregon. A party composed of Mrs. Jerry Bronaugh, Mrs. Charles Macrum, Colonel Tucker and Mss John Horan left Wednesday morning to attend the commence ment ball. Others who attended the festivities were. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Melrath. Mrs. George Langford and daughter, Miss Lill Holmes, Mrs. Mary Butler, Miss Ida Jones. Governor Chamberlain, Hon. Frederick V. Holman. Mr. C. E. Lockwood, Mr. Kirk Sheldon, Mr. H. Leroy Staver, Dr. Homer I. Keeney, Mr. Clifton McArthur, Mr. Oscar Baird, Mr. Condon Bean, Mr. Ross Plummer.

The Fortnight Cinch, club met last Ivanhoe addition. Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Richardson of Chicago were the guests of henor. Mrs. Richardson is Mr. Clock's sister. The color plan was pink and green, and was prettily sustained throughout the evening. The library was decorated with Japanese flowers. Twenty people played cinch, for which four handsome prizes were awarded. The score-cards, in pink and green, bore hand-painted Cupids. The dining-room, in pink roses, was very dainty. centerpiece for the table was a large haying hat picturesquely filled with pink roses and ribbon bows. Pink and green paper baskets were used in the same colors. Candelsbra at each end of the table burned pink candles shaded with pink. Mrs. Robertson and Mrs. O. H. Fithian assisted the hostess in recelving and entertaining her guests.

Mrs. Charles B. Andrews and Mrs. D. The centrepleces were of Ls Frances and Mrs. D. Watson were hostesses at a delight-musical afternoom. Tuesday, at the of the latter, $52 Sixth street rooms were very pretty with sweet throughout the house. Maidenform the house, Maidenform the dining table. The afternoom the dining table. The contexpleces were of Ls. Frances and maidenhair ferm. Miss Bessio with huge bouquets of roses. Refreshneed to the dunds the foliation. The contexpleces were of Ls. Frances of the dunds the table that the sweet of the dunds and roses. The alter was covered with the sweet of the house. The church was decorated with function to the dunds and roses. The alter was covered with the sweet of the house. The church was decorated with function to the dunds and roses. The alter was covered with the sweet of the church.

The centrepleces were of Ls. Frances of the dunds and roses. The alter was covered with the was decorated with function to the church. The counter the curches with huge bouquets of roses. Refreshneed to the church with success. The alter was covered with the was covered with the was covered with the sweet of the church.

The centrepleces were of Ls. Frances of the sughternoom the with success. The counternoom the plane of the church with the sweet of the church. The counternoom the plane of the counternoom the plane of the church with the sweet of the church w M. Watson were hostesses at a delight-ful musical afternoon. Tuesday, at the home of the latter, 262 Sixth street piano solos. The rooms were very pretty with sweet briar throughout the house. Maiden-bair fern was combined with the sweet briar on the dining table. The after-

TTENTION has been turned this | much comment on the napkins stamped week very largely to com-mencement festivities. A large number of Portland people with musical scores. The favors were two red carnations for each. The affair was very pretty and successful. About

Among the guests were: Mrs. Denison, Mrs. Breyman, Mrs. Fear, Mrs. Collette, Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. Denhite, Mrs. Tilzer, Mrs. Frances Flegel, Mis-Peters, Mrs. P. A. McPherson, Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison, Mrs. Nisley, Mrs. Nellie Williams, Miss Kissel, Kiss Bellmanna, Mrs. Wordel, Mrs. E. C. Frost, Mrs. MacRoberts, Mrs. Charles Runyon, Mrs. Shaffored, Mrs. George Flanders, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Daly, Mrs. DeLude, Miss. Irene Flynn, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. La-rowe, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Newill, Mrs. Rudy, Mrs. Hubble, Mrs. Livesley, Mrs. Ogden, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. W. W. John son, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Haines.

