Rain interfered with the scheduled Rain interfered with the scheduled games at Seattle and Tacoma yesterday, and the Portland fans were disappointed, because the signs were clearfor the Browns to win. Portland has but two more games to play in Seattle, and will arrive home Monday morning. The Seattle team will go to California Sunday night, where they will close the season with Oakland at San Francisco, and open the new era at Los Angeles.

The Browns are feeling in high spirits at present, on account of the good showing that is being made, and owing to the news that Manager Dugdale intends keeping the present team intact, despite the rumor that Beck and Nadeau were slated for release in order to reduce the salary list. The Journal can state that no such move was contemplated by Manager Dugdale, because he feels the necessity of having crack players as much as anybody else, and also realizes that any change made now would not benefit the team.

Of course, the team could be strengthened at third base and behind the bat, and this will undoubtedly be done as soon as possible.

Since Dugdale assumed the management of the team the Browns have won 28 and lost 26 games, a splendid showing, considering the badly crippled condition of the men when he assumed

It is interesting to note the great spurt that the 'Frisco team has taken since its return home. When the Seals were here, two weeks ago, they couldn't play marbles, while the Oakland nine was playing championship ball; but as soon as the Browns began to get within a game or two of the Seals' standing, with a good chance of putting the 'Frisco men in last place, Harris' men Frisco men in last place, Harris' men took a phenomenal brace, and in three games have made mincement out of the Oakland club. Such a remarkable showing at this stage of proceedings is indeed worthy of mention, and only ex-emplifies the deep interest that Uncle Henry can inject into his men, and the terror that he can instill into the Oakland players when there is any danger of the San Francisco baseball team fail-ing into last place. It is also interesting at this time to note that it is next to impossible for Oakland to lose its to impossible for Oskland to lose its present standing in the race, while Port-land has an opportunity to squeeze out of last position. Manager Dugdale is extremely anxious to get his club out of last plantages. if 'Frisco should win every game from now until the end. Lohman feels the slump of his men keenly.

the fair grounds during the coming week, as a feature of the national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, promises to be the most important athletic event to be held in St. Louis during the world's fair period. The sports will be inaugurated tomorrow with an open handicap meeting at the fair grounds. New features on the program will be outdoor wrestling contests and the bop, skip and jump event.

The Irish sports at the world's fair are to extend over a period of three days. Besides the track and field sports, there will be two international championships contested, hurdling and football, the latter Gaelic football. In these events there will be athletes representing the Irish athletic clubs and societies of Boston, Toronto, New York,

It seems almost incredible that a player could go back as far as Reitz has, for it was not so many years ago that he was the fastest second baseman in the National league, and it was a stronger league in those days than it is now. But baseball players, like prize fighters, foot runners and other athletes have their day, and then they have to step back and and then they have to step back and make room for a younger generation. CLEVER CALIFORNIAN DOES ALL TION FOR HIS NEXT CONTEST-BATTLING MELSON PUTS IN A MARD DAY AT LARKSPUR.

San Francisco, July 16.—Road running, baseball playing and swimming constituted Eddle Hanlon's training in Alameda yesterday. In the morning the little boxer went out for a long spin on the highways with Toby Irwin and Fred-Landers, traveling as far east as Fruitvale. In the afternoon Eddle participated in a game of ball on the big field in the rear of Croll's hotel. He is almost as expert in swinging the bat and handling the sphere as he is in wielding the fists that have won him fame in the roped arens. After the baseball contestwas over Hanlon took a dip in the bay and was then rubbed down.

and was then rubbed down.

Today Hanlon will commence his regular gymnasium stunts. He will punch the bag for 15 minutes, skip the rogs for the same length of time and wrestle and box with his training mates. Eddle has had a new punching bag installed in his gymnasium. It is of the pattern that is fastened at the top and bottom with elastic cords and is much faster and harder to judge on the rebound than the bag that is hung by a single cord. Hanlon expects the new bag will make him quicker and more accurate in delivering blows.
