

MANY TEACHERS ARE IN ST. LOUIS

EXPECTED THAT 50,000 EDUCATORS WILL BE ON HAND TO PARTICI-PATE IN NATIONAL EDUCATION-AL ASSOCIATION CONVENTION
TODAY.

(Journal Special Service.)
St. Louis, Mo., June 27.—Secretary Irwin Shepard of the National Educational association estimates that 50,000 teachers are in St. Louis for the annual convention of the association. Twice that number are expected to be on hand when the convention gets under full headway tomorrow. Every state and territory from Maine to California has sent its contingent of educators. The south, though it has its own educational association as distinctive from the national association, will be well represented at the convention of the latter organization. California, Washington and Oregon will be in evidence and even the Dominion of Canada will be represented by a score or more of its for-most educators. General headquarters of the convention have been opened in the Missouri state building of the exposition. All of the other state buildings on the fair grounds are keeping open-house for the teachers from their respective states.

Council of Education.
The National Council of Education began its sessions this afternoon with Frank A. Fitzpatrick of Boston presiding. The prominent speakers before the National Council include Chief Rogers of the department of education of the Louisiana Purchase exposition, N.
G. W. Laceried, Swedish commissioner to the exposition, and S. Tegama, who will tell of the Japanese exhibit and its relation to the education in Japan.

The general sessions of the convention will begin tomorrow in Festival hall.
Governor Dockery of Missouri, Mayor Wells of St. Louis, State Superintendent of Public Instruction W. T. Harrington and President Francis of the exposition are among those who will welcome the convention members. W. T. Harris, commissioner of education of the United States and President Charles W. Dalney of the University of Tennessee, will make addresses.

Sectional Conference.
President George A. Gates of Pomona college, Booker T. Washington, Miss Margaret A. Haley of Chicago, Aaron Gove of Denver, President E. J. Jones of Northwest university and Haley C.
Ives are among the prominent persons who will address the general sessions.
Sectional conference will be held throughout the week for the discussion of subjects pertaining particularly to the primary department, high schools, superintendents, music instruction, Indian education, kindergartens, art instruction and elementary education. The general program has been so arranged as to give the teachers ample time between the sessions to view the sights of the exposition.

ENDS HOPELESS STRUGGLE.
(Journal Special Service.)
Chicago, June 27.—The bodies of Mrs.
Anna Kalschick, a German woman, and her three little children, were found in their rooms on North Robey street yesterday morning. The mother, who

MOTHER'S SORROW ALONE MOVES HIM

ERNEST LANE.

Ernest Lane, the 17-year-old principal in the most sensational series of burglaries ever perpetrated in Portland, and who was arrested late Saturday afternoon by Detectives Day, Kerrigan and Snow, was arraigned before Municipal Judge Hogue this morning, and upon waiving preliminary hearing through Attorney Dan R. Murphy, was held to await the action of the grand jury under bonds of $2,000.

The information against the youthful self-confessed porch-climber and daring burglar charged him with larceny in a dwelling, the specific case being that of George L. Story, whose residence at 701 Irving street the defendant says he robbed of a gold watch, a razor and $15 cash the night of April 16.

Lane is ill at ease only when in the presence of his mother or when asked regarding her. She appeared with him in court this morning, together with her husband, Mr. Frazier. She had been cuddled with her son for half an hour prior to the arraignment. Her eyes were tear-stained. She was in deep mourning. Neither she nor the boy spoke a word during the proceedings.

After having waived examination Ernest was removed to his cell. This afternoon he was sent to the county jail.
"How do you feel, now that you are captured?" Ernest was asked, as he leaned against the grating of his cell while a Journal artist sketched him.
"My lawyer told me not to talk to reporters," was the reply, "but I guess he meant only about my crimes. I feel awful bad."

In answer to other questions he said his father and mother were divorced six years ago, and that his father's present whereabouts is unknown to the family.
He said he never drank or smoked, and up to the time of launching forth on his career of crime he never had any bad habits.

