SENSATIONAL SALE OF NEW, MID-SUMMER MILLINERY

A letter came on Saturday from our Mr. Hamburger, the popular chief of our famous Millinery Salons. He says: "I have shipped you some of the very latest novelties in New York in our line. Hats that are counterparts of what we see here nightly at the roof gardens, along the fashionable drives and at Atlantic City. Don't mark any profit on them, some are bo't away under price. Give them to our summer patrons at cost. We'll have no dull season this year in the millinery." "Horders, his horders, sir"—Your will shall be obeyed. The hats are here—the counterparts of those you'll see along the Atlantic boardwalks today, and we're just going to turn 'em over to you for the fun of doing business during a generally dead season—the profits are all yours and in many instances much of the maker's cost.

Women's $13.50 to $22.50 Silk Shirtwaist Suits $9.98

$25.00 to $35.00 Silk Shirtwaist Suits $15.95

100 pretty Silk Shirtwaist Suits. It's the end of the season for the makers and the end of profits. Our buyer, now in New York, selected these as a veritable bargain find from one of the best-known makers in the country, and sent them here to us at about half last month's price. With the lot we've combined others from our own superb stock, making in all a splendid bargain offering of these much-wanted, jaunty, modish suits. That's the whole story about the bargains. All the wanted colors are here and every new and stylish pattern. From our knowledge of what these suits are worth, their materials, put together and finish, we will stake our reputation on the assertion that no suits advertised in Portland this year—within five dollars of the price we sell you these for—can in any way compare with them. There's all the plain colors now in vogue. Fancy patterns and changeable silks, black and white pin and medium checks and dots; shorted, additional stripe in gun-metal and white, green and white, brown and white, etc.; all sizes.

THESE SUITS HAVE NOTHING IN COMMON WITH ANY OTHERS THAT MAY BE ADVERTISED BY OUR "SHADOWS" AT ANYWHERE NEAR THE PRICE. A FEW POINTS OF "DIFFERENCE."

WHERE THESE SUITS DIFFER FROM ANY OTHERS

- SILK—Taffeta silk used is much heavier, though not stiff or starch. It is a regular One Dollar quality.
- SEAMS—All seams are French folded, by the new process, insuring added strength.
- SKIRT—Skirt is cut from plenty of material, allowing for full flare, according to present fashion.
- BLOUSE—Blouse and sleeves are very full and properly proportioned.
- TRIMMING—Blouse and skirt are not only elaborately pleated, but blouse has additional trimmings on center panel; all pleats have several rows of stitching.
- COLORS—Includes the plain colors and black. This lot offers the newest pin checks and hairline stripes—in gun-metal and white, green and white, brown and white, etc.; all sizes.
