The spirit of Lou May may well be proud. His body, from which the spirit departed at St. Vincent's hospital about three weeks ago, is to have an honor conferred upon it that few dead bodies of people born in the Flowery Kingdom are allowed to enjoy. His body, done up in real "Melican" style, reposing in a richly ornamented casket and accompanied by plenty of devil paper are to be shipped direct to the land of his birth without the formality of a previous burial in this country. In the case of most Chinamen who die in this country, the remains are buried here and left for a period of at least three months when they are exhumed, placed in a zinc box and shipped to China, for it is a superstition of the race that the spirits of the dead cannot rest if the body is buried on any other than its native soil. Lou May was a rich merchant and fitting religious ceremonies will be held by the members of his race as the steamship Arabia leaves her dock with the body on board.

The fastest and finest boat on the river is the Bailey Gatzert, and it runs through from Portland to The Dalles, Lyle, White Salmon, Hood River, Moffett's, St. Martin and Collins' Hot Springs, Cascade Locks and the fish canneries and way points without change, notwithstanding false statements to the contrary. If you would link comfort with this trip see that the "Bailey Gatzert" remains uppermost in your mind. Traveling, unless for pleasure, is in most cases tiring, but this ride, if taken on the "Gatzert," never. Meals served on board and leaves nothing to be desired—couldn't be better. "Gatzert" leaves Alder street wharf at 7 a. m. every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Steamer "Regulator" leaves same wharf at same time every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Phone Main 914.

The annual session of the Pacific coast synod of the Norwegian Lutheran church of America will begin tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in First church, East Tenth and Grant streets, and will continue until July 5. A large delegation of ministers from Oregon, Washington, California and other parts of the west is expected. These will be entertained by Rev. H. Hagoes, pastor of the church, and the members of the congregation. Rev. L. A. Foss of Everett, Wash., will act as chairman. Dr. L. Larson of Decorah, Iowa, and Rev. K. Bjiogo of Minnesota will attend. The handsome edifice in which the sessions are held will be dedicated on Sunday morning by the officers of the conference.

The smartest boat on the river is the Charles R. Spencer, and it runs through from Portland to The Dalles without change. The Spencer has never lost a trip on account of high water. It is not the kind that is disconcerted by a little extra flow of melting snow. Her berth is at the foot of Washington street, from whence she departs every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at 7 o'clock. Take the best boat, the fastest boat and the newest boat that sails from Portland.

Graduating exercises of Woodlawn school will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the school. The following are the graduates: Kenneth G. Lent, Everette Miller, Myrtle E. Wheeless, Lilias M. Ewing, Grace Kelt, Tessie R. Lancaster, Olga Smith, Bessie M. Yeo, Beatrice Sorber, Louise Wood.

W. A. George of Wenatchee, Wash., who travels in a rig and who camped on a vacant lot on Ladd's field on Ella street yesterday, reported at the central police station that his son, aged 14 years, went into a bakery in Brooklyn yesterday afternoon and has not been seen since. An investigation is being made.

No transfers at Cascade Locks. The steamer Spencer sails through to The Dalles without change. The trifling high water in the locks does not interfere with this staunch and fleet river boat. Leaves foot of Washington street at 7 a. m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Telephone Main 1422.

Bay State paint will go 25 per cent further and last 50 per cent longer than white lead and oil mixed and tinted by hand with the aid of a stick. That means a saving of about 33 1-3 per cent on an investment in paint. Fisher-Thorsen Co., everything in paints, corner Front and Morrison streets.

Portland Wire & Iron Works are now located at Trenkman & Co.'s on Fourth near Flanders. Work turned out promptly.

The old Bishop Scott academy will not be leased to Arthur C. Newill for the purpose of starting a private school. This was decided at a meeting of the board of trustees of the academy held yesterday afternoon in the office of John K. Kollock, the secretary.

The local union of Christian Endeavorers has arranged a moonlight excursion to be given on the Bailey Gatzert this evening. The party will leave the dock at 8 o'clock and will go up the river toward Vancouver.

Michael Parker, aged 81 years, great uncle of Patrolman S. D. White, has been visiting at the latter's residence, 728 East Eighth street. He left for Eugene yesterday to visit his daughter. His home is in Des Moines, Ia.

The only Goodyear Shoe Repair Co. is located next to the Gas Co.'s office, Yamhill street. Repairing while you wait. Work called for and delivered any reasonable distance. Phone Main 2031.

The kind of marble, granite and monumental work we do is the kind that gives satisfaction. Dissatisfied customers don't exist with us. Otto Schumann, next door Taylor street church.

For rent or sale, new modern 6-room house, corner East Eleventh and Caruthers. Cheap rent, long lease; inquire L. Rosenblatt, corner Third and Morrison streets.

Bontty's Orchestra.—First-class music. Open for engagements. F. Bontty, 111 North Fourth street. Main 1472.

