

Mr. E. Z. Mark Receives Instructions, but to No Advantage.

1. MR. E. Z.—But, my dear sir, I tell you I don't wish to purchase an Ascot tie; I can't tie them. STRANGER—Ah, that is just what I am here for. Raise your head one moment. I will show you. Yes, I can tie it right over your other tie.

2. STRANGER—Watch me; it is extremely simple. One cross over, then around, then up, pull tight, and there you are. You don't care? You don't wish an Ascot anyhow. All right, sir. I will remove it, sir. 3. MR. E. Z.—Mr. Redink, you saw how I got rid of that bothersome fellow. With what dignity and firmness I dealt with him. Let this be a lesson to you as to how to get rid of these thieves of time. 4. MR. REDINK—Mr. Mark, didn't you have a beautiful diamond pin in your tie this morning? Yes? Well, it's gone. MR. E. Z.—GONE! And I just paid eight hundred dollars for it. Yes God! That necktie man must have abstracted it while he was tying that tie!!!

times. The weapon was loaded with blank cartridges and the powder burned deeply into the boys' feet. The wounds are painful, but physicians have succeeded in removing the powder. The man was arrested today and gave the name of John Marnack. Two young men, for whom the police are looking, exploded two giant bombs in the hallway of the Orpheum theatre last night, breaking a dozen windows and completely demolishing several glass doors. The place was filled with smoke and the performance was interrupted. After firing the bombs the two men ran away and eluded several of the theatre employees who sought to catch them.

glorious way, narrowly escaped losing his right hand by the unexpected explosion of a bomb. Tessier had been shooting off firecrackers all day and had lit the bomb as a "good-by salute" to Vancouver. The light was supposed to have gone out and Tessier picked up the explosive up to re-light it when it unexpectedly exploded for several days and had brating for several days and had spent all but $15 out of $150, the amount of his wages received before coming to Portland and Vancouver, and was completing the celebration when he received the injury.

NEBRASKA MAN MAY HEAD TICKET

Now seems probable that Populist National Convention assembled at Springfield will select Allen A. Watson as standard bearer. (Journal Special Service.) Springfield, Ill., July 3.—When the Populist national convention re-assembled at 8 o'clock this morning with 409 delegates from 23 states present it seemed that the presidential ticket would be Senator Allen of Nebraska and Tom Watson of Georgia. The convention is almost unanimous in the belief that the ticket should be nominated irrespective of what the Democrats in St. Louis may do. A day's attendance is nearly double that of yesterday. Although Mr. Allen had intimated that he would not accept the nomination unless he should be made the unanimous choice, it now seems likely that some arrangement has been arrived at whereby the way is being paved for the head of the Populist ticket to bear the name of the ex-senator from Nebraska. Prominent among the delegates in attendance are A. B. Capen of Kentucky, ex-Senator William V. Allen of Nebraska, ex-Congressman Weller, Ruth-cris and Ridgeley of Iowa, W. S. Hardy of Arkansas, R. W. Milton of Indiana and Sol. William B. Park of Texas.

Maybe the Washington American league team win a game some day. Does the razor pull? Yes? It oughtn't to. I use antiseptic on it. What you believe the democratic nominee? You better watch out for that Bryan. Maybe nobody else take it. Ain't that right? You want neck shaved round or square? All right. You should try a face massage. Your face is with tetter full. You should have a private mug. I sell you one with your name painted on in gold, with a blue chrysanthemum for two dollar. You ever play the races? My friend which works in hardware store give me hot tip on the fourth race. He got inside information from the trainer which bought some horse shoe nail and some battery wire. I think I play a quarter in a pool on it. He says play Employment Agency for place. Hair parted in the middle? Next!

FOURTH OF JULY ACCIDENTS

Numerous Small Blazes Keep Companies on the Jump for Eleven Hours. There were 19 fires started from 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon to 3:30 this morning. A huge bomb ignited a large brush pile near the Multnomah carnival grounds, and the performance was interrupted. Two hose companies were kept at the scene until long after day-break. The alarm came in from box 46. The blaze was so bright that for a time it was impossible to see anything. The report of the doctor who dressed the boy's hand was to the effect that the hand was badly shattered and that three fingers had to be amputated.

FINGERS BLOWN OFF.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon City, July 3.—Clarence Green, eldest son of Street Commissioner John Green, had the fingers of his right hand blown off yesterday while firing crackers at Aurora. Dr. Giesy of that place dressed the injuries and John Green left for Aurora this morning to bring the sufferer home this evening. The report of the doctor who dressed the boy's hand was to the effect that the hand was badly shattered and that three fingers had to be amputated.

FIRE DOES $13,000 DAMAGE AT THE FAIR

(Journal Special Service.) St. Louis, July 3.—Promptness on the part of Fire Chief Swingley in calling out all the available fire fighting apparatus of the city prevented a serious conflagration at the world's fair grounds at 3 o'clock this morning. Flames were confined under the chief's direction but destroyed the fine kitchen of the Jerusalem cafe, causing a loss of $13,000. Waldie Chacaty, a Syrian, aged 23, was severely hurt. The fire originated in the range portion of the kitchen and was spreading rapidly under a strong wind when the firemen arrived. For a short time it seemed as though the art palace adjoining would be destroyed.

