"AN OLIGARCHY MISS PAFFRATH OF PLUTOCRATS"

German Socialist Papers Comment on American Will Rule as Carnival Queen Vice Miss Mae Treatment of Colorado Union Miners--Pernicious Traffic of Exporting Girls.

rado are being treated today the flames of revolution would spread over the coun

the law to crush the laboring classes and the labor bureau in Berlin has even in some respects done good work for the workingmen, but not so in the land of the 'free and the home of the brave.'

Republican Party.

chance to continue this sort of regime

Exporting Young Girls.

where they are delivered to disorderly than ever, and in spite of the watchfulness of the police authorities it is no secret that hundreds of girls leave here every month to be sold in the modern slave markets of the western hemisphere.

The chief of police in Berlin, a few days ago, issued a circular to the police authorities of all towns and cities announce-ing that the organization of a society for the prevention of the international sale of Police Watching Agents. The secret service department, which has charge of watching the movements of Anarchists, has been ordered to give part

American agents, whose names are known to the police, is expected to follow in the very near future and they are be-

WILL SPREAD THE

GREGORIAN CHANT

POPE PIUS X DESIROUS OF DOING

AWAY WITH THEATRICAL AND

SENSATIONAL MUSIC AND RE-

PLACING IT BY SIMPLE MELO-

DIES OF GREGORY THE GREAT.

ing carefully shadowed.

authorities.

for four years more.

(Copyright, Hearst News Service, by Leased Streat German subjects as citizens of Colo-Wire to The Journal.)

Berlin, June 25.—The German Social-Berlin, June 25.—The German Social-istic papers devote considerable space to comments on the treatment by the American authorities of union miners which we live would never think of using in the Cripple Creek district, and, inci-dentally, the German government comes in for a certain amount of praise in this

In a leading article commenting on the persecution of the union miners a prominent socialistic paper in this city says editorially: To those who were wont to consider the great republic on the other side of the Atlantic a haven of refuge for the downtrodden classes the course of political events in America is greatly regretted.

With every safeguard thrown around the freedom and liberty for which their forefathers fought the great intelligent American people has allowed the power to drift into the hands of a few. Oligarchy of Plutocrats.

"Daily it becomes more and more evident that the United States is no longer a democratic republic, but a mighty world power, governed by an oligarchy of plutocrats.
"The worship of money and the reckless use of it by scheming magnates in corrupting legislatures is the primary cause of this change which seems almost incredible.

'In Colorado, the so-called higher classes—that is to the say the milliongire mine owners—and their followers are daily violating the laws of the state to annihilate working men, whose only crime is that they have formed unions for their own protection, unions which are perfectly legal under the ex-isting laws of the state. Corraled Into Pens.

"Working men have been corraled into pens as if they were wild beasts, and not having a place to banish these unfortunate people to, they have been deported into a neighboring state, Kansna. One wonders what the next stage of the military tyrant will be.

We Socialists in Germany have been subject to much oppression, and there is little doubt that the late Prince Bismarek, in his palmy days, would like to have treated German workingmen in the same manner, but with hundreds of thousands of bayonets behind him he did not dare to do this.

"Nobody will think of accusing our present German government of loving the Socialists or the labor unions over much, but it knows that should it ever try to

ROYAL VISITORS

PARIS IS SHY ON

BULERS OF EUROPE ARE NOT VIS-

ITING THE GAY CITY AS NUMBER

OUBLY AS IN FORMER THARS-

(Copyright, Hearst News Service, by Leased

Wire to The Journal.)

(By Paul Villiers.)

Paris, June 25.—The annual crop of royal visitors to this city does not look very promising this year.

Of course we are to have the usus number of visits of King Leopold of Belgium, but there is absolutely nothing

royal about him and we hardly count

Kaiser Wilhelm may come here in cognito, as a recently published book states that he has been in the habit of visiting us without our knowledge. But what earthly good is a king, or even kaiser, who travels incognio?

