Large crowds took advantage of the ideal weather which local forecasters Beals served up in generous portions Sunday, and spent the day at the City Park. The feeling of universal jollity which prevailed seemed to communicate itself even to the animals, and the funny stunts executed by the monkeys and five baby bears who seemed to realize that the time was ripe for them to "show off," kept the good-natured crowd in a continuous roar. It was swimming day for the bears and they lolled and splashed in the cool waters of their private porcelain bath tub with huge satisfaction. The numerous swings and the new wading tank which has lately been added to the park's attractions worked overtime to satisfy the "kids," while sedate mothers gossiped to their hearts' content as they sipped cold drinks and demolished the lunch. The park is looking better than it has for some time. In spots improvement could be made in the grass by a more liberal application of water, but generally the shrubs and flowers are thriving. The completion of the west reservoir will add materially to the beauty of the park. Large beds of quicksand have made the sides of the huge tank unstable, but by a system of tunneling, this defect is being rapidly overcome and in a short time the great tank with its barren walls, will be turned into a cool, shimmering lake again.

The Peninsula Lumber company has received new machinery which, when installed, will double its present capacity, and 400 men will be required to operate the enlarged plant. The Acme Lumber company, which handles the local business of this company, has made important improvements over the former mode of pulling the lumber around the bluff by teams. A cable track has been completed from the O. & N. railway spur to the top of the bluff and the lumber will be pulled up the bluff. A hotel for the accommodation of lumbermen has been built on Willamette boulevard. About nine months will be required to construct the new mill plant of the Green Bay Lumber company near the peninsula, where it has purchased 48 acres for a site.

The death of Isaac D. Peters, aged 50 years, occurred last evening about 6 o'clock, at his home 195 Twenty-fourth street north, after a period of several months of increasing ill-health. He was a native of Kalamazoo county, Mich., and received his education in the public schools and Olivet college of that state. He was married in 1878 to Miss Ida Belle Labretaux of Marshall, Mich., and soon thereafter removed to Empire, Kan. where he engaged in the hardware business until 1889, at which time he moved to Oregon and went into the furniture manufacturing business under the firm name of the Peters & Roberts Furniture company. He is survived by his parents and by a widow and two sons, George D. and John G. Peters.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians gave their annual steamboat excursion yesterday. The steamer Glenola and barge Kilkenny left the foot of Burnside street at 9 a. m. with 81 merry-makers on board. Glenola park was the destination. The Royal Italian band dispensed good music throughout the day. The afternoon was given up to dancing till the return home at 7:30 p. m. It was a thoroughly enjoyable affair and surpassed all the former excursions given by this order. The committee in charge consisted of John Farrell, J. J. Smith, P. Farrelly, John Farrell, P. Farrelly, Will Sheehy, J. P. Mechem, J. A. Duff, J. W. McGinn, and Thomas Murnane.

The new monument to the Second Oregon Volunteers will be completed tomorrow for the opening of the Lewis and Clark fair. Colonel James Jackson, who has the work in charge, states that the pedestal is now being cut in a Vermont granite quarry, and the well-known San Francisco sculptor, Douglas Tilden, is at work upon the heroic figure of a soldier which is to form the statue. The fund of $15,000 for the monument is nearly raised. The contract for the granite base allows until January 1 for its delivery, and the monument will be mounted by the first of May.

The smartest boat on the river is the Charles R. Spencer, and it runs through from Portland to The Dalles without change. The Spencer has never lost a trip on account of high water. It is not the kind that is discovered by a little extra flow of melting snow. Her berth is at the foot of Washington street, from whence she departs every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at 7 o'clock. Take the best boat, the fastest boat and the newest boat that sails from Portland.

We suppose that a great many people will come to town tomorrow and during the carnival to see the sights, one of the greatest of which is the steam heated rollers always on duty at the up-to-the-minute laundry. There is not a thing that's new and excellent in the line of laundry equipment that we are not first to buy and put in operation. We have the only steam heated rollers in the state. days were the features. Nearly every class was represented, and a number of visiting collegians were present. The election resulted as follows: President, Frank B. Riley; vice-president, Chester C. Murphy; secretary-treasurer, Ralph Fisher; corresponding secretary, Alfred Trowbridge; advisory committee, Harry S. Shiden and Dr. Otis B. Wright.

