

BLUES BY THE BROWNS

ON THE ARTILLERY HAD AN OPPORTUNITY TO DO FIGHTING IN TODAY'S MANEUVERS—ABOUT 3,500 TROOPS INCLUDING REGULARS AND MILITIA TAKE PART.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Murray, Wash., July 12.—Today's problem, involving about 3,500 troops, including the regulars and militia from the two big camps, gave only the artillery an opportunity to do fighting. The forces of blues from Camp Steilacoom were soon put out of action by the effective work of the Eighth artillery attached to the forces of the browns, consequently the infantry had nothing but skirmishing.

The blues left camp at 8:30 o'clock this morning and had a march of about eight miles before sighting the enemy, who were supposed to be in an entrenched position. The browns marched to Higgins' crossing, two miles northeast of Nisqually, where they deployed the infantry in the woods skirting the railroad and masked the Eighth battery in a clump of bushes. The blues carefully advanced through the woods, occasionally sighting scouts, who were driven back. Finally, at a short distance from Higgins the enemy discovered the infantrymen concealed in the open fields and supports in the woods to the rear.

The Twenty-sixth artillery from the coast, with the Blues, intended to take a roundabout way into the edge of the woods to open on the batteries of the enemy. However, they took the wrong course, and upon crossing the railroad into the open, the Eighth artillery, entrenched and concealed, opened a deadly fire on the Twenty-sixth, and the infantry following, put 15 charges of shot into the blues before they could unlimber their guns and reply. They fought valiantly after getting into position, but the umpire ruled them defeated.

Consequently the Blues, with no artillery, were defeated, as they could not operate against the victorious men of the Browns. The First Oregon battalion, with the Nineteenth infantry, guarded the approach to the north and had little fighting outside of skirmishing. The Third Oregon engaged with the Browns in defending the roads into Nisqually camp.

Following the battle, the umpire called the officers together and they were addressed by General McArthur, General Funston and Lieut. Herbert Foster, the British attaché.

GRESHAM MAY HAVE A MILITARY ACADEMY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Gresham, Or., July 12.—There is a very good prospect for this village to procure a military academy. There is a movement now on foot looking to a way by which the necessary funds and property can be procured and tendered to Prof. A. C. Newell, manager of the Bishop Scott academy of Portland. Mr. Lewis Shattuck, manager of this place, arranged a public meeting for the purpose of starting an active canvass for the purpose of obtaining the establishment of and maintenance of an academy to be known as the Gresham Military academy.

The establishment of a high school at this place a short time ago is acting as a stimulus. The management of the academy is to be under the direct supervision of Prof. A. C. Newell. At the meeting held in Regner's hall last night the arrangements, as far as possible, were carried out and a committee on grounds was appointed, as follows: Chairman, Lewis Shattuck; W. H. Hamilton, Dr. J. M. Short and J. H. Metzger. This committee was instructed to prepare a report to be presented at the next meeting, to be held on Saturday evening of this week. The committee on arrangements of program, Dr. F. A. Short, Prof. A. F. Hershner and John Conley, were instructed to advertise the meeting as much as possible and to prepare a short program for the Saturday evening meeting.

Professor Newell has shown his earnest desire of seeing the academy placed here and as an offer has agreed to give $1,000 cash and a $1,000 equipment for the academy, also to do the whole financing of the enterprise. His promise, coming as it does at this time, will no doubt add much to the interest taken by all the residents of this and surrounding sections.

FOR BOUNDARY OF ELKS. (Journal Special Service.) Cincinnati, O., July 12.—Applications for rooms at the various hotels indicate that the national gathering of the Elks to be held in Cincinnati next week will be the largest and most representative convention in the history of the popular order. Delegations of large size will be present from almost every state and territory of the Union. The Pacific coast will be largely represented, and the south, particularly Texas and Georgia, will have big delegations on hand.

CONFESSES TO DRIBBLET. (Journal Special Service.) St. Louis, July 12.—John H. Schenckler, the alderman convicted of bribery and released by the supreme court on a technicality, has entered a plea of guilty. His sentence was deferred in view of his voluntary plea.

Schedule of Steamer T. J. Potter. The seaside steamer T. J. Potter will leave Portland, Ash street dock, for Astoria and Ilwaco as follows: July 14, Thursday, 9:00 a. m. July 15, Friday, 9:00 a. m. July 16, Saturday, 10:45 a. m. Get transportation and berth tickets at O. R. & N. ticket office, Third and Washington streets.

TROUBLES RENDERED HOMELESS. (Journal Special Service.) Berlin, July 12.—The news was received here today that 4,000 persons have been rendered homeless and 400 houses destroyed by fire in the town of Prokysucha, Russia.

PLACE BLAME ON HORSEMEN

AUTOMOBILISTS CLAIM THAT DRIVERS OF FAST ROADSTERS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ORDINANCE FIXING A LIMIT OF NINE MILES AN HOUR.