The young king of Spain will be here some time during the summer, and we will have to make the best of him, though he is hardly more than a boy, and the grandeur of his kingdom is a

Gladden Our Hearts.

gladden our hearts, and we shall have the pleasure of seeing him drive through bourgeois president in state carriage

Mohammed el Hadi will be acc panied by his oldest son, Prince Tahr and his prime minister, Mohammed el

Assiz Ben Attour, Gen. Si Azouz Ber

Aisea and Dr. Lovitz, his court physimer it has been arranged to have a spe

German Telephone Lines.

has spent $31,500,000 on interurban telephone lines, has greatly helped tele-phonic conversations between this city

It is now possible for a party in Berlin to communicate instantly with a person in Marseilles, Reims, Roubaix, Chaions sur de Milon, Rouen, Tours, Boulogne, etc., a thing which could never have been made possible at regular rates

if at all," but for the fact that the telephone system is owned by the govern-

It may be a source of pleasure to those who never tire of praising the civ-llization of the Japanese that they are a very religious and God-fearing people.

To address prayers to all these divini-ies would require more energy than the vented most up-to-date methods of per-

In certain streets there are prayer

Wire to The Journal.)
Paris. June 25.—There is considerable forming their religious duties.

HAS AGAIN ELOPED

PRINCESS DE CHIMAY

ment.

The government of Germany, which several banquets in his honor.

of royalty to be seen here this smu

But the bey of Tunis will come to streets sitting next to our very thing of the past.

"Attele a la Daumont."

GET A PRANER.

DROP A COIN IN THE SLOT AND

Mason, Who Resigned-Reception to the Naval Officers and Men.

ACCEPTS THRONE

management to serve as queen of the

"And the government of the United States—the Republican party now in power—has the effrentery to give them a honor," said Miss Paffrath, "and feel that the oredit of my coronation will be chiefly due to them, for without their earnest support I would never have gained second place in the race. I was "One might be tempted to say that the American laboring men deserve what they get, when their votes give them power to shake off their yoke at any omewhat disappointed at not receiving the first place after the struggle of my friends, but realized that the fortune of "Surely no other people would have as much patience as the American; but that patience has ceased to be a virtue." the game was against me and prepared to gracefully give up my aspirations when I found I was second in the race. Reports from the various anti-vice so-cieties in Germany show that the per-nicious traffic of exporting young girls, especially from small provincial towns and villages, to trans-Atlantic ports, but now that the queenship has been offered I will do all in my poper to fill the regal throne as it should be filled. In the automobile that will becom queen's property I expect to take my friends for pleasure trips over the city." houses, has increased to an alarming ex-tent. Agents representing houses of this kind in New York, Philadelphia, New Or-

Miss Paffrath has invited the following to serve as maids of honor: Miss Anna limmons, Miss Retha Fowler, Miss Stella Carton, Miss Amy Churchly, Miss Sarah Stringer and Miss Ethel Styles. The first two young women were contestants for the queenship and Miss Simmons was a close third in the race. Misses Alice and Florence Canimack have been named as Phough the action was in no wise compulsory nor expected, the carnival management last night returned to Mr. Mason, father of Miss Mae Mason, $694.70 which represented the amount he had expended in securing the election of his daughter as carnival queen. The manwas unable to serve as queen they felt this money should be returned as a matter of justice, and soon after the decision was taken Mr. Mason received the amount which he had expended.

of their time to watching agents for im-moral houses and has been provided with all data and facts gathered by the anti-vice society. The arrest of several The United States warships will ar rive this noon, as per program, and they will be given a royal welcome by every

Miss Margaret Paffrath last night ac- chor just above the steel bridge. The cepted the invitation of the carnival receiving hours have not yet been anmanagement to serve as queen of the nounced, but will be arranged as soon festival, vice Miss Mae Mason, who resigned on account of 11 health. Miss Paffrath expressed herself as gratified at the opportunity to aid in promoting the success of the carnival and stated that as far as was in her power she would endeavor to make this gala season memorable. She will get the fine new autowhich was offered as a prize.