Mrs. Edward Holman entertained her young friends at her home, 256 Salmon street, Friday afternoon. The hours were passed pleasantly with fancy work. Miss Brady sang several songs which were very well received and Mrs. Pfunder and Mrs. Watkins contributed piano solos. The hall was pretty with large bouquets of white marguerites. In the living room were pink and white roses with foliage. The dining room in red was especially pretty. Red roses were on the buffet and cut glass vases with the same flowers graced the center of the table. The luncheon offered a One of the most enjoyable events of the week was the at home given by Miss Tebbetts and the faculty of St. Holen hall, Thursday evening, from $29 to 11 of the guests. Mrs. Holman entertains of the guests. Mrs. Holman entertains of the guests, and dancing was the order of the evening. The study hall was decorated in the colors of the school—red or the guests. Mrs. Holman entertains these young women every year and they form a recognised organization as "her girla." They are Miss Holbrook, Miss Laura Dunn, Miss Lillian Decorated in the colors of the school—red One of the most enjoyable events of dainty menu. An after dinner coffee orated in the colors of the school—red and bine. Large bouquets and vines of red roses were used in floor decorations. Frankis Louise Carter, Miss Frankis Jeffrey, Miss Edna Jeffrey, Frankis Jeffrey, Miss Edna Jeffrey, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Pfunder, Mrs. Clarke, Miss Marion Brady, Miss Redner to corner of the room. In the addic, Mrs. Edwards, Miss Storey and > Mrs. George P. Story has recently re-turned from Seattle, where she has been visiting her parents, and will be at home first Thursday of the month.

On Friday afternoon, at the residence On Friday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. E. N. Wheeler, 531 East Couch street, a number of friends tendered Miss Josie Floyd's "china shower." The afternoon was pleasantly spent with flinch and music. Refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. J. A. Bamford. Those present were: Misses Josie Floyd, Etta Floyd, Lorena Posson, Maude Kenworthy, Adella Haynes, Belle Anderson, Myrtle Allen, Lelah Patterson, Mesdames W. H. Floyd, G. W. Patterson, J. A. Bamford, E. A. Bamford, W. B. Hollingshead, W. H. Holt, Harry Floyd and E. N. Wheeler. A large and enthusiastic audience en-joyed a delightful musical and literary entertainment at Mizpah Presbyterian church last Friday evening, given for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid society. The program was in charge of Mrs. J. M. C. Miller, and Mrs. Julian Peterson and Miss Protzman were the efficient accompanists. The opening number was an artistic rendering of Mendelssohn's

"Spring Song" by the Warren Violin club, composed of Miss Cornelia Barker, Miss Deering, Miss Margaret Wolforth, Miss Grace Bennett, Miss Horn, and Miss Protsman, accompanist. These young ladies play beautifully, and each selection was greatly enjoyed. The doll drill, "Baby, Baby, Dance," from the opera "Wang," was a unique feature, and the dainty little mothers captivated the audience. Eugene Field's "Seein' Things at Night," as read by Mrs. R. A party of six girls entertained their riends in a unique manner Thursday numbers of the evening, and she revening with a potato-bake in Ladd's sponded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening, and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening, and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening, and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening, and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening, and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening, and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening, and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening, and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening, and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening, and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening and she responded with an equally enjoyable entertained their numbers of the evening and she responded with an experiment of the evening and she responded with an experiment of the evening and experiment of the evening and the evening and evening and evening and evening and evening and Heavenly Song." by Hamilton Gray, magnificently, and his encore, "Resignation," by Caro Roma, was also well rendered. Mr. Glos has a sympathetic voice of excellent quality and good range. Miss Annie Ditchburn, a general forcette. eral favorite, was enthusiastically re-ceived and delighted all present with her selections, "Mother Mine," "Spring-tide" and "Po' Little Lamb." "The Cross," an original production by Miss Minnie Bode, the reader, was a most de-lightful number. Miss Bode does very artistic work, and possesses the mag-netic influence which holds the sym-pathy of her hearers. Miss Cornelia Barker, the well-known young violinist, touched the hearts of the audience in the rendition of her charming selections. Miss Barker is steadily growing in favor. The chorus work by > in Scotch costume was an incidental feature of the evening and pleased the audience at the refreshment hour. The piano for the occasion was furnished by the Allen & Gilbert-Ramaker company The Kensington club met at the home of Mrs. James Bryden Thursday. The hostess had provided a delightful rose program, and the rooms were profusely decorated with roses of many varieties. The game of the afternoon consisted of 15 questions, the answer of each the Mixpah young ladies, assisted by Miss Powers and Miss Maud Smith, was much enjoyed and made a pleasing va-riety in the program. The Pipers' band cream and cake were served by the hostess.