It is believed that Attorney Murphy will make an endeavor to keep his client from the penitentiary on the grounds of his youth. It is believed he will try to have him sent to the reform school. His mother is highly respected.

DIED AT HANDS OF PERSONS UNKNOWN ALBANY BOY RUNS AWAY FROM HOME

CORONER'S JURY INQUIRES INTO DEATH OF GEORGE JOYCE AND RETURNS VERDICT—CASE EN-VELOPED IN MYSTERY—AUTHOR-ITIES WILL INVESTIGATE.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Oregon City, June 27.—At the inquest held here today over the body of George Joyce, who was found unconscious in the Chin House Thursday morning, the coroner's jury summoned by Coroner R. L. Holman, returned a verdict of death at the hands of an unknown person. The jury deliberated long over the testimony of witnesses and after the evidence had been summed up the above verdict was rendered.

Joyce was found Thursday morning unconscious at the bottom of the cellar stairs with his head bleeding and a bloody brick beside it. The same night Julius Grazier's room was robbed. No noise was heard by any of the inmates of the hotel and it is the opinion of many that Joyce had met the thief coming from his work in Grazier's room and was there murdered and his body concealed in the cellar. Joyce had not occupied his room that night and as Grazier's duties keep him up all night at the woolen mill, the crime was probably committed early in the morning. The testimony at the inquest brought out the fact that Joyce was a seaman, was not given to drinking and had always been healthy.

Dr. E. A. Sommer performed the autopsy on the body last night and from examination discovered that Joyce had a fracture of the skull at the base of the brain on the right side and a laceration on the frontal lobe of the brain producing partial concussion causing death.

Joyce had considerable money—about $500. This was not disturbed, and it is thought that he was struck down while barring the escape of the robber. Livy Stipp was appointed administrator of his estate, and after his burial his debts will be paid and what remains will go to the state school fund.

The authorities have been notified of the finding of the coroner's jury and an investigation will be made. The case is now shrouded in mystery and there is no way of telling who might be implicated. There is no suspicion.

STATE TEACHERS FLOCK TO CITY

HUNDREDS OF PEDAGOGUES AR-RIVE FOR THE STATE ASSOCIA-TION MEETING WHICH OPENS TO-MORROW—LEWIS AND CLARK EXPOSITION TO GET ATTENTION.

Schoolma'ams by the hundreds are arriving in the city today to take in the sessions of the fourth annual meeting of the Oregon State Teachers' association (western division), which will be held on June 28 to 30 and July 1. It is expected that at least 1,300 teachers will attend the meetings.

The first meetings of the association will be held in the committee room at 10 o'clock a. m. This meeting will be conducted by the school superintendents, and is to be one of the most important of the convention. One of the most important subjects to be discussed will be teaching in the rural schools. The Or-gon schools of the historical importance of the famous trip of Captains Lewis and Clark. Superintendent R. F. Robinson of Multnomah county, will make this the theme of his address on "Local Geography and History from Special Books and Outlines." E. V. Littlefield of Yamhill county will also talk on this subject.

"I am of the opinion," said Mr. Robinson this morning, "that beginning with the first day of the next school year, the children of Oregon should be taught more of the great trip of Lewis and Clark, of the purchasing of Louisiana, of Captain Gray's voyage to this coast, of the early settlers in the northwest—in fact, they should be taught more of state history."

The following is tomorrow's program:
"Local Geography and History from Special Books and Outlines." R. F. Robinson, Multnomah county, E. V. Littlefield, Yamhill county.
"Compensation for Grading Eighth Grade Papers." J. H. Ackerman, Oregon.

"Should a Person Be Required by Legislative Act to Complete the Work of the Teaching Grade in His Equivalent Before Receiving a Certificate to Teach?" B. F. Mulkey, Southern Oregon Normal School, E. E. Bragg, Oregon county.
"Financing an Institute." J. C. Zinser, Clackamas county, W. L. Jackson, Linn county.