'I am especially grateful to my friends, who, through their support and untiring efforts in my behalf gained for me this honor," said Miss Paffrath, "and feel that the eredit of my coronation will be as the visitors arrive.

guests. Great secrecy surrounds the name of the king, but it is said that he is very dignified and well suited to the exalted position which he will fill. His majesty will arrive Tuesday noon and will pa-rade through the streets of the city on his way to Multnomah field, where he and the queen will hold court.

Another feature is announced for the carnival. This is in the form of a German wedding. The names of the contracting parties have not yet been announced. The wedding will take place on Fraternal day, Tuesday, July 5. The wedding will take place on the platform in the big circus tent, in the presence of the king and queen.

the king and queen.

The carnival mangement will probably make a handsome present to the couple.

After the parade on Tuesday evening, the queen will be crowned by the king. In the parade, which will start at 7 o'clock will be the floats, sailors from the warships, the performers in the society circus, the king and queen and a large number of automobiles.

A prize of a $100 cup has been offered for the best decorated automobile, decorated in the carnival colors, red and green. These are the official colors and not red, white and green as some suppose. All desiring to enter automobiles in the contest are requested to leave their names with Secretary Mitchell, 610 Marquam building, not later than Tuesday noon.

The Carnival Parade.

The Carnival Parade The parade committee of the Mardi Gras requests the officers and members of all lodges and unions to arrange for will be given a royal welcome by every patriotic man, woman and child in the city. The officers of the Mardi Gras and a citizens' committee consisting of Colonel Jackson, Colonel Gantenbein and I. N. Fleischner will leave this morning on the steamer Hoo Hoo and will go down the river to meet the visitors. The ships will arrive at noon and will an-

LIEVE HE FELL INTO SEA BE-TWEEN PLYMOUTH AND CHER-BOURG EITHER ACCIDENTALLY OR BY VIOLENCE.

(Copyright, Hearst News Service, by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Wire to The Journal.) Rome, June 25.—Certainly the pope has a distinct leaning to modernity, and the thought of a gramophone in the vatican is at first almost startling, but Pope Pius X is an innovato. He is anxious to spread the Gregorian chant through the whole of the Roman Catholic world and is wisely de-Murphy and James Kilduff. sirous of doing away with the theatrical and sensational music which has largely become the ecclesiastical fashion and to replace it by the grand and simple melodies which have been handed down by Gregory the Great.

One of the great difficulties which has however, hitherto hampered the scheme is to be met by the fact of the impossibility of indicating, in printed music, the modulations which make the plain song so impressive, and it is this difficulty that the gramaphone has over

Aural Tuition. The Gregorian congress, which has ecently been sitting, drew attention to the fact that Aural tuition is absolutely ecessary and in order to provide it they requested Mr. Alfred Michaelis, the well known musical composer, to attend at the vicarage of Rome, together with a number of members of the Gregorian cian. He will stop at the Palais Eley-sees, and in consideration of the slim plain song was taken on the gramaphone Gramophone sections are being estab lished now all over Italy and probably by and by the study of plain song will extend all over the world, and the lescial gale performance at the opera and son will be given by this inanimate voca

EARL ROBERTS. TO VISIT UNITED STATES

(Copyright, Hearst News Service, by Leased Wire to The Journal.) London, June 25 .- Earl Roberts has definitely decided to accept the invitation of Ambassador Choate to visit the United States. He will pay his visit in the late summer or early autumn The exact time has not been decided

He has always been anxious to visi this country. As soon as the time of his visit is decided upon arrangements little yellow man has, so with their usual ingenuity the Japanese have inwill be made to give him a great recep

SMITH AND OVERTON automates and for a small coin dropped in a box they get a small printed tract. SECURE RELEASE

Not true informations were filed in the circuit court yesterday by District Attorney Manning, through H. B. Adams, his assistant, and orders of dismis-sal issued by Presiding Judge George in the cases of W. W. Smith, charged with burglary, and Charles Overfon, with assault. It is said that the evidence would not warrant a trial, as convictions would probably not be secured.

