FOUR STRAIGHT FOR LOCAL TEAM

RECK PIND STANLEY TERKES AT OPPORTURE TIMES CASTRO'S SPLENDID PINLDING THE PEATURE OF THE CAME.

Portland, 5: San Francisco, 3.
Iberg and Steelman, Yerkes and Leahy,
Dugdale's Brownies' jumped on Mr.
Stanley Yerkes yesterday with their formidable war clubs and wrested their fourth consecutive yigtory from the San Francisco lads.
Uncle Henry

fourth consecutive victory from the San Francisco lads.

Uncle Henry commenced to feel uneasy when Phil Nadeau-inaugurated the swaffest by rapping out a clean single to left as a starter for the locals. In the first half of the first inning the Seals took the one, two, three route. Phil got a little too anxious after McCreedie had falled on the bunt a couple of times, and tried to steal second. He was saught about a foot. The judge then took a wailop at the, sphere and gave Mr. Waldron a chase, but he caught it. Two were down and Uncle Hank breathed easier. Kirby Drennan then heat out a bunt with the greatest case, and it was up to Mr. Erve Beck. Well, he didn't do a thing to the ball. When they finally fielded it Drennan had walked serenely over the pan and Beck was scated comfortably on second. Leahy Raymond then put a crimp in one of Yerkes' twisters for a single and Beck Boored.

Things went along smoothly until of Yerkes' twisters for a single and Beck scored.

Things went along smoothly until the fourth, the Brownies developing another liking for Yerkes' curves, and singles by Rhymond, Castro and Francis scored one more. Meanwhile Ham Iberg had been closing the Seals out without anything in the scoring like. They got busy in the sixth and took a liking to the slow ones. Hildy started the trouble with a hit to right. Waldron flew to Drennan. Pat Meaney took a firm grip on his walloper and cracked out a two-saker to right. McCreedie returned the had in time to hold Hildy at third. With the infield playing in, Charlie arwin shoved one past Iberg, which Castro could not reach, and two runs were in.

Leahy's single and Yerkes' double tiet up the score in Frisco's half of the seventh.

Dug. said it wouldn't do to lone after having practically won the game, so he gave the boyst a little talk. Iberg went out at first through Midget Miller robbing him of a hit. Phil Nadeau decided to wait, and was rewarded with a pass. McCreedle, who had found Yerkes to his liking previously by hitting him for a single and a 'triple, now picked out one to his liking and sent it to far left for two macks. Kirby Drennan then followed the "Judge's" example and pasted out another two-macker, seoring Nadeau and the judge. Beck smashed one toward Miller and the rabbit made an extraordinary stop and retired Beck at first. Raymond could not negotiate and the scoring was over.

at first. Raymond could not negotiate and the scoring was over.

The same was full of fielding features, Castro's playing around second being exceptionally brilliant. This versatile player seems to fit in nicely anywhere he is played. His work around second is not equaled on any club in the league. He had 13 chances yesterday and accepted every one without a break.

Waldron's work in the outfield deserves special mention, and all that is necessary to say regarding our own necessary to say regarding our own gardeners is that they were there on every occasion.

Butler will hook up with Jimmy Whalen today. The score follows:

DUGDALE SECURES A NEW GROUND KEEPER

Manager Dugdale of the Portland team has at last had his way and his secured the services of his former groundkeeper in Seattle, who is a man of wide reputation, and the local manager has every confidence in his ability.

The new man is Ed Gleason, who kept Dugdale's park in Seattle in excellent shape for four years. Mr. Gleason was brought out to Seattle by Dugdale, who knew him in the east. When Dug left Seattle, Gleason retired, and until now has held aloof from several flattering offers, one of which came from Parke Wilson.

Mr. Gleason will arrive in Portland this evening, and will take charge of the grounds tomorrow.

DIAMOND GLISTENINGS

Four straight victories will help a little, especially when the loser is our rival for the cellar championship. Nice work, boys, keep it up.

Waldron robbes Beck of a triple in the fifth and took a good hit from Nadeau in the eighth.

Castro captured a foul from Townsend's bat in the fifth which was one of the prettiest running catches seen there this season. In the same inning, after Yerkes had singled, Miller drove one through the box which looked safe, but Castro knocked it down back of second base at the same time became in overbalanced and fell down, and by a quick plece of work he stretched out and tagged the base before Yerkes had arrived. These two plays earned him a

Miller leaped in the air and caught a drive from Steelman's bat in the sixth which set the ladies wild with delight. Anything Miller does tickles them im-

Joe Kostal pitched and won a game for Sloux City the other day in which he had 10 assists. He twice retired his opponents by assisting the three men out at first. Kudgy always fielded his position well while with Portland.

Jack Chesbro has won 13 straight games for the New York Americans.

TWO DAYS DISTANT SHOWS FEW MAY BE INDORSED—BUTLER MAS TURNED TO REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Springfield, Ill., July 2.—Though the date set for the meeting of the Populist national convention in this city is but two days off, very few of the party loaders or delegates are on hand. The indications are that the convention will not be largely attended. While the states of the middle west will almost without exception be represented, the south, formerly a stronghold of the party, will not be much in evidence.

not be much in evidence.

Opinions expressed by the delegates already on the ground show that great doubt exists as to what action the convention will take. The call sets forth the purpose of the convention to nominate candidates for president and vice-president, but it is not improbable that this work will be held over until the Democrats have made their nominations at St. Louis. A certain element of the Populists would, it is believed, favor an indorsement of Hearst in the event he received the Democratic nomination. It not be much in evidence received the Democratic nomination, It is not believed that any other of the candidates mentioned for the Democratic

In the event the Populists decide to go it alone they will be at a loss apparently whom to put up for the head of the ticket. As a matter of fact the party appears to be considerably de-moralized from having supported the candidate of another party in two cam-

SALOON FIGHT ENDS IN BUTCHER'S SUICIDE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Chehalis, Wash., July 2.—Presumably because he had been badly defeated in a fist fight, Ben Sorenson, a Winlock butcher, committed suicide yesterday.
In a saloon brawl in which several men were engaged on the previous night his face was badly pounded, and yesterday morning on awakening and discovering his plight he went to his slaughterhouse, shot himself through the body with a rifle, and then, finding this ineffectual, again shot himself through the head. His body was discovered by some railroad men. He leaves a widow and four small children.