"Needed School Legislation." E. T.
Moore, Marion county, H. A. Ball, Washington county.

"Consolidation of Districts—Reports on Progress." F. B. Hamlin, Douglas county, Justice T. Neff, Wasco county.

SANITARY CONDITION OF BASEBALL PARK

Portland, June 27.—To the Editor of The Journal—My attention has been called to a story published in your paper which states that I have condemned the Portland baseball grounds, because I considered them in an un-sanitary condition. I hereby wish to state most emphatically that this statement is not true; that I have not condemned the Portland baseball grounds, for the reason above stated. I notified the management that the sanitary arrangements of the grounds should be kept in good order, but further than this I have not done anything, as nothing further was necessary. The management have notified me that they propose to keep the toilet arrangements in good condition and that is all that can be asked of them. As far as the grounds are concerned, they are in splendid condition from a sanitary point of view, and it would be ludicrous on my part to ask to have them condemned.

Trusting that you will publish this communication, I remain, yours respectfully, THOS. E. HULME.

POLICE ARE SEARCHING FOR AR-CHIE MONIER, WHO IS SUPPOSED TO HAVE FOLLOWED CIRCUS OUT OF TOWN—YOUNG GIRLS IN-FATUATED WITH SHOW LIFE.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Or., June 27.—Archie Monier, a lad 11 years of age, has run away from his home in this city, and the police are searching for him. The boy is supposed to have followed a dog and monkey show that came here with the carnival last week, and left for independence on Thursday morning. The lad's mother, Mrs. Samuel Conna of this city, is greatly worried over the disappearance of the lad, and at her request the police have sent out written descriptions to the police of the several cities of the western part of the state, in an effort to locate the boy.

The police are rather of the opinion that the lad did not go with the dog show, but that an itinerant peddler of coffee pots, who was here during the carnival, has induced the child to go with him for some nefarious purpose.

Girls May Leave.
Several young girls of this town have been under surveillance during the past few days, as they had threatened to go with the carnival shows when the latter left this city for Salem. The girls in question seem to be infatuated with the life of show women and desire to follow the same. They did not get away, but one or two of them declare they will join the shows when the latter leave Salem at the end of next week.
Efforts will be made to prevent them carrying their threats into execution.

Rural Carriers Organize.
The Rural Letter-Carriers' association organized here Saturday night, with delegates present from each of the towns where the rural carriers are stationed. The object of the new organization is to work for better roads and the improvement of the rural letter-carriers' conditions generally.

The organization elected officers as follows: C. W. Wallace, Albany, president; W. J. Cochran, Shedd, vice-president; John H. Goline, Albany, secretary; E. B. Cornett, Albany, treasurer; D. Shearer, Shedd, and E. B. Cornett, delegates to the state convention, which meets in Salem next Saturday.
W. J. Cochran, Shedd, and A. M.
Holt of Albany were chosen as alternates.

There are 22 rural carriers in Linn county, and all of them have notified the officers of the new association that they will become members and work for the interests of the organization.

Excursion to the Bay.
An excursion to Yaquina bay yesterday, from this city, was well patronized, a considerable number of people from this city and Corvallis going there. The day was spent on the beach at Newport, and those returning from there last night report a fine time.
There are already a number of people at that seaside resort for the summer and many more are preparing to go in, a number going over every day.

PROHIBITIONISTS IN INDIANAPOLIS

(Journal Special Service.)
Indianapolis, June 27.—Prohibitionists are beginning to arrive for the national convention to be held Wednesday and Thursday in Tomlinson hall. The hall is profusely decorated in red, white and blue. It is expected that practically all of the delegates will have arrived by tomorrow noon. Every state of the union will be represented and the convention promises to be the largest in the history of the party. The largest delegation will be from Indiana, Illinois and Pennsylvania. Oregon, Washington and Ohio will be close seconds in point of numbers and nearly every southern state will be fully represented.
Minnesota, Dakota, Montana and Wisconsin will have a special train, reaching here tonight or tomorrow morning.
The New England delegation will also come in a special train. The Denton, Claypool and English hotels will house part of the delegates.