Overton was charged with assaulting interest here over the news that Clara Ward, who married the Prince de Chimay, and afterward eloped with Rigo, a gypsy violinist, has now run away with a canvasser in the service of Thomas Cook & Sons, tourist agents Christina M. Baxter, a 15-year-old girl, last June 1. Smith was charged with entering a shop at 224 Main street last She made an agreement to pay Rigo thousand france a month. March 9 and attempting to carry away a number of articles (Copyright, Hearst News Service, by Leased London, June 25 .- No light has been shed in London today on the mystery of the disappearance of Kent V. Loomis. Loomis' only friends in London are J. P. Hart and wife. They have not seen heard of him. Only two passengers on the Kaiser have been found who saw Loomis at Plymouth. They are P. F.

They reiterate the declaration that Loomis was on the deck of the Kaiser when the tender left the slip at Plymouth. They declare he did not board the tender. Mr. Flem, a San Francisc assenger now in Paris, now declares that Loomis boarded the tender but Murphy and Kilduff say it is impossi-Loomis' shipmates declare W. H. Ellis and Loomis were attentive to Marion and Bertha Ivell, New York singers, bound to Berlin. Dispatches from Berlin state that the Ivell girls assert they did not see comis after the Kaiser reached Plymouth or Ellis after the Kaiser reached Cherbourg. Dispatches from Paris state that Ellis has Loomis' hold luggage but not his hand luggage.

Consul General Evans tonight said b believed Loomis had landed at Plymouth and is now somewhere in the country and would turn up when he saw th newspapers. Evans added that the Berlin and Paris police believe Loomis may have fallen into the sea between Ply mouth and Cherbours, whether acci dentally or by violence, is unknown. London embassy does not believe Leomis was engaged on any diplomatic mission. Scotland Yard has not been asked to investigate the case.

BERLIN TO HAMBURG AT TERRIFIC SPEED

(Copyright, Hearst News Service, by Wire to The Journal.) Berlin, June 25 .- Two leading elecrical firms in Germany, Messrs, Siemans & Halske and the General Electrical company, have elaborated schemes for the construction of a high speed electrical railway from Berlin to Ham-burg, a distance of 180 miles

Messrs, Siemens & Halske offer construct the railway at a cost of £3,500,000 for a single line and £5,200,000 for a double line guaranteeing a speed of 100 miles an hour. It is estimated that with fi first-class fares and 16 shillings second, 520,000 passengers annually would make the single line and 850,000 the double line

The General Electric company is willing to guarantee a speed of 125 miles an hour for the same fares, but estimates that the cost of construction would be

Probably one of these schemes will be adopted, as the emperor is ambitious that Germany should be the pioneer in high speed electric rdailways.

Put to the Test. From the Washington Star.

It is good to know that the ant is ex pected to destroy the boll weevil. For years the ant has been held up as a pattern of industry and propriety without doing anything useful that was worth

MARQUIS OF ANGLESSY, MOST FIT IABLE OF ALL PIGURES, MIDING IN SOME SHARRY ROTEL ON THE CONTINUEST-ANGER IN PRANCE OVER DEPEAT OF DERBY.

in recent years has startled society as the revelation of the hopeless bankruptcy of the Marquis of Anglesey, as revealed in the first meeting of his cred-

Hiding in some shabby hotel on the continent bereft of income, drifting near the line of actual poverty and slowly dy-ing of incurable disease, the marquis is today the most pitable of all figures. His liabilities, it was shown, reac of $1,000,000. The insurance compani refused to accept any further risks ven at a premium of 30 per cent.

of only $50,000 a year. No Income for Marquis,

The decision of the creditors to throw he whole estate into bankruptcy, will deny the marquis this income for 25 years.

