JAY HUGHES BEATS COACH SMITH IS PORTLAND BROWNS

HOLDS THE DUGDALE MEE DOWN A SOLITABY TALLY AND WINS HIS GAME WITH BASE-DRENHEN AND CAMPBELL ILL.

(Journal Special Service.)

Seattle, Wash., July 18.—Jay Hughes was in trim yesterday afternoon and succeeded in trimming the sails of the Browns # to 1. The Browns were not up to their standard, as Drennen and Campbell were ill enough to be in the hospital instead of in the game. Hughes pitched such perfect ball and his support was so brisk that Portland didn't have over a couple of chances to score. McCreedie did the best batting for Portland, while Smith was Seattle's slugger. The score:

LONDON CHESS TOURNEY.

(Journal Special Service.)
London, July 18.—The first of a series of three important chess tournaments to be held in England and on the continent this summer opened in London today. The tournament is being held under the auspices of the City of London Chess club. It is open to both professionals and amateurs, and involves also the amateur championship of Great Britain.

CRACK HURDLERS

(Journal Special Service.)

New York., July 18.—An interesting event to be held at the athletic meet today, at the opening of Pelham Bay park, is the 46-yard hurdle race, handicap. The stars in this race are Harry Hillman, the crack hurdler of the New York Athletic club, who holds the metropolitan championship for the 220-yard hurdle race and former national champion, and W. Castleman, captain of the Colgate university track team, who represented the Greater New York Irish Athletic association in the world's fair championships, and won the 126-yard high hurdle race. With these two among the contestants it is not impossible that the race may result in establishing a new world's record.

The batteries yesterday were: Oswego, Clossett and Keiser; Waverley, Tibbetta and Whitehead.

INTEREST IN SPOKANE ATRLETICS

(Journal Special Service.) Spokane, Wash., July 18,—The Spokane Amateur Athletic club is planning a new scheme to arouse enthusiasm in athletics at the club. After the St. Louis fair is over the club will get out a journal, illustrated, which will give a full account of what the members have done in athletics and what is to be accomplished.

The journal will be in the form of a souvenir pamphlet and will contain half tones of the leading athletes who have competed for the S. A. A. C. this year.

A committee has been appointed to look up practice grounds for the football team. In all probability the team will begin practice next month.

YOUNG CORBETT IS IN FIGHTING MOOD

Richard S. Smith, who will coach the University of Oregon football team this season is a graduate of the university, having received his degree in 1991. While in the university Smith proved himself a capable man hoth in his scholarship and athetic work. He entered Columbia college law school in the fall of 1901. At Columbia Smith distinguished himself in every way, his work being brilliant. Smith's record as a football man extends over seven years. He played with the University of Oregon team for four years, playing in the positions of guard in '28 tackle in '29 and was halfback and captain in '90 and '01. He played with Oregon when she defeated University of California by a score of 2-0 and University of Washington 43-0.

At Columbia Smith has played half and full apd for the season of '02 was Walter Camp's choice for full on the All-American team. Smith is exceptionally well prepared to coach the university team. He knows every system of football that is played in America, having played against every representative team in the country.

Young Corbett is in a pugnacious mood these days. Being a fighter, he wants to fight, but, strange to say, there are few who care to give him a trial. Before Jimmy Britt outpointed Corbett almost every ambitious boxer, in the business at his weight wanted to fight him. Had he uoticed ath him, he would have had no time to eat or think. Oregon wait and the bu has defeated Terry twice, and so far as superiority is concerned the public knows who is who. But Corbett realiges that with McGovern as an opponent in a 6, 10 or 20 round bout there will be few empty seats when they meat, and he wants the engagement. McGovern is a bit shy about taking on Rethwell, and thus negotiations are at a standatill. McGovern declares that Eddie Hanlon, by virtue of a previous match, must needs have his attention. They are, as per schedule, to meet at San Francisco next fall, and if Hanlon is in form and McGovern has not deteriorated to a great extent, it should be an excellent battle.

The Seattle fans have little to do to roast the Portland players. For a down-right fickle crowd of baseball cranks, Scattle easily bears the palm. They have abused Parke Wilson until his hair It is not improbable that there may be hoot such men as Beck and Castro.

READY FOR MEET DEMOCRATS OF

BETWEEN TWO FACTIONS POR CONTROL OF STATE CONVENTION WEICE MEETS TERRETWO HAMES FOR CHAIRMAN.