The convention will be called to order at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning by Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the national committee, James A. Tate of Tennessee, and Rev. Mr. E. L. Eaton of Allegheny, Pa. are strong favorites for the presidential nomination. Besides these two, however, there are nearly a dozen others mentioned for the honor, and the contest promises to be a free one for all. Among those in the running are: Alfred L. Manierre, New York City; Prof. A. A. Hopkins, Hornellsville, N. Y.; A. G. Wolfenbarger, Lincoln, Neb.; T. R. Cascard, Keyser, W. Va.; I. H. Amos, Portland, Or.; H. B.
Metcalfe, Fairview, Pa.

Swallow Is Mentioned.
J. C. Swallow of Pennsylvania is frequently mentioned and will probably receive some votes, although it is understood that Dr. Swallow does not want the nomination and that Pennsylvania will not present his name. In some quarters talk is still in vogue of Gen.
Nelson A. Miles as the presidential nominee, but those best acquainted with the situation declare that there is not even a remote possibility of General Miles receiving the nomination.

The selection of a vice-presidential nominee will depend largely upon what section of the country the presidential choice comes from. So far very little attention is being given to the second place on the ticket.

National chairman Stewart said today that the platform this year will have little to say on any question other than that of the liquor traffic.
"The matter of our next national platform," said Mr. Stewart, "will not differ from that of the platform of four years ago, but there will be a difference in the manner of statement. There will not be so much stump speech in this year's platform."

Young People on Jaunt.
All Christian Endeavor societies in the city have united to make a success of the excursion tomorrow night on the Bailey Gatzert. It will be a jolly, congenial crowd. Music will add its charms to the beauty of the moonlight on the water. Start at 8: return at 11:15.

SHOT AND KILLED WHILE HUNTING

LEVI ADKINS OF GALE'S CREEK LOSES LIFE BY ACCIDENTAL DIS-CHARGE OF GUN IN HANDS OF HIS COMPANION, CHARLES F.
MILLER—NO BLAME ATTACHED.

Forest Grove, Or., June 27.—Levi Adkins of Gale's Creek, the young man who was accidentally shot and killed by Charles F. Miller of this place while hunting on Deo creek Saturday evening, was buried in Gale's Creek cemetery this afternoon. Mr. Adkins and Mr. Miller were together on an outing and had pitched their camp for the night. Thinking to get some game for supper they started out and while Mr. Miller was injecting a shell from the magazine into the barrel of his rifle, causing the hands of Mr. Miller and causing the bullet to pass through the rifle and pierce the breast of Mr. Adkins, killing him instantly.

Mr. Adkins was some 50 feet away at the time and had expired before Mr. Miller could reach him. Help was summoned instantly and the body brought to the home of his parents near Gale's Creek, with whom he was living. No blame whatever is attached to Mr. Miller as he is an old and experienced hunter noted for his carefulness. He is prostrated over the accident but has the sympathy of the entire community.

NAVAL OFFICERS VISIT THE MAYOR

With swords clanking at every step and a halo of glory shed by scores of brass buttons and yards of gold lace, the commanders of the warships now in the harbor paid a formal visit to Mayor George H. Williams at 11 o'clock this morning. The officers expressed to his honor their thanks for a hearty reception that had been tendered to them and the ships and men in their command.

SEEK HAPPINESS AT GREYNA GREEN

Two young people well-known in Portland and vicinity who quietly slipped down to the gretna green of Vancouver and got married Saturday evening by Justice Harris were J. E. Lancaster and Miss Grace L. Pickard. Mr. Lancaster was one of the organizers of the Oregon Savings bank, founded the Lancaster Real Estate company in the Marquam building, owns the townsite of Condon, Gilliam county, and for several years was a prominent real estate and mining broker of Spokane. Mrs. Lancaster was born and reared in Eugene, where her father is a well-known stockman. Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster are to make Portland their home.
