PROSPECTS

Are you a prospective buyer, but haven't decided on what particular thing you are going to buy? Or are you about to sell but need a customer? Let Journal Want Columns help you; they'll quickly bring buyer and seller together.

What looks like a good proposition may be found in the advertisement for a 19-room rooming house under "Business Chances." Can you handle it? Read the ad.

Or possibly the ad under "Business Chances" for "M7" is more attractive.

Would you like to do magazine work? A good chance is offered to you if you deliver the goods; the advertisement appears under "Wanted—Miscellaneous."

Read carefully the "For Sale—Real Estate" classification. Some good properties may be found in it.

Are you in business and looking for a location? Want a store? Notice the classification "For Rent—Stores."

Here's a young man who appeals for your attention under "Wanted—Miscellaneous." Notice what he wants and is willing to do.

"Finely furnished rooms for gentlemen," says an advertisement under "For Rent—Furnished Rooms." Location very central, so you had better look it up.

The classified business directory is an excellent place to publish your professional or business card. The cost is small and returns are large. Try it.

If you don't find what you want by looking through these columns today, try an advertisement in tomorrow's big Sunday Journal Want Columns.

21 words for 15 cents, or 5 cents a line, is the rate for advertising in these columns. Always advertise in them for what you want.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, There was submitted to the electors of the state at the last general election, as required by law, an initiative petition for a direct primary nominating election law; and, whereas, on the 24th day of June, 1904, the Secretary of State in my presence as Governor of the State of Oregon did canvass the votes given for said law; and, whereas, it was ascertained and determined upon such canvass that there were 56,275 votes cast for said direct primary nominating election law, and 16,354 votes against the same, and that said law received an affirmative majority of the total number of effective votes cast thereon and entitled to be counted under the provisions of the law.

Now, therefore, I, George E. Chamberlain, as Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to section 8 of an act entitled "An act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of section 1 of article IV of the constitution of the State of Oregon, and regulating elections thereunder and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this act," approved February 24, 1903, do hereby make and issue this proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, and do announce and declare that the whole number of votes cast in the State of Oregon for said direct primary nominating election law was 56,285 votes, and the whole number of votes cast in the state against said direct primary nominating election law was 16,354 votes; that said direct primary nominating election law received an affirmative majority of the total number of votes cast on said measure and entitled to be counted under the provisions of law, and that said direct primary nominating election law shall be and is in full force and effect as the law of the State of Oregon from the date of this proclamation.

Done at the capitol at Salem, this 24th day of June, A. D. 1904.

GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN, Governor of Oregon.

By the Governor:
(Seal) F. I. DUNBAR, Secretary of State.

PROPOSALS INVITED.

For supplies for the Oregon State Penitentiary during the period ending December 31, 1904.

Sealed bids for drugs, dry goods, groceries, shoes, leather and findings, plumbing supplies, hardware, flour, fish, meat, etc., will be received at the office of the Superintendent of the State Penitentiary until Friday, July 8, 1904, at 2 o'clock p. m., at which time they will be opened.

A deposit of $200 in cash or certified check, payable to the Superintendent must accompany each bid for meat or flour, and all other bids must be accompanied by an amount equal to 10 per cent of the amount of the bid.

Samples to accompany all bids where practicable.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids, and to accept or reject any portion of a bid.

On each envelope should be inscribed the nature of the bid. Goods of Oregon manufacture or production will receive preference, other things being equal.

All goods and supplies must be delivered to the Penitentiary within 20 days after the contract is awarded.

Schedules of the various lines of goods will be furnished upon application to the Superintendent.

Vouchers will be issued for payment on the first of the month following the completion of contract, and monthly on continuous contracts.

Bidders are invited to be present.

C. W. JAMES, Superintendent Oregon State Penitentiary. Salem, Oregon, June 14, 1904.