The club now has 20 members. Following are the names: Mrs. Julia Stewart, Mrs. Stacy Matlock, Miss Julia Jocylin, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Barnard, Mrs. Breeden, Mrs. Buckley, Mrs. Chap-man, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Mundt, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Paterson, Mrs. Pague, Mrs. H. H. Smith, Miss Helen Spaulding, Dr. Mary Thompson, Mrs. Trum-bull, Mrs. J. P. Wager and Mrs. Mc-Gowen. The next meeting will be at Mrs. McClure's home 480, Nineteenth street, Portland Heights, Thursday, one being the name of a rose.

Miss Tina McEachern entertained a number of her friends Thursday even-ing at her home 309 Benton street. Hearts was the game played. Roses were employed profusely in decoration, Refreshments were served.

Mrs. F. E. Dunning and Mrs. L. C. Henrys were hostesses at a pretty af-ternoon of cards, Friday, at Mrs. Dun-ning's home, 414 East Alder street. Some 80 guests attended most of whom were prominent Eastern Star workers. This formed the basis of the color scheme employed the white, blue, red, yellow and green of the order. Flowers of several varieties were in evidence. first prize, a handsome vase, Mrs. A. H. Wilson, the second a Haviland china plate, Mrs. C. A. Brown, the third, a bonbon dish and Mrs. H. M. Ogden, the consolation, a German souvenir cup. One corner of the hall was prettily canopied with interlacings of the five colors and here Miss Albright Miss Henrys and Miss Richmond served punch. Laincheon was served at three long tables in the hall. The centerpieces were of La France

One of the prettiest weddings of the | contrast as ushers eason was solemnized Thursday even-Ethel Webb were married. Rev. Dr. Wilson of St. Stephen's church, offic-The altar was covered with beautiful white lilies among rich green foliage. About the altar were white roses and ferns. The seats for the family were enclosed with white satin

Miss Bettison of Kentucky and Miss Huriburt of Hamilton, Ontario, were the bridesmaids, Mr. Starr and Mr. Gritsmacher of Portland attended the

McCraken, Miss Jordan, Robert Mc-Craken, Mr. and Mrs. O. Pratt, Mrs. Panton, Miss Hathaway, Mr. Baker and

Mrs. Herbert J. Gosliner of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Samuel at 281 Twelfth street. She will be at home to her friends Thursday, June 23.

Miss May Hirsch and Miss Clementine Hirsch, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Blum and son and Miss Dittenhoefer of San Francisco formed a party which left for Yellowstone park, Thursday. They will be absent about two weeks.

Miss Elva Friendly entertained a few friends informally, Thursday evening, at her home on Twenty-first and Lovejoy streets. The evening was passed pleasantly with table games. Mrs. W. S. Ladd and Mrs. Helen Ladd-

Corbett entertained the graduating class of Portland academy at their home, 293 Sixth street, Friday evening, the commencement exercises. The beautiful rooms were decorated with huge bouquets of handsome flowers. The judges of the declamation contest were among the guests.

Miss Idress E. Pennell and Miss Bertha A. Ledyard entertained the College Carnation club at the home of the former, 187 East Sixth street, Wednesday evening, June 15. Thirty minutes were devoted to business, after which pit and flinch were played at two tables. The rooms were decorated with large bouquets of beautiful roses and poppies. Several mandolin selections were ren-dered by Miss Annie Frey and Miss served in the large dining-room. The table was decorated with roses. White carnations, the flower of the club, were placed at each plate.

