Pleasure and piculc parties can find no greater enjoyment on this continent than that afforded by visits to one or more of the scores of pretty nocks, groves, canyons or mountains contiguous to Portland on the banks of the Columbia and Williamette rivers. No city in the world is more amply provided with pleasure resorts. There are hot springs within a few hours boat ride of the heart of Portland, and the mountain scenery along the great Columbia is not surpassed for grandeur anywhere on earth. There are dark canyons from which the ice is never meited, there are waterfalls from 60 to more than 800 feet in height, there are gless that simply enchant the mind and sloping plateaus delightful pictures in themselves. Men and women who have traveled all over the world promone Portland's scenic glories, the grandest they have ever seen. All these beauty spots are reached by the Charles R. Spencer, the newest, fastest, best equipped, most richly furnished steamboat plysing on the river. The Spencer leaves foot of Washington street Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridaya, at 7 a. m. for Bonneville. Cascade Locks, 810 Martin Hot Springs, Hood River, Lyle, Collins Hot Springs, Hood River, Lyle, Collins Hot Springs, Hood River, Lyle, Collins Hot Springs, St. Martin Hot Springs, Hood River, and all other steamboat landings. The Spencer sffords a most enjoyable outing for all who seek rest or pleasure out of town.

On Sunday next, July 10, the pelatial and swift Bailey Gatzert will run an excursion to Cascade Locks, and to those who are seeking a delightful day's outling this trip should prove earnestly interesting. The ride up the Columbia is indeed a most magnificent one and as a scenic trip has no equal. Two tourists now sojourning in Fortland and who took this trip say they never saw scenery in Europe to equal Columbia river beauty. The Bailey Gatzert is the acme of comfort and convenience, holding out inducements to excursionists no other boat on the Columbia dees. Its unobstructed observation decks perish the thought or feeling of "kinky" necks. Excellent meals are served on board and the service unexcelled. A restaurant, too, if you get hungry 'tween meals. A full orchestra engaged for the occasion. Steamer leaves Alder street wharf at 8:30 a.m., returning to Portland at 6:30 p. m. Round trip, $1. Phone Main 914.

Several of the counties of the state are appointing special committees to prepare a display of the agricultural reprepare a display of the agricultural resources of the state for the National grange, which meets in annual session in this city in November. In Multnomah county the Pomona has been appointed an overseeing committee. In Clackamas the various granges have appointed local committees, as have Washington and Columbia counties. Marion county has a committee with Mrs. Waldo in charge. An attempt will be made to borrow the preserved fruit display being prepared for the Lewis and Clark exposition.

C. S. Rockenfield, East Burnside and nvidson streets, was the proud poscereus in bloom, and during the evening his house was the attractive spot to a large part of the people of Mount Tabor. This rare plant, of the cactus family, blooms only once in eight or ten years, and the bloom lasts but a night. The and the bloom lasts but a light. The bloom last night was exceptionally beau-tiful, measuring 13 inches in diameter. It began opening at 6 o'clock in the evening, opening quite rapidly at first, and reaching full bloom about midnight. A delicious perfume was exhaled.

After investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of Brakeman L. D. Clute, who was killed while coupling cars on the line of the Oregon Water Power & Railway company, at the east end of the Madison street bridge, yesterday afternoon, Coroner Finley decided to hold no inquest. He found that it was accidental and unavoidable. The fumeral will occur tomorrow afternoon from the family residence, East Forty-first street, near Belmont.

Yesterday was a busy day at the exhibit rooms of the chamber of commerce. Specimens of nearly all fruits grown in the state were being packed for shipment to St. Louis to be placed in the horticultural exhibit from this state. This action was taken at the request of H. E. Dosch, who has charge of the St. Louis exhibit, as the exhibit at the fair was not as large as could be desired.

James A. Emery of San Francisco will lecture tonight at the Empire theater, under the auspices of the Citizens' Aj-liance, on the subject, "The Industrial Situation." The lecture was to have been given last night, but Mr. Emery was unable to reach the city on account of a delayed train. ## THE WHY OF IT

Yes, We're Noisy, But We Have the Best Reasons for It.

We Want Everybody to Know That We Carry the Finest and Sell at the Very Least Prices.

Inere isn't another concern in the whole country that carries as many leading instruments. We sell:

THE WEBER of New York, the muclician's plane, made and sold by the largest and most wesithy manufacturers of musical instruments in the world, the Weber-Acollan Company of New York, makers of the Pianola, the Asolian Orchestrelle and Asolian pipe or-

THE CHICKERING of Boston, the ne old instrument, with an irreproach-ble record of over $1 years of fault-less construction, and with a tone that not equaled by any other piano now made.

THE KIMBALL of Chicago, heartily indorsed by every musician who has used it; the only bell metal piano made. THE PIANOLA, the only perfect piece of mechanism, by means of which music entirely free from all mechanical effect cas be produced from a piano.

THE AEOLIAN ORCHESTRELLE, that possesses all the tones of a fall orchestra, can be played by any one. These instruments are to be found in the homes of wealthy and cultured of all lands, as well as in the palaces of nearly all the crowned heads of Europe.

THE PEERLESS AUTOMATIC, the only perfect slot plane that is played by means of electricity.
And in addition such other leading planes as:

THE HAZELTON, one of the country's oldest and finest.

THE LESTER, Philadelphia's pride.

THE HOBART M. CABLE, the name that stands for reliability through and through.

THE CROWN, the piane of many tones and every one sweet and beautiful, besides many others.

AND PRICES? AND PRICES?

This is the establishment that does business on a sound basis; that buys its instruments for the least money, because it purchases in the largest quantities; that handles its business so systematically and economically that its saves many dollars and whose principle is quick sales and small profits.

Every instrument fully guaranteed and money back in every instance where there is not perfect satisfaction. This is Ellers Piane House, the largest leading and most responsible concern on the Slope. A Long Chance on Life.

There are few people who do not desire the longest chance on life. In fact, at one time there were very few who knew that Barke Tonic was one thing that gave people a long chance. Now most people know that Barke Tonic cures rheumatism in four to ten days and that it never fails to relieve and finally cure, the worst cases. Barke Tonic is a liver, bowel and kidney cleanser and a blood purifier. It is an immediate relief for constipation. It costs only 75c per bottle in all drug stores.

HIS NAMESAKE

Charles Bellinger, a halfbreed Indian, appeared before Charles B. Bellinger, judge of the federal court, this morning, to plead to the charge of taking intoxicating liquor upon the Umatilia Indian reservation. Through the generosity of Joe Parr, his friend, also a halfbreed, he escaped punishment.

Parr announced that he slone was guilty, and that Bellinger had nothing whatever to do with the offense. They were driving on the reservation, he said, and he slipped two bottles of beer in the wagon without Bellinger's knowledger! He alone was responsible, and he desired to take the consequences rather than see his friend punished for something he had not done.

Steve Russell, white, appeared at the same time for a similar offense said to have been committed at Hood River. Bellinger was released on his own recognizance after Parr's explanation, and his friend, with Russell, were committed to the county jail. It was expleined by the court that they would be confined for several days before sentence would be suspended.