One passage in the bankruptcy propeedings is full of a grim truth of the position into which the extravagance and unspeakable eccentricities have led assist him?" asked a creditor, "The marquis has no friends," the reply of his attorney. Anger in France.

As a matter of course, much anger in France has developed over the defeat at the derby of Gouvernant, who had seemed certain to repeat the feat of Gladiateur.

mond Blanc, his countryman, for this Waterloo, it will lie in the knowledge that the man who defeated them is to whom France owes an eternal debt of gratitude.

But it has not been generally known that Mr. Leopold was the first man in England to receive note of the capitulation of Paris before the Prussian years to be his brother-in-law, was in after years to be his brother-in-law, was in Paris throughout the siege, possessing secret information, was able to tell Mr. Rothschild a fortnight ahead of what was to come. Possessed a "Fip." Scarcely a financier in England

Scarcely a financier in England or America but would have turned the invaluable information to golden account. One can imagine the policy of James R. Keene, or Gates, the Barnatos, or the Bells in possession of such a "tip."

But Mr. Rothschild flatly declined to profit by the opportunity. In contrast he quietly caused the preparation of vast loads of flour, vegetables, meat and every other delicacy sufficient to feed many thousands of people and sent the lot into Paris the moment the city was thrown open. Thus the first square meal esten by

(Copyright, Hearst News Service, by Lessed Wire to The Journal.) (By Paul Lambeth.)

London, June 25 .- Scarcely any event

Against this sum he had life insurance

The Angelesey estate yields nominally in income of a little more than $500,000 but when mortgages and jointures, in-cluding one of $50,000 per annum, have been deducted, there remains an income

Creditors and friends are asking what sale of jewelry held only a few days ago before the marquis went abroad.

"Has the marquis any friends who

If anything can compensate M. E.

The story of Mr. Leopold de Roths-child's boundless charity is a house-hold word in England and America.

M. Perugia, a banker, who was in after

SUITS FOR COMFORT AND ECONOMY

WARM WEATHER

That are made up with the skill of schooled intelligence from breeze-welcoming serges, homespuns, crashes and tropical worsteds and marked with this label.

Our assortment of these famous garments has been carefully chosen with close attention to the requirements of the

Prices Always the Very Lowest

$10 to $20

VERY house needs a good roof-and so does every head. If you put a MULTNOMAH $3.00 HAT on your head you'll have a roof that will give lasting satisfaction. Soft, Stiff and Straw Hats at one price.

Sam'l Rosenblatt & Co.

Corner Third and Morrison Streets

OFFICIAL RETURNS OF THE JUNE ELECTION

cast at the recent election has been compiled by Secretary of State Dunbar from the official returns filed with him by the county clerks of the various countles. This summary shows that the total number of votes cast in the entire state was 99,315.

Frank A. Moore, Republican candidate for supreme judge, was elected by a plurality of 24,217. His total vote was 52,946, and Thomas O'Day, his Democratic competitor, received 28,729. C. J. Bright, the Prohibition nomines, received 5,514, and 6,419 votes were east for the Socialist candidate, C. C. Mik-

J. W. Bailey, the Republican nominee for food and dairy commissioner, was elected by a plurality even larger than that given to Justice Moore, though his total vote was some 4,000 less. Balley received 48,821 votes; S. M. Douglas, Dem., 24,538; Ira W. Berry, Pro., 5,112, and N. Rasmussen, Soc., 6,098, Bailey's plurality was 24,283.

the perishing Frenchmen and French women came from the generosity of the man who a few weeks ago brought about the defeat of their equine idol. Invited to Castle.

Two hundred Christian Endeavorers from New England and the west will return to their quiet homes in the little towns, the happier for the hospitality of the king. They were at Windsor and preparin for the journey to the park when the king sent a message cordially inviting them to the castle. Within 15 minutes the visitors, each armed with the inevitable guide books, were massed on the terrace and then King Edward. Queen Alexandra and Princess Victoria came out and in their homelike informal way greeted the visitors in turn.