A gentleman who refused to give his name entered a complaint this morning against the shooting with which the members of the Gun club have their little and shell to lovers of river sport. It seems that the gentleman and a companion were canoeing on the Willamette in the vicinity of the grounds used by the Gun club for their blue-rock pigeon shoots, just below the golf links. They were sailing peacefully along, when a veritable shower of small shot fell around them. Several of the shot hit the occupants of the canoe, and while the distance was too great for them to do any serious damage, if their canoe had been a little closer to the shore some one might have been seriously injured. The gentleman who entered the complaint says that he has inquired into the matter and found that his experience is not an uncommon one with the members of the Portland Rowing club.

Lots in beautiful City View Park are now upon the market again, after a silence of several months, the property having been purchased outright by the Oregon Water Power & Townsite Co. The present owners offer these charming lots at from $150 to $300 each, with small payments down and balance on small monthly payments. Of all the delightful locations in Oregon, City View Park is best known, and all pronounce it as desirable for home sites as any beneath the sun. It is said, however, to see so lovely a tract of park grounds carved up into city lots. Its beauty should have been preserved for public enjoyment for all time to come.

Never before in its history did the large show windows of the White Corner present so handsome an appearance as at this time. The Yamhill and Second street fronts are especially pretty, and with all their beauty the bargains offered are such as would tempt the change from the pocketbooks of the most economical. The new summer goods shown in these windows not only warm the eye but give one new ideas of the pretentious and useful things to be found in the Portland market where fashion and good taste abide.

The graduating class of Brooklyn school will receive diplomas Wednesday evening, June 30, but no exercises will be held this year. At present there is no assembly hall, but there will be one in the annex which is now being built. The pupils receiving the highest averages are: Ethel B. Adams, Agnes Duncan, Delbert Hencock, Iuga Jensen, Leona Kistler, Marjorie C. Kline, Gladys B. Morgan, Eva Newkirk, Naomi Nickols, Lillian E. Peterson, Louis G. Urban.

No transfers at Cascade Locks. The steamer Spencer sails through to The Dalles without change. The trifling high water in the locks does not interfere with this staunch and fleet river boat. Leaves foot of Washington street at 7 a. m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Telephone Main 1422.

This evening Mt. Tabor's progressive people, who have formed a civic improvement association, will hold a meeting at the town hall to perfect their organization and begin work. The membership committee has had success and the committee on by-laws will submit a constitution.

A meeting of the Indo-American Woman's league was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parlors of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Sukhoda Banarjee, a Hindoo woman of high caste, gave an address on child conditions in India.

THREE CHURCHES ARE DEDICATED

BISHOP CRANSTON OF THE METHODIST CHURCH FORMALY ADDS THREE CHURCHES TO THE PORTLAND DISTRICT—CONGREGATIONS NOW HAVE CHURCHES.

Three new churches were added to the Portland district of the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday when Bishop Earl Cranston dedicated the edifices. Rev. L. E. Lockwood, presiding elder of this district, was unable to be present at the ceremonies.

It was a busy day for the bishop, but he enjoyed it thoroughly. The church dedicated yesterday morning is at Mayor and is worth about $1,000. Rev. James Hawkins, pastor of Clatskanie church, and Rev. J. H. Atkinson of this city assisted at the services.

The little $600 building at Quincy was consecrated in the afternoon. Services have been held in this region for more than 15 years in schoolhouses. The largest of the three churches dedicated yesterday was the one at Clatskanie, of which Rev. James Hawkins is pastor. The old church building has been remodeled into a pretentious structure. The auditorium is attractive and provided with carpet and pews. An Epworth League room adjoins the main auditorium.

GEOX GIVES ORATORIO.

Sullivan's "Prodigal Son" Rendered by Chorus of First Congregational.

The members of the First Congregational church were afforded a treat in the way of a musical program last evening when Sir Arthur Sullivan's oratorio, "The Prodigal Son," was given by the members of the choir. The soloists were Mrs. M. D. Schwab, soprano; Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, contralto; Prof. W. H. Boyer, tenor and W. A. Montgomery, bass. Miss Lenora Fisher was the accompanist. The large chorus choir assisted and did excellent work under Mr. Boyer's direction.

Prof. Boyer has charge of the music this month, after which the members of the choir take their summer vacation. The services of a number of talented soloists will be secured.

The program last evening was as follows:

1—Introduction.
2—Chorus, "There is Joy in the Presence of Angels."
3—Tenor solo, "A Certain Man Had Two Sons."

4—Recitation and air, bass, (a) "My Son, Attend to My Words." (b) "Trust in the Lord."
5—Air, contralto, "Love Not the World."