Those present were: Miss Weikel,
Miss Martha Goldapp, Miss Annie Frey,
Miss Lydia Yoder, Miss Bertha A.
Ledyard, Miss Idress E. Pennell, Mrs. Ledyard and Mrs. C. M. Pennell; Mr. Garness, Mr. Silcher, Mr. Cairns, Mr. Fisher, Mr. Miller and Mr. C. M. Pennell,

The Hiawatha Whist club was charmingly entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. P. H. Marshall, 1035 Hawthorne avenue. The decorations were elaborate and beautiful. La France roses were used in great profusion, and the air was aden with their heavy perfume. On the dining-table the centerpiece was of the full blown Blossoms. The first part of the afternoon was spent in playing whist. The prizes were won by Mrs. Bert Cloyes and Mrs. D.

Luncheon was then served in the dining-room. Mrs. Marshall has recently returned from an extended trip east. She visited the St. Louis fair and brought home with her many handsome souvenirs. The place cards were dainty reminders of the places she had visited and each guest was presented with a souvenir of Salt Lake

Mrs. J. C. Luckey gave a fally-ho party on Friday evening for the enter-tainment of her daughter. Miss Bessio when Mr. George F. Livesley and Miss point lace. She wore a silk veil and bithel Webb were married. Rev. Dr. orange blossoms and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaids, both in white silk, carried red carnations. Miss Heming of the musical department, played the caught at the corners of the table with Lohengrin bridal chorus. Mrs. King, pink. The bride's cake was cut in the the bride's mother, from Oakland, Cal., dining room by the bride. Mr. and Mrs.' gave her away.

One of the prettiest features of the wedding was the line of the school girls, all in white, preceding the wedding party and singing an evening hymn. After the ceremony Miss Tebbetts, Two of the school girls, a principal of St. Helen's hall, gave a re- of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Morblonde and a brunette, formed a pretty ception in honor of the bride to some rison of Salem.

brilliant of the season. All the officers and ladies of the post were in attendance. Mrs. Funston, Mrs. Graham and Major Bethel received the guests. A party of Portland people went down consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Honeyman, Miss Hahn, Miss Wyman, Miss Church the Misses Hill. Miss

Tuesday afternoon Miss Florence Morrison entertained her friends pleasantly in commemoration of Flag day. Bouquets of La France roses were used in the drawing room decorations, where military whist was played at four tables. In the dining room Jacqueminot roses and American flags were the decorations.

A large basketful of red roses and ferns formed the centerpiece for the table. The place cards were hand-painted flags. The guests were Mrs. John H. Kouch, Mrs. W. C. Noon, Jr., Mrs. Katherine Brand, Mrs. Orville C. Pratt, Mrs. W. D. Skinner, Mrs. L. H. Knapp, Mrs. W. I. Morrison, Mrs. G. E. Buchanan, Mrs. Harry S. Twomey, Miss Helen Bellinger, Miss Lulie Hall, Miss Harriet Calkins, Miss Alla Mastick, Miss Edwina Mas-tick, Miss Maud Hahn, Miss Margie Burham, Miss Imogene Stuart, Miss Maud Tyler, Miss Helen Morrison and Miss Ethel Wentworth.

Friday afternoon Mrs. T. A. Livesley of Salem gave an enjoyable launch party on Mrs. W. E. Etowe's launch. The guests were the bridal party at the Livesley-Webb wedding. * *

Miss Edna Groves of Corvallis, who has been visiting Mrs. Peterson and the Misses Johnson in East Portland, left Wednesday to visit the St. Louis position. She will go farther east to pass the summer. She was accom-panied by Miss Clara J. Stevens, art teacher in Portland scademy, who will visit the exposition and then will proceed to New York to study till Decem-

Church Events

The Woman's Alliance of the First Unitarian church gave a luncheon last Wednesday from 11:30 to 2 o'clock, for the benefit of their emergency fund. About 125 people attended and the alli-ance cleared $50. The tables were elaborately decorated, one with pink roses, one with red roses and one with California poppies. A delicious mena of home cookery was served. The ladies were assisted in serving by the young girls of the parish. The officers of the alliance are: President, Miss Helen Spalding; vice-president, Mrs. T. L. Ellot and Mrs. G. C. Cressey; secretary, Mrs. J. P. Wager; treasurer, Mrs. R. S.