Journal Special Service.)

Iowa City, Ia., July 18.—Unless some of the old politicians succeed in their efforts to bring about harmony, there will be a bitter fight between the rival factions for the control of the Democratic state convention which meets here tomorrow. The purpose of the convention is to name candidates for secretary of state and the other minor state of the filled at the November elechowever, in the struggle of the two factions for supremacy. The early arrival of most of the delegates and party leaders is evidence of the intense interest which is manifested in the contest for control.

There are two names mentioned as chairman of the convention—those of T. J. Stiger of Toledo and Martin J. Wade of Davenport. The latter, who is congressman from the second district, represents the gold wing of the Democratic party in Iowa, and it seems probable that he will be chosen.

Browns took two out of four in Seattle to organize his committee, which is not a bad record away from home and called to meet here tonight. The division in the ranks of the party arose pennant honors.

The Browns play at Sedro-Woolley last spring to elect delegates to the national convention.

The convention instructed its delegates for William R. Hearst as presi-dential candidate. It has since been made apparent that the instructions made apparent that the instructions were due chiefly to shrewd political scheming on the part of the Hearst managers, and that the action of the convention was not in accord with the views of the rank and file of the party in Iowa. The revulsion of feeling against those responsible for the instructions has been intensified by the defeat of Hearst at the St Louis convention. the St. Louis convention.

The success of the conservative ele-ment in St. Louis has given courage and strength to the Gold Democrats of Iowa, and they are determined to crush the op-position unless the latter give in. De-spite the strenuous efforts of the har-monitors, the charges of conciliation the spite the strenuous efforts of the har-monizers, the chances of conciliating the two factions appear exceedingly alim, and unless all signs fail tomorrow's cap-vention will witness a hopeless split in the party.

"Betsy" is the title of a comedy which pleased the patrons of the Baker theatre last night. It is a bright and snappy play, with a hurried movement and a laugh in every line and situation.

and a laugh in every line and situation. For three acts the audience is kept in a ripple of excitement, wondering what the next joke will be.

Guz Standing in the role of Captain McManus, who gets the worst of his associations with younger scape-graces, takes the lead in the play and is in a good position to demonstrate his versatility. Carlysie Moore, as the coddled son: William Bernard, as an accomson; William Bernard, as an accom-plished tutor; Charles McKay and Scott plished tutor; Charles McKay and Scott Cooper, all take prominent parts and sustain their characters well.

Miss Reals ably acquitted herself as the young matron, who falls a victim to circumstances, and Dallas Tyler is happily cast in her part. Marie Boland, as the devoted mother, acted her part to perfection, and Mrs. Bernard was charming as the dashing music teacher. This comedy will be the bill for the week.

MRS. CARTER TONIGHT. Mrs. Leslie Carter arrived from Cali-fornia with her big company on an early train this morning and will open the Co-lumbia theatre tonight with David Be-lasco's famous production of "Du Barry."

City of Mexico, July 18.—The memory of Benito Jaurez, the liberal party president and one of the founders of the republic, was honored today as usual by memorial exercises on the occasion of the anniversary of his birth. A long procession marched to the cemetery of San Ferdinando wherein lie the remains of the illustrious soldier, who led the successful struggles against the Maximilian empire.

The participants in the celebration included representatives of scientific bodies, working men's societies, members of the liberal patriotic committee and members of the federal, district and city government. The speakers included President Diaz, Senor Corral, the new vice-president of the republic, members of the cabinet and a number of other public men.

POURD STATUE OF APOLLO.

Issued is a red letter event in local the-atrical history. It means that Portland is to see the production which ran to capacity in New York for more than a year, and at every performance every sear in the theatre was sold. It is the greatest company that ever loft the east for the Pacific coast, and is more elaborate and beautiful than the most experienced first-nighter is prepared for.

The Columbia has secured Mrs. Carter for the premier performance and those who attend this week will praise the handsome theatre. Everything in the house is of the most modern style, and the furnishings have been made without regard to cost. The theatre is now in all essentials complete for the appearance of Mrs. Carter.

The engagement of Mrs. Carter is for the current week, with a matinee next Saturday afternoon. The advance sale has been remarkably large, and indicates that nearly every one in Portland is desirous of attending the Columbia theatre in the first week of its existence. The house is practically sold out for tonight.