Portland automobilists declare that drivers of swift horses are responsible for the passage of the ordinance regulating the speed of machines to eight miles per hour. They assert that the ordinance was passed solely for the purpose of keeping the machines off the wheels. This driveway has for years been the favorite resort for those who have horses which can go some and day and night numbers of blooded animals are seen speeding along the highway. With the coming of the auto, however, came an interruption of the quiet monopoly of the road by the four-footed traveling machines.

So war was declared and in the ring, with Municipal Judge Skopus as referee, the automobile fans have so far finished a bad second. They are not dismayed, however, nor disheartened. The ordinance will be tested and it will be demonstrated, they say, that it is discriminating. The law regulates the speed of vehicles, they assert, but do not specify any particular kind of vehicle that must go at a certain rate of speed.

"Why, if they are going to regulate the speed of all vehicles, they should start on the street cars," said Councilman Fred Merrill, who opposed the passage of the ordinance. "If they were kept down to the regulation rate, the companies would permit them to start on the street cars," said Councilman Fred Merrill, who opposed the passage of the ordinance. "If they were kept down to the regulation rate, the companies would permit them to start on the street cars," said Councilman Fred Merrill, who opposed the passage of the ordinance.

"We are all in favor of the proper kind of speed regulations. No one should be permitted to travel faster than 12 miles an hour in the fire limits, and a reasonable rate should be fixed for the outside districts. But an eight-mile-an-hour rate is preposterous. The real reason for the ordinance being passed is the desire of horsemen to keep automobiles from certain driveways. We never interfere with them and they should not try to interfere with us."

THEATRE CLOSURE FOR THE SEASON. With tonight's production of "Just Before Dawn," Cordray's theatre closes for the season. The Walters company has had a successful run with the play and has given eminent satisfaction to the patrons of the house.

Cordray's will reopen August 14 for the preliminary season. Stair and Hester's attractions will reach the city the first of second week in September. The entire time from the opening has already been booked with a number of the most successful attractions that have appeared in the past season.

All the attractions that have been seen in this city at the price of $1 will be seen at Cordray's next season at the regular prices of the house. According to an arrangement that has been made between the managers of the two houses, only attractions charging $1.50 and higher will be seen at the Klaw and Erlanger house.

The season just closed has been one of unusual success to Cordray's. Clinton C. Palmer, an attorney, who resides at Vermont and Wisconsin avenues, is missing and his wife has reported his disappearance to the police. It is said that he has not been seen since July 6, and that he had a large sum of money and some bank checks in his possession at the time of his disappearance.

His wife is worried, but his friends about the city are not alarmed. He was seen in Los Angeles, Sunday night, and also Monday evening.

MORE MEN WALK OUT. (Continued from Page One.) The packing house district is comparatively deserted this morning and all is quiet. No extra police are on duty and apparently none will be required.

WILL CONTINUE WORK. St. Louis Packers Assert They Can Control the Situation. (Journal Special Service.) St. Louis, July 12.—Despite the fact that 1,500 men in four of the large packing houses struck, at Armour's the manager claims his company will continue to slaughter, and that enough men can be secured in the course of the day to run the places of the strikers. Other packers made similar statements.

There have been no demonstrations by the strikers, but the police are prepared for trouble and believe that if the plants do continue to operate with non-unionists clashes may be frequent.

ROBBED BY WOMAN. J. M. Martin, residing at 2844 East Pine street, reported to Captain of Police Moore last night that he was robbed of $10 in Gus Routh's saloon, Fourth and Conch streets, by two women. He was drunk when telling his story, and was told to return the money, and make complaint, but failed to do so.

LONGSHOREMEN AS KIDNAPERS. Former Judge R. M. Smith says that he did not desire the arrest of his daughter-in-law for kidnaping her child. He says that it was not Mrs. Smith who took the child, but three longshoremen assisted by an unknown woman. The longshoremen broke into the house and held Mr. Smith and his son while the woman made away with the child.

HIS GUARDIAN LAUNDERED. (Journal Special Service.) Glasgow, July 12.—The new Cunarder Caronia, 21,000 tons, the largest steamship ever built in England, was launched today. Mrs. Choate, the wife of Ambassador Choate, christened the huge vessel.

MUSKOGEE COMES OUT FOR PARKER

ASSURES HIM OF ITS GREAT FIDELITY — MUSKOGEE'S REFUSAL TO SEE SENATORS EXPLAINED BY SECRETARY, WHO SAYS SENATORS WERE UGLY.

(Journal Special Service.) Esopus, July 12.—Muskogee, Indian Territory, unfurled the first flag of the campaign yesterday, if a telegram from three citizens this morning is rightly understood.

It says: "Muskogee, in the first election after your nomination, although claimed by Republicans, went Democratic. This territory is on fire with an unconquerable Democratic zeal. The humor of the message lies in the fact that no one in the territory can vote for president in the national election."