The Epworth league of the First Methodist church, south, had its monthly business and social meeting at day evening. There were 50 in attend-ance and a good literary and musical program was presented. Light refreshments were served. The league is reported flourishing in, all departments by Miss Rummelin, Dr. and Mrs. Larkin with 40 members enrolled. It has been departed amid showers of rice, old sliporganized only six weeks.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Firs Christian church gave its quarterly so-cial Tuesday evening at the church, corner of Park and Columbia streets. There was a good program, the music being under the leadership of Miss Cathryn Linebam, the choir director. Mrs. O. B. Tout gave some readings which were well received. The rooms were decked with huge bouquets of roses. Refreshments were served by the voice.

|300 guests. Congratulations were re The bride was handsomely gowned in ceived in the reception room. In the ing in the chapel at St. Helen's hall, white creps de chine trimmed with dining room Mrs. S. Livesley and Miss M. S. Livesley served fees and cakes. The tablepiece was of pink and white roses with fern. From the chandelier were suspended festoons of green Livesley left on the night train for Green River hot springs in Washington. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Livesley of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley of Salem; Mrs. and Miss Livesley light refreshments.

The missionary committee of the San Greal Christian Endeavor gave a delightful lawn fete Tuesday evening at the Wells, home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Hunter Twenty-eighth and East Harrison streets. The committee acted as hostesses and received the guests. An enjoyable program was given, including a ell, "Sing Me to Sleep." Miss Senith Robertson accompanied her on the piano, Mr. Bittle Wells on the mandolin and Miss Bella Robertson on the violin. There were some instrumental solos by these three musicians and Miss Kemp gave a reading. Music continued on the throughout the evening. Wells displayed curios from Korea in the house and talked interestingly about them. Punch was served under a tree in the front yard and strawberries in tion hall by Miss Edna Pferdner. De-the side yard. The whole lawn was licious ices and cakes were served in the beautifully lit up with festoons of Japa-dining-room by Mrs. J. B. Palmer. Miss nese lanterns. About 125 were in at-Florence Stringer, Miss Dolan and Miss tendance. The affair owed much of its Taylor. Many handsome presents of cut success to Miss Kurth, the chairman of the social committee.

Weddings

At 8 o'clock, June 15, at the residence Birrel, their sister, Miss Jennie M. Sears, youngest daughter of the late George C. George Larkin of Newberg, Or., in the a colonial gown of white crepe de Paris over white silk with heavy lace trimmings. She were a long wedding veil of soft silk net and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses. Miss Holmes looked very lovely in dotted pink silk over white slik and carried an arm bouquet of La France roses tied with long streamers of pink chiffon. Following the wedding ceremony a reception of two hours was held during which time Professor Wilder's string which time Professor Wilder's string orchestra rendered many beautiful wedding selections. The many guests were received by Mrs. James Birrel, assisted by Mrs. M. G. A. DuBuisson of Tacoma, and those assisting in serving punch and ices were Miss Ella Rummelin, Miss Roach, and Miss Dannesson of Corvelles Or. After throwing man of Corvallis, Or. After throwing her wedding bouquet, which was caught departed amid showers of rice, old slip-pers and blowing of horns, for a short wedding trip.

B. Sears of Vancouver, Wash. Miss Anna Holmes was bridesmaid and Mr.

They will be at home after July 10 at their new home, just completed, in Newberg, Or.

Miss Lucy A. Dove and Mr. Otto J. Hoak were married at 9 o'clock Thursorgandle trimmed with lace medallions. She were a tule vell and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses. The bridesmaid in pale blue silk organdie tended the bridal couple. The bride wore a simple frock of white point de esprit trimmed with Valenciennes lace. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. Mr. Sunday, June 12, at the home of the bride's mother, Sis Page street, San East Portland

Sauermann and the groom by Mr. Buckter. The wedding party was preceded by two little flower girls, Miss Eva Sauermann and Miss Zalie Colson, both dressed all in white and carrying baskets of white roses, which they scat-tered before the bride as she came down church was decorated with palms and the aisle. The bride was gowned in white carnations, the altar being banked white silk and wore a veil. She care with green and white, Rev. J. E. Simp ried a shower bouquet of Bride roses. The bridesmaid, also in white silk, carried pink carnations. Miss Pearl Tice

A congratulatory reception was given at the bride's home, 431 East Belmont street. The rooms were decorated with pink and white roses. Light refreshments were served in the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Tichenor went to Salem for a brief visit, after which they will be at home in East Portland.