William Wallace Graham will present his pupils in a violin recital this evening in the Unitarian chapel.

Take launches for warships at boathouse, foot of Stark street, until warships are gone.

To warships—Boats leave foot of Salmon and East Belmont streets.

MANY GRADUATES RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

The Portland high school class of 1904, numbering 92, the largest in the history of the school, was graduated last evening at the Marquam theatre, with the pomp and glory, flowers and pink ribboned diplomas that go with this annual event. The class outnumbers by 16 the largest heretofore graduated in this city, the previous record-breaker being last year's class of 76 graduates. Another innovation last evening was that a woman, Mrs. L. W. Sitton, a member of the school board delivered the diplomas to the graduates. The address to the class was delivered by United States Senator Charles W. Fulton, who in the course of his remarks gave much wise counsel and advice to the young people about to take up the serious work of matured men and women.

The theatre was filled with an interested audience of relatives and friends of the graduates. The stage was banked with flowers and plants. The school directors occupied seats at one side. Principal Davis presented the speakers and acted as master of ceremonies. Appropriate musical numbers were contributed by local musicians. Mrs. Sherman Brown gave two violin numbers, there was a vocal solo by N. C. Zan and two pretty solo numbers by Miss Delta M. Watson.

GRADUATION OF ST. JOHNS' PUPILS

Closing exercises of St. Johns public school were held last evening, the program being in charge of Principal John Teuscher, Jr. The address to the graduates was delivered by County School Superintendent R. F. Robinson. Diplomas were presented by John Poff, chairman of the school board of directors.

The graduates are: Mabel Merril, Hattie Townsend, Hazel Ogden, Edward Smith, Hazel Carlson, Sarah Graves, Ray Poff, Mildred Clemons and Amelia Legard. The St. Johns band opened the program.

IN MEMORY OF G. H. WEMPLE.

Students of the Portland high school have adopted the following resolutions in memory of the late George H. Wemple, janitor of the school:

Whereas, The all-wise Providence has seen fit to remove from our midst our esteemed friend, George H. Wemple, and,

Whereas, We mourn him as one who, by his faithful and unremitting labors in the interests of the Portland high school, endeared himself to students and teachers alike; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in their loss; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent his family, and that they be printed in the Cardinal.

AT THE THEATRES

"MEET ME AT ST. LOUIS."

Broadway Zinn's new musical extravaganza, "Meet Me at St. Louis," pleased a big audience at Shields' Park last night. It is a much stronger bill than "A Japanese Courtship," and the initial performance was snappy. The scenes represent the Pike at the St. Louis exposition. Specialties were introduced galore. Of these, Lou Cardownie made the biggest hit with her sword dance. Miss Cardownie wore a Highland costume resplendent with medals won in dancing contests. Erroll and Gross, as two Germans out on a lark, set a lively pace, especially in their burlesque boxing bout.

Venita Grey and Elaine Forrest were good, and Cad Franks, the new soubrette, made a hit. Harry Sawyer, William Fitchett and the rest of the cast were more than acceptable, especially Kitty Dyer in a tough-boy character. The big chorus appeared in all the musical numbers. The bill will continue all week.

"THE PROUD PRINCE."

Tonight and tomorrow night, at the Marquam Grand theatre, E. H. Sothern will be seen in his new creation, the role of Robert of Sicily in Justin Huntly McCarthy's miracle play, "The Proud Prince."

In "The Proud Prince" Mr. Sothern has a role of greater moment than any which he has before impersonated. It is a dual creation, as Mr. Sothern is seen first as a proud, arrogant king, who is then transformed into the body of his own court jester.

"The Proud Prince" is said to be written in the same vein of poetry, romance and chivalry as distinguished McCarthy's former play, "If I Were King," and admits of even greater picturesque costuming and embellishments. Mr. Sothern's role is one of the most difficult that he has ever essayed.

The play is divided into four acts, which take place in the 13th century in Sicily. Besides the elements of romanticism and a strong love theme, McCarthy has made use of the religious and the supernatural, particularly in the appearance of the archangel, the miraculous transformation of the king and the sacred chanting of the monks. The scenes of the play are divided as follows, entitled "The Archangel," "The Changed Woman," "The Sacristan" and "The Martyr." Musical embellishments play an important part in the piece, 52 musical numbers having been written especially for it by Manuel Klein. Over 170 people will be seen upon the stage. The evening performance commences at 8 o'clock sharp.

AT THE BIJOU.

Hunt's animal show at the Bijou this week is the finest array of trained animal talent ever seen in this town. The dogs and monkeys do everything but talk, and their performances excite admiration. This feature of the Bijou's big bill appeals especially to the children, but the older patrons of this popular theatre are not far behind the little folks in their enthusiastic approval. Other acts this week make the show the best in the history of the house. Mlle. St. Remy, the operatic balladist, has been secured for another week upon request, and the famous McShafferys bid fair to become the most popular artists in their line.

"THE BUFFALO MYSTERY."