6—Recitation, soprano, "And When He Had Spent All."
7—Air, soprano, "O, That Thou Had Harkened."
8—Air, tenor, "How Many Hired Servants."

9—Recitation, soprano; duet, tenor and bass, "And He Arose and Came to His Father."
10—Recitation and air, bass, "Bring Forth the Best Robe."

11—Chorus, "O, That Men Would Praise the Lord."
There was no regular sermon. The preliminary exercises were conducted by Dr. E. L. House, the pastor.

CELEBRATE MISSION FESTIVAL.

The annual mission festival of the German Lutheran churches of the city was held yesterday in Hawthorne Park, where there was a large attendance of members of the city churches and those of Oregon City and Peninsula. The services were in charge of Rev. August Krause, pastor of St. Paul's church of this city. At the morning service, which began at 10 o'clock, the sermon was delivered by Mr. Krause. His subject was "Nature, Church and Man." Rev. C. G. Doerscher of Oregon City also spoke.

In the afternoon Rev. C. Buechler of the Lutheran church at Peninsula, delivered an address in English. Others gave talks in German. The music of the day was given by a quartet.

ORDINATION AT ST. DAVIDS.

Ordination services were held yesterday morning at St. David's Episcopal church, when Frank Owen Jones was made a deacon in the church. The services were conducted by Bishop B. Van Waters, rector of the church, and Rev. A. A. Morrison, rector of Trinity.

This will be one of the biggest classes ever initiated in the city. The candidates are to be assembled at 8 o'clock; and at 8:30 o'clock the page rank will be conferred. Lodges to take part are Oregon, No. 1; Ivanhoe, No. 10; Phalanx, No. 14; Calanthe, No. 21; Orpheus, No. 59, and Portland, No. 68.

After the initiation will come a social session and refreshments will be served. Addresses are also to be delivered by W. M. Cakes, S. E. of R. and S.; P. C. L. R. Stinson, G. E. of R. and S.; R. G. Morrow and H. K. Sargent, P. C.

TAKES POSITION AS AGENCY DIRECTOR

H. B. Scott, who is to succeed his brother, Blair T. Scott, as agency director of the North Pacific department of the Washington Life Insurance company, arrived in the city this morning.

Mr. Scott is from Pittsburg, where he has been engaged in the banking business for the past 13 years. He resigned the position of paying teller of the Federal National bank of that city to accept the position with the Washington Life.

The position of agency director of this department was made vacant by the promotion of Blair T. Scott, who was made an executive officer of the company. His headquarters will be in New York City.

Mr. Scott will continue to reside in this city for the next year.

"Portland looks like a great city," said Mr. Scott this morning. "I just arrived and of course haven't had the opportunity of seeing much of the place. But from appearances the reports that I have heard have not been exaggerated in the least."

"People in the east are becoming deeply interested in this northwest country. For a long time it was looked upon as something of a land of legend and romance, but the wonderful resources of Oregon and Washington are gradually being made known and people are looking in this direction for the placing of capital and investments. The Lewis and Clark fair will do a great deal toward increasing this interest and will attract many who simply want to see the country of which they have heard so much."

"With reference to the Washington Life, there is no need for my saying much. The company is so well known in this territory and throughout all the rest of the country for that matter that anything concerning it or its plans would simply be saying something that has already been said. But we propose not only to keep up the standard that has been made, but excel it if possible."

"It shall be our endeavor to bring into the service of the company bright and capable young men who will represent it intelligently and with credit. With the rapid and marvelous growth of life insurance business in the past few years has disappeared the old life insurance agent. Today we want men who are not only hustlers, but men who are honest, who are sincere and who appreciate the possibilities of their profession."

"The Washington Life has set a high standard for its agents, and I shall certainly do all I can to keep up that standard."

HOW WILL IT LOOK

Before the End of the Season?

That's the Question to Consider Before You Buy.

That Light-Weight Suit

That's the test. Only the best workmanship and material, such as is put into our clothes, can stand it. This applies to all kinds of Suits, but particularly to Serge Suits. A suit of that material represents the hardest problem in clothing. "It lays as it's cut," as the tailors say. Serge does not mould or conform to the body. Some makers tailor every fabric alike—haven't the facilities or the tailors to do it different. But the manufacturers that sell our goods have specialists in the different lines. Every suit we sell is made from standard material that we know is the best that's made. And our customers have the satisfaction that their suits do not get wrinkled, turn purple or green after they have worn them six week. The latest wood-brown shades, gray plaids and black and white stripes are again in stock and selling like hot cakes.