A very beautiful wedding occurred at the home of F. Windeler, 428 Flanders street, on Wednesday evening, June 15, at 7 o'clock, Frank H. Chown and Dora C. Windeler being the contracting parties. The march was played by Mrs. Schaicht as the groom, accompanied by the best man, Walter E. Chown, entered the parlor. The bridesmaid was Mattle Windeler. The marriage was solemnized under an arch of ferns and roses. Rev. William S. Gilbert officiating. Thirty guests were present.

One of the prettiest of June weddings was solemnized Wednesday evening, when May Paulina, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pferdner, was united in marriage to Armin Beutikofer. The house was decorated throughout were discussed. Mrs. McGlade served lor being in red and green, the hall and dining-room in pink and green. The par lor was beautiful in green and white. The bridal party stood under an arch of white carnations and ferns, from which was suspended a lovers' knot of moline held by a dove, an aisle being made of white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Blumenthal played Mendelssohn's wedding march. During the impressive ring service "O Promise Me" was sung by Miss Stringer. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Leonore Pferdner and Miss Marie Leasure as bridesmaids, and Mr. J. P. Lockwood as groomsman. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine, with a wreath of Bride roses, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaids were gowned in dainty white and carried pink carnations with streamers of pale-pink ribbons.

Fruit punch was served in the recepglass and silver were received. grams of congratulation from distant friends were read. The groom's present Mr. and Mrs. Beutikofer will be at home to their friends after July 10 at youngest daughter of the late George C. St. Mary's cathedral, was solemnized the Sears, was united in marriage to Dr. marriage of Miss Della Elizabeth Zim-George Larkin of Newberg, Or., in the merman and Mr. John Henry Klosterpresence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

647 First street. Early Tuesday morning, June 14, as

The ceremony was permed by the Rev. W. S. Gilbert, and bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Charles cathedral the wedding march from "Loh-

B. Sears of Vancouver, Wash. Miss Anna Holmes was bridesmaid and Mr. Walter Parker of Newberg acted as best man.

The bride was beautifully dressed in The bride's friends had decorated the sanctuary and altars beautifully in green and white, ferns, carnations and roses being the flowers used.

The bride was gowned in white silk bengaline, and wore a white picture hat. She carried a white prayer-book. Miss Hilda Hegele, as bridesmald, wore white lace over white taffeta, and a white lace hat, and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Fred Zimmerman was best man.

A wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home. 432 Market street, to the relatives only. The rooms were pro-fusely decorated with Oregon grape, the river to Bonneville, Saturday, June ferns, pink carnations and roses. A large number of beautiful presents were received and were displayed in hand-some array in the drawing-room. Mr. society is planning a moonlight excur-and Mrs. Klosterman left on the morn-sion to take place in July. ing train for a short trip to Seattle and of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Hirsch is connected with the Meier, & Frank firm of Portland.

V. Ferguson was groomsman.

Joseph Cohen in The Dalles, Rev. R. The bride was gowned in white silk Abrahamson of Portland officiated. The wedding was very quiet, only relatives being present. The bride and groom were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Gum-bert are at home in The Dalles.

bridesmaid in paie blue silk organdie carried pink carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Dove, East Eleventh and Burnside streets. Only the family was present. Pink roses were used in table decorations.

A reception was given at the home in the evening to all the wedding guests. The drawing-room was pretty with Oregon grape, pink roses and sword ferns. Mrs. Dove and Miss May Dove received the guests. In the dining-room the Misses Dove, Miss May Brown and Miss C. Fay served delicious ices and cake. Virginia creeper was festconed about the walls and trailed over the table with pink roses. The wedding cake was out in the hall by the bride. Miss Norn Brown caught the bridal bouquet, Mr. and Mrs. Hoak went that evening to their home at 64 East Twentieth street.