Save for telegrams and the arrival of 200 letters, Judge Parker spent his usual quiet day. Sheehan left for New York this morning, and while there the date for the meeting of the national committee will be fixed. Practically all the intervening time until the election will be spent by the candidate at Esopus. There will be no swing around the circle, but toward the last he will visit a few of the largest cities where the fight will be the hottest.

Bryan's intentions here are as yet unknown, although his published statement will clarify matters. Up to date no congratulations have come from the Nebraska. SENATORS TOO INSISTENT. Didn't Want to Permit President to Make His Own Appointment. (Journal Special Service.) Oyster Bay, July 12.—No visitor came to see the president this morning and no appointments were made for the day.

Secretary Cook explained that the Pennsylvania miners committee that called yesterday would have been able to see the president if he had been allowed to make an appointment for them, but the spokesman was dictatorial and when this disposition became manifest the president declined to see him.

ST. JOHNS CELEBRATES

St. Johns was incorporated January 5, 1902. Its first officers, who are the present incumbents, are: Mayor, Charles A. Cook; city marshal, C. R. Orban; councilmen, F. J. Monihan, Guy Beben, B. Hulbert, Charles D. Hines, W. H. Hamilton, Cornelius I. Culp.

Board of education—J. F. Poff, chairman; Albert Culp, S. J. Ogden, and J. E. Fauch, clerk. The population when the city was incorporated two and one-half years ago was 250 people, with no industries. The old motor line was then the only means of reaching Portland.

One of the first improvements made by the council was the granting of a franchise to the City & Suburban Electric Railway company. The first industry secured by St. Johns was the veneering and basket factory, January 27, 1904. He has resided in St. Johns since 1881. Mr. Monihan was for years in the employ of the railroad as an engineer. It is safe to say he is the best-known man on the peninsula.

He served as school director four years, and was elected a member of the city council at St. Johns' first city election. In the civic life of St. Johns Mr. Monihan is a prime factor. To him and Mayor Cook is due the credit of organizing the women of St. Johns in the organization of the Woman's Civic Improvement club, which was organized four months ago. This club now has a membership of 35. Its officers are: President, Mrs. Hattie Brash; vice-president, Mrs. Emily Walker; secretary, Mrs. Belle Smith; treasurer, Mrs. L. Johnson; press correspondent, Mrs. Helie Blackburn.

Her business houses are five grocery stores, three confectioneries, one hotel, plumber and tinner's shop, drug store, butcher shop, blacksmith, shoemaker, bicycle store, two confectionery and ice cream parlors. In addition to these are five real estate offices.

The W. O. W. and the Modern Women, Royal Neighbors of America and the Independent Order of Lions are represented.

From a village of 250 inhabitants two and one-half years ago, St. Johns has grown to a city of 1,500 people. Its payroll supports its residents. When the mills now in course of construction are in operation St. Johns will pay $25,000 a month.

Only a few thousand feet of the water frontage has been utilized. More than a mile and a half is as yet unfurled. The frontage at St. Johns will furnish room for enterprises sufficient to employ 40,000 people.

at the present time for river vessels. It affords a great amount of desirable manufacturing property. The growth of St. Johns is due in a great measure to the untiring efforts of her citizens. Harry L. Powers, of the firm of Hartman, Thompson & Powers, is deserving of credit. Mr. Powers visited St. Johns some two years ago and was struck by its future possibilities. He has since invested heavily in real estate here. He now owns the controlling interest in the waterworks.

Many others have worked hard in this cause, among them Councilman Thomas P. Monihan. He was born in Pennsylvania, January 27, 1854. He has resided in St. Johns since 1881. Mr. Monihan was for years in the employ of the railroad as an engineer. It is safe to say he is the best-known man on the peninsula.

Keep Your Eye On St. Johns

It is the City of Progress. More manufacturing industries located here in the last three years than all the rest of Portland's suburbs. She will have a payroll of over $2,000,000 per month when plants now building are completed.

Keep Your Eye On St. Johns WHY? Because nature has done as much for her as any other place on earth. On high plateaus overlooking both Willamette and Columbia rivers, and where water and rail meet, three snow-capped peaks in full view. Gentle breezes of Pacific ocean keep the air fresh and pure. All the shipping coming to Portland in full view. Her people are wide awake to grasp the possibilities.

300 per cent has been made here by increased value in less than one year, and the prospect for the next year is better still. If you doubt this come and see. We are always at your service. Whether you want to buy or sell, or to be convinced that what we say is true.

Thirty-one residences in last four months and still building. The only tract where one-half commands full view of Willamette river. We have six of those fine 6-room cottages for sale in this tract—$100 down and $15 per month. Stop paying rent and own your own home, where you can walk to your work and save car fare.

If this interests you, call or write to the old original real estate
