

HENRIETTA PROVES TO BE SMUGGLER IRISH LAD RUNS BRILLIANT RACE

BIG GERMAN BARK IS FOUND TO HAVE SECRET BINS FILLED WITH CIGARS AND HOLLAND GIN—THE CAPTAIN ARRESTED AND VESSEL MAY BE SEIZED.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, June 25.—Smuggling along the coast has been unearthed by the local inspectors, and as a result of the exposure Capt. William Rasch of the German bark Henrietta is under arrest. It is possible the big four-master by command may be seized.
In bins beneath the floor of the skipper's cabin the inspectors discovered several thousand cigars. A quantity of Holland gin landed from the vessel at Port Townsend was also confiscated. Rasch was placed under arrest and under $2,500 bonds by the United States commissioner. Several seamen were ordered held as witnesses. These men landed the gin at Port Townsend and carried it aboard the vessel months ago as the lay in the slip at Hamburg. The capture came from a slight caught of one of them carrying the gin down the bark's side in Port Townsend harbor.
The Henrietta's voyage to this part of the world has been fraught with misfortune. She sailed from Hamburg for Santa Rosa, Mexico, laden with coke. With fair winds the ship made the Pacific. Then came high seas and a mutiny broke out. Mutinies under such conditions are ugly things, and this one ended when the offenders were placed below in irons.
The skipper made port and came thence to Puget sound in ballast. The liquor he sold to saloonkeepers in Port Townsend. Collector Ide was notified. By that time the Henrietta had been towed to Blakely. Ide notified the local office, but nothing was discovered until the captain's cabin was reached in the search. Careful sounding revealed the presence of bins beneath the floor.
The carpet was taken up, exposing the bins. Then the cigars were taken. The contraband gin was traced to its destination. Members of the crew, when cross-questioned, told of having taken the liquor and cigars aboard. Captain Rasch is accused of having ordered this.
The department officials have not yet determined whether to seize the Henrietta, which is one of the largest sailing craft on the sound.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.)
Sheepshead Bay Race Track, June 25.—Irish Lad thoroughly retrieved his lost honors today in the advance stakes of $15,000 for three-year-olds and up, at one and three-eighths miles in magnificent style. Ort Wells was beaten in a furious drive by a head. Bryn Mawr came third. ### CHICKEN EATING CAT CAUSES FAMILY ROW

War has broken out between the Willis and Kramer families, residing on East Morrison street between Thirty-second and Thirty-third streets, and there has been one casualty—a big tomcat. Only a cat, but it bids fair to create strife that will rage for years. The matter has been called to the attention of the police and has been investigated by a mounted patrolman. The latter decided that if any arrests are made warrants will have to be issued.
The cat that was killed belonged to Mrs. Willis and the slayer was Clifford Kramer, a youngster aged 17 years. With his good and trusty revolver, it is said, he laid the cat low and did not as much as give it burial.
Now, the cat was the pride and joy of the Willis family, but on divers and sundry occasions, neighbors say, it was seized with an insatiable desire to munch spring chicken, and as there was a flock of the birds in Kramer's yard, the cat, it is claimed, frequently wended its way thither and helped itself to the fattest in the yard. Then open hostilities began, and in the first skirmish the list of dead included the cat with a fondness for chickens.
Mrs. Willis was away at that time, and did not learn of the tragic affair until she reached home. Then she called for the cat, but it came not.
Then it was that Mrs. Willis asked the police for aid, saying she must have revenge. Her husband is away on a business trip now, and she will not determine whether or not to issue a warrant for the slayer of her cat until his return.

FIRECRACKER CAUSES A $25,000 FIRE LOSS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Port Orchard, Wash., June 25.—One of the most destructive fires in the history of this section of the state raged at Port Orchard this morning, causing a loss of approximately $25,000. The blaze started in the upper story of the Kinney saloon. In a few minutes the fire was under such headway that it was impossible to control it. The flames spread until all the buildings fronting the city wharf were consumed. Eleven buildings in all were burned.
The origin of the fire is not definitely known, but it is believed to have started by firecrackers. Boys had been seen throwing firecrackers in the air and it is thought that in a narrow alley a fragment of an exploded cracker ignited the dry wood.

WOMAN WORKS UP A SUICIDE EXCITEMENT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
La Grande, Or., June 25.—Mrs. T. H. Huff attempted to commit suicide this afternoon by taking chloroform. She is said to have had a quarrel with some of the members of the family and went into hysterics.
She did not take enough of the drug to prove fatal, however, and is now as well as ever apparently. A doctor was immediately summoned on her request, and it is thought possible that she did not intend taking enough to kill.
Enlarged.
It was at the fashionable wedding. "Steady now," whispered the best man. "Don't lose your head."
"I wish I could lose it," groaned the groom, who had attended the farwile bachelor supper the night before. "It feels like a bushel."