BILLINGS SALOON ROBBER CAPTURED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Helena, Mont., July 3.—O. O. Mosler, who with Ed. Brady, it is alleged, had robbed the Owl saloon at Billings and killed Policeman Hannah, has been captured just south of the Wyoming line and will reach Billings today. He made no resistance, and as the excitement has died down there will be no lynching.

TROOPS SUPPRESS STRIKERS.

(Journal Special Service.) Halifax, N. S. July 3.—Troops were called out today to protect the property of the Dominion Iron & Steel company from strikers. Bloodshed is feared, as the strikers are in a desperate state of mind.

GLITTERING GENERALITIES.

From the Washington Post. There is nothing in the Chicago platform to move the pulses of the blood. It means anything, promises everything, commits Mr. Roosevelt to nothing. Its claims are valid or preposterous, according to the temper and the intellectual equipment of the analyst.

PAID FOR HIS DARING.

Henry Shafter, 503 Goldsmith street, held a firecracker in his hand while it exploded. It was of the giant variety and Shafter held it, it is said, to show that he could. He did it all right, but nearly lost his right thumb in doing so. While working on a high scaffolding on the building of the Hazelwood Creamery company yesterday, W. C. Ward slipped and fell a distance of about 20 feet. No bones were broken, but he received many painful bruises. A man whose name was withheld by Dr. Whitesides, the attending physician, suffered a slight injury by the explosion of a firecracker. His hand was slightly injured while holding the firecracker as it exploded.

DEADLY DEVIL'S ROCKET.

Late yesterday afternoon an Italian called at the office of Dr. Bennett suffering from a number of injuries inflicted by the explosion of what is called a devil's rocket. His hand was injured and he bore several bruises on his face. A patient whose name was not learned by Dr. Bennett was injured by an explosive case. His hand was torn but his bruises were not of a serious nature. Perhaps the most unusual accident of the day was one in which Albert Willis, 11 years of age, who lives at 252 1/2 Second street, was the victim. The lad was bare-footed and was at East Madison and Water streets when a man deliberately held a revolver to the youngster's feet and fired five igation will flip to the banner of this candidate, there is but one thing that can be stated with any degree of certainty. That is the way the candidates will stand on the first ballot. Should the delegations all follow their instructions the several candidates will be sure of the following votes when the first ballot is cast: Parker is sure of the following votes: Alaska, 6; Arkansas, 18; Connecticut, 14; Georgia, 26; Indiana, 20; Louisiana, 13; Minnesota, 14; Mississippi, 24; New Hampshire, 8; New York, 78; Ohio, 2; Tennessee, 24; Texas, 36; Utah, 4; Vermont, 8. In addition to this number he is expected to have the 22 delegates from Alabama, which state endorsed Parker, but did not instruct. The same is true of the 26 delegates from Kentucky, who are understood to favor Parker. Through they are without definite instructions. This will give Parker 384 votes at least on the first ballot.

PARKER'S OPPONENTS FORM A SOLID PACT

Favorite Son Votes. Next to Parker in the number of instructed delegates stands Hearst. On the first ballot the New York editor may count upon the following: Arizona, 6; California, 20; Florida, 16; Hawaii, 6; Idaho, 6; Illinois, 54; Iowa, 26; Kansas, 1; Maine, 9; Minnesota, 7; Nevada, 6; New Mexico, 6; Ohio, 2; Oregon, 6; Rhode Island, 6; South Dakota, 8; Utah, 4; Washington, 10; West Virginia, 2; Wyoming, 6. Total, 210.

The favorite son votes on the first ballot are expected to stand as follows: Massachusetts, 32 for Olney; Delaware, 1 for Gray; Wisconsin, 26 for Wall. The number of delegates without instructions is 318. Missouri is expected to vote for Cockrell on the first ballot, and West Virginia will cast 12 votes for Senator Gorman.

The Parker men are confident that they will get at least a third of the entire uninstructed delegates on the first ballot. In that case Parker would then have 456 votes, or almost one-half the total number. Those who share this confidence in Parker's strength expect the New York judge to be nominated on the second ballot, after Wisconsin and Massachusetts have cast a complimentary vote for Wall and Olney.

Parker goes into the convention with practically the solid support of the fire south. The southern states that have instructed for him are Tennessee, Texas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Georgia, Arkansas, Alabama. The southern states which have sent uninstructed delegates, but which have gone on record in favor of Judge Parker, are Virginia, South Carolina, Kentucky, and six of the 10 delegates from Florida. The other four Florida delegates are for Hearst. North Carolina declined to endorse any candidate, though a majority of the delegates from that state are understood to favor Parker.

These figures show apparently that Parker is the strongest man in the race. But, as the old saying goes, "There's