Following the singing of the national anthem the Endeavorers rendered some of their favorite hymns.

The gallant 200 marched away with a round of cheers for the kindly king and his beautiful consort.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

One of the most pleasant informal affairs of this past week was the reception given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mark O. Potter at their home on Kearney street last Monday avening. The house was tastefully and elaborately decorated with flowering syrings, Japanese lilec

A complete summary of the votes hibition candidates received respectively 3,678 and 3,535 votes, In the first district Binger Hermann was re-elected by a plurality of 6,813. His vote was 23,970. Robert M. Veatch.

Dem., received 17,157, and the Socialist and Brohibition candidates respectively 2,800 and 2,867. The local option law carried by a majority of 3,118. About 83 per cent of the voters who went to the polls voted either for or against the showing the widespread interest in the measure. The total vote for the law was 43,316, and the vote against it was

The majority in favor of the direct primary law was overwhelming, amount-ing to 39,851. The affirmative vote was 56,205 and the negative only 16,-

Quite as decisive was the vote on the constitutional amendment, relating to the state printer's office. The affirmative vote was 45,334 and the negative vote only 14,031, giving a majority of 31,303

The Republican majority in the next Congressman Williamson was re-elected by a plurality amounting to 14,-the last. In the senate there will be 363. His total vote was 27,126, while 25 Republicans and 5 Democrats. In his Democratic opponent, J. E. Simmons, the house the Republicans will number received 12,773. The Socialist and Pro> and roses. The dining room was especially attractive in white marguerites and California popples. Mrs. William Redell and Mrs. Edward L. Haff presided over the refreshments, assisted by Miss Amy May, Miss Neuta Potter, Miss Angela McQueen and little Jean Harden. Angela McQueen and little Jean Harden > Among those present were: Mr. and > Mrs. Hogue, Carroll, Redell, Russell,

> Ogden, Smith, Croasman, Harder,
> Janes, Thompson, Moore, Brown, Mrs.
> Potter and daughter, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs.
> MacMorris, Messrs, Rogers, Wintlen,
> Marks, Mahon, Durkes, Mrs. McGalliard, > Mrs. Hunting, besides the members of > Mrs. Potter's household, Mrs. Harden > and Miss Bull.

ROBBED OF $30,000 ON RAILWAY TRAIN

(Copyright, Hearst News Service, by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Berlin, June 25.—Mr. Castinau, director of the New York theatre, was robbed of $30,000 last Wednesday while on a train traveling from Bremen to Hamburg.

A Parker paper says its candidate "carefully weighs his words." After that he must put them back in cold storage, for they never reach the public.

GEVURTZ SELLS IT FOR LESS

EXTRA EXTRA

Gevurtz & Sons EXTRA SPECIALS

FOR ALL THIS WEEK WITHAGRAND FINALE SATURDAY NIGHT AT 8 O'CLOCK

HANDSOME PRESENT

To every visitor to our store this week-no restriction, no buying, no time set for the visit, only come this

THE PLAN

ANY SCHOOL GIRL

Who visits our store any hour or day this week ac-companied by parent, grand-parent or guardian will be given a handsome

CRUMB TRAY and BRUSH FREE

ANY SCHOOL BOY

Who visits our store any hour or day this week accompanied by parents, grandparents or guardian will be given a handsome and durable.

CLOTHES BRUSH FREE

Buying absolutely unnecssary; just visit the store is all we ask.

TO THE OLDER PEOPLE

Visit us during the week, your names will be taken and Saturday at 8 p. m. ticket containing your name will be made out and placed in a box. Three will be drawn 1st--Handsome Rocker Any $10 Rocker in House. 2d--Fine $5 Picture Choose Any in House.

3d--$2.50 Piece of Silverware Your Choice, of Course.

Everybody invited - all during the week-especially Saturday night.

$1 DOWN

Buys any piece of Furniture in the house.

GEVURTZ &

Corner Yamhill and First.

The-Little-at-the-Time Store