A wedding of deaf mutes was solemnized Wednesday evening at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. McHale, $1 Revere street, Mr. William Livingstone and Miss Madeline Gress were the contracting parties. Rev. J. H. Gibson read the ring ceremony and Mrs. Gibson interpreted it, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson interpreted it, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson interpreted it, Mr. and Mrs. McHale attended the bridal couple. The bride wore a simple frock of white point de caprit trimmed with Valenciness and Sha

Miss Alma Sauermann and Mr. Carroll Holt Tichenor were married at the First Evangelical church at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. Rev. Mr. Plummer officiated.

The aleles of the church were lined with rose foliage. A wedding bell of with rose foliage. A wedding bell of and the newly wedded couple left on the white roses was suspended from an arch afternoon train for their future home in of green. Banks of red roses and ferns Colfax. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper were were formed on each side. The bride schoolmates at the state agricultural was attended by her sister Miss Helen college.

son officiated. The wedding march was played by Mr. A. R. Wright. The bride was attended by Mrs. M. P. Sorensen, her sister from Astoria, as matron of honor, and two bridesmaids, Miss Christine Anderson and Miss Eva Saldern. The groomsman was Mr. Fred Lambkin of Pendleton, and the ushers were Mr. Alfred Kerrigan of Portland and Mr. Myers of Pendleton

The bride wore a simple frock of white organdle with a tulle vell and carried Bride roses. The matron of honor and the bridesmaids all wore pale blue silk organdie and carried Carolina Testout roses.

After the ceremony there was a reeption from 4:30 to 5:30 at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Anderson, 548 Hoyt street. The living congratulations, was decorated with ferns and La France roses. In the dining room were the same decorations with a large bowl of the roses for the table centerpiece. Mrs. G. Haines and Mrs. S. C. Young served ices and cakes and Miss Iva Hodges presided over the punch bowl. Mr. and Mrs. Davis left on the evening train for Pendleton, where they will be at home after this

Engagements

Cards are out announcing the engagement of Miss Mary Ogden of Yon-kers-on-the-Hudson to Mr. Laurence La Tourette Driggs of New York. Mr. Driggs was born and reared in Oregon City. He was educated in the public schools there and afterwards went to Ann Arbor and studied law and later became associated with his brother in wedding will take place in St. Andrew's church on Wednesday, June 29.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Leroy announce the engagement of their daughter, Flora A. Leroy, to Mr. A. R. Draper. The wedding will take place within the next two weeks. No cards. Mrs. A. H. Smith has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Myrtle Smith, to Mr. Gerald Tuttle of Portland at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, June 22, at the Church of the Redeemer, Pendleton, Or. Mrs. J. H. D. Gray of Astoria announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Alice, to Mr. George Arthur Hartman, son of Judge G. A. Hartman of Pendleton, and assistant cashier of the First National bank of that city. The wedding will take place July 6. Miss Gray is the niece of Captain James T. Gray of this city.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Mary Vincent and Mr. Will Wright, Wednesday, June 29, at the First Presbyterian church,

The engagement of Miss Josephine Floyd and Mr. Parke Patterson has been

Coming Events

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Pioneer association will give a banquet next Wednesday, in the armory. There promises to be a larger attendance than at any of the preceding annual ban-quets. The auxiliary met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. M. C. Cartwright. 215 Seventh street, and the commit-tees all reported favorably.

The Sunday school of the First Pres-

The San Great Christian Endeavor A leap-year party will be given by the Modern Brotherhood of America, Lily

Miss Clementine Seller of Boise, Idaho, and Mr. Max Hirsch of Portland were married Tuesday in Boise. Mr. day evening, June 21, 1904. There will be dancing with Parsons' orchestra, and refreshments will be served. The ladies Miss Bessie Jacobs and Mr. Merritt fee of 25 cents and gentlemen will be admitted free.

An affair that promises much of en-joyment is the Balley-Gatzert excursion