Don't miss seeing the great roundhouse riot in the third act and the sensational automobile disaster in the final act of "The Buffalo Mystery," which is playing to crowded houses nightly at Cordray's. These are the most sensational scenes ever produced on the stage of a Portland theatre, and are reproductions of incidents which figured in the famous Burdick murder case. Elmer Walters' company is breaking all records at Cordray's this week in "The Buffalo Mystery."

THIS WEEK AT THE LYRIC.

The attendance at the Lyric this week is large, and the show throughout is a winner. This week's bill is composed of some high-class artists. One strong feature of the success of Managers Keating & Flood is that they have never given the patrons of the Lyric a poor show since its opening, and that has done much to win the confidence of the patrons who daily fill this theatre. The bill this week is composed of the following: Jeannette Laurelle, the famous European novelty dancer, presenting her latest triumph, "La Ciel"; the great Perry, dancing violinist; the three Dentons, world-challenge acrobats; the Bennington duo; Gonzalas, the contortionist; Annie Lee, dancing soubrette; Raymond G. Baldwin, the peerless baritone, and the vitascope.

"DIPLOMACY" AT THE BAKER.

The merits of the new Baker theatre company have been shown in its best light in the beautiful production of Sardou's great "Diplomacy," with which they opened their summer season Sunday, and will continue all this week. A company of this standard at Baker prices is a privilege. The engagement is to be a limited one, and not a single play should be missed.

ARCADE'S MENU.

It is carnival time at the Arcade this week, and an unusually good bill is being offered. The turn of Little Doris Lanesberg, the child prima donna, is one of the best on the bill. Her clear sweet voice and unaffected personality won for her yesterday the hearts of hundreds of patrons who attended the Arcade opening bill. Another feature of the program which met with much favor yesterday was the act of Wills and Barlon. The grimaces of Mr. Wills are said to be the ugliest and most laughable faces ever made in a theatre.

THE STAR'S BILL.

Without a doubt the most entertaining and amusing dog circus which has ever been shown in Portland appears at the Star theatre this week. The animals have been taught a number of original tricks. Children who miss seeing these canine clowns are unfortunate. The remainder of the program is equally good. The Swiss yodeling songs of Madame Meuxieme are a musical treat and the dancing and brilliant comedy of Ward, Bonnalyn and Ward, one of the fastest trios in vaudeville, are all of them features worth seeing.

LOGGERS MAY FORM COMBINATION HERE

MEET TOMORROW AND MAY DECIDE TO CLOSE ALL CAMPS FOR A MONTH—LOW PRICES CAUSE TALK OF CESSATION OF LOGGING—AGREEMENT IS PROBABLE.

A meeting of the Columbia river loggers has been called to convene at the office of the Benson Logging & Lumbering company in the Chamber of Commerce at 2 p. m. tomorrow. A. S. Benson of Clatskanie says that he received a notification by mail that the meeting would be held. He understands that the object of the gathering is to discuss closing the camps during July. He stated that some of the loggers would close down for a short time after July 1 anyway, and if all the camps would agree to it, all would close down for a few weeks after July 1. In the event that such an agreement is not reached, Mr. Benson said that he would continue to run one camp.

Mr. Alexander, who has an office in the Mohawk building, and is manager of the Weyerhauser Timber company's logging camp in Clarke county, Washington, stated that he had been notified of the meeting, but did not understand the purport of the call. His company is running two large camps, and are rushing matters to enable it to get a large body of dead timber marketed, that would soon depreciate in value. Otherwise, the company would not be anxious to engage in the logging business at the present low prices. The logs from their camps are brought from Yacolt by rail, and dumped into Lake Vancouver, a tributary of the Columbia river. Here the company has a large storage pond. The company has not been marketing all of its logs. Mr. Alexander stated that it is the company's intention to close down for a short time after July 1, as the men usually want to get off a few days to celebrate the Fourth of July, and it would be a little time before they could be got back to their places.

Logs for the Fair.

The first raft of logs for the construction of the forestry building at the Lewis and Clark 1905 fair arrived from Clatskanie yesterday. The building is to be a log structure, and the Benson Logging & Lumbering company has the contract of providing the big yellow fir logs to be used in the body of the Oregon forestry home. The building will contain 292 logs, ranging from 26 feet in length and three feet in diameter to 60 feet long and four feet in diameter. The logs used in the building will contain 700,000 feet, lumber measure, and the roof will be covered with old-style shakes.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MADISON HOFFMAN

Madison A. Hoffman, aged 61 years, 2 months and 20 days, died suddenly at his home on Barnes Heights, Sunday evening with a stroke of apoplexy. He was born at Pittsfield, Penn., April 6, 1843. When but a child he moved with his parents to Michigan, where he resided until 1879, when he moved with his family to Oregon and settled in the Waldo Hill neighborhood, where he remained until the spring of 1883, when he took up his residence at Portland, where he has since resided.
