There was a clash of arms between Carrie Breedlove and Carlotta Wingler at First and Morrison streets Monday. One fancied the other used influence with the proprietor of a restaurant there and that she thereby lost her position. Miss Wingler attacked Miss Breedlove and the result was she landed in the municipal court this morning being charged with threatening to kill. The case was continued until tomorrow. Jealousy is said to be at the bottom of the trouble. Both women are waitresses. Miss Wingler now holds the position formerly held by Miss Breedlove.

WILL FREIGHT ORE BY MULE TEAMS

John McIntyre of this city, left this week for seastern Oregon counties to purchase a lot of mules to be used in freighting metal from the Taklima Smelting company's mines from Waldo, Josephine county, to the railroad at Grants Pass. The company has extensive copper mines at Waldo, and is now putting in a large smelter to handle the ore, several carloads of the machinery having already reached Grants Pass. After the ore has been run through the Accused of endeavoring to smuggle a package of yen shee, a form of opium, Bok How was arrested today by Deputy Sheriffs Moreland and Cordano. He tried to slip the contraband article to his countryman on a street car, but was detected by the deputies.

How was taken to the county jall and an information charging him with having the opium in his possession laid in the justice court. He was released on bonds.

in the justice court. He was released on bonds.

All the white men and Chinese concerned in the raid made by Sheriff Word Wednesday night were taken before Justice Seton this morning. They were arraigned and pleas of not guilty entered. The white prisoners and Wah Gee, proprietor of the place, were placed on trial this afternoon. A number of the other Chinese will be tried tomorrow and the rest on Monday morning.

ALMOST A MOS AT ST. JOSHPH.

At last he has resorted to other means, so it is stated to secure a permit to run his house. J. B. Moore has applied for a license to conduct a saldon at the corner and if successful, it is rumored, that he will turn the management of the place over to Patterson.

Recently the application came before the liquor license committee with the result that no permit was granted. Now an attempt is being made to have the matter acted upon at a special meeting of the committee and it has been stated that Moore's attorney is confident of securing the permit to conduct a saloon.

No Discouragement.
